Clearly, compared to before, Jiang Fan's various abilities have improved tremendously.

Currently, he only has 300,000 Luck Points left.

The reason for this still being so many is naturally because he stayed in the Nameless Valley before, overcame a tribulation, and gained quite a few Luck Points. Although he didn't obtain any opportunities, getting this many Luck Points is considered quite good.

"If the Soul Restriction Talisman can be successfully engraved, it can instantly condense a special kind of restriction."

"Moreover, it can easily integrate into the depths of the opponent's soul."

"It's a type of soul-related talisman."

"And it's more mysterious than the Enchantment Talisman, already belonging to rule-type talismans."

"If a rule is triggered, then it will activate the power within the restriction."

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered, he could sense the profoundness of the Soul Restriction Talisman; even at the Beginner level, he felt that if he used this talisman, he could control other cultivators, preventing them from leaking any of his information.

Of course, if he could cultivate this Life Talisman to the Perfection Level, then no one would be able to break free from control.

This is the formidable aspect of the Soul Restriction Talisman.

It was also one of the methods used by major sects in ancient times to ensure their legacy wouldn't be leaked.

"But no wonder it's the Mystical Transformation Realm, possessing a Tier Five Spirit Vein."

"If only I could practice here for a long time."

Jiang Fan mused deeply.

He had only been in the Black Dragon Secret Realm for half a year but felt immense benefits from cultivating here.

The efficiency of cultivation had increased by countless times.

It's like having a cultivation accelerator on oneself.

It's no surprise that the cultivators from the Divinity Transformation Sect progress rapidly, unparalleled by other cultivators.

But unfortunately, the Black Dragon Secret Realm is only open for a year.

Half a year has already passed; after another six months, this Secret Realm World will close completely.

I wonder if I can use the Gate of the Void to re-enter the Black Dragon Secret Realm.

If that succeeds, it would be equivalent to gaining a hidden cultivation holy land.

"By the way, Elder Fu, is there any way to extract the Spirit Vein?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

If he could extract the Spirit Vein, he could take one into the Exquisite Tower.

In this way, he wouldn't need to search for a suitable cultivation cave mansion elsewhere.

Even if he stayed in the Exquisite Tower to cultivate every day, it would be fine.

This would be like carrying a Spirit Vein with him.

"As far as I know, there is no way to do this."

"Because the power of the Spirit Vein itself comes from the earth, from the world."

"If the Spirit Vein is extracted, even if vast amounts of Spiritual Qi are gained, without the replenishment from the Earth's source, the power of the Spirit Vein will quickly dry up; it's purely a counterproductive endeavor."

"So basically, no one does such a self-destructive thing."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said solemnly.

Anyway, it had stayed in the Primordial Talisman Sect for a long time and never heard of anyone being able to extract a Spirit Vein.

"Actually, this can be done."

"In ancient times, there was a kind of Earth Master who could extract Spirit Veins."

"The problem is, doing so harms harmony and would also damage destiny."

"If severe, it might even bring about a Celestial Tribulation."

"So no one does such harmful and unprofitable things."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell also spoke.

It had heard of similar restriction methods, only a few Earth Masters knew such techniques.

However, even so, no Earth Master would do such a thing.

"Alright."

Jiang Fan nodded, it seemed his idea of carrying a Spirit Vein with him was completely shattered.

But it didn't matter, with his strength, obtaining a Cultivation Cave Mansion wherever he went was a normal occurrence.

He didn't necessarily need a portable Spirit Vein.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan sensed the Fortune-Telling Talisman deep in his Dantian and Sea of Qi vibrating, as a message instantly merged into the depths of his sea of consciousness.

"When clams fight, the fisherman profits, act at the right time, and blessings will be long-lasting."

"Continued cultivation in the Nameless Valley may result in being affected by the Tier Four Demon Beast, causing disaster, very ominous."

"Leave the Nameless Valley, arrive at Lotus Mountain a thousand miles southwest by midnight tomorrow, for a chance to obtain a Second-Grade Opportunity, with no hidden dangers, very auspicious."

"Head northeast, arrive at Thundering Mountain two days later at noon for a chance to obtain a Fourth-Grade Opportunity, but risk being pursued by enemies, leaving hidden dangers, ominous."

Sensing this message, Jiang Fan's eyes lit up with excitement.

He had stayed in the Black Dragon Secret Realm for six months, always lingering in the Nameless Valley, waiting for the right moment to act.

Although this Secret Realm World indeed had countless opportunities, his strength was too weak, akin to an ant compared to those Nascent Soul Cultivators, practically insignificant.

However, he wasn't anxious; if there really was an opportunity, the Fortune-Telling Talisman would certainly alert him.

Now upon seeing it, the Fortune-Telling Talisman indeed provided a hint.

"Can it even obtain a Second-Grade Opportunity without any hidden dangers?!"

"This truly is a major opportunity."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

To be honest, he had been in this world for so long and had only obtained a Second-Grade Opportunity once before.

That was acquiring the Sub-Immortal Artifact Gate of the Void.

Undoubtedly, the weight of this Second-Grade Opportunity was beyond imagination.

The most important treasure of this Void Realm ended up in his hands, proving the weight of a Second-Grade Opportunity.

Originally, he thought it would be a long time before he could obtain another Second-Grade Opportunity.

Who would've thought, after coming to the Black Dragon Secret Realm he would have a chance to obtain a Second-Grade Opportunity.

Could this opportunity rival the Gate of the Void in significance?!

Even though he had already acquired many opportunities, just thinking about this filled him with uncontrollable excitement.

This is not an opportunity one can obtain easily.

Without the perfect alignment of time, place, and people, it would be impossible to get.

"However, it seems this valley is not a place to stay for now."

At this time, Jiang Fan also saw the first hint message; if he continued to cultivate in the Nameless Valley, he might encounter a Tier Four Demon Beast, which was comparable to the powerful force of a Nascent Soul Cultivator.

If he were targeted by a Tier Four Demon Beast, it would definitely be ill-fated.

Of course, the beast wouldn't actively target him, nor did he reveal anything.

It was purely a calamity from out of nowhere.

But this was actually a norm in the Black Dragon Secret Realm.

After all, Tier Four Demon Beasts were everywhere in this Secret Realm World; encountering them at any time was very normal.

Managing to cultivate quietly here for half a year was already quite impressive.

"This place should be a remote area of the Black Dragon Secret Realm."

"There shouldn't be any treasures in this place."

"Normally, no other high-tier cultivators would pay attention here."

"It seems the battle for treasures is becoming more intense."

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered, knowing that the number of human cultivators and demon race cultivators entering the Black Dragon Secret Realm was certainly not few, though he had been hiding here and not involved in the opportunity fight.

But other high-tier cultivators were different; in order to fight for the opportunities of the Secret Realm World, they would definitely engage in fierce battles.

It might be unknown how many high-tier cultivators had fallen.

So those who obtained treasures might flee everywhere.

This way, there is a chance they would come to this remote place of his.

"Could this Second-Grade Opportunity have been brought by a cultivator?"

Jiang Fan touched his chin, feeling very curious.

But no matter how this Second-Grade Opportunity came, he couldn't possibly give it up.

Moreover, leaving the Nameless Valley wasn't significant either.

After all, the Spirit Plant—the Purple Gold Jade Marrow Tree in this valley had already been transplanted into the internal world of the Exquisite Tower by him.

He could slip away at any time.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate, his figure flashed, retrieving the power of the Cloud Dream Tracing Talisman, and then silently left this Nameless Valley.
