Chapter 394: Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil, the Arrival of a Great Omen

Boom~~

A message instantly penetrated deep into Jiang Fan's consciousness sea.

"Profound Celestial Sword Sect catastrophe, Demon Suppression Tower turmoil, demon cultivators escaped, threatening all directions."

"Staying at Seven Stars Peak without movement poses no harm in the short term, though it may lead to hidden dangers later, minor misfortune."

"Heading to Shennong Sect territory offers an opportunity to flee, but encountering demon cultivators on the road poses a life-or-death calamity, great misfortune."

"Heading to Yiling Island Group may result in encountering a Nascent Soul, with no escape, life and death out of one's control, great misfortune."

"Strike first to gain the upper hand; if you act later, you'll be destroyed; pursue and kill the demon cultivators at Plum Blossom Village by dusk tomorrow, great fortune."

What?!

Perceiving this information, Jiang Fan's eyes flickered. Undoubtedly, the message from the Fortune-Telling Talisman this time is extremely valuable, but it also puts him at ease somewhat.

At least it is not a situation of certain death.

Among many choices, there is still one that is favorable.

This is what is called the inexhaustible path of heaven.

Without a doubt, this time the Profound Celestial Sword Sect faces a calamity, with the Demon Suppression Tower breached and numerous demon cultivators escaping, indeed causing many calamities in this territory.

If not handled properly, one might meet an untimely demise, perishing completely.

"If one stays at Seven Stars Peak to cultivate, there will be no issue in the short term, but over time one may encounter danger and calamity."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Clearly, the danger must come from those demon cultivators.

Initially, when these demon cultivators have just escaped from the Profound Celestial Sword Sect, they are in their most vulnerable state.

Naturally, they do not dare to rashly attack other powerful cultivators at this time.

So, in the short term, Seven Stars Peak is safe.

However, as time passes, as the cultivations of these demon cultivators gradually recover, the danger will naturally increase.

If these demon cultivators fully recover, it would be a catastrophe.

Hence, the saying, "Strike first to gain the upper hand; if you act later, you'll be destroyed."

If you can eliminate those demon cultivators in advance, then the future calamity can vanish unnoticed.

"Pursue and kill the demon cultivators at Plum Blossom Village?"

"Does that mean those demon cultivators are hiding at Plum Blossom Village?"

"No, not necessarily every demon cultivator is hiding there."

"But surely the most threatening demon cultivators are hiding at Plum Blossom Village."

"If they are dealt with in advance, future troubles can be prevented."

"Absolutely must not give those guys the chance to recover their cultivation."

Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a trace of coldness.

Obviously, the conflict between ordinary cultivators and demon cultivators is irreconcilable.

The two are almost like different species.

Either you die, or I perish.

Even though he doesn't fancy the Profound Celestial Sword Sect, demon cultivators are ultimately the common enemy of all cultivators.

Generally speaking, after escaping, demon cultivators hide everywhere.

Other cultivators find it hard to detect their whereabouts.

However, the Fortune-Telling Talisman predicts their whereabouts, making it impossible for them to hide or escape.

This is also his opportunity to preemptively kill these frail demon cultivators.

"Judging from the information from the Fortune-Telling Talisman, whether it's going to Shennong Sect territory or Yiling Island Group, neither is a good idea, both are omens of great misfortune."

"In the former case, you may encounter demon cultivators halfway and be killed."

"In the latter case, it would be like walking into a trap, as the mysterious Nascent Soul likely has already left means in the Yiling Island Group, so in any case, you can't go back."

"So staying in the Profound Celestial Sword Sect territory became the inevitable choice."

Jiang Fan considered his next move.

Clearly, the present territory is indeed full of crises.

If he made the wrong choice, it could lead to eternal damnation.

Thus, he had to be prudent and cautious.

The problem is that pursuing and killing demon cultivators is not easy.

After all, those demon cultivators escaped from the Demon Suppression Tower, and each is hard to kill.

With his current cultivation, can he really eliminate those demon cultivators?

However, since the Fortune-Telling Talisman prompted him to pursue and kill demon cultivators, it indicates he indeed has the means to deal with them.

Presently, aside from his Life Talisman which can restrain demon cultivators, undoubtedly the greatest means of restraint are the magical treasures he possesses.

Among them, the Demon-Vibrating Bell and Exquisite Tower are precisely magical treasures that can curb demon cultivators.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan, with a thought, immediately asked the Artifact Spirits of these two magical treasures.

"Hehe, what's so difficult about dealing with those demon cultivators?"

"Although some special demon cultivators indeed are hard to kill."

"But they can be suppressed within the inner world of my Exquisite Tower."

"And over time, these demon cultivators will be refined, becoming the soil of the inner world."

"This is one of the abilities of my Exquisite Tower."

The Ancient Treasure Exquisite Tower boasted proudly.

After spending some time together, although it was still reluctant to be refined by Jiang Fan, now that the raw rice had been cooked, the chess had been played, no matter how unwilling, it had no choice.

As Jiang Fan's cultivation continuously improved, it gradually acknowledged this new master.

"Oh, you can suppress those Undying Demon Cultivators?"

Hearing this, Jiang Fan's eyes immediately brightened, feeling very excited.

He knew the Ancient Treasure Exquisite Tower was extraordinary, but he hadn't expected it to be able to suppress demons and demon cultivators like the Demon Suppression Tower. If it truly could do that, then dealing with those demon cultivators would be a piece of cake.

No wonder the Fortune-Telling Talisman prompted him to deal with those Undying Demon Cultivators.

It is likely that it had already anticipated the power of the Ancient Treasure Exquisite Tower he possessed.

"Of course."

"In my heyday, I can't even remember how many demons I have suppressed."
