Chapter 546: Acquiring the Five Directions Tribulation Stone, a Treasure to Resist the Nascent Soul Celestial Tribulation_2

"To resist the Nascent Soul Celestial Tribulation? That's indeed a remarkable treasure."

Jiang Fan immediately stowed away the Five-Element Tribulation Stone, feeling quite satisfied inside.

Although he was still some distance away from the Nascent Soul Realm, advancing to Nascent Soul was just a matter of time, so preparing in advance was a reasonable thing to do.

After all, no one would dislike having too many trump cards.

Undoubtedly, this Five-Element Tribulation Stone was originally hidden deep within the Nine Directions Mountain, encased within the rocks.

If it weren't for those Golden Core Cultivators battling and destroying the mountain, the Five-Element Tribulation Stone might not have surfaced.

However, those Golden Core Demon Cultivators didn't notice, so he got lucky and obtained this precious treasure.

If those Demon Cultivators knew this, they'd probably be filled with regret.

After all, the combined treasures of many Golden Core Cultivators can't compare to this Five-Element Tribulation Stone.

"This kid's destiny truly defies the heavens."

The Primordial Talisman Pen witnessed this and was speechless, not knowing what to say.

Normally, the Golden Core Cultivators expend a lot of effort and resources to collect advancement resources for Nascent Soul, but this kid obtained these Nascent Soul resources so effortlessly.

It's almost like heaven itself is aiding his Nascent Soul advancement.

Even in the Ancient Era, the Five-Element Tribulation Stone was a highly prized treasure.

Acquiring such a treasure required completing various tasks for the Sect to prove one's ability.

Yet, this kid got it casually without paying any price.

The pen thinks not even the Second Generation Immortals can compare to him.

"Master, where should we head next?"

"Ten Thousand Talisman City probably can't be stayed in anymore, right?"

At this moment, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace curiously asked, wanting to know its master's next destination.

After all, it wasn't very familiar with the Eastern Continent.

"I plan to go to the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range."

Jiang Fan said in a deep voice.

He had spent a considerable amount of time in Ten Thousand Talisman City, and naturally wasn't here just for leisure.

He learned a lot about the Eastern Continent from the local Cultivators.

The whole Eastern Continent is overall divided into three major forces: Demon Race, Demonic Influence, and Human Race, which have divided the three major regions.

And the Human Race has four Divinity Transformation Holy Lands, occupying parts of the Eastern Continent.

However, due to the vastness of the Eastern Continent.

Even though the three major forces have divided quite a bit of land, there are still places they cannot take over.

One such place is the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range.

Legend has it that the mountain range saw the fall of an Immortal during the Ancient Era.

This makes the mountain range extremely dangerous, filled with spatial folds, spatial labyrinths, and spatial fractures.

Even Divinity Transformation Cultivators face certain death when venturing deep.

So most can only stay in the outer areas.

Even then, it's more than enough.

Because the mountain range is vast beyond comprehension, no one knows its true size.

For this reason, it contains countless Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures.

Many Loose Cultivators and Sect Cultivators gather at the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range.

If one seeks treasures and opportunities, this is the best place to be.

Even some Nascent Soul Cultivators have found significant Divinity Transformation opportunities here.

Some Divinity Transformation Cultivators have become enlightened in the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range.

Thus, this place has become the Supreme Holy Land in the hearts of countless Loose Cultivators.

"Master, isn't the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range a bit too dangerous?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace nervously asked.

Due to the abundant opportunities, it attracts a large number of High-tier Cultivators.

Golden Core and Nascent Soul Cultivators are in abundance.

Occasionally, one might encounter Divinity Transformation Cultivators.

If a mistake is made, one might face various tribulations and meet an untimely end.

"Don't worry, despite the danger, the opportunities are plentiful."

"As long as we're careful, it won't be too much of a problem."

Jiang Fan said calmly.

To be honest, he was confident because he mastered the power of the Fortune-Telling Talisman, which can predict fortune and misfortune.

With this ability, even if danger looms, he can safely evade it.

Moreover, he holds the Gate of the Void.

If he encounters Nascent Soul or Divinity Transformation Cultivators, he can swiftly escape.

Of course, he plans to head to the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range to leave a spatial coordinate there.

Doing so would allow him to return to the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range anytime in the future.

More importantly, the distance from the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range isn't very far, enabling him to briefly exit the Celestial Secret Mansion's sphere of influence.

He can peacefully cultivate there for some time.

Whoosh!

Thinking this, he didn't hesitate and immediately advanced toward the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range.

After all, the area near Ten Thousand Talisman City had become unsafe.

In the short term, it seems to have become a battlefield between the Primordial Demon Sect and Celestial Secret Mansion.

If he stays here, he'll surely be caught up in the war.

At this moment, inside the Exquisite Tower's internal world.

Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou returned to this place again.

They hadn't returned to the Exquisite Tower for quite some time.

Therefore, they weren't clear about the changes in the Exquisite Tower.

"Such abundant Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi."

"The Spiritual Qi here can already compare to a Tier Five Spirit Vein."

Lu Youyou widened her beautiful eyes, almost unable to believe them.

She had only been away from this Spatial Treasure for a while, yet so much had changed.

"Oh, this is the latest treasure husband's acquired recently."

"It's called the Fonte of Spirit Eyes, and it's of Tier Five level."

"That's why the Spiritual Qi here is so rich."

Su Weiwei explained.

She had learned from Jiang Fan about some treasures her husband acquired during this time.

"Tier Five Spiritual Eye Spring? Where did this kid go to get such a treasure?"

Cloud Fairy was dumbfounded.

She knew how precious the Spiritual Eye Spring was, hailed as a mobile Spirit Vein.

Countless Cultivators longed to possess it.

Yet this kid obtained it silently, beyond belief.

Though she knew he had exceptional luck, she didn't expect it to be this good.

"Is the Spiritual Eye Spring such a remarkable treasure?"

Lu Youyou curiously asked.

"Even in the Ancient Era, it was extremely valuable."

"In the current era, it's unique."

"Even Divinity Transformation Cultivators go mad over it."

"I thought treasures like the Spiritual Eye Spring had disappeared, yet it reappears."

"Does this mean the world is about to revive again?"

Cloud Fairy's eyes shimmered, deeply shocked, recalling some secret information.

"Master, what does it mean for the world to revive?"

Lu Youyou asked, confused.

"This world is named Void Realm."

"It was a renowned Great Thousand World during the Ancient Era."

"Some Cultivators could ascend to become Immortals."

"Unfortunately, the great cataclysm in the Ancient Era led to the downfall of many Ancient Sects, critically damaging the world."

"Because of this, the world has been deteriorating, Spiritual Qi thinning, with fewer and fewer Cultivators."

"But there's an Ancient Great Power's prophecy suggesting this world may have a chance to recover."

"If it weakens to a certain extent, hitting rock bottom, then the Void Realm might experience Spiritual Energy Revival and return to the splendour of the Ancient Era."

Cloud Fairy explained.

"Return to the splendour of the Ancient Era? Is that possible?"

Lu Youyou excitedly spoke.

She'd read through various old texts, knowing the Ancient Era was a cultivation golden age where even Divinity Transformation Cultivators were just beginning, with numerous powers akin to Immortals.

If it truly could make the Void Realm return to the Ancient Era's glory, then Cultivators like her might also rise, perhaps not ascend, but at least become Nascent Soul and Divinity Transformation, right?

"I'm uncertain; it's just a mere speculation."

"After so many years, few believe this prophecy."

"I'd thought it was nonsense, with the Void Realm having little chance of revival."

"But now, it seems it might not be baseless."

"Especially with the appearance of treasures like the Spiritual Eye Spring, Spiritual Energy Revival might not be impossible."

Cloud Fairy said, excited.
