Chapter 538: Obtaining a Fourth-Grade Opportunity, Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures from the Ancient Era_2

"One could say that the Tier Five Spiritual Eye Spring is an extraordinary treasure."

"Originally, I thought that after the tribulations of the Ancient Era, many treasures of the Primordial Talisman Sect had vanished into the river of history."

"Now it seems that these Nine Great Secret Realm Worlds perhaps still hold quite a few rare treasures."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said with much emotion.

It never expected to find such a treasure within Secret Realm No. 5.

This kid truly seems to be favored by the heavens.

After all, which cultivator, just by wandering around, would coincidentally witness the emergence of a Tier Five Spiritual Eye Spring?

Boom~~

At this moment, figures suddenly flew in from afar, bursting forth with terrifying demonic qi, seeming to sweep across the sky, obscuring both the sky and the sun.

In the next second, seven or eight Golden Core Demon Cultivators arrived in a flash.

They seemed to sense the rich spiritual qi of this place, accompanied by the flashing of treasure light, so they rushed over at the first opportunity.

"Haha, a treasure has emerged, truly a treasure has emerged."

"Just now, we saw the treasure light reaching the skies and knew that there must be a treasure appearing here. Our luck is not bad."

"Wait a minute, this spiritual liquid gushing out, the spiritual qi dispersing, could it be the legendary Spiritual Eye Spring?"

"This isn't just an ordinary Spiritual Eye Spring, it seems to have reached Tier Five level."

"My heavens, if it's true, then this is a wondrous treasure of Heaven and Earth, its value is simply incalculable."

The Golden Core Demon Cultivators discussed amongst themselves.

Each of their eyes revealed an extreme greed.

They were all eager to move, highly excited.

Of course, these Golden Core Demon Cultivators quickly noticed Jiang Fan standing before the valley.

"Oh, it seems there's a lucky fellow here who also discovered the Spiritual Eye Spring."

"Hehe, really lucky? How do I feel this kid is out of luck?"

"Truly out of luck, to actually run into us, the Primordial Demon Sect. His life is at its end."

"No need for nonsense, let's kill him immediately to prevent other righteous cultivators from coming."

"That's right, I don't wish to start a war with other righteous cultivators. It's best to take the treasure and leave quickly."

The Golden Core Demon Cultivators exuded terrifying killing intent.

Boom~~

In an instant, they did not intend to waste any words, immediately activating their demon techniques to attack Jiang Fan.

The massive demonic qi was surging all around.

Some transformed into demon claws, some into demon swords, some into arrows, and others into demons; one after another, the black demonic light came crushing down, imbued with terrifying demonic nature and destructiveness.

It was as if seven or eight demons were making a move.

If it were an ordinary Golden Core Cultivator facing them, they would be virtually doomed to die.

They wouldn't even have the chance to send a distress signal.

"Did the tribulation really appear?"

"To obtain a Fourth-Grade Opportunity, it seems not so simple."

"This is what is called the intertwining of fortune and disaster."

At this moment, Jiang Fan naturally sensed the arrival of this group of Golden Core Demon Cultivators. He also recalled the information from the Fortune-Telling Talisman, that although he had a chance to obtain a Fifth-Grade Opportunity this time, he would surely face some turbulent waves.

Without a doubt, the arrival of these Golden Core Demon Cultivators was the source of the turbulence.

Fortunately, this turmoil was danger-free and not a Death Tribulation.

That's why he chose to come to Jade Field Valley.

If he went to another place, the enemies he encountered might not be these Golden Core Demon Cultivators, but Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators.

But at this moment, Jiang Fan moved his mind and immediately activated the Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure, Taiyi Five Smoke Net, on his body.

Although he had not had this Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure for long, over these six months, he had thoroughly familiarized himself with its inherent power.

Boom~~

In an instant, the Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure, Taiyi Five Smoke Net, flew out, transforming into colorful clouds, enveloping Jiang Fan from all sides with no blind spots.

From the depths of these clouds emerged dense and mysterious runes, seemingly forming a massive barrier.

Bang! Bang! Bang!!!

In the next second, the power of the eight Golden Core Demon Cultivators attacked Taiyi Five Smoke Net, but this terrifying destructive power was all swallowed and absorbed by the colorful clouds.

Jiang Fan stood at a distance, motionless, unharmed.

Undoubtedly, this was the defensive power of the Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure, Taiyi Five Smoke Net.

"No wonder it's a defensive-type Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure, it truly lives up to its name."

Seeing this scene, Jiang Fan felt very satisfied. It was just a small trial, yet it was enough to prove the defensive power of Taiyi Five Smoke Net, and this was only part of its power.

No wonder in the Ancient Era, as long as one held this Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure, they could stand undefeated, akin to the shell of an Ancient Profound Turtle.

"How can it be? A mere righteous Golden Core Cultivator could withstand all our attacks, this is too ridiculous." A Golden Core Demon Cultivator was taken aback, utterly incredulous about the scene before him.

He originally thought that a mere Golden Core Cultivator facing their combined assault was undoubtedly doomed, incapable of resisting even for a moment.

But now, with the opponent using just one mysterious treasure, they deflected all their attacks effortlessly, truly unbelievable.

At this moment, a sense of dread emerged in his heart, perhaps they had provoked someone they shouldn't have.

"This guy is no simple character."

"Indeed, if I'm not mistaken, this must be a Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure."

"Impossible, how could a mere Golden Core Cultivator possess a Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure? Even Divinity Transformation Cultivators might not have one."

"This is just fantastic, it seems even the heavens are helping us. If we kill this kid, not only can we obtain the Spiritual Eye Spring, but we can also acquire a Heaven-Reaching Spiritual Treasure. Isn't this a double blessing?"

The Golden Core Demon Cultivators were not scared but delighted.

They were all incredibly excited, looking at Jiang Fan as if gazing at a massive treasure trove.

The power of this mysterious treasure was indeed beyond imagination.

But they believed that no matter how formidable this kid was, he was just a Golden Core Cultivator.

In the face of their collective assault, he had no chance of escaping.

"Let me test the might of my Cyan Lotus Earth Fire on you."

At this time, Jiang Fan was moved and immediately activated his Life Talisman—Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman.

Previously, he had already brought the skill level of this talisman to the Realm of Great Success.

As a result, his control over the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire had reached a level of mastery.

Rumble~~

Instantly, the enormous primordial spiritual power within him poured into the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman.

This talisman flew out in a flash, hovering in the air.

Next, it transformed into a gigantic cyan lotus flower, entirely formed by cyan flames, enveloping a radius of hundreds of kilometers in endless cyan flames.

An invisible pressure pervaded all directions, and the terrifying flames scorched everything.

It was as if this area had become an ocean of cyan fire.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In the next second, the cyan flame lotus flower suddenly exploded, like a volcanic eruption.

Or like a rain of fire falling from the sky.

Each drop of flame was like a cyan lotus flower, covering the group of Golden Core Demon Cultivators.

"Damn it, this is the Heaven and Earth Anomalous Fire Cyan Lotus Earth Fire!"

"Are you kidding me? How could this guy possibly control the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire?"

"We must not come into contact with these flames; these flames especially restrain our demon techniques."

The faces of many Golden Core Demon Cultivators changed dramatically.

They completely did not expect that this fellow in front of them controlled the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire, a rare anomalous fire, and this fire had an extensive restraint over demon cultivators.

The problem was, enveloped by this fire, they were simply unable to avoid or escape it.

Each drop of cyan flame fell upon them, just like that, dripping onto their bodies.

Boom~~

Merely at the moment of contact with their bodies, as if flames met diesel, they were instantly set ablaze.

For the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire, the flames on their bodies were the best fuel.

Immediately, the bodies of all eight Golden Core Demon Cultivators were shrouded in cyan flames.

Their bodies also turned into cyan torches, beginning to burn fiercely.

Each of them couldn't help but let out a shrill scream, feeling unprecedented pain.

But such screams didn't last long.

It was only a second before the screams abruptly stopped.

This was because their bodies had been reduced to ashes.
