Chapter 488: The Great Calamity Arrives, Mystical Transformation Realm Emerges!_2

"This world is just like that. If you want to gain something, you will surely lose something."

Cloud Fairy said solemnly.

She felt that such a shackle was only temporary.

As long as one is alive, they will eventually find a way to break free from the shackles.

Nothing is more important than being alive, as long as you are alive, there is hope.

"Master, I understand what you mean."

"In essence, the most important thing in cultivation is to find a strong support, find a patron."

"As long as you find a reliable patron, everything will be smooth sailing."

"The question is, is this man really reliable?"

Lu Youyou nodded repeatedly.

She fully agreed with her master's idea.

After all, when she was with the Lu Family, she was just a nobody.

But ever since she gained the approval of the Nascent Soul Ancestor, she instantly became a significant figure.

Even the Golden Core Elders treated her with respect, highlighting the importance of a reliable patron.

"Of course, he is reliable. If I'm not mistaken, this person must have great destiny."

"You must have noticed that this man is most likely a loose cultivator, not a noble descendant or sect disciple."

Cloud Fairy said.

"Indeed, he's a loose cultivator."

Lu Youyou thought that if he really were a noble descendant, it would be impossible for him to live so humbly, as those with significant backgrounds have many followers.

So she doubted whether this patron was truly reliable.

"It is precisely because of this that it proves how formidable this person is."

"You might not have noticed, but this man is not yet fifty years old."

Cloud Fairy said.

"Not yet fifty? How is that possible?"

Lu Youyou was dumbfounded, a storm stirred within her heart.

She knew how extraordinary a Golden Core Zhenren under fifty could be.

Even the direct descendants of the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family didn't have such cultivation speed and top-tier talent.

Becoming a Golden Core Cultivator at such a young age implies that achieving Nascent Soul in the future is almost certain.

There's even a high possibility of becoming a Divinity Transformation Cultivator.

"It is indeed impressive, especially in such a mortal world, where such cultivation speed is unimaginable."

"Moreover, his cultivation isn't the result of accelerated growth; his foundation is extremely solid, even perfect."

"He not only possesses astonishing qualifications but also extraordinary comprehension."

"Such an individual is destined to be a legendary figure in the cultivation realm."

"In history, the founding leaders of Divinity Transformation Sects were probably like this."

Cloud Fairy remarked with emotion.

She never expected Lu Youyou to be so lucky to encounter such a peerless genius.

Moreover, a future legend.

"Really? Comparable to the legendary figures of the cultivation realm?"

Lu Youyou's heart raced, and she could easily imagine how influential this man's support would be. If she could firmly hold onto it, she could soar to the top.

Her eyes were filled with a fiery passion, almost wanting to immediately throw herself at the man and lie in his bed.

"If it were just peerless aptitude, that would be one thing, but this guy also possesses immense destiny."

"Destiny that even the Divinity Transformation Ancestors cannot compare to."

"This spatial treasure alone is proof enough of this."

"Clearly possessing this spatial treasure makes it nearly impossible for other cultivators to kill him."

"This indicates that this man's future cultivation will naturally progress smoothly."

"Such a character, if not flattered early, represents a wasted opportunity."

Cloud Fairy said solemnly.

"Master, I understand what you mean."

"I'll find an opportunity to sleep with him, making it a done deal."

Lu Youyou patted her ample chest, showing confidence.

She believed that with her figure and beauty, seducing this man would be a matter of moments.

"Ahem, you can't be so impulsive."

"After all, that man's Dao Companion is no ordinary character either."

"Did you not see this in the past few days?"

"This woman even tamed the six-winged poison bee and the purple lightning mayfly, both ancient strange insects."

"Yet she could easily control them."

"Don't be fooled by her gentle and caring appearance."

"If she truly harbors a killing intent, even ten of you wouldn't be her match."

Cloud Fairy coughed, not expecting her disciple to be so impulsive, immediately wanting to sleep with that man.

Although a quality man is desirable for any woman, one must still be strategic.

Especially when the man is already taken.

"Is Ms. Su really that formidable?"

Upon hearing this, Lu Youyou blinked her beautiful eyes. She hadn't expected that this Ms. Su, who looked delicate on the surface, was so formidable in combat.

"In any case, this couple is quite extraordinary."

"Sleeping with this man requires thoughtful planning and let things take their course."

"For now, you shouldn't act rashly."

"Just help plant spirit medicines and assist with alchemy honestly."

Cloud Fairy reminded.

"Got it, Master."

Hearing her master's reminder was like a reassurance pill for Lu Youyou, immediately putting her at ease.

...

Meanwhile, in another room within the Exquisite Tower's internal world.

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, circulating the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture.

The vast surrounding spiritual qi surged in, crazily pouring into his body, devoured and absorbed by the Primordial Golden Core.

"Without the support of a Tier Three Spirit Vein, the cultivation speed indeed slowed down."

At this time, Jiang Fan opened his eyes, ending this session of cultivation.

Previously, he casually found a deserted island to settle and then directly entered the Exquisite Tower for cultivation.

However, due to the lack of a Tier Three Spirit Vein, the spiritual qi was not plentiful enough.

This led to a noticeable reduction in his cultivation efficiency.

But this was an unavoidable issue, as finding an unclaimed Tier Three Spirit Vein is not easy either.

Fortunately, this time he obtained considerable cultivation resources from Lu Youyou.

He gained some Tier Three Elixirs.

This was enough to support his cultivation for a period of time.

Boom~~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan noticed that a dark gold token on him suddenly started to vibrate, buzzing with a hum, and densely packed patterns surfaced on it, seemingly resonating with some force between heaven and earth.

In the next second, it floated up like that, suspended in mid-air.

Vaguely, the depths of the dark gold token revealed a black giant dragon, exuding a mighty pressure, as if a real dragon had come alive in this world.

"This token? It seems to be the Sixth-Grade Opportunity I acquired earlier."

Seeing this token, Jiang Fan immediately remembered an incident when he first arrived in the Black Dragon Sea Region. At that time, he killed a Tier Three Demon Beast, and as a result, he obtained this dark gold token from the beast.

Yet, unfortunately, he had never understood the purpose of this token until now.

Unexpectedly, this token suddenly manifested a change.

Thud!

Before Jiang Fan could carefully study the role of this dark gold token, the Fortune-Telling Talisman deep within his Dantian and Sea of Qi began to vibrate, and a message instantly entered the depths of his consciousness sea.

"Black Dragon Secret Realm appears, the path to heaven arises."

"Go to Longgu Island to enter the Black Dragon Secret Realm, gain nothing, face certain dangers, ominous."

"Go to Black Scale Island to enter the Black Dragon Secret Realm, gain a Fifth-Grade Opportunity, but face danger, great ominous."

"Go to Pine Leaf Island to enter the Black Dragon Secret Realm, gain a Fourth-Grade Opportunity, or face certain dangers, ominous."

"Stay on the deserted island, do not go to the Black Dragon Secret Realm, gain nothing, safe."

"Let the Gate of the Void devour the Black Dragon Token, enter the Black Dragon Secret Realm through the Gate of the Void, gain a Sixth-Grade Opportunity, no hidden dangers, auspicious."

At this moment, Jiang Fan received a large amount of foresight information.

"Black Dragon Secret Realm? Could it be the largest secret realm in the Black Dragon Sea Region, known as the Mystical Transformation Realm?"

Realizing this information, Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a bright gleam. Having stayed with the Zhu Family for so long, he naturally knew some things about the Black Dragon Sea Region.

And the Black Dragon Secret Realm was known as one of the largest secret realm worlds in this sea region.

It's rumored that this secret realm was once controlled by a Black Dragon, known as the Dragon Palace.

But ever since the fall of the Black Dragon, no one can control this secret realm world.

It only opens every once in a while.

Every time it opens, it attracts a large number of cultivators.

However, because this Mystical Transformation Realm has no cultivation restriction, both Divinity Transformation Cultivators and Nascent Soul Cultivators can go, making it a feast for high-tier cultivators, while low-tier cultivators, even if they enter, are merely cannon fodder.
