Chapter 576: Overcoming Tribulation, Obtaining True Spirit Essence Blood_2

The Primordial Talisman Pen spoke with great excitement.

It never expected to achieve such a harvest.

Because even in the Ancient Era, obtaining a drop of True Spirit Essence Blood was an incredibly difficult task.

The level of its preciousness could hardly be described in words.

"True Spirit Essence Blood?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan's eyes gleamed with a sharp light; without a doubt, this drop of True Spirit Essence Blood must be the Fifth-Grade Opportunity, a tremendous gain for him indeed.

Boom~~

At that moment, a message instantly penetrated deep into his sea of consciousness: "When the sandpiper and the clam fight, it is the fisherman who benefits. You took the opportunity to eliminate many cultivators of the Thunder Tiger Race, kicking them while they were down, and thus averted a life-and-death catastrophe in the future and preemptively killed the calamity, you have gained a Fifth-Grade Opportunity and three hundred thousand Luck Points."

"It really is a Fifth-Grade Opportunity, and I gained so many Luck Points?"

"It seems that leading the human rise on the Western Continent may genuinely yield enormous Destiny."

Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a hint of excitement.

He felt that he might have found a method to harvest vast amounts of Destiny.

Swish!

With this in mind, he did not hesitate; with a wave of his hand, he immediately collected all the corpses of the demon cultivators.

Of course, he didn't spare the corpses of the Iron-Winged Sparrow either.

After all, these corpses could be used as food, or at the very least, transformed into fertilizer for the Exquisite Tower.

In short, anything beneficial wouldn't be left here by him.

In no time, the monster corpses in this area were thoroughly cleaned up by him.

He even scavenged all the Storage Bags on them.

But for Jiang Fan, the most precious was naturally that drop of True Spirit Essence Blood.

"Is this the True Spirit Essence Blood?"

Jiang Fan carefully examined a transparent crystal in the palm of his hand, inside which a drop of blood red sealed appeared.

Despite the long passage of time, this drop of blood seemed to contain immense activity, beating like a heart, radiating a massive heat.

Vaguely, it seemed as though a True Spirit was contained within, emitting a terrifying pressure.

"Indeed, this is the True Spirit Essence Blood."

"The so-called True Spirits are the Innate creatures born of a world."

"They have no parents, born from the nurturing of heaven and earth."

"Thus, they are incredibly powerful from birth, reaching the extreme battle strength of the mortal world upon maturity."

"In the past, these True Spirits were once overlords in the Void Realm, with many races submitting beneath them."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed.

It originally thought that everything related to True Spirits had completely disappeared, but never expected to see True Spirit Essence Blood again.

Such treasures are exceedingly rare, absolutely one of a kind.

For a Body Cultivator, it is the true holy object for tempering the body, invaluable.

"Innate creatures?"

"Could the True Spirit Techniques have originated from these True Spirits?"

Jiang Fan thought of his own Soaring Snake Technique, this True Spirit Technique was indeed marvelously profound, such that in the entire Void Realm, few could compare to it.

After all, a technique that can continuously break one's lifespan limits is truly extraordinary.

"Indeed, it was from these True Spirits that such techniques were derived."

"In the Ancient Era, not only were there True Spirits, but also numerous True Spirit Clans."

"Some of these True Spirit Clans were created by True Spirits, others cultivated True Spirit Techniques."

"Without exception, they all contained the True Spirit Bloodline."

"Some even worshiped a True Spirit."

"Each True Spirit Clan stood at the peak of the Void Realm in power."

"In terms of strength, they were no weaker than those ancient sects."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained, briefly discussing the ancient intelligence of those True Spirit Clans.

However, since the True Spirit Clans were very secretive about their bloodlines and power, even laying Blood Curses to prevent divulging any information about their bloodline.

This left countless external forces curious about the True Spirit Clans but unable to obtain much information.

"Then how did such powerful True Spirit Families die out?"

"It seems that by now, those True Spirit Clans have totally gone extinct too."

Jiang Fan curiously asked.

He thought that the Ancient Era contained countless secrets.

Whether those ancient sects, the True Spirit Clans, or the True Spirits themselves, all were profoundly mysterious.

"I don't know, from what I've gathered, they perished in an instant."

"No one knows what happened."

"One by one, the True Spirit Clans vanished from the Void Realm."

"It has become one of the greatest mysteries of the Ancient Era."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said it wasn't very clear about the reason behind the extinction of the True Spirit Families and didn't know who their enemies were; some attempted to investigate but returned empty-handed.

The Primordial Talisman Sect once unintentionally acquired the Soaring Snake Technique while investigating the True Spirit Clans.

In fact, if those True Spirit Clans hadn't perished, they wouldn't have obtained these True Spirit Techniques.

"But this drop of True Spirit Essence Blood comes from the Ancient Era, after such a long time, perhaps it has long lost much of its effectiveness?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace doubted whether this drop of True Spirit Essence Blood still had the rumored efficacy and power.

After all, even the most precious elixirs and spirit medicines, if not properly preserved, would lose their medicinal power over time.

The longer the time, the more severe the loss of medicinal power.

That's why, once elixirs are refined, it's best to consume them quickly for maximum effect.

"There's no need to worry about that."

"For this drop of True Spirit Essence Blood is sealed in a Life Source Stone."

"The Life Source Stone can perfectly preserve any item, impervious to the passage of time."

"Even life can survive while sealed within a Life Source Stone, transcending the ages."

The Primordial Talisman Pen explained.

"Life Source Stone? What kind of treasure is that?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace asked curiously.

"It is a famous Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasure from the Ancient Era."

"Whenever they appeared, they would be fervently fought over by all major forces."

"The utility of the Life Source Stone is simply too great."

"It can preserve all kinds of precious elixirs and spirit medicines."

"Even cultivators on the brink of death could be sealed inside."

"Cultivators sealed in Life Source Stones would have their physiological states halted at the moment of sealing."

"As long as the Life Source Stone remains unbroken, they can survive indefinitely."

"But the opportunity is once-only; if broken, sealing is no longer possible."

The Primordial Talisman Pen briefly explained the Life Source Stone's functions.

Because even in the Ancient Era, Life Source Stones were extremely rare Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasures.

They weren't something any cultivator could easily obtain.

"Such peculiar Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasure in the world?"

"What if a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, about to die of old age, were sealed in a Life Source Stone?"

"As long as the Life Source Stone remains intact, couldn't they live forever?"

Jiang Fan's pupils contracted as he immediately realized the powerful application of the Life Source Stone.

Clearly, the greatest utility of this Heaven and Earth's Wondrous Treasure wasn't just preserving spirit medicines and elixirs, but preserving cultivators near death, helping them transcend ages.

"Indeed, you've realized it as well."

"In the Ancient Era, due to extremely long growth cycles of spirit medicines."

"Ordinary cultivators simply couldn't wait that long."

"So some great powers would choose self-sealing, breaking free only after the spirit medicines matured."

"In this way, they would wait for breakthrough chances."

"Of course, some great powers, believing they couldn't break through, would choose self-sealing as sect heritage."

"They would only unseal during sect crises threatening doom."

"Thus, in the Ancient Era, every ancient sect's heritage was terrifyingly profound."

"No one knew how many sect great powers and ancestors were sealed within the depths of sects."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed.

It was precisely because of the Life Source Stone's emergence that made the major forces of the Ancient Era fearsomeness incarnate.

The older the influence, the more astonishing its heritage, possibly concealing more ancient relics.

Sometimes even powers from tens or hundreds of thousands of years ago might be seen.

This made the great forces of the Ancient Era increasingly stable and made reshuffling virtually impossible.

Such mighty empires seemed destined to last forever.
