Chapter 520: Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman, Power of the Cyan Dragon_2

The Primordial Talisman Pen spoke in a deep voice.

If it were other cultivators, it would not suggest engraving the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman, as the difficulty of engraving the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman is extremely high, almost impossible to achieve.

If one cannot achieve it, then it is purely a waste of time, hindering cultivation.

However, Jiang Fan is different. Over the years, it has witnessed Jiang Fan's extraordinary talent, and it believes that with this kid's comprehension and aptitude, engraving the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman should not be a big problem.

If he can succeed, then it will certainly elevate this kid's strength to a higher level.

"The Four Symbols Spirit Talisman, huh? So, which talisman should I engrave first?"

Jiang Fan concentrated his mind and glanced at the data concerning the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman. These four talismans are indeed incredibly complex, just taking a look at them is overwhelming to the point of dizziness.

But this also proves the powerful nature of the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman, unparalleled by other talismans.

If he succeeds in engraving it, the unity of the Four Symbols, the power contained within, can already threaten the Nascent Soul.

This power is what makes his heart throb.

"Naturally, it's the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman."

"This Spirit Talisman contains the power of the Cyan Dragon and the wood power."

"Once fully mastered, it allows control over the power of the Cyan Dragon and the breath of wood. Combining the two forms the Cyan Dragon Shield, which can resist numerous attacks, and even immune to poisons, curses, and other powers.

Apart from defensive power, its attack power is also extremely strong. With a single thought, it can manipulate countless trees and vines, endlessly strangling the enemy. Being in a forest simply places one in an undefeatable position."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

"Understood."

Jiang Fan nodded. He also understood the might of the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman. Even if unable to integrate the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman, just this single talisman is greatly beneficial to Golden Core Cultivators.

One can only say that, indeed, it's a Spirit Talisman containing the Power of the Four Symbols, not comparable to other ordinary talismans.

Moreover, not every sect possesses such talismans.

Only the Primordial Talisman Sect has obtained such powerful talismans and mastered the power of the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan hesitated not a moment, he immediately exhausted a large number of Luck Points, and began to comprehend the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman.

At this moment, he entered the state of Unity of Heaven and Man, the mysteries of this talisman surged into the depths of his sea of consciousness.

Vaguely, a phantom of a cyan dragon seemed to appear in the core depths of this talisman, swimming in an endless sea of trees, surrounded by the infinite breath of life, unfathomable.

One by one, talisman patterns began to engrave onto the surface of the Primordial Golden Core.

Undoubtedly, this also counts as the most complex talisman Jiang Fan has engraved.

No previous talisman compares to the current Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman.

Fortunately, his Spiritual Power is strong enough.

Otherwise, even if comprehending the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman, he could not successfully engrave it.

"So quickly comprehended?"

Seeing this scene, the Primordial Talisman Pen was speechless, not knowing what to say.

Even though it knew this kid's comprehension is astounding, the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman shouldn't stump him.

But even so, it didn't expect him to comprehend the Cyan Dragon Armor Talisman so quickly. How much time has actually passed, it's truly unbelievable.

Originally, it wanted to guide him in comprehending this talisman.

Who could have imagined this kid understood it in a blink?

Sometimes when the disciple is too outstanding, there's a lack of any sense of achievement.

Three days later.

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, neither happy nor sad, he was engraving the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman, currently at the last critical moment.

Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi spread around, flooding into his body.

Thus transforming the entire chamber into a vortex of Spiritual Qi.

Spiritual Qi from the Tier Three Spirit Vein surged over.

Boom~~

At this moment, the last talisman pattern was successfully engraved, and another Life Talisman appeared on the surface of the Primordial Golden Core—the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman.

Vaguely, a cyan dragon seemed to appear on the surface of the Primordial Golden Core, embodying incomparable Long Wei, as if the Eastern Divine Beast Cyan Dragon was awakening at this moment, letting out roars.

With his body as the center, Wood Elemental Spiritual Qi surged, as if transforming into the master of the scent of wood, the breath of life, infinite Life Force surged over.

"It's done."

At this moment, Jiang Fan opened his eyes with a joyful smile, undoubtedly the difficulty of engraving the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman exceeded expectations, lasting three days and nights, never before happened.

Previously, engraving a Life Talisman ended within at most one day, requiring nowhere near three days.

"The Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman is quite extraordinary."

Jiang Fan's eyes twinkled, clearly this talisman is a composite talisman, containing the Cyan Dragon Talisman and Armor Wood Talisman, the combination forms the Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman.

And the Cyan Dragon Talisman undoubtedly comes from an innate talisman on the Cyan Dragon.

Thus, this talisman can evoke a trace of the Divine Beast Cyan Dragon's power, making the talisman's power immense.

Clearly, the cultivator who created the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman must have once encountered the Four Symbols Divine Beasts, even closely observed the innate talismans on them, to create the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman.

Even if just grasping a slight understanding, the Spirit Talisman created is extremely powerful.

Swoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's figure flashed, utilizing the Divine Skill of Shrinking Earth into Inches, in the blink of an eye leaving the chamber, quickly arriving at a desolate island near Zhu Family Island.
