Clearly, the Celestial Thunder Talisman and Perception Talisman have reached the Perfection Level, so they disappeared from the virtual panel.

After all, they have already reached perfection, so there's no need for them to appear again.

A lot of luck points have been consumed from my body as well.

Currently, only 110,000 are left; most of the luck points obtained before have been entirely consumed.

But all this is worth it.

After all, the function of the Perception Talisman is indeed tremendous.

He believes that the next Life Talismans to reach perfection should be the Soul-Shaking Talisman and the Enchantment Talisman.

Because these also belong to the soul-type talismans.

Both are the same.

So it's easier to increase their skill level.

"However, the cultivation is still progressing too slowly."

"Without the assistance of Tier Two Elixirs, it's still very difficult to quickly improve cultivation."

"I guess I need to buy some Tier Two Elixirs."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

To be honest, it's quite simple to buy Tier Two Elixirs.

Each major Golden Core Influence holds auctions.

These auctions often feature Tier Two Elixirs, and many Foundation Establishment Cultivators will bid for them.

The most famous auction is naturally from the Fish Dragon Island Influence.

It's said that Fish Dragon Island has many alchemists capable of refining large quantities of elixirs each year.

Many cultivators come here for that reason.

That's why Fish Dragon Island developed so quickly.

It's actually very easy to get to Fish Dragon Island.

There are flights available from Red Whale Island to Fish Dragon Island almost daily.

It's completely possible to take a spaceship.

Although it costs a considerable number of spirit stones, it is safe.

However, Jiang Fan doesn't want his movements exposed to other cultivators, so he plans to rely on the Light Body Talisman to get there.

After all, after breaking through with the Soaring Snake Technique, his Bloodline Divine Power Palm Wind's capabilities have become even more formidable.

This has also doubled the speed of his Light Body Talisman.

Moreover, the consumption of spiritual power has greatly reduced.

It can be said that his speed is not inferior to a Tier Two spaceship, perhaps even surpassing it.

There's no need to take a spaceship.

Also, being alone is indeed more relaxed and more secretive.

Whoosh!

With this thought in mind, after whispering to Su Weiwei, Jiang Fan quietly headed to Fish Dragon Island.

In just two or three days, he crossed the vast sea and reached the famous commercial island, Fish Dragon Island.

"So this is Fish Dragon Island?"

After entering Fish Dragon Island, Jiang Fan knew that it must be one of the most prosperous islands in the Yiling Island Group.

Its area is several times larger than Red Whale Island.

Commercial districts were built one after another.

A large number of cultivators reside on it.

The hustle and bustle is unceasing.

You can basically buy anything you want here; it's a gold sink.

Moreover, Foundation Establishment Cultivators are quite common here.

However, Golden Core Cultivators are still scarce.

After all, in this vast sea area, Golden Core Cultivators are still a minority.

But this is enough, as for now, he only needs Tier Two resources.

In no time, Jiang Fan reached the auction on Fish Dragon Island.

As the Yiling Secret Realm had just ended, many Foundation Establishment Cultivators gained opportunities, thus making a fortune.

So many Foundation Establishment Cultivators came here to auction the treasures they obtained.

A large number of treasures flowed out.

It's considered a rare event in this sea area.

"White Cold Sword, a Top-Grade Spiritual Artifact. Once wielded, it can invoke Extreme Cold Power while being indestructible, with astonishing power, starting bid at 50,000 spirit stones, first come, first served."

"Tier Two Array Plate, Five Elements Spirit Gathering Array, it has the ability for gathering spirit, defense, among others, the coverage can reach a hundred miles, it can operate with spirit veins or by consuming spirit stones, able to withstand the attack of multiple late-stage Foundation Establishment cultivators for the time it takes an incense to burn, starting bid at 200,000 spirit stones, if you miss this chance, there's no telling when the next one will come."

"Tier Two Spirit Medicine Extreme Cold Ganoderma, it has 200 years of medicinal power, grows in locations of extreme cold, can be consumed directly or used in elixir refining, starting bid at 10,000 spirit stones."

"Tier Two Superior Elixir Cyan Flame Pill, the main ingredients are Centennial Spirit Medicine Cyan Flame Grass, Black Gastrodia. Once consumed, the medicinal power is like a flame, fierce and rapid, capable of quickly boosting spiritual power within, this masterwork is starting at 30,000 spirit stones per bottle, if you miss it, you might not get another chance, I hope you all seize the opportunity."

One auction item after another was brought out on the stage.

Instantly prompting a large number of Foundation Establishment Cultivators to bid, for normally, where would so many treasures appear.

But now, as many cultivators have obtained opportunities, all major forces are willing to bring them out and harvest a batch.

"Indeed, coming here was the right choice."

"To think there are so many Tier Two Elixirs."

"And even Spirit Medicines."

Seeing these auction items, Jiang Fan's eyes glinted with excitement.
