

Fortune 547

Chapter 547: Signs of Spiritual Qi Revival, Moving Calamity!

She was so excited because if this matter was true, she would have a chance to be revived.

After all, if this world truly recovers, it would certainly give birth to countless Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures.

At that time, she could also take the opportunity to acquire many treasures and gain numerous benefits.

Of course, this is merely her speculation, not something she can be absolutely sure of.

"Master, what calamity befell this world during the Ancient Era that caused such circumstances?"

Lu Youyou asked curiously.

She was always very curious about the events of the Ancient Era, not knowing what kind of calamity had occurred to completely destroy such a prosperous civilization of cultivation. It was indeed astonishing.

"This is an ancient secret, not something you can understand for now."

"Your main task now is still to cultivate and rapidly advance to Golden Core."

"Knowing too many secrets is not necessarily a good thing for you."

Cloud Fairy didn't want to explain what happened during the Ancient Era, showing a somewhat apprehensive attitude.

"Alright."

"But Master, how did we come to the Eastern Continent?"

"Clearly, the Black Dragon Sea Region is countless miles away from the Eastern Continent."

"Unexpectedly, in the blink of an eye, that senior brought us to the Eastern Continent. It's truly incredible."

Lu Youyou noticed her master didn't want to answer questions about the Ancient Era, so she immediately switched topics.

"Do you even have to ask? Surely it's through the Ancient Teleportation Array."

"Although many ancient teleportation arrays have been destroyed, there are still many remnants from ancient times."

"This guy's luck is defying the heavens, finding an ancient teleportation array isn't impossible."

"No wonder I felt this guy seems unlike a cultivator from the Black Dragon Sea Region; he was probably from another region and came to the Black Dragon Sea Region through the teleportation array."

Cloud Fairy said solemnly.

"Can we return to the Black Dragon Sea Region again?"

Lu Youyou asked; for her, the Black Dragon Sea Region was always her hometown.

If possible, she still wanted to return to the Black Dragon Sea Region.

"Of course, there's no problem."

"As long as your cultivation is strong enough, the world is vast, no place is unreachable."

"But if you're still at Foundation Establishment, even within a thousand miles, it's difficult to take a single step."

Cloud Fairy said with annoyance.

She wanted to harshly whip this lazy disciple into shape.

Since following that man, she had become increasingly lazy.

After all, being supported by the man, without any survival crisis, naturally, she wouldn't cultivate as diligently as before.

But if she continued like this, wouldn't her revival be hopeless?!

"Got it, Master."

Upon hearing this, Lu Youyou said guiltily.

...

At this time, Jiang Fan naturally sensed the conversation between the two through the power of the Exquisite Tower.

"Ancient secrets? Spiritual Qi recovery? Is such a thing possible?"

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered; he hadn't expected to learn such news from this ancient soul.

Evidently, his decision to pretend to know nothing was quite correct.

In this way, the opponent would have no reservations and disclose much of the information they knew.

After all, the opponent apparently knew quite a few ancient secrets.

To him, such an antique was like Bai Xiaosheng of the Ancient Era, capable of helping him understand many secrets.

"Forget it. Regardless of whether Spiritual Qi will recover in the future, the most important thing right now is to improve my cultivation."

"Otherwise, even if some treasure appears, without sufficient strength, there's no chance for you to seize it."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

He didn't delve further into this matter, treating it as interesting tidbits to hear.

Because such intelligence wasn't particularly helpful to him at the moment.

...

On the other hand.

Celestial Secret Mansion, a certain place.

"Oh no, Junior Brother Yang Yu's soul lamp has extinguished."

The faces of many cultivators at Celestial Secret Mansion changed dramatically as they noticed that the soul lamps of three Inner Sect Disciples had gone out.

If it were just that, it wouldn't be a big deal, but Yang Yu was no ordinary Inner Sect Disciple; his father was a Nascent Soul Elder of the sect, someone with high authority.

The death of such a notable person's offspring was absolutely earth-shaking for Celestial Secret Mansion.

"How is it possible? Who killed Junior Brother Yang Yu and his fellows, with such audacity?"

"Catch the killer immediately, dismember them, and annihilate their clan!"

A white-clothed cultivator was beside himself with rage.

As a Divinity Transformation Holy Land ruling over a region, Celestial Secret Mansion hadn't had many Inner Sect Disciples fallen for a long time.

But now, losing three Golden Core cultivators at once was a tremendous loss for Celestial Secret Mansion.

This was a blatant slap to Celestial Secret Mansion's face.

If the culprits weren't executed, how could Celestial Secret Mansion maintain its reputation?

"Just now, the elders deduced using celestial secrets and found that those who killed Junior Brother Yang Yu were demon cultivators of the Primordial Demon Sect."

"Earlier, Junior Brother Yang Yu and his fellows inadvertently uncovered the whereabouts of those demon cultivators."

"As a result, the demons turned vicious, murdering Junior Brother Yang Yu and his companions."

Another cultivator from Celestial Secret Mansion spoke immediately.

For them, uncovering the reasons behind the deaths of Yang Yu and others wasn't a difficult task.

More importantly, those cultivators of the Primordial Demon Sect didn't conceal any clues but exposed them openly, as if afraid the cultivators of Celestial Secret Mansion wouldn't know.

"These damned demon brats actually dared to attack our Celestial Secret Mansion; they're simply tired of living."