

Fortune 514

Chapter 514: Great Gains, Obtaining the 2nd True Spirit Technique

"I didn't expect the calamity to actually come from two Golden Core Demon Cultivators."

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered.

Now he realized why the Fortune-Telling Talisman advised against staying on Zhu Family Island to await the enemy, but rather to take action, ambushing them halfway to neutralize the threat unnoticeably.

Because these two Golden Core Demon Cultivators were from the Blood Demon Sect.

As members of the Blood Demon Sect, there's no telling how many demon cultivators were backing them.

If they died on Zhu Family Island, the island would most likely face endless trouble in the future.

The island would surely be targeted by numerous cultivators from the Blood Demon Sect, possibly even attracting Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators.

So this would be a never-ending problem.

However, if they died elsewhere, the demon cultivators from the Blood Demon Sect wouldn't know who was responsible.

They wouldn't be able to find any culprit.

Even though this sea region was controlled by the Zhu Family, the area was vast, and the perpetrator might not be a Zhu Family cultivator, but could also be a passing Golden Core Cultivator, or even a Nascent Soul.

In this way, the hidden threat is completely eliminated, avoiding retaliation from the demon cultivators.

"Master, I didn't expect to encounter Blood Demon Sect cultivators here in the Black Dragon Sea Region."

"Are these demon cultivators everywhere?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace said with a sigh, it originally thought that Blood Demon Sect cultivators could only be encountered on the Southern Continent, yet was surprised to find them even in the Black Dragon Sea Region, truly incredible.

"Haha, what do you know."

"Demonic inheritance is not limited by region."

"The Blood Demon Sect's legacy is everywhere, covering the entire Void Realm."

"Those demons frantically left their legacies in the Void Realm."

"As long as the inheritance doesn't perish, the Demon Sect won't perish, and many demon cultivators will continue to emerge."

"This is the troublesome part of demon cultivators, they're simply unstoppable."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said helplessly.

After all, as long as human cultivators have desires, the issue of demonic cultivation techniques can't be resolved.

For cultivators with poor aptitude, or those whose lifespan is nearing its end, demonic cultivation techniques are always the best option.

Even in ancient times, this problem wasn't solved.

Even when the Righteous Influence was extremely prosperous, the demon cultivators were still rampant.

In fact, the brighter the sunlight, the denser the darkness.

"Demon cultivators are indeed a big trouble."

Jiang Fan nodded, but he was unable to change this situation, and could only adapt to this reality of the Cultivation Realm.

He waved his hand, immediately collecting the corpses of the two Golden Core Demon Cultivators and storing them in the internal space of the Exquisite Tower.

After all, these two Golden Core Demon Cultivators' corpses could be turned into fertilizer for the land, promoting the growth of spirit medicine.

They shouldn't be wasted here.

At the same time, their storage bags naturally became his possession.

The Fifth-Grade Opportunity was likely inside these storage bags.

But he didn't have time to check the treasures inside the storage bags now; it was best to make a hasty exit.

Because he didn't know if these two Golden Core Demon Cultivators had other companions.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's figure flashed, instantly leaving the island.

The mortals on the island had no idea what had just happened.

Because Jiang Fan's battle speed was so fast, he eliminated the two great Golden Core Demon Cultivators in the blink of an eye, leaving them with no power to resist.

Meanwhile, on another island in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

This was a secret base of the Blood Demon Sect, inhabited by a large number of demon cultivators.

The leader was a Nascent Soul Demon Cultivator named Jiang Yizhen.

The Blood Demon Sect's resurgence in the Black Dragon Sea Region was due to his efforts.

Originally he was just a cultivator with a low-grade spirit root, with little hope of achieving Foundation Establishment in this lifetime.

But by chance, he acquired the Blood Demon Scripture, obtained the Blood Demon Sect's legacy, and thus rose to prominence.

Anyone who stood in his way was essentially blood sacrificed and turned into his nourishment, making him a notorious demon.

However, his excessive arrogance attracted the attention of cultivators from the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family, and he was hunted by numerous Nascent Souls.

He was almost completely killed, facing death extinction.

Fortunately, he had a trump card, feigning death to escape.

After this calamity, he reflected deeply, choosing to no longer act so publicly, but instead to remain hidden.

As long as the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family remained powerful, he would never show himself.

In order to avoid detection, he started spreading the Blood Demon Scripture widely, recruiting a large number of cultivators to join the Blood Demon Sect and become demon cultivators.

After hundreds of years of development, the Blood Demon Sect had become deeply rooted in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

Cultivators from some noble families had also become members of the Blood Demon Sect.

"Lord Sect Master, Blood Sixteen and Xue Shiqi's soul lamps suddenly went out."

At this moment, a Golden Core Demon Cultivator's face changed dramatically, as he was stationed in the Soul Lamp Hall, responsible for monitoring the soul lamps in order to know about the life and death status of each Blood Demon Sect disciple.

In this way, they could know in advance if the Blood Demon Sect was exposed or if it was deliberately being hunted by enemies.

They could even avenge the deceased disciples.

"What's going on? Why did they suddenly die?"

The Nascent Soul Demon Cultivator Jiang Yizhen frowned, as these two were his carefully nurtured disciples, the current elite members of the Blood Demon Sect in the Black Dragon Sea Region. After all, becoming a Golden Core Demon Cultivator was not easy.

Now that they've suddenly died, it's undoubtedly a significant blow to a portion of the Blood Demon Sect's power.

"I'm not sure, it seems they intended to blood sacrifice an island, devouring a large amount of essence blood."
