

Fortune 267

Chapter 267: Tier Two Body Cultivator, 800-Year Lifespan, Comparable to Peng Zu_3

This is because, although demonic cultivation techniques have significant side effects, they can be mastered quickly and possess immense power.

As for orthodox cultivation methods, even after cultivating for decades, progress may still be minimal.

But with demonic cultivation techniques, even after just a few years of practice, breakthroughs can be continuously made, and one may even advance to Foundation Establishment.

In this case, which low-qualified loose cultivator could resist such temptation?

Once these demonic cultivation techniques are obtained, many loose cultivators can immediately transform into demon cultivators.

Therefore, demon cultivators are endless and indescribable.

Because any loose cultivator can switch to becoming a demon cultivator at any time.

Even if everyone knows that demon cultivators are as good as criminals, it is still impossible to prohibit them.

"To be honest, I think Yunlai City is already the safest place now."

"It's even more dangerous outside."

"Staying in Yunlai City, at least there is a spirit vein to aid in cultivation, protected by the Tier Three Array."

"Those demon beasts and demon cultivators outside can't break in."

"But once you leave, you're all alone, and it's impossible to withstand these enemies."

A cultivator said with much emotion.

After much thought, he still felt that staying in Yunlai City was a bit more secure.

"Haha, who doesn't know that."

"But the rent in Yunlai City is really too expensive."

"It's simply as precious as gold."

"Loose cultivators like us can't afford to live in houses here."

"If I don't go out to earn spirit stones, I might just be kicked out."

Many loose cultivators said helplessly.

Obviously, for ordinary loose cultivators, even renting a place in Yunlai City is a very difficult task.

Every loose cultivator is basically struggling to survive.

"Demon cultivators actually appeared?!"

Upon hearing these words, Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a glint of shrewdness.

He immediately remembered the hint from the Fortune-Telling Talisman before. If he left Yunlai City, it would be a sign of great misfortune, and there might even be a calamity.

Now it seemed this was also confirmed with the mysterious demon cultivators.

If he left, he might be targeted by demon cultivators.

Even if he wasn't killed by demon cultivators by then, he would definitely lose many of his hidden cards.

Completely not worth the loss.

At the same time, joining the powers within Yunlai City was also extremely dangerous.

He would definitely face rebellion from the Wu Family and other Foundation Establishment Clans, experiencing considerable tribulation.

Perhaps, under a desperate counterattack from the other side, he would also be severely injured.

There might even be a continuous stream of troubles, getting mired in difficulties.

He might even be targeted by the Golden Core Zhenren Daoist Fei Lian, becoming a thorn in their side.

Instead, he hid his cultivation and quietly stayed in Yunlai City.

Not only did he avoid the calamity of the demon cultivators, but also steered clear of Yunlai City's tribulations, allowing him to cultivate peacefully.

Watching the clouds rise and fall.

Eventually, most of the treasures the Wu Family left behind fell into his hands.

More importantly, he did not get involved in too much karma, silently reaping many opportunities.

"The Fortune-Telling Talisman is indeed wondrous."

"It truly can seek fortune and avoid evil, preventing problems before they arise."

Jiang Fan felt quite emotional.

Even with just the proficient level Fortune-Telling Talisman, it had already helped him to such an extent.

If it advanced to mastery or great success level, what kind of abilities would it possess?

He felt that this talisman would definitely become one of the most important life talismans he carried.

However, constantly improving the skill level of this talisman is not an easy task.

It still requires him to incessantly consume his own destiny, using this talisman, to possibly succeed.

There is no shortcut.
