Chapter 691: Seeking Fortune and Avoiding Evil Again, Dragon Blood Fruit_3

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He recalled the rise of the Divinity Transformation Zhao Family. The old ancestor of the Zhao Family managed to ascend largely due to the staggering acquisitions from the Flame Dragon Secret Realm.

It is even said that the Zhao Family's countless generations of Nascent Soul cultivators owe much to the Flame Dragon Secret Realm.

One can only imagine how many resources and treasures this Secret Realm World contains.

"Hmm?!"

At that moment, Jiang Fan sensed a wave of spiritual energy emanating from a distant valley, instinctively realizing there must be something good there.

Swish!

He flashed and appeared above the Nameless Valley, and saw a tall, crimson tree growing within, its bark resembling dragon scales and exuding waves of Dragon's Might.

At the same time, the branches were adorned with clusters of crimson fruits.

Each fruit was blood-red, pulsating like a heart, releasing a rich life force.

Faintly, dragons seemed to nest deep within these fruits.

"Dragon Blood Fruit, these are Tier Four Spirit Medicine Dragon Blood Fruit."

If my guess is correct, this should be a Dragon Blood Tree.

We're in luck, this time we've truly hit the jackpot, we've found the legendary Dragon Blood Tree.

It's said that this spirit plant, tainted with dragon blood, bears fruit containing immense medicinal power.

For Nascent Soul cultivators, it's practically an upper spirit medicine.

Long-term consumption will surely accelerate the enhancement of one's magical power.

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace exclaimed excitedly.

It never expected its owner, having just entered the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, to discover a Tier Four Spirit Plant, and a renowned Dragon Blood Tree at that. Such luck is extraordinarily heaven-defying.

After all, Daoist Wan Hua spent countless time seeking a Tier Four Spirit Medicine.

It's not due to a lack of effort, but rather the scarcity of Tier Four Spirit Medicines on the Southern Continent.

This situation left Daoist Wan Hua with no ingredients to work his alchemical wonders.

Nothing could be more tragic.

"The Flame Dragon Secret Realm is indeed my Land of Blessings."

Upon hearing this, Jiang Fan smiled mildly, feeling quite pleased.

Earlier, he pondered how to rapidly enhance his cultivation as a Nascent Soul cultivator. Unexpectedly, when weariness struck, a pillow was offered, and transplanting this Dragon Blood Tree into the internal world of the Exquisite Tower, would grant him an endless supply of Dragon Blood Fruit.

Then, his cultivation would surely soar.

Moreover, the tree bore nine Dragon Blood Fruits.

If he fully absorbs these Dragon Blood Fruits, his cultivation will significantly advance.

"Haha, Dragon Blood Fruit, they're actually here!"

"It's practically heaven's gift!"

"With these Dragon Blood Fruits, can't I soar to the skies?"

At this moment, three Nascent Soul cultivators suddenly flew from afar, drawn by the spiritual energy wave here, and immediately discovered the Dragon Blood Tree in the valley.

Each was an experienced Nascent Soul cultivator, and naturally recognized the Dragon Blood Tree's significance.

All were overwhelmingly ecstatic.

However, they also noticed Jiang Fan, who had arrived ahead of them, and their expressions turned hostile.

The valley was soaked in a tense, murderous atmosphere.

Chapter 692: Overcoming the Tribulation, Gaining a Fourth-Grade Opportunity

"So, this is the risk of this journey?"

Of course, Jiang Fan also noticed these three unexpected guests, and at this moment, he recalled the many messages from the Fortune-Telling Talisman.

Although he could gain a fourth-grade opportunity on this mission, he was also bound to encounter some challenges and turbulence.

Undoubtedly, these three Nascent Soul Cultivators suddenly arriving here would also be a calamity on this journey.

Fortunately, his Spiritual Sense detected that these three Nascent Soul Cultivators were only at the third layer.

For other Cultivators who have just entered the Nascent Soul stage, they might be extremely troublesome opponents, but for himself, they were still within a range he could handle, not posing a significant crisis.

Of course, if the enemies truly threatened him, then this mission would not be a great fortune but a great disaster.

In that case, he wouldn't enter the Flame Dragon Secret Realm from Golden Scale Island.

So now, he felt calm and peaceful inside.

"Fellow Daoist, you look unfamiliar, which family's Nascent Soul might you be from?"

"I am Lei Ze, the Patriarch of the Lei Family."

A middle-aged man in a black robe stared at Jiang Fan and asked.

He felt puzzled because he had never seen a Nascent Soul Cultivator like Jiang Fan.

After all, any Nascent Soul Cultivator who could enter the Flame Dragon Secret Realm must have been recruited by the direct descendants of the Zhao Family.

Even if they were not familiar with each other, they must have met before.

The problem was that the young Cultivator in front of him was someone he had never seen before and had no idea where he came from.

For this reason, he instinctively sensed that something was unusual.

However, as a Nascent Soul Cultivator who had lived for hundreds of years, he was very cautious in his actions and was unwilling to act rashly before clearly understanding the other's background to avoid bringing calamity upon himself.

"Patriarch Lei Ze of the Lei Family?"

"Was it your Lei Family that wiped out the Lu Family?"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, staring at the middle-aged man in the black robe.

He naturally had some understanding of the Lei Family, the enemies of his Dao Companion, Lu Youyou.

The Nascent Soul Lei Family consisted of three major Nascent Soul members: the Patriarch Lei Ze, and two Supreme Elders, Lei Shaoyou and Lei Lingwen, the latter of which were reportedly a Late-stage and a Mid-stage Nascent Soul Cultivator, respectively.

So, the Lei Family as a Nascent Soul Clan was truly thriving.

After all, Nascent Soul Clans in the Black Dragon Sea Region usually only had one Nascent Soul as a guardian.

But the Lei Family had three Nascent Souls, which spoke volumes about their flourishing destiny.

This formidable nature was also related to the Lei Family's style of conduct.

It's said that they often plundered other Cultivators, robbing them of their resources.

The number of families exterminated by the Lei Family was significant.

The Lu Family was one such family; when the Lei Family set their eyes on the Lu Family's treasures and resources, they decided to act against them.

As a result, the Lei Family obtained a vast amount of Cultivation Resources, and the foundation and destiny of the family continued to rise.

But undoubtedly, the Lei Family was now at a turning point, like cooking in hot oil or adorning flowers with brocade.

If it weren't for this, they wouldn't have encountered him at this moment.

Clearly, the calamity of their Thunder Tribulation had arrived.

"What do you mean? Is fellow Daoist an old acquaintance of the Lu Family?"

The Lei Family Patriarch Lei Ze's pupils contracted; he hadn't expected that a randomly encountered Nascent Soul Cultivator would have a connection with the Lu Family. If this were true, then he might be in some trouble.

He couldn't help but take a few steps back, maintaining a certain distance from Jiang Fan, to prevent the other party from suddenly attacking.

"Lei Ze Daoist, what's there to talk about with this brat?"

"Since he is an enemy, he should naturally be killed without mercy."

"It's just right to slaughter this kid and seize those Dragon Blood Fruits."

The bald Nascent Soul Cultivator next to him spoke with murderous intent, his body exuding a terrifying killing aura, clearly eager to kill and rob the treasures.

After all, now that they were three Nascent Souls and the other was just one, the advantage was naturally on their side.

He wasn't bothered about what identity the other held.

In his eyes, this kid was just a walking treasure vault.

If he could kill him, he would surely profit immensely.

The reason he was able to cultivate from a mere Loose Cultivator to a third-layer Nascent Soul was because of continuous killing and robbing others of their treasures.

In the Cultivation Realm, it was a bloody jungle society.

"That's right, this kid looks a bit off."

"He doesn't seem to be any Nascent Soul we know, and it's unclear how he gained entry to the Flame Dragon Secret Realm."

"This guy must carry a great secret; it's better to kill him."

The remaining gray-robed Nascent Soul Cultivator also harbored killing intent.

Undoubtedly, his thoughts were more deliberate, feeling that this young Nascent Soul Cultivator in front didn't appear on any Nascent Soul list of the Zhao Family, probably entering the Flame Dragon Secret Realm from elsewhere.

This suggested that besides the entrances and exits known by the Zhao Family, there might be others.

If he could learn the secret from this kid, he wouldn't need to rely on the Zhao Family in the future, allowing them easy access in and out of the Flame Dragon Secret Realm.

In this way, they might reap significant benefits and opportunities from the Flame Dragon Secret Realm.

It might even provide enough Cultivation Resources to reach Divinity Transformation.

The Zhao Family's ancestor rose to fame in such a way, and he, too, might achieve the same.

"Kill."

Upon hearing this, Lei Ze was overjoyed; he hadn't expected both his companions to harbor killing intent, freeing him from any concerns.

It seemed that this kid was courting death, daring to cause trouble for him.

Chapter 693: Surviving the Calamity, Gaining a Fourth-Grade Opportunity_2

Just in time to kill this guy and solve a formidable Nascent Soul adversary for the Lei Family.

In an instant, the three Nascent Soul cultivators launched a fierce attack, rushing towards Jiang Fan.

In the vast area of over a thousand kilometers, the endless Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi was stirred into chaos.

The domains of the three Nascent Soul cultivators crushed down, causing the earth to quake and crack, producing astonishing fissures.

Even the surrounding mountains developed fissures, entering a state of shattering.

It's evident that these cultivators who have already stepped into the Nascent Soul realm contain terrifying heavenly might in their every move, enough to shake the heavens and earth, akin to earthly deities.

"You indeed deserve to die."

Jiang Fan looked faintly at the three Nascent Soul cultivators.

Bang~~

In an instant, he triggered his Life Talisman—the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman.

After promoting to the first layer of Nascent Soul, the power of the Four Symbols Spirit Talisman was fully unleashed.

Centered on his body, the Four Symbols Realm enveloped every direction, covering thousands of kilometers.

Countless Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi surged, forming the phantoms of the four divine beasts: Cyan Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird, and Black Tortoise.

This is the power of the combined Cyan Dragon Armor Wood Talisman, Vermilion Bird Heaven-Burning Talisman, White Tiger Geng Gold Talisman, and Black Tortoise Water Abyss Talisman.

In the sky, a giant palm appeared, descending from above, slapping down.

It was as if the Four Symbols Divine Palm.

What?!

Lei Ze and the other two Nascent Soul cultivators sensed this power, and their expressions changed drastically. They felt the Power of the Four Symbols—Metal, Wood, Water, Fire—crushing towards them, as if containing the might to reenact primal chaos.

The power of the Four Symbols struck them, as if heaven and earth were collapsing.

At this moment, they had nowhere to hide, nowhere to escape.

Bang~~

With just a single strike, the Four Symbols Divine Palm hit Lei Ze and the two other Nascent Soul cultivators.

They promptly pulled out their low-grade defensive spiritual treasures, and their bodies were instantly wrapped in layers of mana shields, attempting to withstand this astounding strike.

Immediately, these three Nascent Souls were like balls, being fiercely slapped down from mid-air, smashing into the ground, creating three massive craters.

The surrounding area, spanning thousands of kilometers, was shaken violently, roaring with noise.

Fissures stretched for thousands of kilometers.

Numerous mountains collapsed in an instant, turning into countless rubble.

It was as if heaven and earth were falling apart.

A giant palm print appeared on the ground, covering over a thousand kilometers, like a divine palm descending from the heavens, crushing the ants on the ground.

A terrifying aura of destruction permeated the surroundings, sending chills down one's spine.

"Hmm, they are still not dead?"

At this moment, Jiang Fan raised his eyebrows. He sensed that although Lei Ze and the other two Nascent Soul cultivators were severely injured, their mana shields were completely shattered. A large amount of blood flowed from their bodies, and their internal organs were critically damaged.

However, these three Nascent Soul cultivators were not dead.

It could only be said that, as expected of Nascent Soul cultivators, their life force was incredibly resilient.

Yet, he had already anticipated this.

"All of you, die for me."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted with a cold light, and he immediately unleashed his Bloodline Divine Technique—Soul Devourer!

After years of painstaking cultivation, the power of this Bloodline Divine Technique had reached a new level.

After all, with his increased skill level in the Bloodline Divine Technique, he could also fully exert the power of this technique.

In an instant, a terrifying soul wave suddenly exploded, transforming into three Soul Soaring Snakes, each seemingly thousands of meters in length.

They seemed to be divine beasts flying out from the void, permeating the surroundings with a fearsome aura, distorting the void.

Under Jiang Fan's control, the three Soul Soaring Snakes charged at Lei Ze and the other two Nascent Souls, and their attack speed reached instant teleportation.

Before they could react, they were already upon the three Nascent Soul cultivators.

"Impossible, what is this power?"

"Damn it, I can't even use instant teleportation? How can the speed be so fast?"

"Who on earth is this guy, and why is he so powerful?"

Lei Ze and the other two Nascent Soul cultivators turned ashen, feeling a fatal crisis looming.

At this moment, they tried to detach their Nascent Soul and teleport away from this dangerous area.

Unfortunately, it was already too late to escape now.

Because this was the Soul Divine Techniques, by the time they sensed it, it had already attacked them.

They felt a terrifying Soaring Snake pouncing, swallowing their souls in one gulp.

In just an instant, their souls separated from their bodies and were swallowed by the Soaring Snake.

Even in their final moments, they sensed their souls being chewed, shredded, and digested by the stomach of the Soaring Snake.

This was unprecedented pain and torture.

Fortunately, this torment ended quickly.

In just a few breaths, their consciousness plunged into endless darkness.

Meanwhile, their souls were completely devoured by Jiang Fan.

"What a nice taste."

Jiang Fan felt a sense of fullness, gaining enormous soul energy.

Acquiring the souls of these three Nascent Soul cultivators, his spiritual power increased significantly.

Clearly, this was the unique method of soul growth for the Ancient Divine Beast Soaring Snake.

By devouring the souls of other beings, it quickly increases its soul energy.

Additionally, it can completely digest and has minimal side effects.

The only drawback is that it cannot consume too many souls at the same time, or it will feel overstuffed.

Then there's the risk of bursting to death.

For Jiang Fan now, devouring the souls of three Nascent Soul cultivators is still within the bearable range.

After all, with the improvement of cultivation and soul power, his appetite has grown considerably.

Previously, he could only handle one Nascent Soul, but now eating three is no problem.

"Gosh, the Master is becoming more and more monstrous."

"Killing three Nascent Soul cultivators is like slaughtering chickens."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace watched and was filled with emotion, never having seen such an effortless and simple Nascent Soul battle, completely overwhelming cultivators of the same tier, unbelievably exaggerated.

Normally, as a Nascent Soul cultivator, they'd have numerous techniques and trump cards.

It's extremely challenging to slay a Nascent Soul cultivator.

With even a slight misstep, the opponent might escape, leaving a major threat.

But now, the Master took action and eliminated this group of Nascent Soul cultivators.

Not even giving them a chance to escape or survive.

It can only be said that the disparity between ordinary Nascent Soul cultivators and the Master's strength is too vast, causing such a situation.

"This is quite normal; these three Nascent Soul cultivators are just ordinary Nascent Souls."

"But the Master cultivates the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture and possesses a second Nascent Soul."

"So, in terms of the quantity and quality of magical power, he's no less than a third-layer Nascent Soul cultivator."

"Combined with the power of the True Spirit Technique, dealing with them is mere child's play."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell spoke.

It believed that not only in this era, but even in the ancient era, the Master would be an unimaginable prodigy, worthy of historic fame, a monster among monsters.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan sensed a message from the depths of his consciousness sea: "You have slain Lei Ze and the three Nascent Soul cultivators, successfully overcoming a trial of killing tribulation, and obtained a fourth-grade opportunity, and eight hundred thousand luck points."

Sensing this message, his face showed a slight smile, obviously relieved to have weathered this catastrophe.

Though he didn't expect to gain a full eight hundred thousand luck points.

Clearly, after advancing to Nascent Soul, the luck points he could acquire increased greatly.

The reason for obtaining so many luck points also relates to Lei Ze and the Nascent Soul cultivators possessing great destiny.

Especially the Nascent Soul Lei Family; having three Nascent Souls in the family means their fortune is certainly considerable.

Thus, by eliminating Lei Ze, he seized the luck from Lei Ze and the Lei Family, earning a full eight hundred thousand luck points.

For him, luck points are a unique energy that is always beneficial.

Since becoming a Nascent Soul cultivator, the luck points he needed have increased substantially.

Especially when cultivating the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman, which consumes even more luck points.

"By the way, fourth-grade opportunity, wonder what the fourth-grade opportunity is?"

Jiang Fan was very curious.

After all, this is a Divinity Transformation level opportunity, not easily encountered.

He sensed that the fourth-grade opportunity was on Lei Ze's Storage Bag.

By slaying this Lei Family Nascent Soul, he obtained this fourth-grade opportunity.

Clearly, he not only eliminated Lu Youyou's enemy but also gained tremendous rewards.

This is truly killing two birds with one stone.

Chapter 694: Favored by Destiny, Obtains Flame Dragon Essence Blood

"This might be due to destiny."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He felt that his encounter with Lei Ze wasn't as simple as it appeared.

It seemed coincidental but it was actually inevitable.

The power of destiny would definitely bring them together, their fates were already intertwined.

Coincidentally, the other party also had a Fourth-Grade Opportunity, which attracted him over.

For Lei Ze, this was naturally a great catastrophe.

He failed to overcome it, thus led to his demise.

But Jiang Fan overcame this catastrophe, hence his destiny skyrocketed, leading to successive fortuitous encounters.

"Master, there might be other Nascent Soul Cultivators backing these guys."

"If there's no need, we should hurry and escape."

At this moment, the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace reminded him.

After all, having followed Daoist Wan Hua, it didn't know how many times it had been hunted by enemies and had accumulated countless experiences from being pursued.

In a way, it had become quite adept at it.

Therefore, seeing Lei Ze and his group perish, it knew there were surely others behind these three Nascent Soul Cultivators.

Now that these three were dead, it would certainly alarm the big shots behind them.

If they didn't escape quickly, they might be targeted by the enemy and even hunted down fervently.

"Hmm."

"Let's find a place to hide first."

Jiang Fan nodded in agreement.

After all, the Flame Dragon Secret Realm was controlled by the Zhao Family.

And Lei Ze and other Nascent Soul Cultivators were invited by the Zhao Family. If they died, it would definitely alarm the Zhao Family's Nascent Soul.

Staying here would certainly attract their attention.

Therefore, it was best to escape quickly.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan waved his hand, immediately collecting the corpses of Lei Ze and other Nascent Soul Cultivators, placing them in the First Layer of the Exquisite Tower. Being the corpses of Nascent Soul Cultivators, they contained vast material energy, which could serve as fertilizer.

At the same time, the storage bags on them naturally belonged to him.

Also, the Dragon Blood Tree inside the valley was transplanted into the inner space of the Exquisite Tower by him.

He practically swept away all the opportunities here, leaving nothing behind.

As for the treasures inside the storage bags, there's no rush to study them thoroughly until he's settled down.

No need to hurry for a short moment.

Whoosh!

In the blink of an eye, he quickly disappeared from this place.

...

At the same time, near a vast palace in the Flame Dragon Secret Realm.

No one knew the expanse of this palace complex; it stretched as far as the eye could see, nestled amongst the mountains.

Many Nascent Soul Cultivators also arrived at this place.

However, the palace was shrouded by a great Restriction Array.

They couldn't easily break through these restrictions and could only lament helplessly.

"This is the core area of the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, the Flame Dragon Palace."

"It is said to be the former residence of the Flame Dragon."

"If we could break through the Restriction Array here, we would have free access to all the treasures inside."

A Zhao Family Elder said excitedly, eyes locked onto the palace ahead.

But unfortunately, the Zhao Family, having occupied the Flame Dragon Secret Realm for thousands of years, still couldn't breach this ancient palace.

After all, these were Restriction Arrays from the Ancient Era, with powers beyond imagination.

Not even a Divinity Transformation Cultivator could break them.

Fortunately, with the passage of time, and given the place seemed to have been attacked, over time, many flaws appeared in the Restriction Arrays here, presenting them with an opportunity.

Otherwise, they would have no hope at all.

"Nothing is ever that simple."

"The Flame Dragon Secret Realm opens once every hundred years, each opening lasts three years."

"So the time we have to crack the Restriction Array is limited."

"If the Ancestor hadn't gone missing, perhaps we could speed up the cracking process."

"But as it stands, even breaking part of the Restriction Array to acquire some treasures is already quite good."

Another Zhao Family Elder shook his head.

He knew the difficulty of breaking these ancient Restriction Arrays.

If these Restriction Arrays hadn't been damaged, it would be impossible for them to break through in this lifetime.

Even if a Divinity Transformation Cultivator intervened, it would still be the same.

"That's fine, to gain some of the treasures from it is already quite remarkable."

"We might even find some elixirs and spirit medicines from the Ancient Era."

"Then, we could have a chance to ascend to Divinity Transformation."

"Right now, the war between the Human Race and the Demon Race is not over."

"If the Demon Race births a Divinity Transformation before us, we'll be doomed."

Yet another Zhao Family Elder spoke up.

He always worried about the situation of the Demon Race, fearing they'll produce a Divinity Transformation Cultivator first.

If such a situation occurs, the Human Race in the Black Dragon Sea Region would definitely suffer enormous losses.

Of course, if the Human Race births a Divinity Transformation first, the Demon Race will face a massive disaster too.

It's crucial for both sides to seize every moment.

However, achieving such a breakthrough is not merely a matter of wanting it.

If it were truly that simple, there wouldn't have been only two Divinity Transformation in the Black Dragon Sea Region for such a long time.

"What's to fear, it's not that simple for the Demon Race Cultivators to ascend to Divinity Transformation."

"They benefit from their bloodline's power, progressing rapidly."

"Easily achieving Foundation Establishment, Golden Core, even Nascent Soul."

"But it's also their bloodline's power that holds them back, making it nearly impossible to breakthrough to Divinity Transformation."

Chapter 695: Favored by Destiny, Obtains Flame Dragon Essence Blood_2

"The reason the Five Poison Flood Dragon could transform into Divinity is because it obtained Black Dragon Essence Blood."

"Thus, its own bloodline transformed."

"Without such an opportunity, they basically could not advance to Divinity."

Another Zhao Family Elder spoke solemnly, having had many dealings with the Demon Race for years, he was well-acquainted with the Demon Race Cultivators.

Compared to the Human Race, Human Race Cultivators find it slightly easier to advance to Divinity.

Due to the extended lifespan of the Demon Race's Divinity transformation.

In terms of lifespan alone, they can outlive Human Race Divinity transformations.

This is a major drawback for Human Race in Divinity transformation.

"Hmm, what's going on? Why did Lei Ze's aura suddenly disappear?"

A Nascent Soul of the Zhao family frowned.

Because the three men of Lei Ze were his subordinates, considered Honored Guest Elders.

Their purpose in entering Flame Dragon Secret Realm was to help him unravel the Restriction Array here.

But now their aura suddenly disappeared, which made him feel uneasy.

"Sir, Lei Ze and the others may have already perished."

At this time, a Nascent Soul Cultivator's face looked grim, he followed Lei Ze and the others' aura to the place where they disappeared, discovering that a fierce battle had occurred there, with a very tragic battle scene.

Without a doubt, the three Nascent Souls of Lei Ze are in great danger.

"Who on earth attacked Lei Ze and them?"

"Was it other Nascent Souls or those desolate beasts from Flame Dragon Secret Realm?"

The Zhao Family Nascent Soul's face was solemn.

He had a premonition that perhaps this operation in the Flame Dragon Secret Realm would not go smoothly.

Several hours later.

Jiang Fan found a concealed cave mansion and hid there, entering the internal world of the Exquisite Tower.

Then he began to inventory his gains this time.

After all, he was very curious about the Fourth-Grade Opportunity, so he first opened the Storage Bag from Lei Ze.

Instantly, the treasures inside appeared before his eyes.

"This Lei Family Nascent Soul is indeed wealthy."

Jiang Fan's eyes immediately brightened.

He sensed the Storage Bag was filled with an array of treasures, Spirit Stones, Spirit Medicines, Elixirs, and various rare materials, totaling at least several million Spirit Stones.

To be honest, this might not be the entire wealth of a Nascent Soul Cultivator, as they might have some wealth stored in their cave mansion, but this was still quite a gain.

In addition, there were two other Storage Bags.

The combined value of treasures from three Storage Bags reached ten million Spirit Stones.

One could say that his current wealth reached one hundred million Spirit Stones.

He estimated that even the wealth of Divinity Transformation Cultivators would probably be like this.

"Hmm, is this the Fourth-Grade Opportunity?"

"It's actually a Life Source Stone?"

"Where did this guy get such a thing?"

Jiang Fan immediately noticed the Life Source Stone the size of an apple inside the Storage Bag, sealed with three drops of Essence Blood within it, emitting immense heat.

Like a small sun, it contained vast energy.

Anyone could clearly see that the Life Source Stone contained an extremely precious treasure.

Vaguely, he saw a dragon's shadow inside those three drops of blood.

It seemed as if he could hear the sounds of dragon's roars.

"Flame Dragon Essence Blood, this is Flame Dragon Essence Blood."

The Primordial Talisman Pen immediately spoke.

Having many inherited memories, it had seen quite a few Essence Blood of dragons.

Flame Dragons were also renowned in Ancient Era.

So, it immediately recognized the Essence Blood as originating from a Flame Dragon.

Even though it was just three drops, it was an exceedingly precious treasure, coveted by many cultivators.

"Flame Dragon Essence Blood?"

"Did this guy obtain this treasure in the Secret Realm World?"

Jiang Fan raised his eyebrows.

No wonder Lei Ze hadn't devoured these three drops of Flame Dragon Essence Blood. Probably not that he didn't want to, but lacked the time.

Since arriving in Flame Dragon Secret Realm, naturally he hadn't had the time to enter seclusion for cultivation.

So he could only keep them stored in the Storage Bag.

He likely didn't expect to be killed, and ultimately the three drops of Flame Dragon Essence Blood fell into Jiang Fan's hands.

"It seems this guy did have considerable destiny."

"To even obtain Flame Dragon Essence Blood."

"But now it all belongs to me."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

There's no doubt that Lei Ze had significant destiny, although nowhere as much as himself, he was still a child of destiny, allowing rapid cultivation, ultimately reaching the Third-Layer Nascent Soul realm.

If not for Jiang Fan, Lei Ze could at least have advanced to Late-stage Nascent Soul.

Whether he could become a Divinity Transformation Cultivator was hard to say, but at least he wouldn't fall so easily.

Perhaps Lei Ze's huge destiny exhausted too much, leading to such a disaster.

His treasure ended up in others' hands.

"Apart from Flame Dragon Essence Blood, I also gained Dragon Blood Fruit."

"With these two cultivation resources, I won't have any worries about cultivation for the short term."

"Soon I estimate I can promote to Second-Layer Nascent Soul."

Jiang Fan couldn't help but show a slight smile.

He sat cross-legged, taking out one of the Dragon Blood Fruits, handing it to the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace to refine and remove impurities.

Before long, the Dragon Blood Fruit transformed into drops of red medicinal liquid, like dragon's blood, each drop containing vast energy.

Bang~~~

Without hesitation, Jiang Fan immediately consumed the red medicinal liquid.

Having been refined by the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace, these red medicinal liquids had no impurities or side effects, condensed to their essence, hence he felt assured to devour and digest them.

Instantly, the red medicinal liquid was absorbed by his stomach, transforming into drops of dragon blood, unleashing immense energy.

His entire body seemed enveloped in terrifying heat, like solar flares erupting, while the heat transformed into dragons, rampaging within his body.

However, his physique was strong, even the potent medicinal power couldn't harm him, allowing the violent energy to surge uselessly.

If a regular Nascent Soul Cultivator consumed Dragon Blood Fruit, caution would be needed, a special method would be required to refine it into elixir, to make the medicinal power mild and fit for consumption.

But Jiang Fan's robust physique didn't need such processes, he could directly devour and digest.

Rumble~~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan sat cross-legged, activating the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture.

The Nascent Soul deep within his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi was inhaling and exhaling, crazily refining the energy.

The Primordial Magical Power inside his body began increasing bit by bit.

Compared to before, the efficiency of power growth inside him was unknown how many times faster.

In mere moments, the cultivation progress of First-Layer Nascent Soul unexpectedly rose to 35%.

Relying solely on arduous cultivation would have taken months.

"Indeed, relying on Spirit Medicines is needed for rapid cultivation advancement."

"Depending only on Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi would require centuries, just to promote to Ninth-Layer Nascent Soul, which is too slow."

Jiang Fan felt emotional inside.

For ordinary Nascent Soul Cultivators, taking centuries to rise to Ninth-Layer Nascent Soul is already very good cultivation speed, even the dream efficiency they desire.

For him, it's somewhat slow.

From Qi Cultivation Stage to Nascent Soul Stage, he spent under a century, thus cannot imagine the length of centuries.

More importantly, if methods exist to shorten cultivation time and enhance efficiency, why choose arduous cultivation?

With these thoughts, he immersed himself in cultivation, rapidly digesting the medicinal power within the Dragon Blood Fruit.

He acquired several Dragon Blood Fruits.

If completely digested, his cultivation could advance to Second-Layer Nascent Soul.

...

Time flies, a year passed in the blink of an eye.

Jiang Fan remained in the internal world of Exquisite Tower, continuing his cultivation without exploring other parts of Flame Dragon Secret Realm.

With abundant cultivation resources available now, there was no need to venture elsewhere for risks.

Boom!

At this moment, Jiang Fan sensed his body shudder, his cultivation progress had reached First-Layer Nascent Soul Perfection, just a step away from Second-Layer Nascent Soul.

Chapter 696: Promotion to Second-Layer Nascent Soul, New Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman

"As expected of the Dragon Blood Fruit, its medicinal power is by no means inferior to a Tier Four Elixir."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, feeling his massive Primordial Magical Power. After a year of arduous cultivation, his cultivation had been elevated to the First-Layer Nascent Soul Perfection, which was much stronger compared to before.

If he were an ordinary Nascent Soul Cultivator, he would have to refine the Dragon Blood Fruit into an elixir before consumption. After all, once refined into an elixir, the medicinal power becomes relatively gentle and easier to absorb.

But he was different. With the help of the Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace and his powerful physique, he could directly consume the Dragon Blood Fruit without any problems, saving a significant amount of alchemy time.

"Next is the breakthrough to the Second-Layer Nascent Soul."

Jiang Fan was very confident about breaking through to the Second-Layer Nascent Soul, with virtually no bottlenecks.

After all, his foundation was exceedingly solid. For other Nascent Soul Cultivators, breaking through might not be so simple, but for him, it was an easy task.

As long as the magical power within is strong enough, a breakthrough would occur naturally.

In fact, cultivating at the Nascent Soul Level is quite simple; it is the process of strengthening the Nascent Soul.

By absorbing the Essence of Heaven and Earth and refining it into magical power, the Nascent Soul within grows stronger.

Once the Nascent Soul is fully matured, reaching the Perfection Level, he can attempt to break through to the Divinity Transformation.

Rumble~~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan activated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, using his body as the center, absorbing the surrounding Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi.

Endless Spiritual Qi rushed in, forming a grand Spiritual Energy Vortex, sweeping across an area of hundreds of kilometers.

Fortunately, he was inside the internal space of the Exquisite Tower, otherwise, such a supernatural phenomenon would certainly be noticed in the outside world, causing unnecessary trouble.

Boom!

The next second, the massive Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi submerged deep into his body, all transforming into Primordial Magical Power. These powers gathered together to form pure energy, merging into the Nascent Soul within the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi.

Immediately, Jiang Fan's body faintly trembled, and the bottleneck around him shattered as easily as crushing tofu.

Second-Layer Nascent Soul!

He sensed that the Nascent Soul within him had grown significantly compared to before.

Previously, at the First-Layer Nascent Soul, although the Nascent Soul had initially formed, it was still relatively weak, without even a clear outline of a baby.

But now, upon advancing to the Second-Layer Nascent Soul, the Nascent Soul was nourished by Primordial Magical Power, growing further, and the baby's two ears solidified completely.

"So that's how it is."

Jiang Fan felt a move in his heart, sensing that his hearing had improved severalfold.

Centered on his body, he could hear sounds clearly from an area spanning over a thousand kilometers, even perceiving the ripples caused by sound waves.

There was no doubt that cultivation in the Nascent Soul Realm is about nurturing the Nascent Soul.

At the First-Layer Nascent Soul, it was simply in an embryonic state, just the formation of an outline.

But the subsequent cultivation is about advancing the Nascent Soul to maturity.

For instance, at the Second-Layer Nascent Soul, the ears are formed; at the Third Layer, the nose; at the Fourth Layer, the eyes; at the Fifth Layer, the mouth; and at the Sixth Layer, the hands, and so on.

With each layer ascended, the Nascent Soul matures a bit more.

This, in turn, makes the Nascent Soul within the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi increasingly powerful, capable of controlling more Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi.

"As expected of my master, advancing to the Second-Layer Nascent Soul so quickly."

"The cultivation speed is incredibly fast."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace exclaimed in amazement upon sensing this scene.

It had encountered many Nascent Soul Cultivators.

Including Daoist Wan Hua, for any Nascent Soul Cultivator wishing to break through, it would normally take at least a decade or even decades; sometimes a century's time wasn't unusual.

After all, rapidly increasing magical power was extremely difficult.

Ordinary cultivators couldn't find so many Tier Four Spirit Medicines or Elixirs, so they had to rely on their hard work, making magical power growth incredibly challenging.

But its master was different; during this time, he had several fortuitous encounters, actually finding Tier Four Spirit Medicines like the Dragon Blood Fruit.

After consumption, his cultivation naturally advanced rapidly, saving decades of hard cultivation.

"Though my master's talent is indeed astonishing, the support from opportunities is also immensely contributive."

"Without these spirit medicines, rapid progress wouldn't have been possible."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said solemnly.

Undoubtedly, these spirit medicines accelerated its master's cultivation speed.

But this was indeed good.

After all, enhancing cultivation efficiency, in a way, extends the Lifespan of a cultivator.

No cultivator would complain about having too much Lifespan.

With such abundant Lifespan, there is more time to help break through bottlenecks.

Many geniuses meet their end begrudgingly because they lack the Lifespan to overcome bottlenecks.

"I have this constant feeling that my master encounters an excessive number of True Spirit Secret Realms."

"It seems that during this period, more and more True Spirit Secret Realms are emerging."

"Even the True Spirit Kunpeng has come into the world."

"Could it be that the Void Realm is really about to undergo a great change?"

The Exquisite Tower spoke with deep concern.

It felt that the frequent emergence of True Spirit Secret Realms was unusual and contrary to norms.

After all, since the calamity befell the Void Realm, causing the world to collapse and Spiritual Qi to gradually thin, many Secret Realm Worlds had hidden in the void, and they had not appeared before the world.

Chapter 697: Promotion to Second-Layer Nascent Soul, New Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman_2

But now, they are frequently emerging, as if a great change is about to occur.

A vast force beyond comprehension is about to sweep in.

"What great change will we face? Could it be that the Spiritual Qi of the Void Realm is about to revive, and return to the Ancient Times?"

The Taiyi Five Smoke Net asked curiously.

It didn't actually feel so many changes.

However, it thought that if such a situation really occurred, it would actually be a good thing for every cultivator in the Void Realm.

Because this era belongs to the Age of Difficulties.

Every cultivator finds cultivation extremely challenging; even Foundation Establishment cultivators are rare, let alone Golden Core Nascent Soul cultivators.

If it were to restore to the flourishing times of the Ancient Era, it would then be an unprecedented golden age of cultivation.

"Not sure, but I do have a similar feeling."

"It seems that the Spiritual Qi between heaven and earth is indeed much denser than before."

"This is a change that has not occurred in countless years past."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace said solemnly.

It, indeed, had also noticed this.

Initially, it thought it was an illusion, believing it was due to different Spiritual Qi concentrations in different regions.

But through traveling far and wide with Jiang Fan, and witnessing various places in the Void Realm, it became knowledgeable and started to observe deeply the changes in all major regions of the Void Realm.

In fact, this is a change that cultivators secluded in one area couldn't detect.

Only by following the Gate of the Void and traversing various regions can one clearly perceive such changes.

"Elder Fu, what Life Talisman should I engrave next?"

Jiang Fan asked the Primordial Talisman Pen.

He was too lazy to respond to the conversations among the various Magical Treasures on him.

He, too, had noticed the changes in the Spiritual Qi of the Void Realm, perhaps indicating the beginning of Spiritual Qi revival.

However, this didn't have much significance for him.

After all, he was merely a minor Second-Layer Nascent Soul cultivator, unable to stop the emergence of the great trend.

He could only go with the flow.

For now, focusing solely on cultivation was enough.

To become a player and dominate the chessboard of the Void Realm, at least becoming a Divinity Transformation cultivator was necessary.

Although the strength of a Nascent Soul Cultivator was already quite impressive, sufficient to become a ruler of a region, truly mastering the destiny of a continent required being a Divinity Transformation cultivator.

Undoubtedly, as his cultivation advanced, his ambitions grew larger as well.

"Next, you need to engrave the new Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman."

"Its name is Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman."

"It comes from the Immortal Artifact Heaven-Covering Wheel."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said solemnly, immediately infusing the information of this Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman into Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan sensed a mysterious and complex talisman appearing deep in his sea of consciousness, transforming into a massive lid that seemed to cover the sky, blocking out the sun and the moon.

From this information, the Heaven-Covering Wheel is a powerful defensive Immortal Artifact, placed within the Immortal City. Once activated, it forms a massive barrier, enveloping all directions.

No matter how the enemy attacks, they cannot shake the defense of the Heaven-Covering Wheel.

Besides defense, it can also suppress enemies, binding them inside and preventing them from escaping.

The Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman possesses similar capabilities.

Once this Spirit Talisman is deployed, it forms a huge defense barrier, which is an invisible barrier.

In terms of defensive capability, it is more robust than the Dragon Vein House Charm.

"This Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman is indeed very complex."

After briefly sensing the talisman, Jiang Fan's heart was filled with amazement, because the talisman's patterns were numerous, not flat but three-dimensional, composed of multiple talismans.

If it were to be a talisman from the Mortal World, it would be a flat talisman, limited in complexity even if complicated.

However, a three-dimensional talisman seems like a space in three dimensions, infinitely more complex.

Without enough comprehension and a long time, it is difficult to grasp the talisman.

No wonder the many geniuses of the Primordial Talisman Sect in ancient days spent countless time yet only comprehended a few.

Fortunately, he possessed the ability of fortune assistance, using the Power of Fortune beyond comprehension, he could quickly comprehend this Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman thoroughly.

Immediately, Jiang Fan did not hesitate to expend a substantial amount of his Luck Points.

A mysterious energy instantly penetrated his soul, elevating his comprehension exponentially.

As he looked again at the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman, he discovered that the previously incredibly complex talisman had now become very simple, each pattern, each construction point presented clearly before him.

He could easily comprehend its mysteries.

For a time, he was completely immersed in understanding the mysteries of the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman, lost in time.

...

Soon, a month passed in the blink of an eye.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, and a brand new talisman immediately appeared on the surface of his Nascent Soul deep within his Dantian and Sea of Qi, it was none other than the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman.

This talisman transformed into a dark golden wheel hub, twined around the baby's stylus as if it was a dark golden pattern, containing incredible power.

Undoubtedly, after spending an entire month.

He not only comprehended the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman of the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman but fully integrated the spirit talisman into his Nascent Soul, becoming his own Life Talisman.

This cultivation efficiency also completely stunned the Primordial Talisman Pen.

"No way, he grasped the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman so quickly?"

"Not much time has passed, isn't this too exaggerated?"

The Primordial Talisman Pen was utterly shocked.

Remembering the countless geniuses of the Primordial Talisman Sect, including the founding patriarch, none ever possessed such rapid comprehension speed.

Only a month was required to comprehend this Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman, truly incredible.

If it hadn't witnessed it firsthand, who could believe such an absurd event?

Honestly, it now wondered if Jiang Fan was a reincarnation of an Immortal.

He might have learned the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman in a previous life.

Otherwise, how could he have such fast comprehension speed?

"Indeed, finally succeeded."

"With this talisman, multiple locations in the Primordial Talisman Sect now have defensive strength."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin, feeling quite satisfied.

Honestly, within the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm now, numerous medicinal gardens have been built.

A vast quantity of Spirit Medicine is planted inside.

But these medicinal gardens lack sufficient defensive measures.

If enemies were to invade, they could potentially loot all the Spirit Medicine.

However, there's nothing that can be done, as the Primordial Talisman Sect lacks array master talents.

Cultivating an array master isn't easy.

But that doesn't matter.

Isn't the profession of Talisman Master just as versatile?!

Mastering numerous talismans can achieve what an array master does.

For instance, this Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman, once integrated into the Spirit Vein, can form a huge barrier, enveloping all directions, creating an absolute defense barrier.

In this way, if enemies wish to invade the medicinal gardens or other key places, it becomes impossible.

Moreover, talismans are far cheaper compared to arrays.

To build a large array, the required materials aren't few.

Not something ordinary cultivators can afford.

Even if possessing these array materials, an array master is still needed for setup.

Hiring a competent array master isn't easy, and the spent Spirit Stones aren't few either.

"There's no need to learn arrays."

"Just studying the path of talismans is sufficient."

"The way of talismans, when cultivated to the end, naturally converges."

"After all, what arrays can achieve, talismans can too."

"But grasping these high-tier Spirit Talismans isn't something ordinary Talisman Masters can do."

"Fortunately, I am not an ordinary Talisman Master."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist.

He increasingly felt the power of the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman, as expected from the Immortal Realm's Spirit Talisman.

Though this Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman is exceedingly complex, its potency is equally mighty.

Once mastered, the power it exerts is incomparable to ordinary spirit talismans.

Chapter 698: Perfection Level Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman, Catastrophe Eruption

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he immediately opened the virtual panel on his body.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Surviving great disasters, followed by great fortune]

[Lifespan: 30,000 years]

[Spirit Root: Celestial Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 1.2 million]

[Wealth: 100 million Spirit Stones]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique, Nascent Soul Chapter (Tier Four Early Stage)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, Third Layer]

[Innate Divine Techniques: Emperor's Gaze, Shrinking Earth into Inches, Palm Wind, Water Control, Soul Devourer]

[Life Talismans: Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman (Great Success), Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman (Great Success), Fortune-Telling Talisman (Great Success), Profound Turtle Talisman (Mastery), Ten Thousand Swords Return to the Sect Talisman (Great Success), Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman (Mastery), Substitute Death Talisman (Great Success), Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman (Beginner)]

[Realm: Second-Layer Nascent Soul (1%)]

[Profession: Tier Four Low-grade Rune Master (56%)]

Unquestionably, he consumed a large amount of luck points on his person to learn the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman.

Currently, he is left with only 1.2 million luck points; the luck he obtained after surviving the tribulation has been basically used up, so one can imagine how large the expenditure for learning the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman is.

It can only be said that even if he has over a million luck points, it is far from sufficient.

"Indeed, opportunities are needed, otherwise, how could one cultivate so quickly."

"It seems one still needs to actively seek opportunities."

"Waiting for opportunities to come to you would be quite a waste of time."

Jiang Fan looked at the data on the virtual panel and immediately felt quite satisfied.

He also understands the importance of opportunities.

If not for obtaining the Dragon Blood Fruit, a Tier Four Spirit Medicine, how could he have promoted to Second-Layer Nascent Soul so quickly?

If he wants to rapidly promote to Third-Layer Nascent Soul or even Fourth-Layer Nascent Soul, then he definitely needs more spirit medicines.

And the Flame Dragon Secret Realm is precisely a place filled with such opportunities.

If he hadn't promoted to Nascent Soul before, then he would surely stay in place honestly, waiting for opportunities.

However, having become a Nascent Soul cultivator with the ability to protect himself, he naturally doesn't need to wait and can completely take the initiative.

Moreover, it's not necessarily required for the main body to act.

After all, his Primordial Clone Talisman has been cultivated to Perfection Level, allowing him to condense thirty-two clones, some of which were left in the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm, yet there are still many clones that can be used.

He can completely use these clones to help himself seek opportunities and search for spirit medicines.

Swoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan made no hesitation and immediately condensed four clones, swiftly departing and flying toward other areas, without a specific destination, simply intending to find opportunities along the way.

...

Soon, half a year passed again.

With the help of the clones, as the main body, Jiang Fan could confidently stay in place and cultivate.

For him, cultivation is still the most important.

And after half a year of intense cultivation, he has made significant progress in his cultivation.

More importantly, his Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman has finally been cultivated to Perfection Level.

"Finally raised the skill level to Perfection Realm."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground.

With a thought, a blue lotus appeared in his right hand instantly, palm-sized, entirely condensed from blue flames, containing terrifying might.

After raising the skill level of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman to Perfection Level, he could completely master the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire.

Thus, this Heaven and Earth Anomalous Fire became a part of his body.

He could even effortlessly invoke the flame power amidst the heavens and earth, multiplying the might manifold.

"Essentially, it still belongs to the Fireball Talisman."

"Only the flame inside is not ordinary but Cyan Lotus Earth Fire."

"However, no matter how you look at it, the power of this talisman is extraordinary."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly, feeling very joyful inside.

He had been cultivating the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman since the Qi Cultivation Stage, but only until the Nascent Soul Realm could he raise the skill level of this talisman to Perfection Level.

One can imagine the cultivation difficulty of this Life Talisman is incomparable to ordinary talismans.

However, upon reaching Perfection Level, the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman could already be instantaneously cast, its might akin to divine power.

"What's going on?"

"A clone has actually died? What on earth happened?"

At this moment, Jiang Fan felt a movement in his heart, suddenly perceiving the sudden death of one of his clones, and a piece of information instantly entered his sea of consciousness.

He found that over the past half year, his clone had been advancing northward, crossing mountains after mountains, and finally, reached a magnificent palace complex, shrouded by a huge barrier far away.

But before the clone could investigate what this place was, suddenly a huge tumult occurred, triggering an earthquake spanning thousands of miles.

Simultaneously, a terrifying black demonic aura soared into the sky, sweeping across the Nine Heavens and Ten Lands, causing the sky of this region to be enveloped in black mist, blocking out any sunlight.

Soon after, many Nascent Soul cultivators exited the palace complex in panic, simply fleeing hastily as if encountering a lethal crisis.

More terrifyingly, countless demons rushed out from the depths of the palaces, forming a black torrent, as if intending to inundate the region.

Where they passed, all things perished.

And this clone couldn't escape in time and was instantly killed by the overwhelming number of demons.

Chapter 699: Perfection Level Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman, Catastrophe Eruption_2

This is simply a colossal torrent of demonic creatures, leaving one shivering uncontrollably.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan immediately informed the Primordial Talisman Pen and other magical treasures, knowing that these treasures are well-versed and surely aware of what's happening.

"Those palace complexes are very likely the core area of the Flame Dragon Secret Realm."

"And that group of Nascent Soul cultivators might just be the cultivators from the Zhao Family."

"According to my guess, it's likely that these Zhao Family cultivators have arrived at the palace of the Flame Dragon Secret Realm."

"They think that this palace complex must have left many treasures from the Ancient Era and might have made significant gains."

"But within the palace complex, not only are there treasures from the Ancient Era, there are countless demonic creatures left behind."

"Previously, these demons were sealed inside and couldn't leave."

"However, this group of Zhao Family cultivators broke through the restriction array of the palace, inadvertently releasing these demonic creatures, causing a great disaster, which led to this situation."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell immediately responded.

It has experienced countless events, especially regarding demons, and is very knowledgeable.

So, just based on Jiang Fan's description, it could pretty much guess the situation accurately.

"So, those Zhao Family cultivators broke into trouble, actually releasing the demons inside?"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

If the guess is true, then this matter might be problematic.

Considering the number and strength of those demons, if they spread throughout the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, then this place is not suitable to remain; the spirit medicine inside would probably be devastated by the demonic creatures.

"Yes."

"Previously, I was wondering who destroyed the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, causing even the Flame Dragon to fall."

"Now it seems it's likely the work of demons."

"They even invaded the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, greatly devastating this Secret Realm World."

"However, these demons didn't fare well either and were trapped inside the Secret Realm World, unable to leave."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said solemnly.

It felt like it seemed to know some truths from the Ancient Era.

Undoubtedly, the disaster from the Ancient Era led to the fall of many powerful beings and forces.

This also resulted in these forces leaving behind numerous ancient relics.

"Sealed numerous demons?"

"It seems similar to the Yiling Secret Realm."

Jiang Fan raised an eyebrow.

Evidently, demons are indeed the cancer of the Cultivation Realm, spread across every corner of it.

No matter where, there are traces of demons.

Even the Flame Dragon Secret Realm has them, truly impressive.

Boom~~

At this moment, he sensed the Fortune-Telling Talisman deep within his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi starting to tremble, seemingly triggering an overwhelming destiny from the unseen.

An immense message instantly poured into the depths of his Sea of Consciousness.

"Demons escape confinement, winds rise and rain rushes, either soar to greatness, or fall into an abyss."

"Leave the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, gaining nothing but potential future troubles, small misfortune."

"Collaborate with Zhao Family cultivators to resist demons, gain a Fifth-Grade Opportunity, but dangers lurk and calamities abound, potential betrayal by petty people, resulting in dire peril, great misfortune."

"Face challenges head-on by proceeding to the Flame Dragon Palace, delving into the palace core, obtain a Second-Grade Opportunity, may encounter dangers, but emerge safely, great fortune."

Undoubtedly, this is also a destiny choice.

Different choices represent different destinies, leading to varied futures.

"It seems I can't just leave the Flame Dragon Secret Realm like this."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

Initially, upon the sudden appearance of such a disaster, he instinctively wanted to leave the Flame Dragon Secret Realm to evade this calamity.

After all, there are so many demonic creatures this time, nearly impossible to resist.

But from the Fortune-Telling Talisman's message, if he did so, it would leave immense hidden troubles for the future.

Thinking about it carefully, this is indeed not impossible.

If these demonic creatures truly escape from the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, it would undoubtedly cause devastation among the human race in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

If he still wanted to continue developing within the Black Dragon Sea Region, he would need to stop the demonic disaster from further spreading.

The best method is naturally sealing or eradicating these demonic creatures.

"Collaborating with Zhao Family cultivators doesn't seem like a good choice."

"These noble family cultivators truly are not good at all."

"Most of them are treacherous."

"Even if you save them, you'll likely be betrayed at a critical moment."

Jiang Fan furrowed his brow.

Undoubtedly, if he chooses to meet up with Zhao Family cultivators to jointly confront those demonic creatures.

Initially, these Zhao Family cultivators certainly won't do him any harm.

But when facing greater crises, these Zhao Family cultivators will surely be the first to betray and even use him as a scapegoat.

So going to help these Zhao Family cultivators is purely asking for trouble.

"But to gain a Second-Grade Opportunity."

"It seems the Flame Dragon Secret Realm indeed harbors huge opportunities."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist, feeling excited.

After all, in all this time, he has only obtained several Second-Grade Opportunities.

And each Second-Grade Opportunity contained immense benefits, greatly aiding him.

Now there's even a chance to gain another Second-Grade Opportunity, truly heaven-sent.

For such opportunities don't arise everywhere.

If you miss this village, there might not be another inn.

Whoosh!

Thinking about it now, Jiang Fan hesitated not at all, immediately flying towards the Flame Dragon Palace.

.....

At the same time, numerous Zhao Family cultivators were fleeing.

Endless demonic qi surged, covering the Nine Heavens and Ten Lands, soaking the once verdant forest into an eerie ink color, as if dyeing this realm all black.

"Howl—" A deafening roar shattered the silence, and thousands of scarlet vertical pupils lit up from deep within the dark demonic qi, resembling burning ghostly flames.

First, several gigantic demon wolves dashed out, venom dripping from their fangs, corroding the ground into smoking vapors.

Next, countless demon insects wielding bone blades appeared from the mist, forming neat phalanxes, their murderous intent palpable.

Massive bats obscuring the sky swooped from high above, their sharp claws tearing through the air.

The ground trembled, as countless dark centipedes with barbed back emerged, their countless appendages rapidly moving, producing a grating rustling sound.

This scene made many Nascent Soul cultivators tremble.

"Damn it, that palace sealed so many demonic creatures."

"No wonder the ancestor was always extremely cautious and didn't dare act recklessly."

"The ancestor must have known about the situation inside long ago."

"Now we've truly stirred up a huge trouble."

Many Zhao Family cultivators regretted their actions bitterly. Had they known the palace complex sealed so many demonic creatures, they wouldn't have dared to break the restriction array no matter what.

Unfortunately, it's too late to say anything now.

They've breached the restriction array inside, releasing the demons within.

This has caused the entire Flame Dragon Secret Realm to be corrupted by demonic qi.

"The ancestor might not have known about the situation inside the palace, otherwise, he would have already warned us."

"Indeed, those restriction arrays are so powerful, they probably already surpass the Divinity Transformation level."

"That's true; if not for the passage of time leading to the collapse of these arrays, we might not have managed it."

"You're right, even without us acting, it would've been simply a matter of time before these arrays collapsed on their own; we've merely accelerated this process, objectively we've done nothing wrong."

"What do we do now, with so many demonic creatures emerging here, even as Nascent Soul cultivators, we may not be their match; if overwhelmed by them, we'll surely die."

"What else can we do? Run, immediately leave the Flame Dragon Secret Realm."

"Does that mean we have to abandon the opportunities within the Flame Dragon Secret Realm?"

"Utterly foolish, if these demonic creatures manage to leave the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, the entire Black Dragon Sea Region would suffer; the Flame Dragon Secret Realm must be sealed."

"Exactly, what's an opportunity compared to our lives."

"Stop talking and run, or we're doomed if we're even a bit late."

Numerous Zhao Family cultivators debated frantically, their expressions extremely bleak.

They totally didn't expect such a change to occur, completely beyond their imagination.

But since this has happened, they have no choice but to flee quickly.

Chapter 700: Easy Crossing the Tribulation, Obtaining a Second-Grade Opportunity

A few days later.

Jiang Fan arrived at the Flame Dragon Palace.

With the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, he concealed his aura and figure, easily evading the pursuit of many demons, and eventually arrived within the Flame Dragon Palace.

Due to a large number of demons breaking free, the Flame Dragon Palace, once filled with Restriction Arrays, no longer had any of its former defensive restrictions, allowing anyone to easily enter the palace.

"Is this the Flame Dragon Palace?"

After entering the Flame Dragon Palace, Jiang Fan looked around curiously.

A mixture of decay and blood assaulted his senses, almost making him nauseous. The mottled bluestone floor was riddled with cracks, and dark red blood stains, like dried rivers, meandered into the darkness.

Broken stone pillars leaned haphazardly, the carved dragon and phoenix totems on their surfaces long blurred, replaced by twisted demon patterns, glowing eerily purple under the erosion of demonic qi.

The once resplendent dome was now riddled with holes, large pieces of glazed tiles scattered on the ground, with shattered fragments reflecting the roiling dark clouds above.

Through the cracks, demonic qi poured down like a waterfall, forming ghastly faces in mid-air, emitting shrill howls. The bronze lampposts hanging in mid-air were rusted, the lamp oil long dried, yet they still flickered amidst the demonic qi, occasionally sparking with ghostly blue fire, casting fleeting shadows.

Fortunately, he had the protection of the Secret Treasure Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf; otherwise, the surrounding demons would sense his aura and swarm him, potentially devouring him whole with no remains left.

"So tragic."

"What on earth happened here during the Ancient Era?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Pill Furnace lamented.

It could imagine how powerful the Flame Dragon Secret Realm was during its heyday, but after countless years, it had turned into ruins, which was truly lamentable.

"Damn demons."

Seeing this scene, the Demon-Vibrating Bell couldn't help but feel a tinge of anger, as it reminded it of events from the Ancient Era, making it itch to act immediately.

But it also knew that now was not a good time to act.

It suppressed its urge to annihilate the surrounding demons.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!!!

Just then, three or four figures suddenly appeared in the distance, all of them Nascent Soul Cultivators.

However, they were shrouded in intense demonic qi and blood qi, as if possessed by demons.

"It's the Demon Cultivators!"

The Primordial Talisman Pen immediately sensed that these four Nascent Soul Cultivators harbored immense demonic qi, indicating that they were Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators, clearly up to no good by being here.

"Haha, seeing those Zhao Family cultivators flee in panic was delightful."

"Indeed, they probably thought they themselves destroyed the Restriction Arrays here, little knowing it was our doing. Otherwise, how could the Restriction Arrays be destroyed so quickly?"

"We've been disguising ourselves for so long to infiltrate the Flame Dragon Secret Realm, and finally, we've been given this opportunity, as if the heavens are aiding us Demon Dao."

"Absolutely true, as long as we destroy the remaining Restriction Arrays and release the demons within completely, the Black Dragon Sea Region will become a demon realm, heralding the thriving era of Demon Dao."

The many Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators laughed heartily, feeling immense joy.

It was evident that the changes in the Flame Dragon Secret Realm were entirely orchestrated by them.

If it weren't for them, the demons sealed within the palace would not have escaped so easily.

One could say that they held the Zhao Family cultivators in the palms of their hands.

Which made them feel quite complacent.

After all, when the Divinity Transformation Ancestor of the Zhao Family was still around, they frantically hunted the Demon Cultivators, nearly exterminating them in this sea region. Each of them harbored a deep-seated grudge against the Zhao Family.

Now they finally had a chance to exact revenge, and these Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators felt immense satisfaction.

"So it's these Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators?!"

"No wonder the Fortune-Telling Talisman indicated this mission would be somewhat perilous."

"I'm afraid these dangers were brought by these Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators."

Hidden nearby, Jiang Fan squinted while recalling the warnings from the Fortune-Telling Talisman. He was pondering what kind of danger he might face on this trip.

Now it was clear the danger came from this group of Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators.

Fortunately, he was hiding with the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, making the situation advantageous for him with the enemy in the open while he remained concealed.

He also remembered the first warning from the Fortune-Telling Talisman, that if he chose to leave the Flame Dragon Secret Realm and ignore its happenings, it would lead to endless troubles.

These troubles were likely not just from the demons but also from this group of Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators.

If they were to succeed, then the Black Dragon Sea Region would be corrupted by the forces of the Demon Dao.

At that time, it would be more than just annihilation and chaos.

"Since ancient times, good and evil cannot coexist."

"These Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators must die."

Jiang Fan's eyes flashed with a cold glint.

As he waved his hand, clusters of cyan flames appeared in his palm, blooming like a lotus, manifesting the power of the Cyan Lotus Earth Fire Talisman.

Boom!

In an instant, four cyan fireballs blasted towards the four Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators at an unbelievable speed, surpassing the speed of sound, leaving no trace of a sound barrier.

"Damn, there's an enemy."
