Chapter 423: A Thrilling Calamity, Gaining a Seventh-Grade Opportunity

Whoosh!

Under the hurried travel of Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei, they finally arrived at Purple Spirit Peak by evening.

The entire mountain was covered with clusters of purple trees, basking beautifully in the sunlight.

Dense Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi filled the surroundings.

However, this peak had long been enveloped by a Tier Two Array, arranged by the Great Sun Sword Sect, aiming to monopolize this Tier Two Spirit Vein. Without an Array Token, entry to this mountain was impossible.

"Such a crude Tier Two Lower Grade Array."

Jiang Fan utilized Emperor's Gaze and discovered numerous flaws in this Tier Two Lower Grade Array.

He estimated that any Foundation Establishment Cultivator with basic knowledge of arrays could effortlessly crack this Tier Two Array.

But upon reflection, this wasn't surprising.

After all, the price of a High-Grade Second-Order Array must be exceedingly expensive.

Currently, the Great Sun Sword Sect was not particularly wealthy, merely declaring dominance over this Tier Two Spirit Vein.

Naturally, they wouldn't spend a fortune arranging arrays.

"Hmm?!"

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, his Spiritual Sense spread out, easily enveloping the entirety of Purple Spirit Peak. He sensed a hidden deep Demonic Qi at the peak of Purple Spirit Peak.

The other party seemed to be hiding inside Purple Spirit Peak, with cultivation at least at the seventh layer of Foundation Establishment.

And the other party was undoubtedly a Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator.

Because his Life Talisman, Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman, was violently trembling, only Demonic Qi could trigger it.

"So this is the slight disturbance hinted by the Fortune-Telling Talisman?"

"Purple Spirit Peak actually hides a late-stage Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator?"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, secretly astonished, completely unexpected for such a twist.

Of course, he didn't believe the Great Sun Sword Sect would have any relation with Demon Cultivators.

After all, the cultivation method of this Golden Core Sect inherently clashed with Demon Cultivators.

They were indeed archenemies.

This Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator likely considered this place a temporary lair.

Because the Great Sun Sword Sect controlled many Tier Two Spirit Veins.

But many of these Tier Two Spirit Veins were unoccupied by Foundation Establishment Cultivators.

It's like a developer constructing many villas but with no wealthy residents.

Meanwhile, a vagabond sees an opportunity, finds no security measures, thinks it's an abandoned project, and seizes the chance to move in.

The Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator is likely similar.

As a Demon Cultivator, naturally called to be hunted by everyone, unwilling to show themselves.

Thus, needing a secret place to hide.

"If it were ordinary Foundation Establishment Cultivators, they might indeed fall for it."

"But unfortunately, this Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator encountered me."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted coldly.

He also thought of the other two choices: Plum Blossom Peak and Green Bamboo Peak, wondering what disasters they held, especially Green Bamboo Peak, rumored to be intensely perilous.

But he didn't think too much, pretended ignorance, and opened the Tier Two Array of Purple Spirit Peak.

Boom~~

At that instant, the late-stage Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator suddenly erupted, holding a crimson long sword, horrifying crimson Demonic Qi burst from him, unknown how many cultivators he had slaughtered, surrounded by dreadful vengeful spirits.

Clearly, he was a demon that delights in slaughter.

The Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator's face twisted into a grin, thinking he could undoubtedly easily handle these two Foundation Establishment Loose Cultivators.

Then, not only could he rightfully seize Purple Spirit Peak, but also obtain the lifetime wealth of the two Foundation Establishment Loose Cultivators, truly a win-win situation.

Can't blame him for being too sinister, just bad luck for these two Foundation Establishment Loose Cultivators encountering him.

It marked their destined demise.

"You're too weak."

Jiang Fan calmly looked at the suddenly appearing Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator, without hurry, activated his Life Talisman—Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman.

A vast Pure Yang Power exploded forth, like a blazing sun, radiating infinite heat.

Such power was mostly harmless to ordinary cultivators.

But for Demon Cultivators and Evil Cult, it contained a fatal threat.

Rumble~~~

In an instant, before the Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator reached Jiang Fan, the immense Pure Yang Power engulfed him, like the sun scorching snow, rapidly melting.

The Demonic Qi on him sizzled, as if burn wounds inflicted by the sun, akin to acid burns, generating intense pain.

"Not good."

The Foundation Establishment Demon Cultivator's face changed dramatically, realizing he had hit a hard spot, this Foundation Establishment Loose Cultivator possessed a power restraining Demon Cultivators.

It wasn't bad luck for this Foundation Establishment Loose Cultivator, but indeed misfortune for him, the Demon Cultivator.

Among so many Foundation Establishment Loose Cultivators, he didn't hunt them, but encountered one who restrained him.

Today was truly bad luck for him.

Thud!

Pure Yang Power instantly pierced his physique, like riddled holes.

With just one strike, black holes appeared all over his body, fearsome Pure Yang Power permeated his physique and soul, expelling the Dark Power inside.

Boom~~

In the next second, his body plummeted from the air, fiercely crashing onto the ground, creating a massive crater.
