[Realm: Eighth-Layer Foundation Establishment (20%)]

[Profession: Tier Two High-grade Rune Master (65%)]

Currently, the Luck Points he possesses are only about 100,000.

Previously, he spent tens of thousands of Luck Points to help him improve the skill levels of various Life Talismans.

Not only was the Ice Talisman upgraded to Perfection Level, but even the Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman reached the Skilled Level.

And the Skilled Level of the Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman can gather more than double the Pure Yang Power compared to before.

Thus, the lethality towards Demon Cultivators and Evil Cult is doubled.

Regrettably, his cultivation progress wasn't much, only achieving 20% progress.

But there's no helping it.

After all, the later the stage, the slower the cultivation progress becomes.

To speed up the cultivation progress, one can only consume elixirs or rare spirit medicines.

Nevertheless, compared to other Foundation Establishments, his progress speed can be described as lightning-fast.

So he doesn't feel that his cultivation speed is slow.

"Hmm?!"

"Today seems suitable for opening the Gate of the Void."

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, intuition alert.

He instinctively realized that if he entered and opened the Gate of the Void, he might be teleported to a favorable location.

For the past half year, he wanted to try opening the Gate of the Void.

But every time before opening, his intuition told him it's not the right time.

So he constantly suppressed the urge to open the Gate of the Void.

However, today, he finally sensed the opportunity to open the Gate of the Void.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's figure flickered, and he immediately returned to the quiet chamber.

He decided to open the Gate of the Void today.

If he missed this opportunity, who knows when he'd get another chance.

Boom~~

Instantly, a bronze gate was summoned by Jiang Fan, standing upon the ground, radiating a faint bronze-colored light, appearing extremely mysterious.

The sensation was like a portal.

"Opening the Gate of the Void requires one million Spirit Stones?!"

Jiang Fan felt a message from the Gate of the Void, clearly indicating that opening it isn't free; it requires a substantial amount of Spirit Stones for energy replenishment.

Furthermore, the number of Spirit Stones required varies each time.

It should correlate with the distance of teleportation.

This time, one million Spirit Stones are needed.

Fortunately, he possesses 2.3 million Spirit Stones.

If he were an ordinary Foundation Establishment cultivator, obtaining such a number of Spirit Stones would be impossible.

Rumbling~

Suddenly, countless Spirit Stones were thrown into the Gate of the Void, swallowed and absorbed swiftly, converting into energy, with each rune on it lighting up.

In the next second, the gate opened, seemingly connecting to a void passage.

It's unknown where this portal actually leads.

Whoosh!

Yet Jiang Fan hesitated not; he swiftly stepped forward and walked into the Gate of the Void.

He then found himself effortlessly leaving the original quiet chamber, arriving in an unfamiliar place.

"Such rich Spiritual Qi, where exactly is this?"

Jiang Fan took a closer look and found himself amidst a primordial forest.

All around were towering trees, endlessly sprawling.

The air was filled with dense Spiritual Qi.

Even the previous Yiling Secret Realm couldn't compare with this.

If he cultivated here, he believed his cultivation efficiency would increase by at least more than double.

Boom~~

At this point, the Gate of the Void instantly vanished, transforming into a mark and merging into his body.

"Energy depleted?"

Jiang Fan received some information from the Gate of the Void, indicating that due to its initiation depleting significant energy, it requires a seven-day wait for a second activation.

Meanwhile, he could leave a spatial mark within the nearby area.

In this manner, next time he opens the Gate of the Void, he could teleport back.

And it wouldn't require as many as a million Spirit Stones.

The reason it demanded such an amount of Spirit Stones was for the Gate of the Void to locate the spatial coordinates.

"It requires another seven days before the Gate of the Void can be used again."

"It seems during this period, cautiousness will be necessary."

"Otherwise, even if I wish to escape, time might not allow it."

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered.

Though he is already an Eighth-Layer Foundation Establishment cultivator, such strength, looking across the entire Cultivation Realm, can be considered elite, though far from being a powerful cultivator.

If faced with a cultivator above Golden Core, he is completely outmatched.

However, he believed, given his Destiny, he wouldn't likely be unlucky enough to encounter a powerful enemy.

Boom~~

At this moment, the Fortune-Telling Talisman in the depths of his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi began to resonate, seemingly drawing upon his vast Destiny, a message swiftly entering his conscious sea.

"Spirit Moon Secret Realm, full of wonders, abundant opportunities, choose wisely."

"Heading east to Moon Cry Spring can yield opportunities, but risks on the way, nine lives spared, great misfortune."

"Heading west to Moon Treasure Peak might obtain treasures, but things will fall short, great misfortune."

"Heading north to Ten Thousand Medicines Garden may obtain spiritual medicine, but risks are hidden, lurking dangers, great misfortune."

"Heading south to Celestial Thunder Valley, with minor setbacks, but no danger, great fortune."

"Staying in the original place to cultivate, nothing to gain, nothing lose, neutral."

Sensing this message, Jiang Fan's eyes flickered.

Without a doubt, according to the Fortune-Telling Talisman's prompt, he deduced that this place is indeed a Secret Realm World known as the Spirit Moon Secret Realm.

But it's unclear where this Spirit Moon Secret Realm is truly located.

Is it within this world, or in another?

Since the Gate of the Void randomly connects to any location, he doesn't know where it leads.

And no other cultivators are around, making it unknown where this place actually is.

It's simply like groping in the dark.

"Five informative messages, three indicating great misfortune, one great fortune, one neutral."

"This implies that this Spirit Moon Secret Realm indeed holds numerous opportunities, but acquiring them isn't so straightforward."

"A lapse in caution could mean death and oblivion."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He knew that obtaining opportunities in the Cultivation Realm is not easy.

Oftentimes, acquiring opportunities demands life-and-death struggles with minimal survival chances.

Rarely is there an instance where opportunities arise without detriment.

Thus, given the dangers within this Secret Realm World, it is entirely understandable.

"Fortunately, one message suggests great fortune."

"Otherwise, staying put and cultivating would be the only sensible course."

Jiang Fan contemplated the Fortune-Telling Talisman's messages.

Undeniably, despite the risks in this Secret Realm, the contained opportunities are tangible.

He surely won't foolishly remain in place and miss these opportunities.

Indeed, his intuition proved right.

This time using the Gate of the Void did bring him to a treasure trove laden with opportunities.

Entering a Secret Realm World isn't an easy feat.

Each Secret Realm World's location is highly concealed, making access impossible for outsiders.

Most Secret Realm Worlds are controlled by powerful factions.

Other cultivators entering them is near impossible.

Thus being able to use the Gate of the Void's power, bypassing all obstacles to directly enter a Secret Realm World, is an extraordinary opportunity, one only achievable by the Gate of the Void.

If this opportunity were missed, who knows when the next would arise.

Whoosh!

With this in mind, Jiang Fan did not hesitate; he activated the power of the Light Body Talisman, his figure flickering, heading toward the Southern Celestial Thunder Valley.
