

Fortune 509

Chapter 509: Internal Conflict in the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family, Great Calamity Approaches_2

"What kind of supreme treasure could cause Nascent Soul cultivators to engage in such fierce battles?"

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered as he continued to inquire.

"That is unclear; this is the deepest secret of the Zhao Family."

"It is said that the reason the Zhao Family could rise all the way to become a Divinity Transformation Clan is because the ancestor once obtained this treasure, allowing him to smoothly become a Divinity Transformation cultivator."

"You could say that this treasure is linked to the opportunity for Divinity Transformation, and every Nascent Soul cultivator covets it."

"It is precisely because of this, after the disappearance of Divinity Transformation Ancestor Zhao Xuan, that many of the Zhao Family's Nascent Soul cultivators have set their sights on this treasure."

"Overall, the entire Zhao Family is in an uproar, as these Nascent Soul cultivators refuse to yield to each other in their efforts to seize this treasure and become the true ruler of the Zhao Family."

Foundation Establishment Elder Zhu Bin said.

He was also very curious about this mysterious treasure, and in fact, it wasn't just him; all the cultivators in the Black Dragon Sea Region were curious about it. What kind of treasure could help cultivators achieve Divinity Transformation?

Previously, the Zhao Family was at its zenith, with a Divinity Transformation ancestor holding court; naturally, no one dared to covet it even the slightest.

But now, it's different. The Zhao Family ancestor, Zhao Xuan, fell into a void rift, his fate unknown.

For other Nascent Soul cultivators, this could be considered a golden opportunity.

If they could seize this opportunity to steal the mysterious treasure and successfully rise to Divinity Transformation, perhaps a second Divinity Transformation clan would be born, replacing the Zhao Family as the new overlord of this sea region.

For all Nascent Soul cultivators, this is an irresistible temptation.

It's because of this that the entire Black Dragon Sea Region is filled with undercurrents, with countless cultivators eyeing the Zhao Family, wanting to see what will happen next and if there is an opportunity to exploit.

"Power struggle, is it?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan couldn't help but recall the Great Sun Sword Sect, that Golden Core Sect had also fallen into ruin due to internal strife among its sect cultivators.

Although that wasn't the main reason, it was at least the spark that ignited the situation.

He hadn't expected such a thing to happen in the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family, in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

But thinking about it, it seemed quite normal.

In the Cultivation Realm, for the opportunity to break through, no one cares who the other person is; even if they are siblings, they might still strike with a heavy hand.

After all, once successful, they would become a person of prominence.

Similar things are simply endless.

"If the Zhao Family has internal strife, wouldn't that benefit the Demon Race?"

"What if the Demon Race attacks at this time, what should be done?"

Jiang Fan also thought of this point.

The war between the Human Race and Demon Race had just settled a year ago, and he didn't expect the Zhao Family to encounter such a big problem.

Although the Zhao Family was indeed quite domineering, bleeding dry countless cultivator families, they were indeed the pillar of the Human Race in this sea region. Without the Zhao Family, humans wouldn't be so stable.

If the Zhao Family faces a problem, the Demon Race might also take the opportunity to attack, attempting to eliminate the Human Race.

The average lower-level cultivator probably doesn't want the Zhao Family to face any problems.

Even if there are problems, they need to wait until a second Divinity Transformation emerges among the Human Race to ensure stability.

"This, however, is not something to worry about because the Demon Race also has internal strife."

Foundation Establishment Elder Zhu Bin chuckled.

"The Demon Race also has internal strife?"

Jiang Fan blinked his eyes, feeling incredulous. How could it be that after the disappearance of the two Divinity Transformation cultivators, both the Human Race and Demon Race are having internal strife? It's simply absurd.

"Elder, though our Human Race has a lot of internal fighting, the Demon Race's infighting is no less intense."

"In fact, it's even more intense than ours in the Human Race."

"Originally, the Demon Race in this sea region was scattered, fighting amongst themselves endlessly."

"If not for the Divinity Transformation Ancestor Five Poison Flood Dragon, uniting the Demon Race in this sea region, they wouldn't even be able to come together."

"So after the disappearance of the Divinity Transformation Ancestor, their infighting is quite normal."

Foundation Establishment Elder Zhu Bin explained.

Evidently, infighting is not only a tradition of the Human Race but also a tradition of the Demon Race.

In fact, the Demon Race's internal conflict is much more intense; they really do fight to the death.

The race without enough strength would be completely eliminated, disappearing in this sea region.

"Even if there's infighting, it shouldn't be so quick."

Jiang Fan frowned, feeling there must be some reason.

After all, even if there were disagreements, they shouldn't erupt immediately.

"Ordinarily, indeed, it's impossible for infighting to happen so quickly."

"But it's said that the Dragon Palace of the Five Poison Flood Dragon also holds a great secret."

"It also seems to contain an opportunity to achieve Divinity Transformation."

"To seize this opportunity, those Tier Four demon beasts naturally waged fierce battles."

"After all, everyone wants to become the next Tier Five demon beast, becoming the overlord of the Demon Race."

Foundation Establishment Elder Zhu Bin said in a deep voice. In fact, many people knew this matter, as the Human Race and Demon Race had been in confrontation in the Black Dragon Sea Region for many years and were quite familiar with each other.

Before a war broke out, the Human Race and Demon Race even engaged in trade with one another frequently.

"Divinity Transformation opportunity?"

Jiang Fan nodded, if that's the case, then the Nascent Soul infighting among the Demon Race would also not be surprising.

He hadn't expected the Human Race and Demon Race to have infighting at the same time, without prior order.

However, the internal conflicts within the two major races probably existed for a long time.

It's just that with the suppression of the two Divinity Transformation cultivators beforehand, such internal conflicts couldn't erupt.

If they had erupted, they would have been suppressed by the Divinity Transformation cultivators long ago.