

Fortune 450

Chapter 450: Smooth Crossing the Tribulation, First-Layer Golden Core

"Outer Celestial Demon?"

Hearing this, Jiang Fan's expression was very grave.

He had once read about the Outer Celestial Demon, it is said that the Outer Celestial Demon is a demon thought, intangible and shapeless, roaming beyond the world, always seeking opportunities to invade.

Whenever a cultivator breaks through and triggers celestial phenomena, these Outer Celestial Demons may take advantage and invade.

Honestly, he hadn't expected that merely forming his core would attract these Outer Celestial Demons.

After all, normally, at least a Nascent Soul formation is needed to attract a Celestial Demon invasion.

"But this may not necessarily be a bad thing."

"Because if the master can eliminate this group of Outer Celestial Demons, he will also gain great benefits."

"This is a calamity, but it is also an opportunity."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell spoke in a deep voice.

"Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan's eyes immediately brightened, in fact the Fortune-Telling Talisman did not indicate any danger, clearly the invasion of Outer Celestial Demons this time shouldn't be very dangerous to him, he would definitely get through it smoothly.

"Yes, it just so happens that the master has power that can restrain this group of Outer Celestial Demons."

"As long as the Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman power is used, this group of demons is no threat."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell reminded, it was quite experienced in dealing with these Outer Celestial Demons.

Of course, real Outer Celestial Demons are not easy to deal with.

But currently this group of demons are merely wisps of demon thoughts, only a small part of the strength of the Outer Celestial Demons.

So to its master, these demon thoughts are nothing.

"Alright."

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate and immediately activated his Life Talisman—the Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman.

Rumble~~

Instantly, the Perfection Level Pure Yang Exorcism Talisman began to operate, gathering the immense Pure Yang Power between heaven and earth, causing a great sun to appear.

Suddenly this dark void space saw a great sun emerge, releasing infinite light and heat.

For the Celestial Demons, this is simply a nemesis-like power.

Even if a wisp of Pure Yang Energy falls upon them, it is akin to being doused with sulfuric acid.

Their bodies emitted hissing sounds, releasing thick black smoke.

"Ah ah ah!!!"

A group of Outer Celestial Demons couldn't help but emit piercing screams, more terrible than slaughtering pigs, as if suffering torture, unprecedented pain.

The originally dense Celestial Demons, under the shine of the Pure Yang Great Sun, dissipated one after another.

Couldn't even withstand one breath's time, disappearing without a trace.

The originally pitch-black void suddenly became bathed in boundless light, leaving no room for any darkness.

At this moment, Jiang Fan felt his whole body warm, all negative emotions vanished.

Replaced by positive emotions, clear thoughts, incomparably pleasant.

After eliminating this group of Outer Celestial Demons, they left behind wisps of mysterious material.

"What is this stuff?"

Jiang Fan blinked, curiously reaching out to touch.

Boom~~

Immediately, the mysterious material was drawn and instantly penetrated into the depths of his soul.

He immediately felt his soul as if soaking in a hot spring, soul power growing visibly.

His soul power was already immensely strong, far surpassing ordinary Golden Core Zhenren.

Now having acquired these mysterious materials, unbelievably, his soul power expanded more than twice.

He noticed his domain of consciousness also expanded, able to accommodate even stronger souls.

Thud~~

A wave of Spiritual Sense swept out, easily covering hundreds of kilometers, seemingly enveloping the Nine Heavens and Ten Lands.

Under the Spiritual Sense coverage, all things were reflected in his domain of consciousness.

"Nascent Soul Spirit Sense!"

"Master, your Spiritual Sense is already comparable to First-Layer Nascent Soul."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell exclaimed in disbelief; it could sense Jiang Fan's mighty soul power.

Clearly having just advanced to Golden Core, but with soul power reaching the First-Layer Nascent Soul level.

Such things, even if spoken, few would believe.

Though it knew its master's soul talent was immensely strong, this was unexpected and extraordinary.

Where could any Golden Core Zhenren possess such formidable soul power, it's simply too exaggerated.

"What's going on? Why did my Spiritual Power suddenly increase so much?"

Jiang Fan blinked, instinctively thinking his sudden rise in Spiritual Power was undoubtedly related to the earlier Outer Celestial Demons.

"It should be the benefit the master gained from eliminating the Outer Celestial Demons."

"It's said that after purifying Outer Celestial Demons, they leave behind some mysterious soul material."

"If a cultivator obtains it, then they can expand their soul."

"In the Ancient Era, these soul materials were priceless, not purchasable even with money."

"After all, purifying Outer Celestial Demons is not an easy feat."

"A slight carelessness could result in being killed by the Celestial Demons, devoured soul."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell explained.

It hadn't expected its master to gain such significant benefits.

It unexpectedly caused a qualitative change in soul power.

This group of Outer Celestial Demons indeed came to deliver fortune to its master.

"I see."

Jiang Fan nodded.

He could sense that with his Spiritual Sense reaching the level of Nascent Soul Spirit Sense, manipulating the Golden Core Spiritual Power within his body became simpler, akin to an adult holding a toothpick, incredibly relaxed.
