Chapter 493: Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil Again, Escaping the Nameless Valley

"The cultivation speed is too fast."

At this moment, the Primordial Talisman Pen also sensed Jiang Fan's cultivation speed, which had reached an incredible level.

Especially in the current Cultivation Realm, having such a cultivation speed is nearly impossible.

It somewhat understood why Jiang Fan's progress had been so rapid in a short amount of time.

He encountered numerous opportunities outside.

Even a pig could advance rapidly under such conditions.

Not to mention, Jiang Fan was a Celestial Spirit Root Cultivator with extraordinary comprehension.

It felt that becoming a Nascent Soul Cultivator was just a matter of time for him.

"Elder Fu, I have now reached the Third-Layer Golden Core."

"I should be able to inscribe a new Life Talisman."

"What kind of talisman would be better?"

Jiang Fan asked the Primordial Talisman Pen. After all, the talismans recorded by the Primordial Talisman Sect were vast and extensive, but finding a suitable Life Talisman for himself was quite difficult.

However, as an inherited Dao Artifact, the Primordial Talisman Pen should be well-versed in many talismans.

In the past, he relied on his own understanding to choose Life Talismans.

This was inevitable, as he had no teacher to rely on.

But now that the Primordial Talisman Pen had fully recovered and wouldn't fall asleep, he could naturally consult it.

"In fact, you already have enough Life Talismans on you."

"You have no lack of various attack and defense-type Life Talismans."

"For now, you might be lacking in some auxiliary methods and control techniques."

The Primordial Talisman Pen thought for a moment and then spoke.

It had already understood the many Life Talismans inscribed on Jiang Fan's body, each with endless mysteries.

Moreover, many of them had been cultivated to the Perfection Level.

But it felt Jiang Fan still lacked some control techniques over cultivators.

After all, when traversing the Cultivation Realm, slaughter doesn't solve everything.

"Elder Fu, do you mean talismans like the Enchantment Talisman?"

Jiang Fan's heart stirred, beginning to understand the Primordial Talisman Pen's idea.

"Correct, the power of the Enchantment Talisman is indeed good."

"Once deployed, it can confuse the enemy's mind, making them under your control, even turning them into puppets."

"Mastering such talismans can effortlessly manipulate many cultivators, controlling a large force."

"Just like how you previously controlled the Golden Core Zhu Family."

"However, simply having such control techniques is far from enough."

"Because the power of the Enchantment Talisman can also be broken and cleared by High-tier Cultivators."

"It's not a foolproof method."

The Primordial Talisman Pen felt this control method wasn't perfect, as it had seen numerous instances over the years where the power of the Enchantment Talisman was broken.

"Elder Fu, are there any other talismans that can achieve similar effects?"

Jiang Fan asked humbly for guidance.

"Soul Restriction Talisman."

"This is a Restriction Talisman that can imprison the soul."

"It can be cast on any creature with a soul."

"Once integrated with this Soul Restriction, it can completely confine the opponent's soul, locking their memories."

"They can't leak any information about you."

"If they dare to leak, even the mere thought of it will trigger the Restriction's punishment."

"More importantly, once this talisman is planted in the opponent's soul, even High-tier Cultivators can't forcibly remove it."

"If they dare attempt to forcibly remove it, the Restriction will instantly detonate, shattering the soul."

"In the past, the Primordial Talisman Sect used such talismans to enslave many Alien Race Cultivators."

The Primordial Talisman Pen spoke solemnly, offering its advice to inscribe the Soul Restriction Talisman. This is a particularly special talisman that was quite popular in ancient times.

In fact, many Ancient Sects have similar methods.

The souls of these sect disciples would be engraved with similar soul techniques.

If a Demonic Cultivator or another cultivator dared to soul search, the Restriction's power would immediately erupt, preventing any information from falling into enemy hands.

Thus, the many inheritances of Ancient Sects could never be leaked.

Enemies wanted to soul search to obtain sect inheritances, but that was impossible.

"Soul Restriction Talisman?!"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan's eyes flickered. He hadn't expected there to be such a talisman.

After all, the talismans recorded by the Primordial Talisman Sect were vast and extensive.

He couldn't possibly be familiar with every type of talisman.

But just as the Primordial Talisman Pen said, the power of the Enchantment Talisman alone is far from sufficient.

When faced with powerful cultivators, they could easily dispel the Enchantment Talisman.

However, with the addition of the Soul Restriction Talisman, it would be different.

Even when facing High-tier Cultivators, he wouldn't worry about his subordinates being turned against him.

.....

Another day passed.

Jiang Fan evidently succeeded in inscribing the Soul Restriction Talisman.

Even though the Primordial Talisman Pen had witnessed such scenes several times, it was still shocked by Jiang Fan's efficiency.

After all, the disciples of the Primordial Talisman Sect in the past were always apprehensive when inscribing their Life Talismans, requiring a lot of time to succeed.

But as for Jiang Fan, he succeeded in just one day, which was truly an exaggeration.

However, being a peerless genius, achieving such feats was probably as expected.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan's mind stirred, and he immediately opened the virtual panel on himself.
