Chapter 811: Seventh-Layer Nascent Soul, Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman

At this moment, in the depths of the Void Secret Realm.

A soul body suddenly awoke, as if roused from a deep slumber.

"This is the power of the Taixu Order."

"Could it be that the one holding the Taixu Order is finally about to appear?"

"After waiting for such a long time, I have finally found the person with the Taixu Order. This is truly wonderful."

"Hurry over, my time is running out."

The soul body was overjoyed.

After endless ages, its soul energy was about to dissipate.

If the bearer of the Taixu Order doesn't appear, it might completely perish.

By then, its mission would utterly fail, and the various plans of the Taixu Sect would vanish like smoke.

Unfortunately, there was no way for it to contact the cultivator holding the Taixu Order directly. It could only wait silently for the other party's arrival.

"Wait and see, enemies of the Taixu Sect, you will have no good end either."

The soul body seemed to recall events from the Ancient Era, and an endless bitterness and reluctance surged from the depths of its heart.

But it also knew that with Taixu Sect's strength alone, they could not withstand such terrifying enemies.

They could only pin their hopes on the future.

Hopes that someone in later generations could help the Taixu Sect seek revenge.

Initially, it thought that after endless ages, the hope for revenge was becoming more and more remote.

But it never expected that when it was on the verge of perishing, the bearer of the Taixu Order would appear.

Perhaps this was destiny.

.....

Meanwhile, Jiang Fan could also sense the anomaly of the Taixu Order in his hand.

After entering the Void Secret Realm, this token would occasionally throb, seemingly guiding him in a certain direction, leading him to the deepest part of the Void Secret Realm.

Boom~~

At that moment, a message instantly plunged into the depths of his sea of consciousness.

"Congratulations on successfully entering the Void Secret Realm, having survived a life-and-death ordeal. You have gained four million Luck Points, and your Luck has significantly increased."

"You might wonder why the Taixu Order is reacting. This is closely related to the arrangements made by the Taixu Sect in the past. They left numerous methods at the deepest part of the Void Secret Realm, awaiting the one destined to come."

At the deepest location of the Void Secret Realm, there remains a human remnant soul from the Ancient Era, who is none other than the Supreme Elder of the Taixu Sect, Daoist Yuanqing. Due to severe injuries and the lengthy years, his soul has gradually dissipated.

This is also one of the methods left by the Taixu Sect. Daoist Yuanqing also holds secrets from the Ancient Era. Should you obtain his help, you could acquire the entire legacy of the Taixu Sect."

"Destiny Hint One: Daoist Yuanqing is extremely anxious, hoping for the person holding the Taixu Order to arrive swiftly. But what he does not know is that after the endless ages, the Void Secret Realm has long since changed. It has become a dominion of the Demon Race, with hundreds of Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators residing there, and the place is rife with formidable demon beasts."

If you rush, heedless and holding the Taixu Order to Daoist Yuanqing's location, you will encounter numerous Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators and will tragically perish at their hands, for they have long guarded before the Taixu Hall, awaiting the arrival of the person with the Taixu Order. The place you are heading to will be a den of dragons and tigers."

"Destiny Hint Two: Haste makes waste. Arriving sooner is not as good as arriving at the right time. There is no need to be so anxious, because the treasures of the Void Secret Realm are right here, and they won't run away.

As the holder of the Taixu Order, you are already the master of these treasures. Even if Daoist Yuanqing is nearing the end of his life, being a former great power of the Human Race, he can still hold on for a while.

You can completely afford to wait here for three years, and while you do, you might as well raise your cultivation to the late-stage Nascent Soul, then head for the Taixu Hall. The stronger your cultivation, the fewer calamities can kill you."

Perceiving this message, Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He did not expect that after entering the Void Secret Realm, there would be so many dangers.

Without the guidance of destiny, he might have accidentally fallen into the trap of the Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators.

Compared to those Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators, his current strength was indeed lacking.

Just as the destiny had suggested, there was no need to rush.

"It just so happens that my cultivation has also reached a critical moment."

"I can completely make a breakthrough here and promote to the Seventh-Layer Nascent Soul."

"If I become a late-stage Nascent Soul Cultivator, my combat power will advance further."

"By then, I will have some level of resistance against Divinity Transformation Cultivators as well."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He thought the Void Secret Realm was indeed a Cultivation Holy Land.

This place is equipped with a Tier Six Spirit Vein, and the surrounding Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi is denser than even the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm.

If he cultivates here, the efficiency of his cultivation will also advance further.

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate and immediately searched for a hidden cave nearby.

Then he began his secluded cultivation.

.....

Several days later.

Inside the world of the Exquisite Tower.

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, operating the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture.

The vast spiritual qi around him surged and poured into his body.

After several days of cultivation, his cultivation had completely advanced to the perfection of the Sixth-Layer Nascent Soul.

Just one step short of promoting to the Seventh-Layer Nascent Soul.

For ordinary Nascent Soul cultivators, this was a huge bottleneck.

After all, promoting from mid-stage Nascent Soul to late-stage was not an easy feat.

Countless Nascent Soul cultivators have been trapped at this bottleneck, unable to break through even until their lifespan ends.

Chapter 812: Seventh-Layer Nascent Soul, Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman_2

But for Jiang Fan, this is not considered a bottleneck, because his foundation is extremely solid.

Not something an ordinary Nascent Soul can compare to.

"Let's begin."

Jiang Fan absorbed the immense spiritual energy between heaven and earth, and the primordial magical power within him circulated a round after round of circulation, surging with the force of a mighty river.

The primordial magical power within him grew increasingly stronger.

In an instant, this massive force slammed towards the bottleneck, like a roaring tidal wave crashing against the shore.

Boom~~

With just one impact, the late-stage Nascent Soul bottleneck shattered.

Seventh-layer Nascent Soul!

Without a doubt, Jiang Fan's cultivation has now advanced further, promoted from the sixth-layer to the seventh-layer realm, which is the late-stage Nascent Soul.

He perceived that the primordial magical power within him suddenly surged more than tenfold.

At the same time, the Nascent Soul deep within his elixir field and sea of qi grew further.

The Nascent Soul on his body sprouted two legs.

Originally, the Nascent Soul only had arms, ears, a nose, and a mouth, but after advancing to the seventh-layer Nascent Soul, it gained two legs, indicating growth, the infant continuously perfecting itself.

This made the power of his legs strong and powerful, and his speed compared to before doubled.

As if a kick could shatter mountains and rip apart the earth.

Effortlessly able to invoke the immense power of heaven and earth.

"The power of spiritual sense has also increased."

"At least reached the ninth-layer Divinity Transformation realm."

At this moment, Jiang Fan also noticed that his spiritual sense power skyrocketed further.

Unexpectedly reached the ninth-layer Divinity Transformation realm.

With a thought, his vast Divinity Transformation spirit sense spread out, enveloping an area of a hundred thousand kilometers.

Within the realm of spiritual sense's coverage, every movement is under his control.

It's as if he is the deity of this region.

"If the power of spiritual sense wants to advance further, it's not so simple."

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

Although his spiritual sense power has increased greatly, reaching the ninth-layer Divinity Transformation level, going further would mean sixth-tier spiritual sense, which is an earth-shattering change.

In the current era, no cultivator in the Void Realm supposedly possesses sixth-tier spiritual sense.

According to numerous records from the Primordial Talisman Sect, possessing sixth-tier spiritual sense would allow one to perceive the void, a truly unimaginable power.

"Next is inscribing new Life Talismans."

Jiang Fan is very much looking forward to it.

After all, he currently controls six Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talismans, and for him, the more spirit talismans mastered, the better - they serve as a hidden trump.

The next Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman is the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman.

The ability of this talisman is quite simple - it is the space shuttle and connection.

Immortal artifact Heaven-Reaching Bridge can open space channels, connecting different spatial dimensions or distant regions, allowing its holder to shuttle instantly between various spaces, breaking space limitations for rapid movement and strategic transfers.

For example, when facing danger, the user can open a portal to a safe space to escape; or when exploring the unknown, use it to directly enter mysterious alternate dimensions, etc.

The Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman also possesses similar abilities.

It naturally cannot compare to the original Immortal artifact Heaven-Reaching Bridge, but it does have partial capabilities.

"Once this spirit talisman is mastered, there might not be a need to construct teleportation arrays."

"Refining the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman would allow connections within various regions of the Void Realm."

Jiang Fan rubbed his chin.

Although the Gate of the Void can converge to create a Gate of Space, a space projection, what happens if the Gate of the Void is unexpectedly altered, causing all space gates to disappear, leaving the Void Realm disconnected again?

In the Ancient Era, the Void Realm was like this.

Through the power of the Gate of the Void, communication within the Void Realm became very convenient, allowing teleportation to various places at any time.

But since the destruction of the Taixu Sect, the Gate of the Void has vanished, and without space gates, cultivators from all over can no longer teleport.

Only the powers with established teleportation arrays back then could traverse regions.

People without foresight must have immediate worries.

He cannot assure continuous use of the Gate of the Void.

If something unexpected happens, or he ascends to the Immortal Realm, then the Primordial Talisman Sect will certainly face great issues.

However, having the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman changes everything now.

Even if there is a mishap with the Gate of the Void, or he ascends to the Immortal Realm, as long as the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman exists, it will form space channels to ease teleportation for cultivators from various regions.

This is the eternal foundation of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

"In a way, this is also an Instant Teleportation Talisman."

"Once deployed, it can form spatial bridges that can instantly transport me to other areas."

"In this way, it allows avoiding the deadly threats of enemies."

"It can be said this is a huge trump card."

Jiang Fan is very satisfied with the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman, and not all spirit talismans possess lethal power; sometimes, support talismans provide greater assistance.

After all, the cultivation realm isn't always about fighting; there's also construction.

.....

A month later.

Jiang Fan also comprehended the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman, inscribing this talisman onto his Nascent Soul smoothly.

He saw a golden bridge was emerging on the back of the Nascent Soul deep in his elixir field and sea of qi, containing Void Power, which is the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman.

It seems that just by activating this talisman, a void bridge would form, connecting to another void.

Of course, due to his current weak cultivation, the distance that can be transmitted is relatively short.

As cultivation increases, the void bridge will become larger, with longer distances.

"Comprehending spirit talismans is becoming easier."

Jiang Fan feels very satisfied, as his cultivation increases, his comprehension also becomes stronger.

Comprehending the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman is also thanks to consuming a large number of Luck Points.

With these Luck Points aiding him, his perception greatly enhances.

Thus, comprehending spirit talismans becomes increasingly simple.

Thinking about this, Jiang Fan had a thought and opened his Virtual Panel.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Great difficulty not dying, followed by blessings]

[Lifespan: 50,000 years]

[Spirit Root: Celestial Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 8 million]

[Wealth: 10 billion Spirit Stones]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique, Nascent Soul Chapter (Tier Four Late Stage)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, Fourth Layer]

[Innate Divine Techniques: Emperor's Gaze, Shrinking Earth into Inches, Palm Wind, Water Control, Soul Devourer]

[Life Talisman: Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman (Great Success), Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman (Mastery), Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Destroying Sword Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Dominating Blade Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Transforming Staff Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Dependent Spear Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman (Beginner)]

[Realm: Seventh-layer Nascent Soul (1%)]

[Profession: Tier Four Upper Grade Talisman Master (30%)]

Undoubtedly, the data on him now is vastly improved compared to before.

First, his Luck Points have reached 8 million, an extremely astonishing amount.

Only this is thanks to surviving two calamities.

Each calamity granting him millions of Luck Points.

Even though many were consumed, there are still 8 million left.

Furthermore, the more shocking thing is his wealth, reaching 10 billion Spirit Stones.

Even the wealth of a Divinity Transformation Sect might be similar.

This was achieved by unifying three True Spirits, looting the wealth from four Divinity Transformation races on the Western Continent.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have had the opportunity to swell his wealth.

His net worth definitely exceeds 10 billion Spirit Stones.

As there are countless magical treasures and materials whose worth cannot be calculated, they're stored in the treasure trove of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

For him, money is no longer a major concern.

"The next step is rapidly improving cultivation."

"Seventh-layer Nascent Soul is still far from enough."

"After all, enemies are getting stronger, and current cultivation is far from enough."

Jiang Fan immediately calms down.

Then quickly enters a state of cultivation, refining drop after drop of potion, the primordial magical power within him also rapidly increasing at a pace visible to the naked eye.

For him, not a single moment will be wasted.

Chapter 813: Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm After Three Years, Three Billion People

Three years later.

During the three years Jiang Fan was in seclusion cultivating, the Western Continent underwent earth-shattering changes.

Ever since he stole treasures from the vaults of the four Divinity Transformation races, indirectly causing the failure of their siege against races such as the Silver Moon Wolf Race, their powers suffered heavy losses, and the situation became increasingly chaotic.

The Celestial Roc Race and other Tier Five races were also on edge, believing there were many Divinity Transformation Cultivators hidden in the Western Continent, so they continuously shrank their influences to prevent being ambushed.

This gave many weaker races a chance to breathe.

Meanwhile, Jiang Fan's many avatars took advantage of the situation, attacking human breeding grounds on the Western Continent.

In just a few days, these breeding grounds were destroyed, and the humans inside were sent back to the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm.

From then on, humans completely vanished from the Western Continent.

When many demon races discovered this, they were helpless, as they were struggling to protect themselves, so they couldn't be bothered by the complete disappearance of humans.

.....

Of course, aside from ordinary humans, some demon races that were helpful to humans were also captured by Jiang Fan.

For example, Hua Qinghe was one of the Tier Three Flower Demons.

After all, aside from the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm, there were still many Flower Demons present in other places.

They were famous Spirit Plant Cultivators on the Western Continent.

Many races hoped to receive assistance from the Flower Demons to help their races grow Spirit Medicine.

They were considered a valuable race.

"How is it possible? Just a mere human, how could they be so formidable?"

"What on earth happened?"

Hua Qinghe was bewildered.

Originally, it was diligently working in a medicinal garden, who could have imagined that a mysterious human cultivator would suddenly descend from the sky, slaying many demon guards in the garden.

These Flower Demons were easily taken away and brought to this mysterious place.

Even now, it felt very confused, having no idea how this all happened.

Normally, humans should have already gone extinct on the Western Continent.

Who could have suddenly encountered such a terrifying human cultivator?

"Hua Qinghe, it's been years, I did not expect to see you here again, hope you have been well."

The one speaking was the Flower Demon Clan Leader, Hua Wannian.

Having joined the Primordial Talisman Sect for so many years, its cultivation advanced rapidly, rising to Tier Four.

Becoming a Tier Four Flower Demon.

"Hua Wannian, you, you are still alive?"

"Wasn't it said you had been captured by enemies, died, and disappeared?"

"Wait, when did you advance to Tier Four?"

Hua Qinghe stared dumbfoundedly at the suddenly appearing Hua Wannian, feeling quite incredible.

As a member of the Flower Demon Clan, their lifespan is much longer than that of ordinary races.

But the price for this longevity is the difficulty in breaking through.

Often a bottleneck remains unbreakable even until death.

Every breakthrough requires significant opportunity.

It was familiar with Hua Wannian, whose cultivation and aptitude were similar, but it was always stuck at Tier Three, unable to see hope for advancing to Tier Four.

But this guy, absent for some time, suddenly became a Tier Four Flower Demon, truly beyond imagination.

If it hadn't witnessed it with its own eyes, it wouldn't believe such an absurd thing.

"I've been at Tier Four for a long time now."

Hua Wannian smiled slightly, speaking smugly.

In fact, it didn't expect to have the opportunity to step into Tier Four, and its advancement was due to the help from Lord Sect Master, who provided it a drop of mysterious Spiritual Liquid.

Upon consumption, it effortlessly helped it break through the Tier Four bottleneck, becoming a Tier Four Flower Demon.

Moreover, not only did it advance, but many of its clansmen also advanced along with it.

It could be said the Flower Demon Clan was now unprecedentedly powerful.

"You allied with the Human Race?!"

"Could it be that your breakthrough to Tier Four was due to a chance given by the Human Race?"

Hua Qinghe was no fool, it immediately realized this.

After all, this place was human territory, and Hua Wannian appearing here naturally had a significant connection with the Human Race.

"You are indeed smart."

Hua Wannian nodded, having no intention to hide anything, since the other person would find out sooner or later.

This time it came here to persuade this clansman, hoping it won't do anything foolish.

After all, the members of the Flower Demon Clan were far too few.

Even losing one would cause tremendous loss.

"Why ally with the Human Race?"

"You should know how weak the Human Race is."

"If other races become aware of the Human Race's presence, then the Human Race would face a catastrophe."

Hua Qinghe was puzzled, feeling it was strange to surrender to a Tier Five race but why surrender to a weak Human Race.

This was truly unfathomable.

"Why let other races know? Just prevent them from knowing."

"Now the Human Race is concealed within a Secret Realm World."

"Even the Celestial Roc Race and other Divinity Transformation races cannot find the territory of the Human Race."

"Moreover, the Human Race is not as weak as you think."

"Even now, they are quite powerful as a Tier Four Race."

"With time, surpassing the Celestial Roc Race will be a very easy task for them."

Hua Wannian smiled slightly.

Having joined the Primordial Talisman Sect for such a long time, it was already familiar with the sect.

Chapter 814: The Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm Three Years Later, Three Billion Population (2)

At the same time, it also knows just how immense human potential truly is.

It knows just how incredible Lord Sect Master is.

It believes that once Lord Sect Master becomes a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, he might easily sweep across the entire Western Continent.

Becoming the sole dominator of the Western Continent is merely a matter of time.

"Tier Four Race? Could it be that the Human Race now has Nascent Soul Cultivators?"

"But hasn't the Human Race been thoroughly suppressed by all the major races?"

"They haven't had any opportunity to develop."

"When exactly did a human Nascent Soul emerge?"

Hua Qinghe was shocked and found it unbelievable.

It feels that the Human Race is the most tragically suppressed race.

Feared by many races, they aren't even allowed to have cultivation methods.

They're even kept in fixed locations under strict surveillance by Demon Race cultivators.

Yet despite this, humans can still produce Nascent Souls. How resilient their life force is!

"Haha, this is the secret of the Human Race."

"You've just joined the Human Race, so this matter can't be disclosed to you for now."

"But there is one thing I can tell you."

"The human population has already exceeded three billion."

"This is not a weak race at all."

Hua Wannian said.

A few years ago, the human population was around two billion.

But over the past few years, through action, a large number of mortals from human farms were gathered, causing the population to soar by as much as a billion, most of whom are young adults.

As of now, the population of the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm has reached three billion, developing rapidly.

"Three billion humans? How can there be so many?"

"Wait a minute, those attacks on human farms earlier, could they have been carried out by human cultivators?"

"Their goal wasn't to kill mortals but to rescue them?"

Upon hearing this, Hua Qinghe was astonished.

Although it is a Flower Demon, it is not uninformed like other demon cultivators.

On the contrary, it is quite attentive to the events occurring on the Western Continent.

Among them, the attack on human farms and rumors of human extinction were considered major news over the past three years.

Many demon cultivators are speculating who exactly is exterminating humans?!

Could it be that some Great Demon harbors a vendetta against humans and chose to completely eradicate them?!

Or are some terrifying Great Demons cultivating a demon technique, thus devouring a large number of humans?

But it never expected that it was human cultivators who acted, rescuing the humans from the farms.

Thus leading to the rumored extinction of humans on the Western Continent.

No, it can't be called extinction.

It can only be said that humans are hiding and haven't been discovered by other demon race cultivators.

"Exactly."

Hua Wannian admitted.

After all, this isn't much of a secret; it's well known in the Primordial Talisman Sect.

The Primordial Talisman Sect even celebrated this event for a whole day.

From then on, humans would no longer be harmed on the Western Continent; after all, if there are no humans, demon race cultivators won't be able to find them to eat.

If several decades or even hundreds of years pass, most ordinary demon race cultivators probably won't even know of human existence, similar to extinct animals.

"I didn't expect humans would control a Tier Five Secret Realm."

"This is something even Divinity Transformation Races dream of but can't accomplish."

"Yet humans have managed to do it."

"Given time, humans might have the chance to become a new Tier Five Race."

Hua Qinghe remarked with great emotion.

It knows how remarkable it is to control a Tier Five Secret Realm.

This represents the safest base for a race.

Once a Secret Realm World is controlled, even Divinity Transformation Cultivators couldn't attack it, defining an unbeatable position.

Therefore, humans don't need to seek resources outside; merely developing the resources of the Secret Realm World itself is enough to last thousands, even tens of thousands of years.

It couldn't imagine how powerful humans could become, given a safe environment to grow rapidly.

No wonder Hua Wannian would willingly join the humans.

At least after becoming part of the Human Race, one's own safety could be guaranteed.

"Haha, humans don't just control one Secret Realm World."

"In fact, our Primordial Talisman Sect controls three Secret Realm Worlds."

"Currently, this is only one of them."

Hua Wannian chuckled.

What?!

Hua Qinghe was dumbfounded, utterly shocked.

Usually, for a race to control one Secret Realm World is already an extraordinary miracle.

However, humans control three Secret Realm Worlds, which is excessively extravagant.

No wonder races like the Celestial Roc Race, Jiao Dragon Race, Immortal Fox Race, and others are so wary of humans, wishing to completely eradicate them.

Even given the slightest breath, humans can quickly develop, which is truly terrifying.

It couldn't imagine how many top-tier powerhouses humans might produce in the future.

"With this development, what exactly do humans want me to do?"

Hua Qinghe took a deep breath and asked.

It knows that since it's been captured and brought here, it's probably impossible to leave.

So rather than resisting stubbornly, it might as well directly join the Human Race.

Besides, there are many Flower Demons here; this doesn't seem like a cruel place.

Even Hua Wannian has gotten the opportunity to advance to Tier Four.

If it joins the Human Race, it might similarly obtain such opportunities in the future.

As a member of the Flower Demon Race, it long accustomed to being a subordinate of powerful races.

After all, working for the Celestial Roc Race and other races, and working for humans, isn't much different.

"Naturally, we Flower Demons will do what we do best, cultivating spirit medicine."

"Moreover, the Secret Realm controlled by humans is called the Wood Dragon Secret Realm."

"Every inch of soil in this Secret Realm World is spiritual soil."

"You could say the entire world could become a medicinal garden."

"To us Flower Demons, it's practically a holy land."

Hua Wannian said with feeling.

Actually, the Primordial Talisman Sect has already relocated numerous medicinal gardens into the Wood Dragon Secret Realm; after all, it's incredibly suited for cultivating spirit medicine. Cultivating spirit medicine and spirit rice in the Wood Dragon Secret Realm can boost yields by thirty to forty percent.

Some even could double in yield.

Over time, the Wood Dragon Secret Realm naturally became a vast medicinal garden for the Primordial Talisman Sect.

Also, currently, only a fraction of the Wood Dragon Secret Realm is developed, probably not even one-millionth of its area.

"An entire Secret Realm World as a medicinal garden? The Wood Dragon Secret Realm?"

"Could it be the legendary True Spirit Secret Realm?"

"It's said in the Ancient Era, a True Spirit Wood Dragon indeed appeared."

"Reportedly, it mastered the power of wood, hailed as a Grandmaster of the spirit medicine realm, even cultivating Immortal Elixir once."

"I didn't expect such a True Spirit Secret Realm to come under human control."

Hua Qinghe excitedly said.

It feels it might understand Hua Wannian's opportunity for advancing to Tier Four, undoubtedly closely related to the Wood Dragon Secret Realm.

This is a True Spirit Secret Realm, filled with countless opportunities, isn't it a natural expectation?

No wonder Hua Wannian is so loyal to the Human Race.

With such depth and power, its rise is merely a matter of time.

In several hundred or even a thousand years, the Human Race is sure to become the dominant force on the Western Continent.

"Hua Wannian, when can you lead me to the Wood Dragon Secret Realm."

"I'm already eager to cultivate spirit medicine in that True Spirit Secret Realm."

Hua Qinghe excitedly stated.

For the Flower Demon Race, the more spirit medicine they cultivate, the quicker their cultivation grows.

They can absorb strands of medicinal essence and quickly enhance their cultivation.

The ancestors of the Flower Demon Race followed such a practice, allowing their cultivation to advance rapidly.

This cultivation method is slow but safe, requiring no risky adventures.

Every generation of Flower Demons proceeds this way, becoming powerful demon cultivators.

"No rush, take a few days to rest here first, get accustomed to the Primordial Talisman Sect."

"After familiarizing yourself with the surroundings, it won't be too late to head to the Wood Dragon Secret Realm."

Hua Wannian smiled.

It couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

At least its family member isn't too resistant, making it easy to integrate into the Primordial Talisman Sect.

If its temperament were stubborn, it might have been killed by humans.

At present, the Primordial Talisman Sect isn't short of manpower like before.

Now the sect is teeming with talent, not lacking a few Flower Demons.

Stubborn resistance would just lead to being outright killed.

Chapter 815: The Ever-Growing Sect, Seven Hundred Thousand Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators

A few days later.

Under the guidance of the Flower Demons, Hua Qinghe fully familiarized herself with the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm and the Primordial Talisman Sect.

She felt deeply shocked, having never seen so many humans in her life.

At the same time, thousands upon thousands of cities were also built within the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm.

Each city is constructed with exquisite detail, unique in its own way, and filled with boundless vitality.

She even saw a large number of human cultivators.

Even the current Human Race, when placed outside the realm, is a formidable force.

And enough to shake the power dynamics of many races.

"How many cultivators do humans have now?"

Hua Qinghe was amazed.

She felt her horizons had truly expanded, witnessing an exceptionally prosperous human civilization.

Moreover, the Primordial Talisman Sect had been established for less than a hundred years, yet it has developed to such an extent.

It's essential to know that on the Western Continent, many Tier Four races have histories spanning thousands or even tens of thousands of years, but they still cannot match the current Human Race, the disparity is simply too vast.

"Currently, the Human Race is basically engaged in cultivation universally."

"Any cultivator with a Spirit Root becomes a Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivator."

"Even without a Spirit Root, one can enter the Dao through martial arts and nurture an Acquired Spirit Root."

"Essentially, every year shows remarkable progress."

"But to calculate roughly, there should be over 700,000 Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators."

Hua Wannian thought for a moment, then offered a rough figure.

She felt that even Lord Sect Master could not know an exact number.

Because a large population is born every day, who could know how many Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators could emerge?

But one thing is certain: the Human Race is indeed prospering, and its development momentum is tremendously rapid.

"700,000 Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators, this number is truly terrifying."

"Even during the disasters of the Human Race in the old days, there had never been so many human cultivators."

"How much time has it been since development began?"

"This Sect Leader of the Primordial Talisman Sect is truly a prodigy."

"I'm afraid the former Daoist Xuan Cheng cannot compare with this one at all."

Hua Qinghe said solemnly.

She also understood that the reason the Human Race on the Western Continent was developing so rapidly had a lot to do with the Sect Leader of the Primordial Talisman Sect, perhaps even solely due to his efforts.

Unfortunately, she currently did not have the qualifications to meet that Sect Leader.

Otherwise, she really wanted to meet this legendary figure.

Given time, the opposite party will certainly be able to step into the level of Divinity Transformation.

"It's not only the Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators; there are also more than a few hundred Foundation Establishment Cultivators."

"Even more terrifying is that there are over a hundred Nascent Soul Elders."

"Some of these are human Nascent Souls, but most are Alien Race Nascent Souls."

Hua Wannian also mentioned some aspects of the Primordial Talisman Sect's power.

She also felt that the development of the Primordial Talisman Sect was exaggerated beyond belief.

It is growing rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Every day brings sweeping changes.

"Over a hundred Nascent Souls? Is this real or fake, it's too exaggerated."

"And so many Demon Race Nascent Souls obeying humans? Why are they so obedient?"

Hua Qinghe found it hard to believe.

Simply having tens of thousands of Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators is one thing; although the potential is quite good, Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators are still too weak, unable to shake the big picture.

But over a hundred Nascent Souls is a different story; even the old established Tier Four races cannot control so many Nascent Souls.

Since when did the Human Race quietly possess such a degree of power, it's truly exaggerated.

It can be said that currently the Primordial Talisman Sect is only lacking Divinity Transformation Cultivators.

Once Divinity Transformation Cultivators emerge, they can immediately become a Tier Five Race, standing at the pinnacle of the Western Continent.

"Hehe, they are, of course, not willingly."

"They are enslaved by the special means of Lord Sect Master."

"It's safe to say that those Nascent Soul Demon Beasts are controlled by Lord Sect Master, thus obediently following orders."

Hua Wannian remarked with emotion.

She had no aversion to such matters.

Because in the Western Continent, it's the rule of the survival of the fittest, who is strong can control everything.

Being weak and enslaved is, of course, a given.

It's safe to say they were long accustomed to these kinds of things.

However, these Nascent Soul Demon Beasts did not originate from the Western Continent but from the Black Dragon Sea Region.

Since solving the demonic disaster of the Wood Dragon Secret Realm, Jiang Fan's clones also began gradually eroding the Demon Race's powers in the Black Dragon Sea, especially the Poisonous Scale Flood Dragon Race.

That's the strongest Demon Race in the Black Dragon Sea Region.

And many Nascent Soul Demon Cultivators have been controlled by him.

Thus, what followed was naturally, he gradually managed to control the Poisonous Scale Flood Dragon Race, completely transforming over a hundred Nascent Soul Poisonous Flood Dragons into the Mountain Guardian Spirit Beasts of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

At the same time, they also appeared in the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm, becoming the power of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

But this is just the beginning.

Jiang Fan continues to erode the Demon Race's power, estimating that in some time, the entire Demon Race of the Black Dragon Sea Region will come under his control and all transform into sect spirit beasts.

After all, slaughtering these Demon Cultivators would be too wasteful, it's better to make them useful.

This way, the sect's strength can rapidly increase.

However, this is also thanks to the Power of Transformation of the Heaven-Transforming Staff Talisman, for without such power, these numerous unruly Tier Four Demon Cultivators could never possibly submit to humans.

Chapter 816: A Sect Growing Stronger by the Day, 700,000 Qi Cultivation Stage Cultivators (Part 2)

But with the power of this spirit talisman, subduing these demon cultivators becomes an easy task.

"Isn't the Sect Leader of the Primordial Talisman Sect skilled in talismans?"

"And is also skilled in beast taming methods?"

Hua Qinghe was shocked internally.

It has heard before that humans from the ancient era were indeed terrifying, having given rise to many beast taming sects. It is said that those ancient human cultivators mastered numerous beast taming methods.

Originally, it thought these methods had long been lost, but unexpectedly, the Sect Leader of the Primordial Talisman Sect revived them in this current era. Otherwise, how could he so effortlessly dominate hundreds of Tier Four demon cultivators?

If it hadn't personally experienced it, it wouldn't believe such an absurd thing; it is simply too exaggerated.

"To be honest, I think the talisman techniques of the Lord Sect Master are truly unmatched."

"It's almost as if possessing the ability to seize the wonders of heaven and earth."

"Mere beast taming methods are hardly worth mentioning."

Hua Wannian admired Jiang Fan profoundly, believing that even if the other was born in the ancient era, they would still be a remarkable figure. One could say that over time, Hua Wannian has been completely subdued by Jiang Fan.

"Are they just insignificant methods?"

Hua Qinghe didn't know what to say.

Because in its view, such beast taming methods are already extremely exaggerated.

If an ordinary cultivator mastered such methods, they would surely become a ruler in their domain.

Even becoming part of the fifth Divinity Transformation race wouldn't be a difficult task.

But in front of that mysterious human cultivator, it turned out to be merely insignificant methods.

No wonder Hua Wannian revered the other so much.

Even for itself, merely staying in the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm for a few days received a huge impact.

"Alright, you've stayed in the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm for several days."

"You've gotten familiar with the environment here."

"Now follow me to the Wood Dragon Secret Realm, from now on, that's where you'll mainly be staying."

Hua Wannian said.

"Alright."

Upon hearing this, Hua Qinghe was also filled with anticipation because it wanted to see what a realm filled with spiritual soil would be like. Perhaps that place is truly a paradise for the Flower Demon tribe.

.....

Another day passed.

Under the guidance of Hua Wannian, Hua Qinghe finally arrived at the long-anticipated Wood Dragon Secret Realm.

They crossed over through the Gate of Space.

Immediately, Hua Qinghe was astonished by the scene in the Wood Dragon Secret Realm.

Although the Wood Dragon Secret Realm has only been partially developed, looking around, it is full of enormous medicinal gardens, with countless spirit medicines planted inside.

Every medicinal garden is covered by a large barrier, with the barrier showing dense and mysterious runes, seemingly merging with the heavens and earth, isolating the outside world.

Without the permission of the garden's owner, it's impossible to enter.

Even a Nascent Soul cultivator cannot force their way in; it is indeed heavily guarded.

Additionally, due to the existence of the barrier, the spiritual qi and medicinal aroma inside cannot escape; they are confined within the barrier.

This also makes the environment of the medicinal garden even more enriching.

"It's not an array that shelters the medicinal garden but a talisman."

"It's called the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman."

"It is said to be a spirit talisman from the Immortal Realm, able to form an absolute energy barrier."

"Even when faced with an attack from over a dozen Nascent Soul cultivators, it can hold on for a long time."

Hua Wannian introduced.

"Does such a spirit talisman really exist in the world?"

"To achieve functionality similar to an array, it is truly inconceivable."

Hua Qinghe was dumbfounded, feeling very surprised.

It had once worked for the Celestial Roc Race, cultivating spirit medicines, but had never seen such mysterious and unfathomable talismans.

"Haha, that's nothing."

"Carefully sense it, isn't the spiritual qi around somewhat unusual?"

Hua Wannian chuckled.

"Indeed, it is quite unusual."

"The spiritual qi here seems alive."

"Faintly, I seem to hear the sound of dragon roars."

"Really incredible, what on earth is going on here?"

Hua Qinghe was perplexed.

Under its perception, the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi in this area is extraordinarily vibrant, as if it has come to life.

It even seemed to see countless spiritual qi gathering together to form a True Dragon.

It's as if a True Dragon is crawling deep within the earth, traveling along the earth veins, smoothing out the earth's network.

"This is also the power of the talisman."

"It's the Dragon Vein House Charm refined by the Lord Sect Master."

"This talisman can merge deeper into the spirit veins, nurturing a dragon vein."

"Once a dragon vein is formed, it creates a special barrier that can ward off evil spirits."

"More importantly, cultivating in such an environment boosts efficiency by at least fifty percent."

"Even for us Tier Four demon cultivators, it is tremendously beneficial."

Hua Wannian explained.

"Can talismans possess such power?"

Hua Qinghe didn't know what to say.

To be honest, talismans naturally also exist on the Western Continent, and some races have even mastered talisman knowledge.

But even for Tier Five races like the Celestial Roc Race, they have only grasped some basic understanding.

At most, they master a bit of foundational talisman knowledge.

As for more advanced talisman knowledge, they cannot grasp or learn it.

After all, as demon race cultivators, they are actually more adept at wielding bloodline power and using their inherent talents.

Of course, the power of the bloodline accelerates their cultivation advancement speed.

However, it also restricts them from advancing to higher realms.

"Haha, that's nothing."

"It's said the Lord Sect Master has mastered a new talisman called the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman."

"This talisman can build void bridges."

"Once integrated into a spirit vein, it can create bridges across the void."

"Although the transmission range isn't as vast as those ancient teleportation arrays, it can easily transport across one hundred thousand kilometers."

"Moreover, the cost of this talisman is far cheaper than teleportation arrays."

"Currently, the Lord Sect Master plans to widespread the refining of Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talismans."

"If successful, every area of the Secret Realm World will be covered with void bridges."

"That's like building networks of void passages."

"Then we can more easily travel to various locations across the Secret Realm World."

Hua Wannian chuckled.

It's known that the size of a Secret Realm World is not small, especially for low-tier cultivators, who often need to spend a lot of time to cross thousands of kilometers or tens of thousands of kilometers.

Sometimes it takes several months, which is quite normal.

This greatly hinders the development of the Secret Realm World.

But with the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman, things are completely different; void bridges can be built everywhere.

It's like building numerous void passages.

Ordinary cultivators can step into them and arrive instantly, saving countless time and enhancing efficiency.

"No wonder you say the Lord Sect Master is a Talisman Grandmaster."

"Beast taming is just a trivial skill."

"To be able to master such profound talismans, it is indeed powerful."

Hua Qinghe felt like a bumpkin because such spirit talismans are unprecedented and unheard of, as if originating from the Immortal Realm.

However, it didn't know that this is merely the power of a Tier Four Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman.

Due to Jiang Fan's cultivation limitations, the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman's ability to traverse void distances is quite short.

But with his cultivation advancement and life talisman skill level enhancement, the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman's power will become increasingly formidable.

For now, it can only span across two cities.

But soon it might span across the entire continent, even across oceans, belonging to two worlds.

In general, the power of the Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman can be infinitely improved.

Actually, this is the difference between the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman and other talismans.

The power of ordinary talismans has limitations.

Even if cultivation reached the Perfection Level, it wouldn't transcend mortal limits.

But the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman is entirely different.

Their upper limit far exceeds the mortal world's strength cap.

Thus, even entry-level power is neither comparable to ordinary talismans.

Of course, not all cultivators can comprehend the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman.

If one's comprehension is not strong enough, even if these spirit talismans are placed before them, they would perceive them as incomprehensible, like reading heavenly wisdom, unable to make any sense.

"Haha, besides these spirit talismans, there are many other powerful spirit talismans."

"The Lord Sect Master frequently refines them."

"Some Tier Four spirit talismans can easily annihilate Nascent Soul cultivators."

"But it requires a substantial amount of contribution points to redeem."

"If you have sufficient contribution points, you can attempt to redeem some in the future."

Hua Wannian chuckled.

"Alright."

Upon hearing this, Hua Qinghe was looking forward to its future life in the Primordial Talisman Sect.

Chapter 817: Lu Youyou's Fortuitous Encounter, Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill

At the same time, in the Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm, Primordial Peak.

Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou returned from the ruins of Ziwei Sect.

This adventure brought them immense gains, with their cultivation successfully advancing to the seventh layer of the Golden Core.

Compared to other Golden Core cultivators, their progress was incredibly fast.

"Master, our gains this time are truly enormous."

"I never expected that after the Ziwei Sect's downfall, so many treasures would still be left behind."

"Now it's all ours for the taking."

Lu Youyou remarked with emotion.

"Haha, what's left is nothing much, really."

"The Ziwei Sect has truly fallen into decline."

Cloud Fairy said, somewhat helplessly.

She originally thought she could obtain more treasures, or even the true treasures left by the Ziwei Sect.

But all she got was some scraps and odds and ends.

Of course, for a Golden Core cultivator, it's already quite good. At least cultivating to the Divinity Transformation level shouldn't be too much of a problem, but it's still far from the treasures she hoped to obtain.

"Master, one must learn to be content."

"Ziwei Sect has been destroyed, leaving only some ruins."

"And after endless years, there are still treasures left behind."

"This is already quite remarkable. I originally thought I wouldn't be able to obtain any treasures at all."

Lu Youyou said, quite content.

She had no concept of the ancient splendor of the Ziwei Sect, and for her, such huge gains were already more than enough, as she was originally just a descendant of a minor Nascent Soul clan.

If there's a chance to become a Divinity Transformation cultivator, it would be a tremendous fortune.

"Bah, you cowardly fellow."

"But it's fortunate that we recovered some important cultivation techniques from the Ziwei Sect."

"For instance, the Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill, which in the past, was instrumental to our sect becoming a top sect in the Void Realm."

Cloud Fairy replied with a hint of annoyance.

However, through this return to the Ziwei Sect ruins, she managed to recover part of her memories.

For example, the special divine power technique, which was one of the most important legacies of the Ziwei Sect.

"Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill? What does this divine power do?"

Lu Youyou asked curiously.

"The effect of this divine power is straightforward: it can consume part of the power of fortune to deduce the future, thus finding hidden opportunities around the world."

"In the past, the Ziwei Sect used this divine power to find one important opportunity after another."

"However, the most challenging aspect of this divine power is not the learning itself, but finding a true dragon worth supporting."

"If you choose the wrong true dragon, and if it falls, you'll perish with it."

"So this divine power is extremely dangerous and highly dependent on one's judgment."

"Back then, the Ziwei Sect rose to prominence because it supported a true dragon — the Taixu Sect."

"With the help of the Taixu Sect, the Ziwei Sect rose to great heights."

"However, their success was tied to the Taixu Sect, as was their downfall."

"The fates of both were intertwined, flourishing or perishing together."

"With the fall of the Taixu Sect, the Ziwei Sect also perished."

Cloud Fairy said, full of helplessness.

She vaguely sensed that the demise of the Ziwei Sect was greatly connected to the Taixu Sect, its downfall dragging them into such a miserable end.

"No wonder, Master, you always say one must find a good support; it's a tradition of the Ziwei Sect lineage."

Lu Youyou blinked her beautiful eyes, suddenly realizing.

She thought that seeking strong support must have been a technique employed by generations of Ziwei Sect cultivators, which explained their proficiency.

Having secured the support of the Taixu Sect, it's no wonder the Ziwei Sect was famed in the ancient era.

"What do you know."

"The strongest position in the world is only one."

"But there are countless prodigies; how can you guarantee you'll become the strongest?"

"But our Ziwei Sect is different. We go with the flow, aligning ourselves with promising cultivators."

"It's like when one person attains enlightenment, everyone around them benefits."

"Finding a great patron is akin to finding a good father, comparable to changing one's destiny."

"You must understand the importance of one's background."

"Most cultivators' lives are determined from the start."

"Some top resources, top cultivation techniques, are available at birth, and later, they are hard to come by."

Cloud Fairy chuckled.

Having endured countless trials, no one understood the importance of seeking strong support more than her.

In the past, she was a plain and unremarkable female cultivator, but by aligning herself with strong allies, her fortune improved, surpassing her peers to reach heights they could only dream of.

Not every patron is worth aligning with, for if you choose wrongly, you could perish with them.

This is a great lesson, not as simple as it seems.

Otherwise, among so many disciples of the Ziwei Sect in the past, she wouldn't have stood out.

Additionally, she didn't have the ambition to become the strongest.

It's like the number of true disciples in a sect is limited, and many disciples compete fiercely for the positions, with only a few succeeding, but becoming an inner sect disciple is much simpler.

Her approach was cautious and balanced, intent on surviving to the end.

So even though faced with trials, most of her peers fell entirely.

Only Cloud Fairy retained a remnant soul, surviving with a glimmer of hope.

"Indeed."

Lu Youyou nodded her head in agreement.

If she hadn't been born into a Nascent Soul clan, she couldn't have achieved such accomplishments.

Chapter 818: Lu Youyou's Fortuitous Encounter, Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill (Part 2)

If an ordinary loose cultivator were born, perhaps they would die midway through their cultivation, their path and spirit dissipating.

In the Black Dragon Sea Region, countless genius cultivators abound, but those who truly achieve notable success are few and far between.

This clearly demonstrates the importance of background.

"However, my husband seems different."

"He was merely born a mortal, yet he has reached heights that ordinary cultivators can only look up to."

Lu Youyou said.

"You don't understand a thing."

"The wealthy rely on resources, the poor on mutation."

"Jiang Fan, that guy, must be a Child of Destiny, his Destiny is unbelievably strong."

"Such a being is one in a billion. Do you think anyone can compare?"

"Among so many mortals, there's only one such existence."

"It's like the Daosit Taixu of the past, who was also a mortal by birth, yet rose to become the strongest in the Void Realm, eventually achieving enlightenment and ascension."

"However, such examples are exceedingly rare; most successes belong to noble descendants."

Cloud Fairy said irritably.

"Indeed, such a paragon like my husband is unique."

"There's simply none like him."

Lu Youyou also agreed wholeheartedly.

The more time she spent with Jiang Fan, the more she felt that Jiang Fan was a freak, practically an unrivaled Daoist.

Even if he were born in the ancient era, he would undoubtedly have been a prominent figure.

Compared to him, she felt ordinary, no match at all.

"He truly is one of a kind."

"I've lived countless years and seen many heavenly talents."

"But this kid's Destiny is unbelievably strong, as if favored by the Heavenly Dao."

"Perhaps only the Daoist Taixu of the past could compare."

Cloud Fairy mused.

She hadn't expected this kid to be so formidable.

It was worthwhile that she constantly reminded her disciples to stick close to him.

The result was indeed tremendous benefits, smooth cultivation, and rapid progress.

Ever since following this man, everything had been much smoother.

She barely encountered any tribulations.

She believed that if she wanted to truly resurrect, the key lay with this man.

"Master, according to what you said, my husband's Destiny is unbelievably strong, quite unusual."

"Normally, the greater the Destiny, the greater the Tribulation Qi."

"Could it be that this world is indeed brewing a huge disaster?"

"Otherwise, how would a Child of Destiny like my husband appear?"

Lu Youyou asked.

She was no longer the little cultivator of the past, but a Golden Core Cultivator.

So her experiences in cultivation were richer.

The emergence of a cultivator like her husband was indeed highly unusual, suggesting that Heaven and Earth might usher in great change.

"Indeed, a great calamity is brewing."

"The rise of the Taixu Sect was because it faced a demon calamity."

"Back then, countless demons invaded the Void Realm, nearly dooming it."

"Fortunately, Daoist Taixu rose to the occasion, leading numerous forces to eliminate the invading demons."

"Otherwise, the Void Realm would have long fallen, with all races becoming demon fodder."

"I feel perhaps the Void Realm will face a similar calamity."

"So you also need to quickly elevate your cultivation to cope with the future great tribulation."

Cloud Fairy said solemnly.

She also sensed traces of Tribulation Qi beginning to spread in the Void Realm.

It was as if an enormous, terrifying calamity loomed over this world.

Whether it was the land or its creatures, all were engulfed in omnipresent death aura.

This made her impatient to escape this world, thinking only that doing so could grant a slim chance of survival.

"Master, are there any drawbacks to the Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill?"

Upon hearing this, Lu Youyou felt a sense of urgency and asked.

She also wanted to quickly elevate her cultivation to strengthen her foundation.

"Its greatest drawback is it cannot seek opportunity for oneself, only for others."

Cloud Fairy explained.

"What? Isn't this purely making bride clothes for others?"

"What's the point of this divine power?"

Lu Youyou was dumbfounded.

She had originally hoped to use this divine power to find herself many opportunities.

Who could have thought it could only seek opportunities for others? It's quite the trap.

"Naturally, this is the Dragon Supporting Skill, not the Dragon Becoming Skill."

"So it can only support True Dragons, not seek benefit for oneself."

"Even if opportunities are found, you can't claim them for yourself; otherwise, calamity will surely follow."

Cloud Fairy spoke with a serious tone.

This is also a significant characteristic of the Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill, specifically designed to help other cultivators find opportunities.

Moreover, even if one obtains an opportunity, they cannot claim it, or else bad luck will follow.

"Who would be foolish enough to cultivate such a divine power?"

Lu Youyou said speechlessly.

"Haha, there are plenty who choose to cultivate it."

"This divine power consumes the destiny of other cultivators, so naturally, it can only seek opportunities for others."

"If you seize the opportunity, you will suffer backlash and bear karma."

"Moreover, once others receive their opportunity, sharing even a little with you is enough for your cultivation for a long time."

"Therefore, the key to cultivating this divine power is finding a True Dragon."

"If you find a false dragon, you'll face endless misfortune and may perish prematurely."

"But if you find a True Dragon, you can rise effortlessly, shining like the noon sun."

Cloud Fairy chuckled.

It's like working for the world's wealthiest person; even as a driver or security guard, the monthly salary would be high.

If you become a secretary, making billions in wealth isn't an issue.

The crucial point is how to find someone with potential to become the world's wealthiest ahead of time.

This is also where the difficulty of the Ziwei Dragon Supporting Skill lies.

Otherwise, everyone could use this divine power to rise rapidly.

"But now I've already found my husband."

"So, the greatest challenge of this divine power is something I've long overcome."

Lu Youyou's eyes suddenly lit up; no wonder her master encouraged her to cultivate this divine power.

"No, no, no, this divine power probably won't be of much help to your husband."

"Your husband is practically a prodigy, not needing anyone else's help."

"If you try to help, it might even hinder him."

"In truth, the one who needs more help should be Su Weiwei."

Cloud Fairy said.

"Sister Weiwei?"

Lu Youyou was taken aback.

"That's right, she is quite extraordinary."

"She possesses a special spirit body known as the Taiyin Virgin Body."

"Moreover, her destiny is exceptional, having contracted so many ancient mythical creatures."

"Given time, she too has the chance of attaining immortal ascension."

"Previously, I used this divine power to deduce her future and found that her destiny is indeed extraordinary."

"Also, I've found a new opportunity site."

"It is also a True Spirit Secret Realm, named the Jade Rabbit Secret Realm."

Cloud Fairy smiled at Weiwei.

"Jade Rabbit Secret Realm?"

"Sister Weiwei seems to be cultivating the True Spirit Technique 'Jade Rabbit Scripture'."

"Legend has it this technique originated from the ancient True Spirit Taiyin Jade Rabbit."

"Could it be that this secret realm world is destined for Sister Weiwei?"

Lu Youyou's beautiful eyes sparkled with excitement as she spoke.

"It must be destined."

"If other cultivators enter the Jade Rabbit Secret Realm, they're unlikely to gain much and might even die."

"But if she enters, she might encounter continuous opportunities and gain abundantly."

"If the two of you work together, you'll likely be unstoppable."

Cloud Fairy explained.

"I see."

"I've always felt Sister Weiwei is the perfect partner."

"During the Ziwei Sect ruins expedition, Sister Weiwei was such a great help."

"Without the many ancient mythical creatures controlled by Sister Weiwei, we might have fallen to the demon cultivators."

Lu Youyou exclaimed excitedly.

The previous expedition to the Ziwei Sect ruins was not without tribulations; rather, it was filled with challenges.

That place suddenly saw the emergence of a large number of demon race cultivators, including Tier Three demon cultivators.

Thankfully, Su Weiwei commanded the Six-winged Poison Bee, Purple Lightning Mayfly, and other ancient mythical creatures to easily slay these demon cultivators, allowing them to return without incident.

After all, in terms of combat power, she was still inferior to those ancient mythical creatures.

Thinking of this, she became even more eager for her next operation with Sister Weiwei.

"Master, what realm could your cultivation reach originally?"

Lu Youyou seemed to have thought of something and asked curiously.

"I don't remember, probably Immortal."

Cloud Fairy shook her head.

Immortal?!

Hearing this, Lu Youyou was utterly shocked; she wasn't sure if her master's words were true or false. Had she become an Immortal, how could she have fallen to this state?

If true, then what had her master experienced?

Chapter 819: Death of the Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators, Entering Taixu Hall

At the same time, in the Void Secret Realm, in a certain cave.

Jiang Fan was also in seclusion cultivating here.

Centered around his body, vast spiritual energy converged.

At this moment, his body seemed to transform into a black hole, devouring strands of spiritual energy.

This caused the Primordial Magical Power within him to rapidly increase at a speed visible to the naked eye.

After three years of hard cultivation, his cultivation had also made great progress, now a step away from the Eighth-Layer Nascent Soul.

Boom~~

At this time, Jiang Fan felt a movement in his heart and opened the virtual panel on himself.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: After surviving great disasters, there will be blessings]

[Lifespan: 50,000 years]

[Spirit Root: Celestial Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 7 million]

[Wealth: 10 billion Spirit Stones]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique, Nascent Soul Chapter (Tier Four Late Stage)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, Fourth Layer]

[Innate Divine Techniques: Emperor's Gaze, Shrinking Earth into Inches, Palm Wind, Water Control, Soul Devourer]

[Life Talisman: Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman (Great Success), Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman (Great Success), Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman (Entry Level), Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman (Entry Level), Heaven-Destroying Sword Talisman (Entry Level), Heaven-Dominating Blade Talisman (Entry Level), Heaven-Transforming Staff Talisman (Entry Level), Heaven-Dependent Spear Talisman (Entry Level), Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman (Entry Level)]

[Realm: Seventh-Layer Nascent Soul (98%)]

[Profession: Tier Four High-grade Talisman Master (60%)]

Obviously, the various data on his body had improved a lot.

Among them, the skill level of the Five Elements Array-Breaking Talisman had finally improved to the Great Success Realm, and it wasn't far from the Perfection Level. After reaching the Great Success Realm, this talisman could break Tier Five arrays.

However, the Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman was still in the Great Success Realm and hadn't reached the Perfection Level.

Because the skill level of this talisman is related to the Dao Companion, no matter how many Luck Points, it couldn't rapidly increase this talisman's skill level, but he felt there was no need to hurry, taking it slow was fine.

Besides, the skill levels of other Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talismans were still at Entry Level.

But this couldn't be helped, because the difficulty of increasing the skill level of these Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans was too high, and they would probably stay at Entry Level for a long time.

To further advance the skill level, it might need him to advance to Divinity Transformation.

"Three years have passed, it's time to go to the Taixu Hall."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He had been in the Void Secret Realm for three years, and during this time, he hadn't just been cultivating.

At the same time, he sent out several avatars to investigate the current situation of the Void Secret Realm.

Although the Void Secret Realm was left behind by the human sect, Taixu Sect, countless years had passed, causing the Void Secret Realm to undergo earth-shaking changes.

Especially with a large number of demon beasts entering the Void Secret Realm, they took over and made it their territory.

Moreover, they reproduced and nurtured numerous demon beasts here, forming several demon kingdoms.

Naturally, those kingdoms were controlled by the Divinity Transformation demon cultivators.

However, those Divinity Transformation demon cultivators had always been trying to leave the Void Secret Realm.

After all, no matter how good the cultivation environment here is, for them, it's just a cage.

After exploring for countless years, they finally discovered the Taixu Hall.

This was a mysterious palace located at the deepest part of the Void Secret Realm.

However, this palace was shrouded in powerful restriction arrays and barriers.

Even with the frantic exploration of these Divinity Transformation demon cultivators, they couldn't find a way to enter the Taixu Hall.

Of course, some of the demon cultivators wanted to leave through the Gate of Space, but it was a one-way path, making escape impossible, so another portion of demon cultivators set their sights on the Taixu Hall.

They believed that by controlling this palace, they could control the Void Secret Realm.

By then, they could naturally leave this Secret Realm World.

This is also why the destiny hints told himself not to act rashly.

Once near the Taixu Hall, it would be like entering a dragon's lair or a tiger's den.

With his current strength, entering the Taixu Hall was completely impossible.

Boom~~

Just then, a message instantly sunk deep into his sea of consciousness.

"Three years have passed, now is the best time to enter the Taixu Hall. You should know the dangers of the Void Secret Realm. The original Taixu Hall has already been surrounded by numerous Divinity Transformation demon cultivators. If you approach, you'll surely be discovered, and there'll be no chance of survival.

But every situation holds a sliver of opportunity. This group of Divinity Transformation demon cultivators has waited too long, and several of them have their lifespans running out, feeling they have little time left. They wish to launch a desperate attack at the last moment, attempting to forcibly attack the Taixu Hall, hoping to break the palace's restriction arrays, thereby creating an opportunity to enter the Taixu Hall.

The foolhardy attempt by those minor Divinity Transformation demon cultivators to attack the Taixu Hall is purely a path to self-destruction, but for you, it's the best chance to enter the Taixu Hall."

"Destiny Hint 1: With the Taixu Order in your possession, you are the only one who can open the Taixu Hall. You might consider cooperating with those Divinity Transformation demon cultivators and revealing you have the Taixu Order.

However, creatures not of our race must harbor different intentions. Naturally, those Divinity Transformation demon cultivators won't pay much attention to you. They will capture you, soul search, and leave you with no place of burial, taking the Taixu Order from you. You'll die because of your own carelessness, but it doesn't matter, just take heed in your next life."

"Destiny Hint 2: With the precious Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf in your possession, you naturally don't need to expose your whereabouts. You can completely conceal your aura and sneak to the vicinity of the Taixu Hall. In three days at noon, many Divinity Transformation demon cultivators will forcibly attack the Taixu Hall, causing the hall's restrictions to activate, at which point the numerous Divinity Transformation demon cultivators will suffer severe losses.

Chapter 820: The Death of Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators and Entering the Taixu Hall (Part 2)

"Taking advantage of this moment, you can activate the Taixu Order, and then the Taixu Palace will guide you inside. Even if those Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators find out, there is nothing they can do."

Perceiving this message, Jiang Fan narrowed his eyes.

He now understood why he needed to wait three years. It was all about waiting for a significant opportunity when those Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators make mistakes.

If those Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators hadn't acted recklessly, perhaps he wouldn't have been able to enter the Taixu Palace in a short time.

But as they initiated their own downfall, they would be severely injured by the Taixu Palace.

This was undoubtedly a great opportunity for him.

Moreover, once he entered the Taixu Palace, those Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators would be helpless regardless of how angry they became.

At the same time, he didn't have to worry about being trapped in the Taixu Palace, because with the Gate of the Void, the mere Taixu Palace couldn't trap him.

Undoubtedly, this was a major opportunity for him.

If he missed this chance, he might need to reach Divinity Transformation to enter the Taixu Palace.

So, he definitely couldn't afford to miss this opportunity.

After all, on the path of cultivation, the sooner the better, and then faster with every step.

He was also eager to find out what kind of treasures were hidden in the Taixu Palace and what kind of inheritance was left behind.

...

Three days later.

Void Secret Realm, Taixu Palace.

Here stood a massive complex of palaces, but it had long been shrouded by a golden barrier, the depths of which contained countless mysterious runes.

Moreover, the golden barrier was incomparably thick, like a city wall.

Even if many Divinity Transformation Cultivators attacked with all their might, they couldn't budge it an inch.

At this moment, numerous Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators were gathered outside the Taixu Palace.

Their faces were filled with helplessness.

Because they had been observing the Taixu Palace for a long time, trying to find a way to enter, but so far, they were at a loss, as the power contained in this mysterious palace far exceeded Divinity Transformation.

"Alas, the Taixu Palace is truly a palace passed down from ancient times, not something we Divinity Transformation Cultivators can covet. Despite thousands of years of observation, we've gained nothing."

"There's nothing we can do. It's said that Cultivators from the Ancient Era were extremely powerful, able to grasp stars and take hold of the moon, far beyond what cultivators of our era can compare to."

"Isn't that so? Achieving Divinity Transformation is the highest achievement of our time, but in the Ancient Era, some Great Powers became Immortal, and there were even True Spirits."

"We can only lament that we were born at the wrong time. If we were born in the Ancient Era, we might have advanced further, rather than wasting years like now."

"Seniors, are you truly planning to attack the Taixu Palace? This palace contains powerful Restriction Arrays. If you force an attack, you might suffer backlash."

"Don't worry. We've studied it for a long time. If it were at its full strength, we might have no chance. But after countless years of erosion, there are some flaws in the palace's Restriction Arrays. If we attack the flaws, we might break through the Restriction Arrays and create an opportunity to enter the Taixu Palace."

"That's correct. You also know that our only hope of leaving the Void Secret Realm is inside the Taixu Palace. There might be an array inside that can transport us to the outside. Although this place is good, it feels like a prison to us."

"Indeed, and our Lifespan is about to run out. If we don't make a final gamble, the end is still death. You don't need to persuade us anymore."

Many Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators discussed intensely.

They had studied the Taixu Palace for so long, believing they had found some flaws in the palace.

If they could dismantle the palace's arrays, they might be able to enter it.

Of course, they weren't entirely confident, as there was a great chance of failure.

But now, they didn't have the luxury of time to continue wasting here. If they couldn't find a new path, their only outcome was the expiration of their Lifespan.

Therefore, they could only risk it all.

After all, dying on the path of seeking the Tao wasn't necessarily a bad end.

"It's about time. Let's attack together now."

A dozen aged Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators exchanged glances. Their auras were violent, demon qi surged like ink around them. Without hesitation, they took action, their demonic power erupting abruptly.

Huge claws tore through the void, various Divine Techniques smashed toward the Taixu Palace's Restriction Barrier like a storm.

Scarlet flames burned with a sulfurous breath, blue ice pierced through clouds, congealing into spikes, while a dark Soul-devouring Curse slithered like a serpent, gnawing sizzling scorch marks on the golden barrier.

They were trying to shatter the Restriction Barrier.

However, when the magic touched the shimmering golden light shield on the outskirts of the Taixu Palace, an anomaly erupted—

"This is bad."

The faces of the Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators changed dramatically, sensing a mortal threat.

They had underestimated the defenses of the Taixu Palace.

Even after countless years, the backlash from this Restriction Array was not something they could withstand.

The Restriction Array suddenly erupted with countless void runes, lighting up layer by layer like a galaxy suspended.

The demon spells bombarding it were like snowflakes thrown into a furnace, being shredded into particles by the runes instantly, and the backlash energy surged back like a tidal wave.

The leading Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivator let out an angry roar before a crimson-golden beam pierced through their Demon Core, and their massive body exploded into a bloody rain in mid-air; the poisonous mist released by their snake companion was wrapped in rebounding thunder-fire before it could form, its scales peeled away, leaving charred remains.

Terrifying energy waves erupted outside the Taixu Palace's barrier, the void rippled like shattered glass, each ripple carrying the power to annihilate everything.

The earth groaned deeply, cracks spread like giant serpents for miles, ancient towering trees uprooted and flung into the air;

Distant mountains collapsed with a roar, fragments descended like a meteor shower, raising dust that veiled half the sky.

The surviving Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators were flung hundreds of miles by the shockwave, their organs shattered inch by inch from the array's backlash, demon blood gushed from their mouths, staining the earth a gruesome dark purple, while a few dying howls echoed in the collapsing valley.

"How could it be this powerful? Is this the Taixu Palace left from Ancient Times?"

"Just what kind of power is this? We're like ants, completely unable to contend."

"It's over. Those dozen seniors are finished."

"Alas, thousands of years of cultivation, only to die like this."

"Damn it, are we destined to never leave the Void Secret Realm in our lifetimes?"

The remaining Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators were ashen-faced.

They watched as the aged Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators who had just acted were decimated by the backlash of the Restriction Array, their massive demon bodies turned to dust in an instant.

Only because they fled quickly did they escape the backlash of the Restriction Array.

But even so, they were heavily wounded and would take at least decades to fully heal.

Whoosh!

What these Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators didn't know was that at this moment, a figure took advantage of the billowing smoke and the chaotic Spiritual Qi to fly towards the Taixu Palace.

The intruder was, of course, Jiang Fan.

After arriving near the Taixu Palace, he had concealed himself, waiting for the right moment.

Sure enough, he waited for the group of Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators to attack the Taixu Palace, leading to the backlash of the Restriction Array.

Then Jiang Fan wouldn't miss this splendid opportunity.

As now was the brief moment of relaxation for these Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators, if they realized, approaching the Taixu Palace wouldn't be so easy.

"So, this is the Taixu Palace?"

In an instant, holding the Taixu Order, Jiang Fan approached the Taixu Palace, causing the entire golden barrier to react violently, revealing countless void runes.

The golden barrier that had obstructed the group of Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators turned into a ripple of void.

Whoosh!

In the next second, Jiang Fan entered the Taixu Palace effortlessly, the golden barrier outside didn't hinder him at all.

However, once he was inside, the golden barrier solidified again.

The Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators outside did not perceive this change.

They were still filled with lingering fear, afraid of triggering the Taixu Palace's Restriction Array again.
