Chapter 447: Easily Crossing the Tribulation, Gaining a Sixth-Grade Opportunity_2

Not even a second could be sustained.

Even in death, Foundation Establishment Sword Cultivator Cen Bai Rui couldn't believe it. Despite having already knelt down and begged for mercy, his Master still showed no leniency and killed him.

Woosh!

At this moment, Jiang Fan stepped out from the side, casually looking at the already deceased Foundation Establishment Sword Cultivator Cen Bai Rui: "What a fool, I'm not your Master Teng Hao. Do you really think that pleading would work?"

Of course, if it were really Golden Core Zhenren Teng Hao, upon hearing these words, he might have had compassion and let this ingrate live, especially since the Great Sun Sword Sect was indeed in a tumultuous time and could use more people.

Unfortunately, I'm not the Sect Leader of the Great Sun Sword Sect.

So naturally, the other party was not going to survive.

"Is this the Great Sun Buddha Mirror? Truly terrifying power."

"To destroy a Golden Core Demon Cultivator with just one move, its reputation is well-deserved."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell was also full of admiration.

Although it had confidence in its own Demon-Vanquishing Power, the Great Sun Buddha Mirror's force was evidently frightening as well, and it could lock onto an opponent's aura for a long-range strike.

Once locked by this mirror, if one could not escape its range, death was inevitable.

No wonder in ancient times, this Great Sun Buddha Mirror had forged such a legendary name.

Countless demons were incinerated by its True Sun Fire.

"The power of this mirror is indeed formidable."

"But isn't incinerating this Golden Core Demon Cultivator all at once a bit wasteful?"

"If they could have been captured, they could have been fertilizer for the Exquisite Tower, for growing Spirit Medicine."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace felt a bit heartache.

To it, every Demon Cultivator was like humanoid fertilizer, useful for growing Spirit Medicine.

It would shorten the growth period of Spirit Medicine.

But now they've turned to dust, it's indeed a pity.

"Not really wasteful."

"The remnants can actually still serve as fertilizer."

"Although not as effective as the complete corpse of a Golden Core Demon Cultivator, it still has at least half its effectiveness."

The Exquisite Tower spoke up.

It had seen many similar events.

But the remnants left by the Demon Cultivator could still be devoured and absorbed.

Sometimes the remnants were the most essential material, retaining a vast amount of life essence.

"Oh, is that so?"

"So it's not considered wasteful then."

Jiang Fan's eyes lit up, and with a wave of his hand, he collected the remnants left by the Golden Core Demon Cultivator and the Foundation Establishment Sword Cultivator, placing them all in the internal space of the Exquisite Tower.

Sure enough, after being absorbed by the Exquisite Tower, some black spiritual soil appeared inside the internal space once more.

Evidently, the internal space could now support the growth of a large amount of Spirit Medicine.

Seeing these actions, the Demon-Vibrating Bell was speechless, it had nothing to say.

In all its years, it was its first time seeing such a brutal Righteous Cultivator.

Typically, it would be Demonic Cultivators who use other cultivators as fertilizer, as cultivation resources.

Where had it ever seen Righteous Cultivators do the same?

But, upon reflection, since it was to deal with Demon Cultivators, against demons, any means, no matter how cruel, were justified.

Only dead Demon Cultivators are good Demon Cultivators.

Boom~~

At this moment, a message instantly entered the depths of Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness: "You secretly ambushed and killed a Golden Core Demon Cultivator, prematurely terminating the Golden Core Human Tribulation, successfully crossing the tribulation, and you gained one hundred thousand destiny and a Sixth-Grade Opportunity."

One hundred thousand destiny?!

Perceiving this information, Jiang Fan was simply incredulous. He never expected that after eliminating this Golden Core Demon Cultivator, he would gain so much destiny, it was truly incredible.

Previously, he had crossed many tribulations, but never gained so much.

However, on careful thought, this tribulation was indeed extremely perilous.

If he hadn't used the power of the Fortune-Telling Talisman to foresee this Golden Core Human Tribulation in advance, then when he was forming his core, if these two had barged into the cave mansion, he would have been in great danger.

Relying solely on Su Weiwei's strength could not have stopped this Golden Core Demon Cultivator.

But now that these two were eliminated by him, he effectively crossed the Golden Core Human Tribulation in advance, surviving a life-and-death tribulation.

Thus, gaining one hundred thousand destiny was only natural.

"What is this Sixth-Grade Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan blinked, and with a wave of his hand, he immediately took up the two storage bags on the ground, one of which naturally belonged to the Golden Core Demon Cultivator, and the other to Cen Bai Rui.

Evidently, Cen Bai Rui's storage bag was already empty, all the treasures inside were taken by the Golden Core Demon Cultivator.

Not a single treasure was left for Cen Bai Rui.

It can be imagined, the greed of this Golden Core Demon Cultivator was simply as if plucking feathers from a passing goose.

"Wait, Golden Liquid Jade Returning Pill?"

"No way, was Cen Bai Rui not able to consume this Elixir?"

Seeing the treasures inside the storage bag, Jiang Fan was immediately delighted. He unexpectedly saw that inside the storage bag quietly lay a Golden Liquid Jade Returning Pill. Without a doubt, it was because of this Elixir that the Great Sun Sword Sect experienced internal strife, leading to a series of events occurring afterward; it was simply the main culprit.

But this Elixir that drove countless cultivators crazy, after numerous twists and turns, ended up in his hands.

It's likely that Cen Bai Rui also wanted to consume the Golden Liquid Jade Returning Pill.

The problem was, he aspired to become a Golden Core Cultivator; if he recklessly consumed it and failed to form his core, it would purely waste an excellent opportunity for core formation.

Unfortunately, he had no chance to form his core, and then was caught by the Golden Core Demon Cultivator.

Even the Golden Liquid Jade Returning Pill fell into the hands of the Demon Cultivator.

But now, after Jiang Fan killed these two, it naturally fell into his hands.

"I see, this Golden Liquid Jade Returning Pill is the Sixth-Grade Opportunity."

"It's truly a blessing from heaven."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists in excitement.

To be honest, the last piece of the puzzle for his core formation had finally arrived.

Even though he had great confidence in forming a core independently without the need for the Golden Liquid Jade Returning Pill, it could succeed.

But with this Elixir, his core formation success rate reached one hundred percent.

If he failed, this pill would also save his life.

It was like a nuclear bomb; you might not use it, but you must have it.

"Let's go."

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate any longer, his figure flashed, and he swiftly left this place.

In an instant, he vanished without a trace.

Staying here had no meaning.

On the contrary, remaining here might lead to being found by the companions of this Golden Core Demon Cultivator.

At that point, his whereabouts might be exposed.

Shortly after Jiang Fan left, two figures flew in from a distance, both were Golden Core Demon Cultivators.

Their expressions were grim as they continuously searched the surroundings but found nothing.

"Kong Bin is dead."

"And was incinerated by True Sun Fire in an instant."

"Traces of True Sun Fire linger around."

"Those who acted must be the Sect Leader of the Great Sun Sword Sect, Teng Hao."

A blue-haired Golden Core Demon Cultivator clenched his fist, gritting his teeth as he spoke.

"But wasn't it said that Teng Hao was already dead?"

Another red-haired Golden Core Demon Cultivator was shocked.

"Heh, who said Teng Hao was dead, has anyone seen his corpse?"

"Our previous assumptions were all wrong."

"There must have been someone who helped Teng Hao, secretly saving him."

"Even healing the injuries on his body."

"Otherwise, it wouldn't be so easy to activate the power of the Great Sun Buddha Mirror."

"The secrets Teng Hao hides are probably deeper than imagined, we have indeed underestimated this veteran Golden Core."

The blue-haired Golden Core Demon Cultivator said gravely.

Now he was filled with anger, having never expected a Nascent Soul Elder of the Six Desires Sect to die miserably at the hands of the opponent.

To be honest, he wasn't too concerned about Kong Bin's death; he was more concerned about being played.

This he could not tolerate, as the plan completely went out of his control.

"So what do we do now?"

"If Teng Hao is still alive, snatching the Great Sun Buddha Mirror might not be so simple."

The red-haired Golden Core Demon Cultivator said.

"We can only have the Nascent Soul Elder take action."

"The Great Sun Buddha Mirror must be retrieved."

"Even if he hides to the ends of the earth, he must die."

The blue-haired Golden Core Demon Cultivator was furious; this time he had completely opposed Teng Hao.

No matter what, he had to find this Sect Leader of the Great Sun Sword Sect.
