Chapter 421: Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil Again, the Turbulent Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range

"The Heart Demon Barrier, is it?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan nodded, becoming slightly cautious.

Although his probability of advancing to Golden Core was indeed high now, it wasn't a hundred percent.

If he were careless, he might follow in the footsteps of those failed predecessors.

Thus, he could not assume that just because he had a Celestial Spirit Root, he could definitely form a core.

Unless the success rate was a hundred percent, he still needed to be careful.

One must not capsized in a ditch due to carelessness.

"It is said that there are some spirit medicines that can help Foundation Establishment cultivators break through the Heart Demon and smoothly get through the Heart Demon Tribulation."

"But such Golden Core spirit medicines are extremely rare, even Nascent Soul cultivators covet them."

"So hardly any Foundation Establishment cultivators can obtain such spirit medicines."

Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace said in a deep voice.

Back then, Daoist Wan Hua also sought similar spirit medicines but couldn't find them.

Fortunately, although his aptitude was poor, his Dao heart was immensely steadfast.

Therefore, the Heart Demon Barrier was a piece of cake for Daoist Wan Hua, nothing at all.

"Besides spirit medicines, is there no other way to pass the Heart Demon Barrier?"

Jiang Fan inquired.

"There is, of course."

"The most common way is to cultivate techniques that train spiritual sense and Dao heart."

"Cultivation techniques of this kind are only owned by Nascent Soul sects, or even Divinity Transformation sects."

"After all, techniques that can train spiritual sense are very rare."

"However, since the master is a descendant of the Primordial Talisman Sect, he should be able to find similar techniques."

Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace said.

"Cultivation techniques that train spiritual sense?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan stroked his chin, thinking that some Life Talismans he possessed should have a restraining effect on the Heart Demon, such as the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman, Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman, Soul-Shaking Talisman, Celestial Thunder Talisman, and so on.

If put into use, they could likely weaken the power of the Heart Demon.

So perhaps the Heart Demon Barrier for him wasn't particularly difficult.

It must be said, this Sixth-Grade Opportunity had benefited him immensely.

Just this one Golden Core spirit medicine had brought him substantial gains.

Though the primordial spiritual power within him was already sufficiently pure, the medicinal power contained in the Dragon Beard Vermilion Fruit could allow him to quickly advance to the perfection level of the Ninth-Layer Foundation Establishment.

Without relying solely on bitter cultivation, it would take several years to probably reach the perfection realm.

"Husband, come eat."

At this time, in the inner world of the Exquisite Tower, Su Weiwei called to Jiang Fan.

The inner world of the Exquisite Tower, which was the space on the first layer, had a large cultivation of spirit medicines and spirit rice.

A simple wooden house was built on a plot of land for Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei to reside.

During the past two months, they would rest in this wooden house.

So Su Weiwei already knew about the existence of this ancient treasure, the Exquisite Tower.

"Oh, has the Golden-Scaled Beast been dissected?"

Jiang Fan's figure flashed to the living room, immediately noticing the table covered with an array of delicious foods, the main course being the Tier Two Golden-Scaled Beast.

After being slain by the Ice Talisman, the Tier Two Demon Beast was quickly defrosted.

Su Weiwei dissected it, extracting the demon beast meat and beginning to cook.

The aroma of food permeated around, truly appetizing.

"Indeed."

"Though don't be fooled by the hardness of the Golden-Scaled Beast's scales, the meat is extraordinarily tender."

"Moreover, it contains immense blood and qi."

"If a body cultivator consumes it, it would rapidly enhance their realm."

"Even ordinary Foundation Establishment cultivators would benefit from extended life and strengthened qi and blood."

Su Weiwei sighed.

Honestly, she rarely ate Tier Two demon beast meat, given the scarcity of such meat.

Even if genuinely sold, the price was extraordinarily high.

However, the Tier Two Golden-Scaled Beast weighed over ten tons, and even after removing bones, scales, and whatnot, the remaining meat still weighed four to five tons, enough for two to eat for a long time.

If sold, it would be worth quite a number of spirit stones.

But they're not lacking spirit stones, so they would not sell this Tier Two demon beast meat.

"Really? I must try it then."

Jiang Fan's eyes lit up.

He felt that the progress of his Soaring Snake Technique might need the help of this Tier Two demon beast meat.

Taking a bite, he immediately felt an immense heat surging from his stomach.

This rapidly boosted his blood and qi.

This heat stream easily flowed through his body, refining every part of his being.

The flesh and blood of a Tier Two Golden-Scaled Beast is indeed unbeatable compared to ordinary demon beasts.

The two immediately stopped talking and began eating.

...

A few more days later.

Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei arrived at Sun City.

This was a Tier Three city located at the foot of the Great Sun Sword Sect's mountain.

Although not as vast as Xuanjian City, it was one of the largest cities in the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range.

Sun City's population exceeded several million.

Thus, the city was bustling, offering a wide variety of cultivation resources for purchase.

Particularly being situated within the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range, where demon beasts were numerous, beast materials were abundant and inexpensive.

Meanwhile, the two were gathering information, hoping to find a place to settle here.

"Husband, I'm told that the Great Sun Sword Sect intends to rent out a Tier Two Spirit Vein shortly."
