Chapter 305: Harvesting Sixth-Grade Opportunity, Spirit Medicine Soul Infant Fruit

"Thank you, Fellow Daoist Jiang."

"If not for Fellow Daoist Jiang's assistance, we would have been completely doomed."

Elder Alchemist Wei Song looked at Jiang Fan with great appreciation.

He never expected that this newcomer at Foundation Establishment possessed such formidable strength.

If it weren't for Jiang Fan's intervention, they would surely have faced certain death.

The other Foundation Establishment cultivators nodded in agreement.

Although Jiang Fan's true strength might not be much superior to theirs, his magic prowess is exceptionally powerful.

He just happened to perfectly restrain this group of Foundation Establishment demon cultivators.

That's why this battle was so effortless, without even breaking a sweat.

It can be said that the person who contributed the most to the victory in this battle was definitely Jiang Fan.

"You can't say that."

"I was merely saving myself."

"Besides, we are all cultivators of Seven Stars Peak, we look out for each other."

"There's no need for thanks."

Jiang Fan said modestly.

Upon hearing this, Wei Song and the others felt very at ease and were even more satisfied.

This young Foundation Establishment cultivator not only has great strength but is also extremely humble and considerate to others.

Interacting with him is like a breath of fresh spring.

"By the way, I have a feeling that this group of demon cultivators isn't so simple."

"There might be accomplices."

"Now isn't the time to relax yet."

Jiang Fan reminded.

From the information hinted by the fortune-telling talisman earlier, he could tell that this group of Foundation Establishment demon cultivators had been plotting against Seven Stars Peak for a long time, and there might be more demon cultivators hidden nearby.

That's why the fortune-telling talisman indicated to him that he should fight head-on and not evade.

Escaping would lead to a dead end.

Only by facing the challenge and slaying these demon cultivators is there a way to survive.

"Fellow Daoist Jiang is right, now is indeed not the time to lower our guard."

"No one knows if this group of demon cultivators has any other accomplices."

"I'll use the communication talisman now to notify the cultivators of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect to come and deal with this group of demon cultivators."

Elder Alchemist Wei Song greatly admired Jiang Fan's vigilance.

Only cautious and careful cultivators can survive for a long time in the harsh cultivation realm.

Anyone who is careless will eventually be killed by calamities.

"By the way, there's one more thing."

"I hope everyone will keep my ability to control the power of celestial thunder a secret."

"After all, there are still many demon cultivators hiding nearby."

"Perhaps some are still watching us at Seven Stars Peak."

"If my trump card gets exposed, next time it might not be as effective."

"The success this time was merely due to catching them off guard."

Jiang Fan said solemnly.

"Rest assured, Fellow Daoist Jiang, we will certainly keep it a secret."

Chang Lisheng and the others instantly responded solemnly, nodding in agreement.

They initially intended to spread the news, but now it seems that doing so wouldn't be beneficial.

Instead, it might be detrimental to themselves.

Considering how dangerous it is within the territory of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect right now.

The turbulence makes it frequent for demon cultivators to appear.

If Seven Stars Peak conceals a thunder cultivator, it's definitely one of their greatest trump cards.

At a crucial moment, this can catch the enemy off guard.

This incident was precisely the case.

If not for this group of Foundation Establishment demon cultivators' carelessness, unaware of Jiang Fan's strength, they wouldn't have been killed so swiftly.

Therefore, helping to conceal Jiang Fan's strength is undoubtedly beneficial to them.

"Then, thank you all."

Jiang Fan nodded, casually reminding them.

Even if they leaked it, it would be fine, as he has many trump cards.

But if it can be kept secret, it's naturally better to keep it secret.

"Damn it, these demon cultivators were all paupers."

"They don't even have a storage bag on them."

Fan Wenli stepped forward, trying to find the treasures left by this group of Foundation Establishment demon cultivators.

But he only saw a pile of black residue, not even a storage bag.

Apparently, even though they eliminated this group of Foundation Establishment demon cultivators, there was no gain.

It was just a loss.

The other Foundation Establishment cultivators were helpless too.

They were used to it.

Since many demon cultivators don't have much wealth, they are even poorer than ordinary loose cultivators.

And when they act, they don't carry their wealth with them.

This also leads to defeating them without reaping much reward.

...

Another day passed.

Upon receiving the news, the cultivators from the Profound Celestial Sword Sect quickly arrived.

They then tracked the aura of this group of demon cultivators.

Sure enough, they found traces of hidden demon cultivators near Seven Stars Peak.

Unfortunately, these places had long been deserted.

Apparently, seeing the unfavorable situation, the demon cultivators had fled swiftly, naturally not staying at the original location.

"Fellow Daoist Jiang, as you expected."

"There are indeed accomplices nearby."

"Fortunately, we didn't leave Seven Stars Peak."

"Otherwise, we might have encountered their ambush."

Upon hearing this news, Elder Alchemist Wei Song and the others all felt a thrill, realizing the peril.

If they had carelessly left Seven Stars Peak, they might have been killed by the demon cultivators lurking around.

"It was just a simple guess."

"I didn't expect this group of demon cultivators to be so vicious."

"But why does this group of demon cultivators keep causing trouble in the Profound Celestial Sword Sect?"

"Even though they can't cause any real harm, why do they persist?"

Jiang Fan asked.

He had anticipated these events earlier, as the fortune-telling talisman predicted quite accurately.

Evidently, these demon cultivators came prepared.

If he had chosen to flee before, he would certainly have encountered the ambush by nearby demon cultivators, facing a dire situation.
