Chapter 549: Going to the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range, Obtaining a Sixth-Grade Opportunity

To be honest, Jiang Fan felt that this matter really had little to do with him.

From start to finish, he was just an innocent cultivator.

If it weren't for the malice of the Celestial Secret Mansion's Inner Sect Disciple, Yang Yu, attempting to kill him and seize his treasure, he wouldn't have been drawn to Nine Directions Mountain and met that group of demon cultivators.

As for triggering the war between the Celestial Secret Mansion and the Primordial Demon Sect, that's even more nonsense.

Reviving the demons of the Ancient Era must certainly be a plan the Primordial Demon Sect had prepared for countless years.

Even without him coming here, the plan would still proceed.

It's just that because of his actions, the secretive plan was revealed.

In conclusion, all this was the result of self-inflicted misfortune by the two Divinity Transformation Holy Lands, and had no causal relation with him.

No matter what, this matter couldn't be attributed to him.

Upon hearing this, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace and Primordial Talisman Pen both grumbled silently. If it weren't for this kid, the Primordial Demon Sect's plan might have really succeeded.

But because the Celestial Secret Mansion was provoked, it instead exposed their plan, resulting in failure at the last moment.

From a certain perspective, it could also be considered a rescue of the righteous influence.

After all, if the ancient demons were truly revived, it would be a significant blow to the righteous influence.

The only loss was to the Divinity Transformation Holy Land Celestial Secret Mansion.

Because they needed to directly withstand the wrath and revenge of the Primordial Demon Sect.

This also caused the Celestial Secret Mansion to suffer heavy losses.

"Master is right, this matter has nothing to do with Master, it's purely the Celestial Secret Mansion reaping its own deserved consequences."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace immediately flattered.

But it also recalled the previously doomed Great Sun Sword Sect.

Although on the surface, the demise of the Great Sun Sword Sect had little to do with its Master, it was purely their bad luck that they encountered the assault of the Tier Three Demon Beast.

However, it felt that without its Master, the Great Sun Sword Sect wouldn't have perished so quickly.

It seemed that any force that offended its Master would be unfortunate, as if constantly deprived of destiny.

Leading to continuous bad luck and unending calamities.

"Master, although the battle at Ten Thousand Talisman City has now stopped."

"But everyone knows it's only just beginning."

"After all, both the Celestial Secret Mansion and the Primordial Demon Sect suffered heavy losses in this battle, forming a deep enmity."

"There's bound to be revenge from both sides."

"I fear the entire Eastern Continent will be restless in the upcoming times."

Golden Core Cultivator Yuan Hongming said with great emotion, he was extremely grateful to Jiang Fan. If Jiang Fan hadn't suddenly decided to leave Ten Thousand Talisman City, he would have continued staying there.

Then surely he would be caught in the crossfire, likely dying and fading away.

Because the battle between the two Divinity Transformation Holy Lands caused heavy losses to Ten Thousand Talisman City.

No one knows how many loose cultivators perished in that place.

Only because he rushed ahead of time, did he manage to avoid this life-and-death catastrophe.

"Don't worry."

"The Fallen Immortal Mountain Range shouldn't be greatly affected."

Jiang Fan waved his hand.

Before, he had already researched a lot about the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range.

The place is very unique, although it contains countless opportunities, attracting numerous forces, it's a place of war.

But after so many years of battles, various forces have long formed a stable situation that won't easily fall into war.

No matter how chaotic other places might be, it's highly unlikely to affect this place.

"Master, even if the war won't affect this place, the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range itself isn't a good place."

"It's said that the number of cultivators who perished here is innumerable."

"In terms of danger level, Ten Thousand Talisman City is not even fit to carry its shoes."

Golden Core Cultivator Yuan Hongming said in a deep voice.

If it weren't for his Master wanting to come to the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range, he wouldn't have come to such a dangerous place even if he was beaten to death.

After all, the high-tier cultivators adventuring in this place were too numerous.

With any high-tier cultivator appearing casually, they could easily kill him.

"Previously you went to Huaming City, how was that Tier Four City?"

Jiang Fan asked.

He needed to stay in the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range for a long time, so he naturally needed to familiarize himself with this region beforehand.

Only then could he determine his resting place.

"Master, Huaming City is still very prosperous, even more so than Ten Thousand Talisman City."

"Whether in terms of area or population, it's dozens of times larger than Ten Thousand Talisman City."

"Many treasures that can't be bought in Ten Thousand Talisman City can be found in Huaming City."

"If one has enough strength, then Huaming City is practically a paradise."

Golden Core Cultivator Yuan Hongming said with emotion.

Previously he had heard that the Fallen Immortal Mountain Range was very prosperous, considered one of the central places of the Eastern Continent, but upon arriving, he found its prosperity far exceeded his imagination.

If he had come here earlier, his advancement might have been faster.

Of course, he might also die faster.

"Oh, does that mean Huaming City is very chaotic?"

Jiang Fan raised his eyebrows, hearing Yuan Hongming's implication.

However, he had already anticipated this.

In such a place filled with great opportunities, chaos is quite normal.

His ability is to extract benefits from the chaos.

"Indeed, very chaotic."

"Though it's safe within the city, where the authorities do not permit any cultivator to fight within."

"But once you leave Huaming City, it becomes very dangerous with all sorts of battles and ambushes."
