Chapter 346: Surviving the Calamity and Receiving the Fifth-Grade Opportunity_2

Clearly, this isn't a place where one can cultivate peacefully.

At this moment, he recalled the rumors about this Secret Realm World imprisoning legendary demons.

It seems the rumors might be true.

"That's right, this is indeed the Yiling Secret Realm."

"The entire Secret Realm World is composed of one hundred and eight Sky Islands."

"You are currently on the seventy-second island."

"Please try to slay as many demons as possible."

"The more demons you slay, the greater the rewards you'll receive."

At this time, another voice echoed deeply in Jiang Fan's mind.

"What's happening? Why am I hearing voices?"

Jiang Fan was startled, not knowing exactly what was going on.

"Perhaps there's more to this Secret Realm World than meets the eye."

"The speaker is likely the Array Spirit that envelops this Secret Realm World."

"Previously, it was said that this place seals an unparalleled demon, and now it seems likely to be true."

At this time, the Demon-Vibrating Bell started transmitting its Spiritual Sense.

"Array Spirit? What exactly is that?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

"The Array is generally lifeless."

"But that's only true for low-tier arrays."

"It's said that some top arrays, with the passage of time, might nurture an Array Spirit."

"Such arrays are without exception the most top-tier grand arrays in the world, containing infinite power."

"As long as the Spirit Vein remains intact, the Array Spirit can exist eternally."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell explained.

"Even arrays can possess spirits?"

Hearing this, Jiang Fan felt as though his horizons had expanded.

He knew that magical treasures could possess spirits.

However, he didn't know that arrays could also have souls.

Even though only a few top arrays might give rise to souls, it is already quite remarkable.

Originally, arrays are lifeless; if a soul were born within them, the power of the array would be unimaginable, beyond ordinary people's conceptions.

To make a comparison, he thought it should be the difference between an ordinary computer and a truly intelligent computer.

The two are simply not on the same level, differing by two dimensions.

"No wonder it can distinguish between Demon Cultivators and ordinary Cultivators autonomously."

"I presume this is all thanks to the Array Spirit."

At this time, Jiang Fan recalled various rumors about the Yiling Secret Realm.

Originally, he was puzzled by how such a Secret Realm World could accomplish these unbelievable things.

But if the Secret Realm World is governed by an Array Spirit, then it could be readily understood.

"However, there's no need for the master to worry about the presence of the Array Spirit."

"The Array Spirit is not free to act at will; it still needs to operate according to rules."

"After all, an array itself is a special set of rules."

"Its primary goal now is to suppress the unparalleled demon here."

"So, it also requires assistance from cultivators like you to weaken the demons here."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said sternly.

It deemed this Secret Realm World relatively safe.

At least, the Array Spirit does not deliberately target the cultivators entering the Yiling Secret Realm.

It might even assist cultivators entering the Secret Realm World.

After so many years, despite the Yiling Secret Realm emerging numerous times, no ill fame has spread, which indeed proves this point.

Rumbling~~

At this moment, intense vibrations suddenly emerged from the distant forest.

Accompanied by dense Demonic Qi.

The next second, dozens to hundreds of demons surged forward.

They seemed to have sensed Jiang Fan's presence.

Their eyes glowed black, as if they were eager to devour Jiang Fan's flesh.

"Seeking death."

Jiang Fan's eyes flashed with a cold glint, and without another word, he immediately activated his Life Talisman—the Celestial Thunder Talisman.

Evidently, the skill level of the Celestial Thunder Talisman had been elevated to the Great Success Level by him.

Its power compared to before was immensely more potent.

Capable of simultaneously summoning thirty-six bolts of Celestial Thunder.

Immediately, the Thunderbolt Power between heaven and earth gathered, forming thirty-six bolts of Celestial Thunder.

These bolts descended from above like raindrops, fiercely striking down.

Boom boom boom~~~

The numerous demons had never witnessed such a scene, each showing fear on their faces.

After all, Celestial Thunder is one of the most restraining forces against them.

They never would've thought this human cultivator had mastered the Power of Celestial Thunder.

Instantly, purple bolts of Celestial Thunder struck down, ruthlessly hitting these demons.

In just a split second, these demons were blasted to smithereens, their entire bodies bursting apart like watermelons, shattered to pieces, unable to endure even a second.

When the thunder's power penetrated their bodies, the Demonic Qi on them dissipated completely.

"Tsk tsk, these demons have really met their doom running into the master."

Seeing this scene, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace clicked in admiration.

Undoubtedly, if ordinary cultivators encountered so many demons, they'd face nine deaths and one life.

Because these demons are not only powerful in this simplicity but also possess the power of super-speed regeneration.

Even if their arms or legs are broken, these demons would still regenerate at high speed.

Thus, the demons' combat endurance becomes incredibly strong.

Ordinary cultivators simply cannot endure in battles with these demons.

But they were unfortunate to have encountered the Power of Celestial Thunder, which is the Power of Ultimate Yang severely restraining them.

Once they are hit, they can be annihilated instantly; their power of regeneration cannot be activated at all.

It's akin to one punch, one child, effortless.

Rumbling~~

In a short time, under Jiang Fan's Celestial Thunder Talisman's bombardment, the demons within several hundred and thousand heads around him were slaughtered completely.

No demon dared to rush forward anymore.

"The Great Success Level Celestial Thunder Talisman indeed shows merit."

Jiang Fan felt very satisfied with the power of the Celestial Thunder Talisman.

It was well worth the large spending of Luck Points to elevate the skill level of this Life Talisman to Great Success.

Once it ascended to the Great Success Level, it not only boosted destructive force but also significantly reduced Spiritual Power consumption.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to continue fighting for such an extended period.

Even after using the Celestial Thunder Talisman for so long, only a small fraction of his Primordial Spiritual Power was consumed.

Boom~~

At this moment, a message suddenly surged into the depths of his consciousness: "You've encountered a massive demon attack, falling into a death or life crisis. After fierce combat, you finally exterminated these demons, narrowly surviving a Death Tribulation. You've gained twenty thousand Luck Points along with a Fifth-Grade Opportunity."

Feeling this message, Jiang Fan blinked, feeling quite thrilled.

Entering the Yiling Secret Realm was indeed a sign of great fortune.

The twenty thousand Luck Points naturally aren't considered significant, but most importantly, it's the Fifth-Grade Opportunity.

Honestly, after cultivating for such a long time, the chances of acquiring a Fifth-Grade Opportunity can be counted on one hand.

Who could've thought, by merely entering the Yiling Secret Realm, you'd already have the chance to obtain a Fifth-Grade Opportunity.

This place indeed seems to be delivering treasures to him.

Thud!

Thinking this, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate and immediately clicked on the light point representing the Fifth-Grade Opportunity.

Then, another message came: "Travel thirty-six miles southwest, enter the depths of a cave, and you will obtain the Fifth-Grade Opportunity."

"Is it that simple?"

Perceiving this message, Jiang Fan felt quite satisfied.

Although it seemed simple, without the clues, he would most likely have missed the chance to get this Fifth-Grade Opportunity.

So he didn't hesitate any further.

Whoosh!

Jiang Fan immediately activated the Light Body Talisman, gliding through the air like a bird, heading southwest.

Along the way, he naturally encountered many demons.

But none of these demons were a match for him.

Often with just a single strike of the Celestial Thunder, these demons disintegrated.

It was almost like high-altitude bombardment.

Before long, Jiang Fan arrived in front of a mountainous area and at first glance noticed a hidden cave in the mountain, which would be difficult to discover if not observed closely.

He flashed his figure, walking straight into the cave.

Upon reaching the deepest part of the cave, Jiang Fan saw an ancient gray Treasure Tower embedded in the ground. It appeared to be just an ornament, ordinary and unremarkable.

However, he knew this ancient Treasure Tower was the Fifth-Grade Opportunity he was about to obtain this time.

His instincts told him that this was undoubtedly an ancient magical treasure comparable to the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace and the Demon-Vibrating Bell.
