

Fortune 306

Chapter 306: Harvesting Sixth-Grade Opportunity, Spirit Medicine Soul Infant Fruit_2

Even if you choose to fight against the demon cultivators, putting in effort without genuine force could lead to dire consequences.

This would cause nearby demon cultivators to swarm in, obliterating Seven Stars Peak.

However, by putting in all my effort and swiftly eliminating Zhang Zichao and other Foundation Establishment demon cultivators, it has instead intimidated the hidden demon cultivators nearby, making them dare not act recklessly.

After all, they haven't arrived at Seven Stars Peak, and aren't sure if there are any traps inside.

Rushing over might just fall into an ambush.

After considering it, the group of demon cultivators still didn't dare take the risk, choosing to leave instead.

So this instead resolved a disaster.

It's the so-called "the brave emerge victorious in a narrow path."

Sometimes running isn't the best option; facing the challenge head-on is the key to solving the problem.

"If I'm not mistaken, the cultivators from the Heart Demon Sect have gigantic ambitions."

Their target might be the Demon Suppression Tower of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect.

Elder Alchemist Wei Song's eyes flickered as he shared his guess.

"Demon Suppression Tower? What's that?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously, since he wasn't very familiar with the Profound Celestial Sword Sect.

"The so-called Demon Suppression Tower is a sect treasure of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect, immensely powerful."

"It's a prison for suppressing demon cultivators and demons."

"After all, some high-tier demon cultivators are hard to kill using ordinary means."

"But it's also impossible to let them go, so the cultivators of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect capture these high-tier demon cultivators."

"And imprison them in the Demon Suppression Tower."

"They hope to use the power of the Demon Suppression Tower to erode their strength, causing them to exhaust their essence and perish."

"Over time, the Demon Suppression Tower has become a gigantic territory, renowned throughout the world."

"However, this place also became a thorn in the side of the demon cultivators."

Elder Alchemist Wei Song explained.

"Are those demon cultivators trying to seize the chance to attack the Demon Suppression Tower and release the high-tier demon cultivators inside?"

Jiang Fan immediately grasped this point.

The group of demon cultivators recklessly causes trouble across the Profound Celestial Sword Sect's lands, wearing out the sect's cultivators with continuous missions.

It could ultimately lead to vulnerabilities within the Profound Celestial Sword Sect.

At that time, the demon cultivators might launch a full assault on the Profound Celestial Sword Sect, attacking the Demon Suppression Tower, releasing the demon cultivators inside, and brewing a terrifying demon calamity.

"Indeed, this is actually a suspicion among many cultivators."

"The cultivators of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect also harbor doubts about this."

"Otherwise, over the years, the actions of the demon cultivators wouldn't have been this frequent."

"It gives the impression of constantly trying to exhaust the strength of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect."

"But this is just speculation."

"No one knows the true purpose of the Heart Demon Sect."

"It could also be a diversion, intended to cover the real goal of the Heart Demon Sect."

Elder Alchemist Wei Song shook his head.

As of now, no one knows the true purpose of the Heart Demon Sect.

Even low-tier demon cultivators are unaware, as they are merely executing the orders of their higher-ups.

Only the high-level cultivators of the Heart Demon Sect would know the real purpose of their actions.

Unfortunately, this isn't something that these loose cultivators can know.

"If the Heart Demon Sect and the Profound Celestial Sword Sect were to go to war, it would be perilous."

"The resulting upheaval would be tens or even a hundred times greater than it is now."

Chang Lisheng worriedly said.

To be honest, the war with the Shennong Sect is nothing compared to this.

Even if the Profound Celestial Sword Sect fails and this region is controlled by the Shennong Sect, for ordinary loose cultivators, it would basically just mean a change of ruler.

But if controlled by the Heart Demon Sect, this region would become a purgatory.

Then, even surviving would be difficult.

Even serving as dogs for the demon cultivators might not guarantee survival.

It's safe to say that they have been at irreconcilable conflict with the demonic cultivators.

Jiang Fan beside them said nothing, merely listening silently.

Boom~~

At that moment, a message instantly penetrated into the depths of his consciousness: "Encountering numerous Foundation Establishment demon cultivators, you fought desperately, surviving countless near-death experiences, and ultimately counterattacked those Foundation Establishment demon cultivators, narrowly surviving, you earned 20,000 Luck Points and a Sixth-Grade Opportunity."

Sensing this message, Jiang Fan was immediately delighted.

The reward finally arrived.

Previously, it hadn't been received because the calamity hadn't been completely overcome.

But with the arrival of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect's cultivators, the nearby demon cultivators were scared away.

Thus, he finally completely overcame this calamity.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan gently clicked the opportunity light point.

Another message surged into his brain: "Immediately proceed 43 kilometers northeast, in a cave, to obtain the Sixth-Grade Opportunity."

.....

One day passed.

Jiang Fan silently left the cave abode at Seven Stars Peak, heading in the direction indicated by the opportunity.

In no time, he had arrived at the location of the Sixth-Grade Opportunity.

It was a cave on an unnamed mountain peak.

It seemed unremarkable, as there were many peaks and caves nearby.

If it weren't for the hint of opportunity, he wouldn't have been able to find this place precisely.

Swoosh!

He flashed into the cave immediately.

Inside, it was pitch black without any light.

However, under the perception of Spiritual Sense, he could see through it clearly.

This Sixth-Grade Opportunity was buried deep within the earth in the cave.

Jiang Fan immediately started digging, creating a deep pit, dirt splattering, and soon discovered an ancient-looking Space Ring. He wondered what treasures might be inside.

"No way, who exactly hid a Space Ring here?"

"Without the hint of opportunity, it would be impossible to find."

Jiang Fan was quite astonished.

After all, if a Space Ring was randomly buried deep in the ground, ordinary cultivators wouldn't be able to detect it.

It's like finding a needle in a haystack.

Only by chance and coincidence could it be obtained.

If it wasn't for the hint of opportunity, he wouldn't have been able to find this Space Ring.

Boom~~

With this thought, he moved with determination, and his Spiritual Sense penetrated inside; he immediately discovered a gray wooden box stored within the Space Ring. Inside the gray wooden box was a sealed Spirit Fruit.

It was blood-red throughout, but its appearance resembled that of a baby, with a rich aura of Spirit Medicine exuding from it.

Without a doubt, this was no ordinary Spirit Fruit; it was quite extraordinary.

Swoosh!

Jiang Fan instantly took out the gray wooden box.

"No way, this is a Soul Infant Fruit."

"An extremely precious Spirit Medicine."

"It's said to be a fruit formed by the Soul Infant Tree—a Demon Path Sacred Tree."

"It requires the devouring of countless souls to condense into a Soul Dao Fruit."

"After consumption, it can greatly increase a cultivator's Soul Power."

"It might even enhance the cultivator's perception to some extent."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace immediately recognized the origin of this blood-red fruit and was utterly amazed.

Even though it had accompanied Daoist Wan Hua for so long, it had only read about similar fruits in ancient texts, but had never seen them in reality.

Because this was a Spirit Fruit from the Demon Dao, containing endless mysteries.

"A Soul Infant Fruit? A Spirit Fruit from the Demon Dao?"

"Could there be any side effects?"

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered.

He thought this fruit might have come from some Demon Cultivator.

The person obtained this Spirit Fruit by luck but didn't dare let it be discovered, so they buried it here.

Waiting to retrieve it later.

But now he had found it effortlessly.

This is tantamount to seizing the other person's opportunity.

Of course, he didn't know whether that Demon Cultivator was dead or alive; maybe he was long gone.

Considering the extremely high mortality rate of Demon Cultivators.

"No, no side effects."

"This is among the few Spirit Fruits from the Demon Dao without any side effects."

"But to nurture this kind of Spirit Fruit, countless creatures must be killed."

"Its maturation is built upon countless souls."

"However, its effects are indeed stunning."

"After consumption, it greatly enhances your Soul Power, allowing you to possess a powerful Soul."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace explained.

"It truly seems to be an extremely valuable Spirit Fruit."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

Although his Soul Talent far exceeded that of cultivators of the same tier, it didn't mean he had reached the limit.

Within the Cultivation Realm, there are still numerous treasures of heaven and earth that can enhance Soul Talent.

The Soul Infant Fruit is one such treasure.

Originally, his soul was already extraordinarily gifted.

If he consumed the Soul Infant Fruit as well, he would be unstoppable, like adding wings to a tiger.

This Sixth-Grade Opportunity brought tremendous benefits to him.

Swoosh!

With this thought, Jiang Fan did not hesitate; he quickly put away the Soul Infant Fruit.

Then swiftly covered up the traces here, restrained his aura.

Immediately after, he quickly departed.

This way, even if the owner of the Soul Infant Fruit came here, they wouldn't know who took the Soul Infant Fruit.