Chapter 588: Leaving Peach Blossom Valley, A Great Calamity Approaches

"Truly worthy of the Seventh-Layer Golden Core."

"Compared to before, it has indeed become much stronger."

At this moment, Jiang Fan felt very satisfied.

He noticed that the Primordial Golden Core deep in his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi had expanded considerably. Compared to before, his Primordial Spiritual Power in his body had increased by at least half, and even the Profound Vagina Pearl of the Second Golden Core grew stronger alongside it.

This is the peculiar aspect of the Secret Treasure, Profound Vagina Pearl. It grows with the cultivator's growth and can be considered a growth-type Secret Treasure.

Currently, he is merely at the Golden Core Realm, hence the nurturing of a Second Golden Core.

If he advances further to become a Nascent Soul Cultivator, it would then be a Second Nascent Soul.

Of course, doing so would consume a large amount of resources during cultivation.

This is not something average cultivators can afford.

Even in Ancient Times, ordinary cultivators couldn't afford the resource consumption for two Golden Cores and two Nascent Souls.

Because this represents double the consumption, requiring wealth that ordinary people cannot sustain.

Fortunately, he possesses the Immortal Dew Bottle, which can unceasingly cultivate Spirit Medicine.

So he currently lacks no resources and can naturally sustain the consumption of the Second Golden Core.

"Since I've advanced to the Seventh-Layer Golden Core, I can engrave new Life Talismans."

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

Previously, he engraved three kinds of Four Symbols Spirit Talismans, and now, having advanced to the Seventh-Layer Golden Core, he can engrave the final kind of Four Symbols Spirit Talisman, which is the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman.

It is rumored that this comes from the Innate Talisman of the Divine Beast Black Tortoise, containing the Secrets of Water.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate, immediately consuming a large amount of Luck Points to enter a state of enlightenment, beginning to comprehend the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman.

The next second, he seemed to see a Black Tortoise emerging above the ocean, appearing as a gigantic Profound Turtle, but with a giant snake coiled on its back.

Turtle and snake appearing together, that is the Black Tortoise.

It seemed this Black Tortoise, with a mere thought, could control the power of all waters in the world, being the ruler of water.

Endless mysteries of the talismans sank into the depths of his consciousness.

This also made him forget the passage of time.

In the blink of an eye, a day and night had passed.

Jiang Fan quickly comprehended all the mysteries of the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman, then began to engrave this Four Symbols Talisman on the Primordial Golden Core, a task he was very familiar with.

Soon enough, he successfully infused the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman onto the surface of the Primordial Golden Core.

Immediately, the shadow of a Black Tortoise seemed to manifest on the Primordial Golden Core, accompanied by an endless stream of water, as if this power of water had thoroughly merged into the Primordial Golden Core.

Vaguely, the Cyan Dragon, Vermilion Bird, White Tiger, and Black Tortoise appeared at four different positions on the Primordial Golden Core, each representing the elemental forces of wood, fire, gold, and water.

These four powers seemed to resonate, blending into one another, responding to each other.

"To fully integrate the Four Symbols Spirit Talismans, one needs to cultivate the skill level of the four Life Talismans to the Perfection Level."

"In this way, it can reach the realm of Unity of the Four Symbols."

"Once successful, it will form the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman, condensing the Four Symbols Realm."

Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a hint of brilliance.

He perceived that if he could elevate the skill level of these Four Symbols Spirit Talismans to Perfection Level, the power of these four talismans could be driven to unimaginable heights.

This would also allow him to grasp techniques akin to those of a Nascent Soul Cultivator, with a several-fold increase in combat power.

"However, this Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman can control all waters."

"It can be used to plant Spirit Medicine, for defense, or even to imprison enemies."

Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he lightly pointed a finger, activating the power of the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman.

Instantly, a talisman flew into the air, radiating a gentle blue light, along with the shadow of a Black Tortoise. Infinite water vapor in the world converged here, quickly forming a massive cloud.

The next second, torrents of rain descended from the sky, pouring down upon the earth.

Moreover, this was not ordinary rain, but Spiritual Water formed by the condensation of Spiritual Qi.

Immediately, numerous Spirit Flowers, Spirit Grasses, and Spirit Valleys on the ground were thrilled, greedily absorbing every drop of Spiritual Water.

Which also increased their Life Force.

If this could be maintained over time, their growth rate would certainly accelerate.

Clearly, this is one of the benefits of the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman, akin to the Withered Wood Rejuvenation Talisman, promoting the growth of Spirit Plants.

"It can form a Water Shield to mitigate enemy attacks."

"It can form an Abyssal Prison to confine enemies."

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered.

He quickly found numerous ways to use this Four Symbols Talisman.

If for attack, the Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman is naturally inferior to the White Tiger Geng Gold Talisman, but its role is not in offense, focusing instead on defense and support.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, immediately opening his Virtual Panel.
