

Fortune 475

Chapter 475: Divinity Transformation Battle, Catastrophe Returns! _2

Compared to those places where one has to rough it outdoors, the Zhu Family Island can be considered paradise.

"That's good."

Jiang Fan nodded, as he worried that Su Weiwei might not be comfortable staying here.

However, Su Weiwei's adaptability was stronger than he had imagined.

But this was probably because over the years, she had followed him all around, likely already accustomed to living and cultivating in various places, so it was quite normal.

Rumble~~

At this moment, the entire Zhu Family Island, no, even this entire sea region, experienced a massive tremor.

It was as if a super earthquake had spread across every part of the sea, buzzing loudly.

This also caused the spirit vein to tremble, as if there was a celestial anomaly, beyond imagination.

"What's happening?"

Su Weiwei blinked, puzzled, wondering what was going on.

"Master, this is not an ordinary earthquake."

"It's more like the fluctuations of a battle."

"If I'm not mistaken, there might be a Divinity Transformation cultivator fighting."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said seriously.

It was knowledgeable and sensed this intense fluctuation, immediately triggering its past memories.

Such dreadful tremors were beyond Nascent Soul cultivators; it would require a Divinity Transformation cultivator to occur.

Hearing this, Jiang Fan's eyes flashed slightly; he recalled that there was a Divinity Transformation clan, the Zhao Family, in the Black Dragon Sea Region, home to the sole Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan.

Could it be that the Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan had made a move?

But what could compel such a noble Divinity Transformation Ancestor to act personally?

He sensed a storm approaching; the Black Dragon Sea Region might not remain calm.

Days went by.

Finally, news from outside reached the Zhu Family Island.

Just as Jiang Fan had anticipated before, the Zhao Family's Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan did make a move; the enemy was the Demon Race's Divinity Transformation Five Poison Flood Dragon, causing a fierce battle that shook the heavens and the earth.

"Demon Race's Divinity Transformation Five Poison Flood Dragon? What's that about?"

Jiang Fan was not familiar with the Black Dragon Sea Region, nor did he understand the situation of the Demon Race, so he immediately went to ask other Foundation Establishment Elders of the Zhu Family.

"Ancestor, the Five Poison Flood Dragon is not trivial; it's the leader of the Demon Race in the Black Dragon Sea Region."

"It's said that in its youth, it obtained Black Dragon Essence Blood, purifying its lineage and transforming into a Flood Dragon."

"Thus, the cultivation of the Five Poison Flood Dragon soared, commanding countless Great Demons and becoming the overlord of this sea region."

"Five hundred years ago, Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan had a battle with the Five Poison Flood Dragon, a clash so fierce it caused sky and earth to collapse, numerous islands to crumble, and countless casualties; ultimately, Ancestor Zhao Xuan was one step ahead, seriously injuring the Five Poison Flood Dragon."

"Since then, the Human Race's power in the Black Dragon Sea Region grew stronger and stronger, while the Demon Race's power continuously retracted, hiding in the deep sea; one could say the Human Race's power was at its zenith."

"But now, after five hundred years, the wounds on the Five Poison Flood Dragon have completely healed, and it's said it found some opportunities, elevating its cultivation even further."

"Because of this, the Five Poison Flood Dragon sought to avenge itself on Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan, thus initiating the war."

Foundation Establishment Elder Zhu Bin immediately revealed all the information he knew, clearly indicating that this matter was well known in the Black Dragon Sea Region; any slightly old family would be aware of it.

It was precisely this battle that cemented the prestige of the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family, making the Zhao Family soar and become the undeniable overlord, with other Noble Families having to obey Zhao Family's orders and offer tributes.

Of course, the other Noble Families were willing.

Without Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan, the Human Race wouldn't be so secure, occupying island after island.

"Indeed, it's said the fight between the Five Poison Flood Dragon and Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan is still ongoing."

"They battle and clash, having even reached the depths of the Black Dragon Sea Region."

"Even now, there's still no clear victor."

"What's even more alarming is that many Tier Four Demon Beasts and Tier Three Demon Beasts are emerging from the deep sea, beginning to attack various islands."

"It's a war affecting the entire Black Dragon Sea Region; no one can remain uninvolved."

Numerous Foundation Establishment Elders said worriedly.

They initially thought that after eliminating the Zhang Family, the Zhu Family could usher in a rapid development period.

But who would have thought that before they could celebrate, a war with the Demon Race arrived?

In such a scenario, no one could be completely sure of surviving intact.

A slight mistake could lead to the entire family being wiped out.

Indeed, the war five hundred years ago resulted in the fall of numerous thousand-year and ten-thousand-year families.

Leading to a reshuffle of power throughout the Black Dragon Sea Region.

"Master, you truly are a harbinger of trouble."

"Wherever you go, chaos ensues."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace said feelingly.

The Black Dragon Sea Region had been tranquil for five centuries.

But not long after its master arrived here, a war with the Demon Race erupted.

It seemed that even the Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan was in dire peril now.

Its master's aura of calamity was indeed terrifying.

"Uh."

Hearing this, Jiang Fan was speechless, with nothing to say.

After all, wherever he went, trouble and calamity seemed to follow.

But then again, without calamity, there would be no opportunity.

To some extent, the outbreak of such calamity could certainly lead some cultivators to rise unpredictably.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan sensed that the Fortune-Telling Talisman in his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi started vibrating, buzzing, and a message instantaneously entered the depths of his consciousness.

"A war of Divinity Transformation, the Demon Race rampaging, blessings and misfortune coexist, all depends on a moment."

"Returning to the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range, neither gain nor loss, peace."

"Flee Zhu Family Island, venture to other parts of the Black Dragon Sea Region, potentially encounter calamity, great misfortune."

"Stay on Zhu Family Island, resist the invading enemies, acquire Fourth-Grade Opportunity, great fortune."

Suddenly, he received numerous pieces of information.

Evidently, this is indeed a great calamity, and making the wrong choice could lead to disaster.

"Guarding Zhu Family Island could yield Fourth-Grade Opportunity?"

"Could the invading enemies have precious treasures on them?"

Jiang Fan touched his chin, feeling quite excited.

He didn't expect this calamity to actually present an opportunity to obtain Fourth-Grade Opportunity, equivalent to Divinity Transformation level; it's not something easily attainable.

If he could gain this opportunity, the benefits could be imagined.

Indeed, the Black Dragon Sea Region is his Land of Blessings.

Though perilous, it contains opportunities unmatched by other areas.

Perhaps the turmoil in the Black Dragon Sea Region is a great opportunity for him to obtain numerous opportunities.

"Leaving Zhu Family Island doesn't seem to be a good idea."

"Perhaps other places in the Black Dragon Sea Region are raging with war."

"If I leave recklessly, I might encounter calamity."

Jiang Fan knew well why he might encounter great calamity; after all, the Demon Race is heavily attacking the Human Race territories, no one knows how many Tier Three and Tier Four Demon Beasts have arrived.

If he left Zhu Family Island for other regions, he might run into some Nascent Soul level Demon Beasts, and then he'd be in serious trouble.

Instead, staying on this island might prevent him from being attacked by the Demon Race.

After all, Zhu Family Island is just an ordinary Tier Three Island in this vast sea region.

Hardly eye-catching.

In this way, it naturally won't attract the attention of Demon Race Great Demons.

Those Demon Race cultivators are probably targeting islands controlled by Nascent Soul Clans and Divinity Transformation Clans.

As for islands of ordinary Golden Core Clans, they're unlikely to be given any regard.

Since this sea region is too vast.

The number of Demon Race cultivators can't be infinite, so they naturally only attack some key islands, abandoning the unnecessary ordinary islands.

Therefore, it might be safer to remain on Zhu Family Island.

Obviously, mere safety isn't enough.

If it were truly safe, he might as well pass through the Gate of the Void, returning to the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range.

That way, the turmoil gripping the Black Dragon Sea Region could be avoided.

But staying on Zhu Family Island might yield Fourth-Grade Opportunity, hence he naturally couldn't choose to leave.

After advancing to the Golden Core Realm, hoping for cultivation to soar rapidly requires an abundance of opportunities to assist.

Without which, relying solely on personal effort could result in needing immeasurable time to ascend.