Chapter 376: Life Talisman: Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman_2

Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman, complete!

Boom~~

Instantly, this talisman radiated a multicolored light, seemingly triggering the Power of the Five Elements between heaven and earth.

Centered around Jiang Fan's body, it was as if a Five Elements Array appeared.

The Five Elements Spiritual Qi from heaven and earth surged forth, all immersing deeply into the depths of the Primordial Talisman.

This also boosted the talisman's efficiency in devouring spiritual energy by more than double.

"Success."

Jiang Fan opened his eyes, filled with joy.

This time, to completely inscribe the Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman successfully, it exhausted a total of forty thousand Luck Points.

But it was all worthwhile.

Because even at the entry level, this Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman can unravel numerous Tier Two arrays.

If elevated to the proficient level, it can break Tier Three arrays.

At mastery level, it can break Tier Four arrays.

Reaching great success level, it can break Tier Five arrays and more.

It can be said that the role of this Life Talisman is significant enough to be used for a very lengthy period.

However, the difficulty in increasing the skill level of this Life Talisman is boundless.

No matter how difficult, the appearance of the Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman has granted him a means to crack arrays.

In the future, should he encounter some cave mansion restriction arrays, sect arrays, clan arrays, city arrays, and more, they can no longer stop him.

Even if enemies hide within an array's shell, he can easily break the array and defeat them.

Knock!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan became excited and opened the virtual panel on himself.

[Realm: Seventh-Layer Foundation Establishment (1%)]

[Profession: Tier Two Middle-Grade Rune Master (90%)]

Evidently, compared to before, his cultivation and abilities had vastly improved.

Simply incomparable.

Just inscribing the Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman consumed forty thousand Luck Points, but previously he had overcome a tribulation, gaining fifty thousand Luck Points, so he now still had 120,000 Luck Points.

His Luck Points were extraordinarily abundant now.

He could completely increase the skill level of many of his Life Talismans even higher.

"Amazingly, my wealth has reached over two million Spirit Stones."

"Truly astonishing."

"Even some ordinary Golden Core Cultivators may have just as much wealth."

Jiang Fan marveled, thinking that his level of wealth was indeed a bit exaggerated.

Other Foundation Establishment Cultivators struggled tirelessly but couldn't earn many Spirit Stones.

Even a Foundation Establishment Clan, earning tens of thousands of Spirit Stones was already quite good.

Moreover, this was for the whole clan.

Yet, currently, it's just him and his Dao Companion owning over two million Spirit Stones.

If such a sum were known, even Golden Core Zhenrens might come to rob him.

However, he certainly wouldn't be foolish enough to spread this news—silently accumulating wealth was better.

"Indeed, it's best to go black-to-black."

"If working as a Talisman Master, how many Talismans would one need to draw to earn such Spirit Stones?"

Jiang Fan sighed deeply.

He thought that even if he tirelessly drew Tier Two Talismans, with a success rate of 100%, without rest day and night, he wouldn't know how long it would take to earn a million Spirit Stones.

However, similar opportunities don't come about all the time; seizing the right moment is crucial.

No matter what, having such an opportunity once is enough to be used for a long time.

After several more days.

Jiang Fan completely solidified his seventh-layer Foundation Establishment cultivation and finally came out of seclusion.

Su Weiwei didn't come to greet him because she was currently at a critical time; she too had entered cave mansion seclusion, about to breakthrough to the Foundation Establishment Realm.

But he wasn't too worried.

Judging by Su Weiwei's qualifications and foundation, coupled with the Perfect-level Foundation Establishment Pill, advancing to Foundation Establishment was a certainty, just a matter of time.

Then he summoned the steward Yang He to inquire about any recent events.

Whoosh!

Before long, steward Yang He, having heard the command, quickly arrived, respectfully appearing before Jiang Fan.

"Have any events happened lately?"

Jiang Fan directly asked.

"Reporting to Lord Island Master."

"About more than a month ago, something terrible happened in the Fish Dragon Island sea region."

"The Red Blood Monster Zhenren led a large group of tribulation cultivators and robbed numerous ships."

"Causing severe losses to various Golden Core Influences and invoking the wrath of many Golden Core Zhenrens."

"Thus, many Golden Core Zhenrens united to plan the eradication of Red Blood Monster."

"Regrettably, the Red Blood Monster and his men fled far away, whereabouts unknown."

Steward Yang He promptly relayed the issues that occurred on Yiling Island Group recently, clearly indicating the biggest affair was the Red Blood Monster incident, which shook countless cultivators of the sea region.

Indeed, the appearance of such Golden Core Tribulation Cultivators was extremely rare.

It's unknown how many years it takes for one to appear.

"Fled? Can't they capture Red Blood Monster?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan felt relieved.

It seems the deeds he did are all being attributed to those tribulation cultivators.

After all, those tribulation cultivators have long escaped, no one knows where the loot went.

This way, no one can link this matter back to him.

"Impossible."

"The Red Blood Monster is a wanted criminal by the Profound Celestial Sword Sect."

"Even hunting by Nascent Soul Sects, he can flee, let alone Golden Core Influences."

"Knowing the Red Blood Monster fled, other Golden Core Influences were helpless and had to give up."

"But after this event, security across various islands has tightened considerably."

"Indeed, for us, it's actually a good thing."

"At least the Yiling Island Group sea region has become much safer, with no current wars."

Steward Yang He remarked.

He felt that Red Blood Monster's actions led the Yiling Island Group to become safer.

After all, the adversary caused significant losses among Golden Core Influences, leaving them unable to initiate further wars.

In comparison, the Yiling Island Group naturally became much more peaceful.

Especially for Red Whale Island Influence, there's nothing more important than peace.

Moreover, no one knows where the Red Whale Daoist is—whether in Yiling Island Group or left the sea region.

Overall, the Red Whale Island Sea Region is currently quite safe.

"Mm."

Jiang Fan nodded, feeling very satisfied.

Staying with the Red Whale Island Influence seems to be quite a correct choice.

Even though the Red Whale Daoist has indeed fled, without a Golden Core Zhenren backing Red Whale Island Influence, the sea region became safer—indeed a quite ironic outcome.

No matter what, it's indeed a great boon for him.

Rumble~~

At this moment, hundreds of kilometers began to vibrate, humming loudly.

Countless Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi gathered together, forming celestial phenomena.

"What's happening?"

Steward Yang He was instantly bewildered, having no idea what was occurring.

"Don't worry, it's my Dao Companion advancing to Foundation Establishment."

"Seems like success is imminent."

Perceiving such disturbance, Jiang Fan was delighted, feeling it was double blessings.

He had just advanced to Seventh-layer Foundation Establishment, and his Dao Companion succeeded in Foundation Establishment.

Nothing could be better than this.

"What? Advancing to Foundation Establishment?"

Hearing this, steward Yang He was astonished.

He lived so long, yet remained at Ninth-layer Qi Cultivation.

His future held no chance of advancing to Foundation Establishment.

However, Lord Island Master's Dao Companion began Foundation Establishment—the gap between people is astoundingly vast.

But he also understood everyone has their own destinies—envy is meaningless.
