Chapter 374: Consuming the Cyan Flame Pill, Advancing to Seventh-Layer Foundation Establishment_2

Such enormous wealth, even a cultivator who has just entered the Golden Core stage might not possess such riches.

Even if a Foundation Establishment Clan accumulated wealth for hundreds of years, it might only be like this.

But now, merely through a single black-on-black operation, such astounding wealth has been procured.

It's truly beyond imagination.

More importantly, this incident was entirely pinned on those Foundation Establishment Tribulation Cultivators.

Thus, I can stay uninvolved completely.

The various Golden Core Influences of the Yiling Island Group can't possibly come looking for trouble with me.

You could say all the benefits were reaped by me, while all the disadvantages fell upon others.

This can indeed be called a win-win situation.

Originally, he spent two or three hundred thousand Spirit Stones at this auction, but in the blink of an eye, it was recuperated.

Moreover, his assets further skyrocketed.

He didn't even know what to say.

Initially, he thought he could constantly squander his wealth, but who could have foreseen, the more he squandered, the more wealth he acquired.

It's as though Spirit Stones can reproduce endlessly.

Evidently, adding all these treasures together amounts to a Sixth-Grade Opportunity.

"But most importantly, it's still about cultivation."

"As for Spirit Stones, they are merely external possessions."

"This time, I obtained the Cyan Flame Pill."

"Consuming these Tier Two Elixirs will surely advance my cultivation further."

"Perhaps I could ascend to the Seventh Layer of Foundation Establishment."

"By then, I will be a Late-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist.

Although these treasures are indeed remarkable, he has never forgotten his fundamental focus on cultivation.

Thinking of this, he sat cross-legged on the ground and took out the Cyan Flame Pill.

Then he placed these Cyan Flame Pills into the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace.

Although these Cyan Flame Pills are indeed excellent, they are merely of ordinary quality.

They contain numerous impurities and elixir poison.

Such matters might not concern ordinary Foundation Establishment cultivators.

But for Jiang Fan, he naturally needs to refine the impurities and elixir poison out of the Cyan Flame Pill completely, before consuming.

This way, not only can it significantly reduce resistance to medicinal effects, it can also enhance the medicinal power.

Rumble~~

In an instant, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace activated, rapidly refining each Cyan Flame Pill.

A large amount of black impurities were expelled.

The volume of each Cyan Flame Pill instantly halved, yet it released a rich pill fragrance.

Simultaneously, azure glow emanated, appearing utterly flawless and with a smooth exterior.

Clearly, this is the perfect quality of elixir every alchemist dreams of.

If some alchemists could see the current Cyan Flame Pills, they would surely go mad with envy.

However, for Jiang Fan, this has already become a routine matter.

Every time he purchased elixirs, they were refined into perfect quality elixirs by the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace.

Nevertheless, these elixirs were mostly consumed by him and Su Weiwei.

As he did not need to sell these perfect-quality elixirs for money.

Moreover, if massive amounts of perfect elixirs were sold off, it would certainly attract attention from some opportunists.

As for Jiang Fan, that would be far from good.

He prefers to cultivate quietly and grow steadily.

Furthermore, he doesn't lack Spirit Stones at all, so naturally, there's no need to take risks.

Thud!

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground and immediately swallowed one Cyan Flame Pill.

He activated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, rapidly refining the elixir.

Suddenly, the Cyan Flame Pill transformed into a lump of azure flame after entering his stomach.

This vast medicinal power poured deep into his meridians, surging into his limbs and bones and into his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi.

Then swallowed and absorbed by the Primordial Talisman, swiftly transformed into drops of Primordial Spiritual Power.

If it was arduous practice, devouring Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, he wouldn't know how long it would take to condense a drop of Primordial Spiritual Power, but with the auxiliary of elixirs now, the efficiency is greatly enhanced several times over.

One drop after another of Primordial Spiritual Power coalesced deep within his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi.

"Tch, no wonder he's the master, with the help of these elixirs, should soon progress to the Seventh Layer of Foundation Establishment."

"Having talent is indeed exhilarating, with almost no bottlenecks."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace praised, recalling its previous unlucky owner, Daoist Wan Hua, whose low aptitude suffered greatly and faced countless challenges.

.....

Time flew by, and soon another month had passed.

Within a quiet chamber.

Jiang Fan spent the past month absorbing the medicinal power of the Cyan Flame Pill.

The Primordial Spiritual Power deep within the Sea of Qi was continuously increasing.

The vast Primordial Spiritual Power within his body effortlessly penetrated through his myriad meridians.

Now, he had already assimilated seventy-two meridians.

Evidently, over the course of this month, the Primordial Spiritual Power within filled seventy-two secondary meridians, allowing his cultivation to easily reach the perfection of the Sixth Layer Foundation Establishment.

No doubt about it, the medicinal power of the Cyan Flame Pill is indeed extraordinary.

He has barely consumed two bottles, yet the Primordial Spiritual Power within has reached perfection of the Sixth Layer Foundation Establishment, greatly enhancing his cultivation efficiency.

Additionally, due to the perfect-quality elixir, his resistance to medicinal effects drastically decreased.

Therefore, even the remaining three bottles of Cyan Flame Pill can still enhance the Primordial Spiritual Power within.

Speeding up his cultivation pace and efficiency.

"Let's begin."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground with equanimity, his cultivation breakthrough long being a commonplace occurrence.

The Primordial Talisman deep within his Sea of Qi spun effortlessly.

It drew upon the Primordial Spiritual Power within, operating cycle after cycle.

Rumble~~

Under such attraction, the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi surged, transforming his body into a vortex of Spiritual Qi that flowed through his Spirit Root and entered his body.

At this moment, the immense Spiritual Qi infused into his body, causing the Primordial Spiritual Power to become fierce and furiously assault the bottleneck of the Seventh Layer of Foundation Establishment.

Bear in mind, between the Sixth and Seventh Layer of Foundation Establishment, despite being only one level apart, it forms a massive bottleneck between Mid-stage and Late-stage Foundation Establishment.

Countless Foundation Establishment cultivators have been stuck at this bottleneck for decades.

Sometimes, they may never break through in their entire life.

This bottleneck obstructs so many Foundation Establishment cultivators because breaking through to the Seventh Layer requires penetrating seventy-two secondary meridians completely, forming an extensive cycle.

But if a Foundation Establishment cultivator's spiritual power is not pure enough, or their meridians are not resilient enough, then during the meridian assimilation process, it might damage the body's meridians and organs.

Accumulating overtime could cause severe injuries.

By then, one might fall into demonic deviation, suffering severe injury and death.

So for commonplace Foundation Establishment cultivators, this is an almost insurmountable chasm.

Of course, for Jiang Fan, this is nothing whatsoever.

His physique had already reached the Tier Two Late Stage, each meridian exceedingly resilient, no matter how the spiritual power within crashes around, it couldn't harm the meridians in the slightest.

Moreover, having cultivated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, his Primordial Spiritual Power within is exceedingly pure, without any impurities.

So this for him is not considered bottleneck.

Utterly capable of accomplishing it in one go.

Thud!

At this moment, Jiang Fan activated the Primordial Spiritual Power within, launching an assault on the Seventh Layer of Foundation Establishment.

With merely one impact, the bottleneck of the Seventh Layer was shattered.

A brand-new meridian was effortlessly penetrated.

Seventh Layer Foundation Establishment!

Jiang Fan could sense his cultivation at this moment achieving a massive breakthrough, ascending from the Sixth Layer to the seventh layer realm, now he was a Late-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator.

For ordinary Foundation Establishment cultivators, even those with talent, must live up to a hundred and fifty years old before having a chance of reaching the Seventh Layer.

As for Jiang Fan, yet to reach thirty, had already breached the Seventh Layer.

Should this information spread, it would surely shock the entire Yiling Island Group.

Though this may also make him the target of many.

After all, a tree standing above the forest will surely be destroyed by the wind.

He wasn't foolish enough to publicly reveal his cultivation.

For cultivators, quietly gaining wealth is a wiser choice.

Besides, in the Cultivation Realm, it's hard to gauge someone's age from their appearance.

Sometimes they appear youthful, but in reality, they have lived for hundreds, even thousands of years.

So as long as Jiang Fan doesn't voluntarily reveal it, no one knows his actual age.

Currently, those Foundation Establishment cultivators on Red Whale Island assumed Jiang Fan had lived over a hundred years.
