Chapter 435: New Bloodline Divine Techniques, 4000-Year Lifespan

"The power of Law Domain can suppress low-tier cultivators."

"But for cultivators of the same tier, Golden Core-level, its effect is not significant."

"It can be said that the Golden Core Domain is a means to deal with weaklings."

"When facing low-tier cultivators, Golden Core Zhenren don't need to do anything."

"Just by unleashing the Golden Core Domain, they can suppress everything."

Jiang Fan can sense the powerful aspects of the Golden Core Domain. Once the law domain is unleashed, cultivators below the Golden Core level can hardly move, as if trapped in a gravity domain.

It can even exert soul suppression, causing low-tier cultivators to completely faint, akin to Long Wei.

However, since Golden Core Zhenren of the same tier all possess the power of the domain, they cancel each other out.

The effect is not particularly significant.

"But the potential of this Law Domain power is limitless."

"It's said that once reaching Nascent Soul, or even Divinity Transformation, the powers of Law Domain will further escalate."

"By then, the power of the domain will be extraordinary."

"With a single thought, mountains and rivers change colors, altering the heavens and earth."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists, longing for such power. If he truly achieved this level, he could perhaps be called a Mortal Immortal, equivalent to a mortal nuclear weapon.

No wonder Nascent Soul cultivators hold such high status.

But all this is still far from him.

After all, currently, he is merely at the early stage of Tier Three Body Cultivator, far from Nascent Soul or Divinity Transformation.

Eating should be done bite by bite, and cultivation is the same; it must proceed step by step.

"However, no matter what, my combat power now is already comparable to a cultivator in the early stage of Golden Core."

Jiang Fan sensed the mighty strength and the Law Domain within his body.

Although his cultivation is still at the ninth layer of Foundation Establishment, his physique is already equivalent to a Tier Three Body Cultivator.

In terms of combat power alone, he is not inferior to an early Golden Core cultivator.

Compared to before, this is nothing short of a qualitative improvement and change, entirely beyond comparison.

"Oh yes, upon promoting to a Tier Three Body Cultivator, I seem to have birthed a second Bloodline Divine Technique."

"Its name is: Water Control."

Jiang Fan felt with a thought that a new seed of divine power had already been nurtured deep within his bloodline. This was a new Bloodline Divine Technique, different from his Innate Divine Techniques.

Bloodline Divine Techniques are derived from the strength of the bloodline and can be inherited.

If he has descendants, there's a high probability that they will inherit this Innate Divine Technique.

For example, powerful demon beasts and divine beasts possess such strong bloodline divine powers, so their descendants also inherit the same talent.

Humans are actually similar.

The reason most humans don't have any Bloodline Divine Techniques is simply because most human cultivators don't have exceedingly powerful bloodlines within them.

Legend has it that during the ancient era, there appeared some bloodline families.

These families once monopolized an era, establishing dynasties one after another.

Some even became royal dynasties, claiming to have royal bloodlines, whose talents and powers completely surpassed those of ordinary cultivators, entirely unmatched by common cultivators.

"This Bloodline Divine Technique's power is simple: to control all the waters in the world."

"This affinity with water power has reached its pinnacle, also known as the Child of Water."

Jiang Fan realized that at this moment he was immensely familiar with various Water Elemental Qi between heaven and earth, and with a mere thought, a continuous stream of water vapor would surge toward him.

With a wave of his hand, he can gather spheres of water, even control rivers.

Undoubtedly, with two Bloodline Divine Techniques, one controlling the wind and the other controlling water, he developed special awareness and control over the forces of wind and water.

If he cultivates using water talismans, it surely would achieve twice the results with half the effort.

"By the way, I wonder how my lifespan is now."

Jiang Fan suddenly thought of this point. He sensed the incredibly strong life force within his body. After breaking through to Tier Three level, his lifespan must have tremendously increased, but he wasn't exactly sure to what extent.

Upon thinking of this, he immediately opened his Virtual Panel.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

"Having a lifespan of four thousand years? Even Divinity Transformation cultivators are no different."

"This must be the Divine Beast bloodline, truly Longevity Species, beyond what short-lived humans can compare."

Jiang Fan was elated upon seeing the data on the Virtual Panel.

Although he knew his lifespan had surely gotten a tremendous boost, he didn't expect that it had doubled, reaching the extent of four thousand years—truly unbelievable.

After all, a typical Divinity Transformation cultivator only lives up to three thousand years.

This means his lifespan now surpasses even that of Divinity Transformation cultivators.
