Chapter 400: Opening the Gate of the Void, Great Opportunity Arrives

"So, that's how it is."

Jiang Fan nodded.

Although he had received a lot of information from the Exquisite Tower, he also gained more doubts.

What exactly was the so-called great calamity?

Why did sects like the Taixu Sect and Primordial Talisman Sect fall and vanish from the long river of history?

Unfortunately, both the Demon-Vibrating Bell and the Exquisite Tower lost many memories due to severe damage.

They can no longer recall the events that took place in the Ancient Era.

They only occasionally remember some vague information.

"But no matter what, master, you've obtained the Gate of the Void."

"If you can use it well, you will surely soar to great heights."

"Maybe you can even restore the past glory of the Taixu Sect."

The Exquisite Tower said with great anticipation.

It felt that if its current master had such destiny, then its own injuries would likely heal, and it might even advance further.

After all, the founding ancestor of the Taixu Sect had achieved ascension.

Perhaps its master could do the same, and even ascend to the Immortal Realm with it.

By then, when one person reaches the Dao, everyone associated prospers.

"Using the Gate of the Void wisely? Currently, the Gate of the Void can be used."

"But it's all about opening a random location."

"The problem is, every time the Gate of the Void is opened, it consumes a large number of Spirit Stones."

"If it teleports to a useless place, it's pure waste of Spirit Stones, utterly meaningless."

"Luckily, I have enough luck."

"So, when I open the Gate of the Void, it will surely teleport me to a useful place."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

If other cultivators obtained the Gate of the Void, the destination would be random each time, and the destination might not be safe.

In unlucky cases, they could even encounter great dangers.

But his luck was overwhelming, ensuring that wherever the Gate of the Void randomly teleported him, there would be opportunities.

It's like how other people buying lottery tickets generally get "thank you for participating."

But every ticket he bought would surely win — that's the difference.

"But today is not a suitable day to open the Gate of the Void."

Originally, Jiang Fan wanted to try the power of the Gate of the Void, but his intuition told him that today was not the best time to open it, and this intuition was a reminder from his destiny.

So he resisted the urge to use the Gate of the Void.

After all, this treasure is with him, and he can use it at any time.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan waved his big hand and immediately put away the Gate of the Void. It transformed into a mark, melded into his body, and disappeared just like that.

Then he returned to the quiet room and continued to enter a deep state of cultivation.

Although his talent was indeed good, without hard work, his cultivation still could not progress.

Moreover, in the crisis-laden Cultivation Realm, his current cultivation was still too weak.

At the very least, to have a foothold in this area, one must reach the Golden Core Realm.

Time flew by, and in the blink of an eye, half a year had passed.

Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei had been staying at the Seven Stars Peak cultivating.

Because they had dealt with the Black Blood Old Demon and other demon cultivators, the other old demons quickly fled in fear.

Instead, it made the territory of the Profound Celestial Sword Sect much safer; at least few demon cultivators continued to cause trouble.

This also made the area around Seven Stars Peak very safe.

Basically, there was no danger encountered.

So this allowed Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei to cultivate on Seven Stars Peak comfortably.

They didn't have to worry about encountering any danger.

Their cultivation naturally also progressed steadily.

At this moment, in a courtyard of the mansion.

Jiang Fan was operating his Life Talisman, the Ice Talisman, and in the depths of his sea of consciousness flowed a large amount of information about the Ice Talisman. After half a year of hard cultivation, and with the assistance of Luck Points, his Skill Level for the Ice Talisman had increased geometrically, and now he had cultivated the Ice Talisman to the Perfection Level.

Rumble~~

In an instant, with a thought, his vast Primordial Spiritual Power was infused into the Ice Talisman.

Centered on the Ice Talisman, it gathered the vast cold air between heaven and earth, sweeping out a cold torrent covering the entire courtyard, instantly freezing the ground into a thick layer of ice.

Even the many rockery and walls in the courtyard turned into ice sculptures, pervaded with a rich cold air.

Any ordinary cultivator coming to this place couldn't help but shiver.

"Finally done."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly. He could feel the power of the Perfection Level Ice Talisman.

Previously, the cold air released by the Ice Talisman could only freeze the lake, turning it into an ice lake.

But now, the cold air released by the Perfection Level Ice Talisman could freeze the ocean, turning it into glaciers. This cold air could even freeze souls, remaining unfrozen for hundreds of years, continuously releasing cold air.

Clearly, the power of the Ice Talisman was no less than the Celestial Thunder Talisman.

And it had a large area of effect.

If facing a siege by a group of cultivators, he could release the power of the Ice Talisman. The vast cold air would sweep in all directions, easily freezing the group of cultivators into ice sculptures, leaving them powerless to resist.

"These past six months haven't been wasted."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin, feeling very satisfied.

He had a thought and opened the Virtual Panel on himself.
