

Fortune 274

Chapter 274: Once Again Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, Calamity Does Not Befall

Moreover, if you calculate carefully, the Luck Points on him have already reached as many as fifty thousand.

Jiang Fan felt that he was unprecedentedly wealthy.

After escaping the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range, he obtained dense spiritual energy, practically imbued with great luck.

He couldn't even imagine what extent his cultivation could be enhanced with fifty thousand Luck Points.

"But what exactly is this place?"

Jiang Fan glanced around; he felt he needed to first know his current location.

Boom~~

His Spiritual Sense expanded outward, perceiving the surroundings.

At the first moment, he noticed that the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi here was much richer than that of the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range.

At least several times denser.

Undoubtedly, this must be a great place for cultivation.

Swish!

Jiang Fan didn't hesitate, holding Su Weiwei, and swiftly left this place.

He activated the power of the Light Body Talisman, flying in mid-air.

In no time, crossing one peak after another, he discovered a market not far away.

A large number of cultivators were coming and going in the market, very bustling.

.....

One day later.

Jiang Fan settled down in this market, through conversations with surrounding cultivators, he learned this place is the Green River Market.

It belongs to the Independent Practitioner Market under the rule of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect, a Nascent Soul Sect.

The distance from the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range is at least two hundred thousand kilometers.

One could say it's quite distant.

Of course, it is not an insurmountable distance.

In fact, the Great Sun Sword Sect and various Golden Core Sects also have close ties with this place.

From time to time, they would send ships here to purchase various high-tier cultivation resources.

However, for ordinary loose cultivators, wanting to cross such a long distance and reach the region of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect is really too hard, almost an impossible task.

If he hadn't used the Teleportation Array this time, he estimated he wouldn't have been able to reach this place so quickly.

"I've actually arrived at the territory of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect?!"

"Looks like you've reached the coastal region on the eastern side of the Southern Continent."

Daoist Wan Hua's Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace said.

"Southern Continent?"

Jiang Fan curiously looked at the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, feeling it knew more about the Cultivation Realm than he did.

After all, the other had followed Daoist Wan Hua for a thousand years, an experience full of understanding.

Moreover, he himself was just a newbie in the Cultivation Realm for only a year or two.

Even though he became a Foundation Establishment Cultivator, he was still quite unknowledgeable about the Cultivation Realm.

"Indeed, this realm is called the Celestial Cyan Realm."

"It consists of four supercontinents."

"They are called the Eastern Continent, Western Continent, Southern Continent, and Northern Continent."

"Currently, we are in the Southern Continent."

"Originally, the Southern Continent had no humans."

"But tens of thousands of years ago, a group of sect cultivators from other continents migrated here."

"Becoming the first batch of human cultivators in the Southern Continent."

"Tens of thousands of years later, humans have spread throughout the Southern Continent, continuously expanding territories, establishing kingdoms and sects."

"As of today, human influences cover significant areas of the Southern Continent."

"Of course, relative to the vast Southern Continent, the areas occupied by humans are quite sparse."

"Estimated to be less than one percent of it."

"Most areas are still occupied by demon beasts."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace explained briefly about the history of the Southern Continent.

For the Celestial Cyan Realm, the Southern Continent is relatively desolate.

Compared to continents like East and West, its cultivation pace is considered slow.

Basically, the strongest force in the Southern Continent is only the Nascent Soul Sect.

To find Divinity Transformation influences, one probably has to go to places like the Eastern Continent.

The problem is that the distances between continents are just too far.

Often spanning billions of kilometers.

Even Divinity Transformation Cultivators flying for thousands of years would find it difficult to cross such vast oceans.

Therefore, there are essentially no exchanges between continents.

Even Daoist Wan Hua spent his whole life cultivating in the Southern Continent, never having the chance to visit other continents.

If he really set out, he estimated his lifespan would run out, dying halfway.

"Celestial Cyan Realm?"

Jiang Fan couldn't help but nod.

If it weren't for the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, the specific situation of the Cultivation Realm would still be a mystery to him.

Previously, the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range where he was, and the Wei Kingdom were just small places on the Southern Continent.

And quite remote and desolate.

Only the areas where the Nascent Soul Sect is located are considered the bustling places of the Southern Continent.

"But don't think staying within the Nascent Soul Sect's influence is very safe."

"Factually, it could be more dangerous than the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range."

"Because the Profound Celestial Sword Sect is located in the coastal area of the Southern Continent, it often encounters demon beasts from the depths of the ocean and occasionally beast tides."

"Those oceanic demon beasts are numerous, fiercely combative, ordinary human cultivators are not their match at all."

"Besides, there are many demon cultivators hiding within, waiting to wreak havoc."

"Once, Daoist Wan Hua was ambushed by demon cultivators in this region, suffering grave injuries."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace seriously reminded.

Even though the Profound Celestial Sword Sect is a renowned righteous sect, under their rule, there's a semblance of peace.

But the undercurrent turmoil is not small at all.

Being slightly careless, even a Foundation Establishment Cultivator could perish.

After all, in such a place, what does a Foundation Establishment Cultivator count for?

Just a slightly bigger ant.

Swish swish swish!!

Right at this moment, a group of sword cultivators suddenly appeared in the sky.
