Chapter 79: Forcibly Seizing a Common Woman

Noon, West Street Market outside Yunze City.

This is considered one of the largest markets in the outer city.

A large number of residents come here to buy grain, meat, vegetables, and more.

Numerous vendors also come here to sell, making it a bustling place.

At this moment, Jiang Fan also arrived here.

Of course, before coming to this market, he used the Disguise Technique, altering his original appearance, transforming into a short old man in gray clothes, looking about fifty or sixty years old.

The Great Success Realm Disguise Technique allowed him to disguise himself in various forms.

Perhaps an old person, or a middle-aged person, even young people and children were possible.

Truly versatile and ever-changing.

Ordinary people could never possibly see through his true identity.

In the past, Flower Thief Cao Jun used such a disguise technique to easily escape the government's capture.

The reason Jiang Fan used a disguise was purely out of caution.

After all, no one knows what might happen at the market or who might target him.

In short, he needed to be foolproof.

"Maybe I can also take the opportunity to buy some food."

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered as he pondered his next move.

This time coming to the market was not just to obtain a Ninth-Grade Opportunity.

He also wanted to purchase a large amount of food before chaos erupted.

This way, even if chaos did ensue in the future, he could easily cope without worry.

"According to the opportunity's hint, the Ninth-Grade Opportunity should be on a fish vendor's stall."

Jiang Fan pondered the opportunity hint he had received this time and soon arrived at the fish vendor's stall.

The stall was densely packed with fish, all caught from Yunmeng Lake, looking extremely fresh.

Among them, one fish was very large, weighing at least twenty to thirty pounds.

It appeared to be quite expensive.

Not something ordinary people could afford.

Thus, it had been sitting on the stall untouched.

Undoubtedly, the Ninth-Grade Opportunity was this big fish.

And it seemed this big fish was not as simple as it appeared; there might be more to it.

He sensed a faint strange aura emanating from within it.

Causing the blood and energy in his body to boil.

"How much is this fish?"

Jiang Fan asked.

Upon hearing this, the fish vendor's eyes lit up; here was a big customer. If he sold this fish, he would earn his month's income.

He tentatively quoted a price.

Jiang Fan didn't haggle at all and bought it directly.

"Great."

The fish vendor was overjoyed; this was a jackpot client. If he had quoted a bit more, it would have been better, but he had no intention of backing out, as clients like this were rare.

If he really scared the other party away, all his effort would have been in vain.

Soon, Jiang Fan had purchased the fish and quickly left the area.

Shortly after Jiang Fan left, someone else came to the stall, wanting to buy the big fish, even offering more than double the price.

Unfortunately, Jiang Fan had already bought it, and the fish vendor was helpless.

When Jiang Fan returned home, he went to the kitchen and cut open the big fish.

He found, inside the big fish's belly, a purple Treasure Fish the size of a palm.

Undoubtedly, it was the Purple-Scaled Treasure Fish.

Every piece of fish meat contained vast, pure energy, comparable to spirit medicine.

"Husband, you actually bought back a Treasure Fish?"

Su Weiwei widened her beautiful eyes, very surprised.

Although her husband had previously caught some Treasure Fish while fishing in Yunmeng Lake, since coming to Yunze City, they shouldn't have had the chance to get Treasure Fish.

Who would have thought, her husband was just going to the market to buy food and actually bought back a Treasure Fish — unquestionably, they had struck gold.

Such a Purple-Scaled Treasure Fish sold out would be worth at least a hundred taels of silver.

And not even money could always buy it.

"Luck wasn't too bad."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly.

Since advancing to the Refining Organ Realm, his demand for food has also grown.

The most suitable food, naturally, was Treasure Fish.

The problem was, Treasure Fish were not easy to find.

Fortunately, they got the Ninth-Grade Opportunity, obtaining a Purple-Scaled Treasure Fish.

Without a doubt, this Treasure Fish alone could satisfy his food needs for a while.

It could also accelerate his Martial Dao cultivation speed.

"I'll cook this Purple-Scaled Treasure Fish."

Su Weiwei excitedly took the Treasure Fish to the kitchen and started cooking.

She was well-acquainted with such matters, having done it several times before.

This Purple-Scaled Treasure Fish seemed to contain more energy than any previously obtained Treasure Fish, perhaps due to its older age.

This also made Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei feel incredibly invigorated.

Just like taking some sort of medicine.

After being well-fed, the two immediately returned to the bedroom, where the blankets rolled, and the bed trembled.

They had an exceptionally wonderful night.

Without a doubt, this greatly enhanced their physical constitution.

Especially for Su Weiwei, who seemed to have increased her endurance and strength.

Compared to before, it was simply incomparable.

In the following days, Jiang Fan also changed into different appearances and went to the West Street market to start purchasing large quantities of grain, pork, chicken, duck, and essentials like firewood, rice, oil, and salt.

Enough to meet the needs of Jiang Fan and Su Weiwei for two to three years.

Fortunately, he had an extra Storage Bag, allowing him to store more food.

If it were just a Space Ring, it would be unable to store so much food.

He felt that buying such a large quantity of food was entirely sufficient.

Even if Yunze City were really to fall into turmoil and be attacked by the Red Eyebrow Army.

These supplies would allow survival for quite a long time.

"Hmm?!"

Just as Jiang Fan finished buying the grain and was returning home, there was suddenly a commotion on the street.

Many people seemed to be watching.

As he got closer, he saw a young couple being surrounded by a group of people.

Leading the group was a young man in luxurious clothing, looking rich or noble.

He had a pale face, a gaudy hat, and a look of arrogance and disdain.

His gaze seemed to regard the people around him as mere servants.

Undoubtedly, this must be some wealthy playboy.

This playboy was accompanied by three or four guards; each was strong, with powerful blood energy, at least in the Strong Sinew Realm, armed with large blades, they were without a doubt a vicious bunch, killers by nature.

Because of these guards, the surrounding people dared not step forward to interfere.

"Madam."

"I am Lu Wenda, the third young master of the Lu Family."

"If you come with me, abandon this useless husband by your side, I'll ensure you a future of wealth and luxury."

"Endless prosperity and wealth await you."

Lu Wenda looked at the young, good-looking woman with greed, like a starving ghost lusting after her.
