Chapter 570: Overcoming the Calamity, Gaining Another Fifth-Grade Opportunity_2

Dong!

At this moment, a message instantly penetrated deep into Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness: "You have timely escaped Huaming City, avoiding a life-and-death calamity, and you have obtained two hundred thousand Luck Points and a Fifth-Grade Opportunity."

Upon sensing this message, Jiang Fan raised an eyebrow.

Obviously, after coming to the Western Continent and defeating these demons, he had thoroughly survived the tribulation.

Moreover, he obtained a Fifth-Grade Opportunity.

It was indeed a great harvest.

He felt that destiny had guided him to the Western Continent for a reason.

This place must contain many opportunities.

Of course, the Eastern Continent must also have many opportunities, but his cultivation is still not enough.

Even if opportunities appear, with his current cultivation, it is impossible to obtain them.

Sometimes, a suitable opportunity is what matters, rather than the most precious one being the best.

Opportunities that are too precious, he may not be able to hold onto, and might even attract great tribulations.

"Is this Fifth-Grade Opportunity on that Tier Two Iron-Winged Sparrow?"

Jiang Fan sensed the information of the Fifth-Grade Opportunity and then his gaze fell on the already lifeless body of the Tier Two Iron-Winged Sparrow. Clearly, the Fifth-Grade Opportunity he wanted was on this one.

This was why the Fortune-Telling Talisman had guided him all the way north, resulting in encountering these three mortals.

As well as this group of Iron-Winged Sparrows.

Swish!

Thinking of this, with a wave of his large hand, he immediately collected all these Iron-Winged Sparrow corpses.

After all, the corpses of these demon beasts are also worth quite a bit of money, and they can be used as ingredients to boost cultivation.

Soon, Jiang Fan obtained the Fifth-Grade Opportunity from the Tier Two Iron-Winged Sparrow.

"A bead?"

Jiang Fan blinked, looking at the transparent bead that appeared in his hand. It was about the size of a glass marble, but he couldn't deduce what purpose this transparent bead served.

However, since this was a Fifth-Grade Opportunity, it was undoubtedly an immensely valuable treasure.

"The Profound Vagina Pearl, this is the Profound Vagina Pearl."

"You've hit the jackpot this time. How could you have gotten such a wonder of Heaven and Earth?"

The Primordial Talisman Pen exclaimed upon seeing the transparent bead, feeling very shocked.

It seemed it could not believe Jiang Fan could acquire the Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasure, the Profound Vagina Pearl.

This was truly unbelievable, surpassing its imagination.

"Profound Vagina Pearl? What kind of treasure is it?"

Jiang Fan curiously asked.

"The Profound Vagina Pearl is among the Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures."

"Even during the Ancient Era, it was an extremely precious treasure."

"Countless cultivators wanted to obtain the Profound Vagina Pearl, but had no chance."

"Its use is simple, it can be refined into a Second Golden Core, or even a Second Nascent Soul."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed.

It knew how precious the Profound Vagina Pearl truly was.

During ancient times, countless cultivators longed for it, willing to pay a huge price.

Unfortunately, such Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures were limited and not easy to find.

In today's era, it thought the Profound Vagina Pearl had already gone extinct.

Who would have thought Jiang Fan obtained this Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasure, such luck truly incites envy.

"It can be refined into a Second Golden Core?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan's eyes lit up instantly.

Even without the Primordial Talisman Pen's detailed explanation, he knew very well the preciousness of the Profound Vagina Pearl.

Normally, ordinary cultivators have only one Golden Core, one Nascent Soul, it's almost impossible to have a second.

Yet, such a wondrous item exists in the world that can become a Second Golden Core.

Once successfully refined into a Second Golden Core, the strength will surely soar, the spiritual power within can double.

Truth be told, for ordinary cultivators, the spiritual power within is always insufficient, and there are limits to it.

But if one can have a Second Golden Core, the spiritual power within would be at least double that of other cultivators.

This alone can immensely amplify one's combat power multiple times over.

Hence during ancient times, the Profound Vagina Pearl was madly sought after by countless cultivators, it's only natural.

"This Tier Two Iron-Winged Sparrow didn't recognize its worth."

"It had such a Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasure on it."

"Now it's a bargain for the master."

said the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace Dao.

But it thought it was reasonable, for such Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures as the Profound Vagina Pearl, even well-informed cultivators might not recognize it.

This Tier Two Demon Cultivator from the Iron-Winged Sparrow Race, with limited knowledge, even if it obtained this transparent bead, it would only think of it as an unusual mineral, not knowing it's the renowned Profound Vagina Pearl.

If it did recognize it, it would have handed it over to the clan leader long ago to receive rewards from within the clan.

There was no way it would be left with itself, merely as decoration.

Regardless, there must be gratitude towards the opponent for not recognizing it, or else how would Jiang Fan obtain this Profound Vagina Pearl?

"Isn't this very normal? Treasures are owned by those they are destined for."

"That Tier Two Demon Cultivator did not seem like one with a fate of blessings. The Profound Vagina Pearl in its hands was a wasteful extravagance, but in the master's hands, it can truly shine."

said the Demon-Vibrating Bell as a matter of course.

It thought the spiritual power within its master was already unimaginably thick, much stronger than ordinary Golden Core Cultivators.

If it were to obtain the Profound Vagina Pearl and condense a Second Golden Core, further increasing the spiritual power within by another fold, it could not imagine how profound its master's spiritual power would become.

Its master indeed is someone favored by the heavens.

Various treasures seem to be shamelessly drawn to its master.

"The Western Continent truly is a Land of Blessings."

Jiang Fan touched his chin.

Despite the Western Continent being a place dominated by the Demon Race where human cultivators can hardly move an inch, in other words, it is an unexplored treasure trove.

Here must be countless opportunities undiscovered.

Because what the Demon Race needs and what the Human Race needs are often different.

Things despised by the Demon Race are, at times, rare treasures for human cultivators.

So for human cultivators, the Western Continent is undoubtedly a land of treasure.

Destiny guiding him to the Western Continent is not without reason.

If he could carefully operate in this place, perhaps it would become his place of enlightenment.

"Dead? Humans can actually kill demons?"

"How is this possible?"

At this moment, Liu Zhijun and the others saw this scene, they could hardly believe it.

Truth be told, living in the Western Continent for so long, humans have always been the prey.

Facing powerful demons, they have no counterattack ability.

Regardless of anger or despair, without strength, they are equally helpless against demons.

Even closing their eyes to await death.

But now, they actually witnessed a human able to slay demons barehanded.

And it seemed effortlessly at that.

In an instant, wiping out more than a dozen demons, it was truly an exaggeration.

They couldn't imagine that there could exist such a powerful human in the world.

"Immortal, you must be an Immortal descended from the Immortal Realm."

The little girl Liu Yijing couldn't help but widen her eyes, looking at Jiang Fan longingly.

She had heard her mother talk about the Immortal Realm, and there were Immortals.

These existences were eternal, saviors of suffering.

If one day they could meet an Immortal, humans could perhaps escape suffering.

"I am not an Immortal, just a Cultivator."

Jiang Fan said lightly.

Cultivator?!

Upon hearing these words, Liu Zhijun's heart trembled. He had heard the old folks mention it.

Even though humans were indeed weak, far inferior to those demons, occasionally, some extraordinarily gifted humans were born, who, through cultivation, mastered powers not inferior to demons.

In the past, many powerful cultivators were born among humans, challenging the Demon Race, attempting to save humanity, even establishing their own human realm.

Unfortunately, the Demon Race was too strong, and even having birthed many human cultivators, facing the powerful Demon Race, they still had no counterattack ability.

Many human cultivators were annihilated, and humans were forbidden from learning the ways of cultivation.

Hence, to this day, most humans are merely mortals, unable to grasp Extraordinary Power.

Thus, facing those terrifying demons, humans naturally had no resistance.

Truthfully, he never thought he would encounter the legendary cultivator, and not only that, but this cultivator saved him and his children. It was truly unbelievable.
