Chapter 524: Easy Crossing the Tribulation, Gaining a Fifth-Grade Opportunity

"What is this Demon Sect all about?"

Jiang Fan asked.

"Master, the Primordial Demon Sect is the strongest demon sect in the Void Realm."

"Even if all the other demon sects combined, they likely wouldn't be a match for the Primordial Demon Sect."

"In the Ancient Era, countless cultivators died at the hands of the Primordial Demon Sect."

"It's said they left behind numerous blood debts."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said faintly.

Undoubtedly, during the Ancient Era, the Demon-Vibrating Bell had battled the demon cultivators of the Primordial Demon Sect many times, the enmity between them as deep as the sea, memories fresh and vivid.

Thus, it deeply hated the demon cultivators of the Primordial Demon Sect.

"Why is the Primordial Demon Sect so powerful?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

After all, the other demon sects are not simple either, each with their strange methods and extraordinary strength. Why does this Primordial Demon Sect stand out as the leader of the Demon Dao?

It's truly amazing that this sect has continued through countless ages.

It's like an ancient demon sect that spans the river of history.

"That's because it possesses the Primordial Demon Scripture."

"This cultivation technique is simply the most powerful in the Demon Dao."

"Each demon cultivator who practices the Primordial Demon Scripture evolves different characteristics based on their talents and physiques, evolving into different demons."

"Even practicing the Primordial Demon Scripture doesn't easily lead to losing control or sanity."

"Thus, each demon cultivator from the Primordial Demon Sect is extremely powerful, far surpassing cultivators of the same rank."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell explained.

Clearly, during the Ancient Era, each demon cultivator from the Primordial Demon Sect was very troublesome and hard to kill.

They were the grave threat in the hearts of all other cultivators, deserving to be exterminated by everyone.

"Furthermore, the Primordial Demon Sect doesn't just recruit human cultivators."

"They recruit cultivators from all races, truly teaching without discrimination."

"They also strongly believe in the law of the jungle, with intense internal struggles."

"In fights over cultivation resources, they often kill each other."

"It's like raising a Gu, cultivating the strongest Gu King."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said gravely, remembering the Primordial Demon Sect well as a formidable demon sect countered by the righteous sects, with unimaginable strength.

Even after all these years, many ancient sects have perished, but the Primordial Demon Sect has not been destroyed.

This proves just how tenacious the Primordial Demon Sect's life force is.

"Why is the Primordial Demon Scripture so wondrous? It seems to surpass other demon scriptures."

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

"Naturally, it's because the creator of the Primordial Demon Scripture was extremely powerful."

"You must know that most demon scriptures come from demons, possibly even demon gods."

"For example, the Blood Demon Sect's cultivation technique comes from the Blood Demon."

"The Six Desires Sect's cultivation technique comes from the Six Desires Demon."

"And the Primordial Demon Sect's cultivation technique comes from the Primordial Demon Ancestor."

"It's said that this Primordial Demon Ancestor was the ancestor of ten thousand demons, with an astonishing cultivation level."

"Even immortals were not its match."

"Cultivation techniques created by such beings are naturally unfathomable and incomparable to other demon scriptures."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell explained.

Clearly, the depth of the Demon Dao is profound, beyond measure.

If it weren't so, the Demon Dao wouldn't be so deeply rooted and difficult to eradicate.

During the Ancient Era, the Demon Dao flourished, pressing down countless forces unable to rise.

Demon cultivators ran rampant across the world, unhindered by anyone.

"So the cultivators of the Primordial Demon Sect are extremely dangerous."

"Better to eliminate them quickly."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted with a cold light.

When dealing with such enemies, one should not cross them lightly, but if crossed, one must strike decisively.

Leave no chance for the enemy to retaliate.

With this thought, he took out the ancient treasure, the Great Sun Buddha Mirror. He chose to use this ancient treasure because the power of the Demon-Vibrating Bell affects a wide area, which would involve the human Golden Core Cultivator.

However, the Great Sun Buddha Mirror can target the three Golden Core Demon Cultivators precisely, avoiding collateral damage.

Boom~~

In an instant, the enormous Primordial Spiritual Power within Jiang Fan poured into the Great Sun Buddha Mirror. Since ascending to the fourth layer of the Golden Core, the Primordial Spiritual Power within him had surged significantly, allowing him to unleash even greater abilities.

The mirror emitted golden light, like a great sun, accompanied by chanting as if countless Buddhas were reciting sutras.

The next second, the mirror shone brightly, countless Sanskrit characters appearing on its surface.

Like an ancient sutra.

Golden rays blasted forth, formed from the True Sun Fire, containing terrifying destructive power, with the ability to burn mountains and boil seas.

They locked onto the energies of the three Golden Core Demon Cultivators, moving at an incredible speed.

Such a terrifying killing intent could not be concealed from the three Golden Core Demon Cultivators.

"What's going on?"

"Damn it, there's an ambusher among us."

"Cowardly guy, come out and face us if you dare."

At that moment, the faces of the three Golden Core Demon Cultivators twisted with anger. They initially planned to kill the human Golden Core Cultivator but suddenly sensed a life-or-death crisis. Looking up, they saw three golden fire blasts rushing towards them.

Moreover, the speed of the attack was unbelievably fast, faster than the mind can comprehend.

Before they could react, the golden flames effortlessly pierced through their bodies.

As if pierced by multiple arrows.

Even though their physiques were extremely strong, comparable to defensive magical artifacts, they couldn't withstand this force.
