Chapter 861: Gate of the Void Evolves, Curse from the Void (Part 2)

So your only chance for survival is to escape the Void Realm. That way, no matter how terrifying the Soul-devouring Deceitful Curse may be, it won't harm you. After all, this curse technique won't be able to find your true body and will dissipate on its own.

Because of this, head to the treasure vault of the Yiling Secret Realm immediately. Clear it out completely, and there's conveniently a fragment of the Gate of the Void inside.

Once you integrate this fragment into the Gate of the Void, the gate will possess the ability to traverse other Great Thousand Worlds. You can open it quickly and randomly transmit yourself to another world.

However, the Soul-devouring Deceitful Curse lasts for ten years, so you'll need to stay hidden in another world for at least ten years before you can return. Otherwise, once you come back to the Void Realm, you'll be cursed and perish.

"This."

Sensing this message, Jiang Fan's pupils constricted, and a storm of shock surged within his heart.

The enemy's attack came far too suddenly.

There was no time for any mental preparation.

He increasingly felt the fearsome might of those enemies from the Ancient Era.

Without a doubt, they didn't intend to give him any time or opportunity to develop.

Their strike was a dimensional assault, aiming to completely annihilate him.

If he were an ordinary Child of Destiny, he wouldn't have found any path to survival.

Unknowingly, he'd end up perishing at the enemy's hands.

Not even knowing where the enemy was located.

Is this the Longevity Tribulation?!

His heart feels incredibly heavy, as he begins to realize the true threat posed by the enemy.

The ones who can eradicate the glorious civilizations of the Ancient Era are certainly not opponents to be taken lightly.

"Burial, where is the treasure vault of the Yiling Secret Realm?"

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan knows he can't afford to hesitate, and asks immediately.

"The treasure vault? It's right up ahead, not far in that palace."

"I checked a moment ago."

"That palace has already been set up with an illusion array by the Soul-devouring Dream Demon."

"If you step inside, you'll fall into the demon's trap and be easily killed."

"However, since the demon is dead, the array naturally won't activate."

"I also conveniently dismantled the array just now."

The Array Spirit Burial gritted its teeth as it spoke.

Over the years, it's unclear how many things the Soul-devouring Dream Demon had kept hidden through deception.

Daring to set up an array right under its nose.

If Jiang Fan hadn't seen through the trap and followed the opponent into the treasure vault, he would surely be doomed.

These demons are indeed incomparably despicable and insidious.

"Take me there."

"I want all the treasures inside."

Jiang Fan said immediately.

"Alright, since you have slain the Soul-devouring Dream Demon, the treasures inside naturally belong to you."

The Array Spirit Burial hesitated not a moment.

After all, the treasures inside the vault were of little use to it.

Handing them over to Jiang Fan meant nothing to it.

Whoosh!

In an instant, under the guidance of the Array Spirit Burial, Jiang Fan quickly arrived inside the largest treasure vault in the Yiling Secret Realm, which indeed housed a dazzling collection of treasures.

But he didn't have time to catalog them one by one; now was the moment to make every second count.

Boom~~

Jiang Fan waved his hand, immediately collecting all the treasures from the vault and placing them into the internal space of the Exquisite Tower.

Meanwhile, he also found a fragment of the Gate of the Void.

Undoubtedly, this fragment was the Second-Grade Opportunity he'd acquired this time.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, he took out the Gate of the Void, setting it in mid-air.

Then, the fragment seemed to sense its main body, emitting an endless white light, instantly merging into the Gate of the Void, which originally was a portal riddled with dense cracks.

But after the fragment integrated, most of the cracks miraculously vanished.

Without a doubt, the Gate of the Void had regained part of its power, not far from its peak strength.

"Wait, the Gate of the Void?"

"Could this truly be the legendary Gate of the Void?"

"This supreme treasure from the Ancient Era actually ended up in Fellow Daoist Jiang's hands?"

"Indeed, as a Child of Destiny, you acquired such a precious treasure."

Seeing this, the Array Spirit Burial's pupils constricted, feeling deeply shocked within, inexplicably sensing a vague taste of destiny.

As if many secret treasures of the Void Realm were converging upon this man.

If he wasn't a Child of Destiny, then who could be?

Even when it had initially given him the Token of the Yiling Secret Realm, it was drawn to the Destiny emanating from him.

"Burial, I'm leaving."

"I need to leave the Void Realm for a while."

"You will have to handle the remaining demons in the Yiling Secret Realm on your own."

"I hope when I return, everything will be back to normal."

Jiang Fan spoke to the Array Spirit Burial.

At the same time, using the power of the Communication Talisman, he sent a message to Su Weiwei and Lu Youyou, informing them of his upcoming departure, and reassured them that there's nothing to worry about in the meantime, leaving the Primordial Talisman Sect in their hands temporarily.

He believed that with the assistance of numerous Nascent Soul Spirit Beasts, the two women should be able to maintain the sect.

It shouldn't pose too much of a problem.

"Ah, what do you mean?"

Array Spirit Burial was puzzled, not understanding Jiang Fan's current actions.

It felt that this human cultivator before it seemed to be running for his life.

The problem is, there was absolutely no danger at present, so why the need to flee?

Could there be some unknown danger?

Boom~~

Before Array Spirit Burial could voice its doubts, Jiang Fan immediately activated the random teleportation of the Gate of the Void.

This random teleportation consumed ten billion Spirit Stones.

But he was not surprised; rather, he was extremely delighted.

After all, only cross-realm teleportation would consume such a large amount of Spirit Stones.

Fortunately, he carried hundreds of billions of Spirit Stones, so such an amount was nothing.

Jiang Fan also felt quite lucky.

Indeed, Spirit Stones are something you may not spend often, but you cannot be without them.

Because you never know when you'll need to use them.

And this is the ease of being wealthy.

Clang!

In an instant, the Gate of the Void devoured a full ten billion Spirit Stones, causing the entire gate to emit dazzling white light, and a Void Gate appeared before Jiang Fan.

This void passage extended to unknown whereabouts.

However, Jiang Fan did not hesitate and immediately stepped into the Gate of the Void.

In the next moment, he completely vanished from this place, disappearing from the Void Realm.

Along with the Gate of the Void.

Boom~~

But just as Jiang Fan departed the Void Realm, a terrifying and eerie black light instantly arrived; no void or restriction array could block it.

It seemed like an ominous dark sphere, shattering its way along the line of causality.

Like a higher-dimensional form of energy.

And it was the Soul-devouring Deceitful Curse.

Deep within the dark sphere lay countless eerie runes, like endless evil spirits dwelling within, resembling a hell for evil spirits.

Wherever it passed, it devoured endless vitality.

In merely an instant, it arrived at the place where Jiang Fan had just vanished.

But when it reached there, it was completely stunned.

Because Jiang Fan had long disappeared from the Void Realm.

Even though it rushed along the line of causality, it could not find any trace of Jiang Fan.

Now it was like a headless fly, hovering aimlessly in the air, utterly bewildered.

"What's going on? Is this a curse sphere?"

"How could such a sinister curse power appear here?"

"Could it be aiming to curse and kill Jiang Fan?"

At this moment, Array Spirit Burial's expression changed drastically upon seeing the black sphere.

It felt a chill run down its spine, as if the sphere contained the most terrifying doom of this world.

Even just a whiff of its aura could corrode one's soul and mind, leading to complete downfall.

In the Ancient Era, it had witnessed a Great Power being cursed in such a manner, resulting in its Primordial Spirit being completely devoured and utterly eradicated, unable to enter even the cycle of reincarnation.

"Disaster strikes, the Immortal Race has set their sights on Jiang Fan."

"They've deployed a Curse Technique to completely eradicate Jiang Fan."

"Luckily, Jiang Fan possessed the Gate of the Void and avoided the curse just in time, otherwise he would've been doomed."

"Did this kid foresee this scenario in advance and thus acted so urgently?"

"If that's the case, then perhaps the Void Realm truly has a glimmer of hope."

Array Spirit Burial's heart was filled with excitement and anticipation.

Facing the Immortal Race's overwhelming power and terror, it naturally held no hope.

But witnessing the miracles surrounding Jiang Fan, it felt that perhaps there's still a chance to fight.

Chapter 862: Surviving the Death Tribulation, Obtaining the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma

The Taixu Realm, a land of mystery.

Many strange faces changed color.

Because they sensed that the Soul-devouring Deceitful Curse they cast lost track of the target, failing to hit the enemy, flying around like a headless fly.

One must know, to cast this curse, they sacrificed a companion, incurring significant losses.

If they could kill that Child of Destiny, it would be worth the cost.

Yet this Curse Technique couldn't even find the enemy, meaning they did all that for nothing.

Even their companion died in vain.

"How is this possible? Once the Soul-devouring Deceitful Curse is cast, it's guaranteed to hit. How could a mere local cultivator evade it? What on earth happened?"

"It's not evasion. After all, the attack range of the Soul-devouring Deceitful Curse is limited, only covering the entire Taixu Realm. If the enemy left the Taixu Realm, naturally it couldn't hit them."

"The Gate of the Void, that local cultivator must have mastered it."

"Wait, wasn't this Magical Treasure destroyed in the Ancient Era? How could it still exist?"

"Such a Magical Treasure isn't easily destroyed. It was merely fragmented. If someone collected the Gate of the Void's pieces, it's very likely they restored its power."

"So, the local cultivator used the Gate of the Void's power to leave the Taixu Realm and travel to other worlds? If so, did they foresee this in advance?"

"Impossible, how could this happen? No one could have informed this local cultivator of our decisions. There couldn't be a traitor among us; this must be a coincidence."

"It's Destiny. This local cultivator must be under Destiny's protection, to make such a move. But it doesn't matter, this curse's power will last for at least ten years. I don't believe in ten years they won't return to the Taixu Realm. The moment they return, they will surely be cursed to death."

Many strange ones debated endlessly.

They were furious, angry beyond words.

But faced with such a mishap, they could do nothing.

No one could have predicted that at the moment they cast the curse, the target happened to leave the Taixu Realm.

It was as if they foresaw it and escaped a certain fatal attack.

But now they couldn't leave this place and could only wait slowly.

.....

Whoosh!

At this moment, Jiang Fan crossed the Gate of the Void and arrived in another Great Thousand World.

He found himself in a primeval forest, surrounded by towering trees growing densely.

More importantly, the concentration of Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi here was unbelievably dense.

Even a single breath of Spiritual Qi could enhance his cultivation.

"This is astonishing, the Spiritual Qi here seems several times denser than in the Taixu Realm."

"Where on earth is this place?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron exclaimed in surprise.

It too sensed that this place was vastly different from the Taixu Realm, notably in the concentration of Spiritual Qi.

Previously, it resided in the Taixu Hall, which contained Tier Six Spirit Vein.

But the Spiritual Qi concentration here was no less.

It's as if this place returned to the Ancient Era of the Taixu Realm, truly baffling.

"This ought to be another Great Thousand World."

"In the Ancient Times, the Taixu Realm was once connected to many Great Thousand Worlds of the Mortal World."

"I didn't expect the Gate of the Void to recover some of its power in this era."

"Undoubtedly, through the power of the Gate of the Void, we've arrived in another world."

"Although this world can't compare to the former Taixu Realm, it's not insignificant."

"I suspect Divinity Transformation is no longer the limit for cultivators here. There might even be Refining Void, or even stronger high-tier cultivators."

The Primordial Talisman Pen was amazed.

It hadn't expected the Gate of the Void to lead them to another world.

If one were to cultivate in such a world with dense Spiritual Qi, progress would be swift.

Advancing to Divinity Transformation or even Refining Void would be easier than in the current Taixu Realm.

For many cultivators, this would be a grand world of cultivation.

"Master, the Spiritual Qi concentration here is far higher than in the Taixu Realm."

"Although it's ideal for cultivators, it also means there are many high-tier cultivators in this world."

"We might encounter Divinity Transformation, or even Refining Void cultivators, with dangers everywhere."

The Exquisite Tower warned.

It understood that such a world harbored many opportunities, but also significant dangers.

A Nascent Soul Level cultivator in the current Taixu Realm is considered a grandmaster.

But in such a grand world of cultivation, they might be nothing.

With a little carelessness, they could be slain by a high-tier cultivator, their path ended.

"Understood, I will be extremely careful."

Jiang Fan nodded, fully aware of this.

But his heart stirred, using the Divine Power of the Emperor's Gaze, he saw the surging Destiny around him.

A Fortune Golden Dragon soared above his head, absorbing endless Fortune.

Even in a brand new world, he still possessed bountiful Destiny.

To be honest, this was quite unusual.

Because normally, a Child of Fortune is only the Child of Fortune for one place or one realm.

Chapter 863: Surviving the Death Tribulation and Obtaining the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma (2)

If one departs from the original world and arrives in another, they will not receive the protection of the Heavenly Dao.

It's like a mayor from one country, who, upon arriving in another country, is just an ordinary person and naturally will not receive special treatment or possess authority.

This is also why those entities regard the Child of Destiny with disdain, seeing them as nothing more than natives confined to their land; once they leave this world, they naturally won't receive the protection of Destiny.

However, Jiang Fan is different. Even when he arrives in other worlds, his Destiny is still so abundant.

No matter which world he goes to, he remains a Child of Fortune, receiving the protection of the Heavenly Dao.

This likely has a significant connection to his special Life Chart.

Boom~~

At this moment, a message instantly embedded itself deep into Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness: "You have escaped to another Great Thousand Worlds, the Spirit Ruins Realm, successfully avoiding the curse of the Immortal Race and narrowly surviving, earning ten million Luck Points."

"This."

Receiving this message, Jiang Fan stroked his chin, and his heart relaxed considerably.

Although he didn't gain any fortuitous chance during this tribulation, acquiring ten million Luck Points was already quite a remarkable gain, equating to a vast increase in Destiny for him.

More importantly, after hiding in this world, he truly avoided the enemies' pursuit and assassination.

However, according to the message of Fate, he needs to wait at least ten years before he can return to the Void Realm.

Before that, he must remain in this unfamiliar world.

"This world is called the Spirit Ruins Realm? I wonder what kind of world it is."

Jiang Fan was very curious.

However, he doesn't need to rush to contact the living beings of this world; he can take his time.

The most important thing at the moment is to enhance his Cultivation.

After all, the Ninth-Layer Nascent Soul Realm is far from enough in such a great world.

At the very least, he needs to become a Divinity Transformation Cultivator to possess a certain degree of self-preservation power.

Whoosh!

Thinking this, Jiang Fan's figure flashed, immediately finding a hidden cave within the nearby mountains.

Then, he hid inside the Exquisite Tower to cultivate.

There's no place safer than the Exquisite Tower.

"Tsk tsk, no wonder it's the treasure vault of the Yiling Secret Realm."

"Truly extraordinary."

"To possess so many treasures, this time I've truly hit the jackpot."

At this time, Jiang Fan carefully inventoried the gains he obtained this time.

Just a light scan with his Spiritual Sense filled him with immense joy.

Firstly, of course, is the quantity of Spirit Stones, which amounted to a whopping three billion; no wonder it is a Secret Realm passed down from the Ancient Era, the number of Spirit Stones it contains is not mere reputation.

And over the long years, the Yiling Secret Realm had actually consumed a lot of Spirit Stones.

In its heyday, the number of Spirit Stones exceeded hundreds of billions.

But after such a long period of consumption, only thirty billion remain.

However, for him, this is already a tremendous harvest.

With so many Spirit Stones, he can also travel to more Great Thousand Worlds.

"Besides that, there are so many Magical Artifacts and Spirit Treasures."

"They must have been left by many cultivators from the Yiling Island Group."

"They perished within the Yiling Secret Realm, and naturally, their treasures were obtained by the Array Spirit Burial."

"So they are all stored in the treasure vault."

"With so many Magical Artifacts piled here, there's no problem arming a million cultivators."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Although these Magical Artifacts don't have much use for him, they are particularly valuable for the Sect's Low-Tier Cultivators. This also counts as the foundation of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

But what he values more are the many Spirit Medicines preserved in the treasure vault.

Among them are Tier Three Spirit Medicines, Tier Four Spirit Medicines, and Tier Five Spirit Medicines.

There's even a Tier Six Spirit Medicine.

This is also his greatest harvest.

"The Star Body Tempering Ganoderma, this is a Tier Six Body Tempering Spirit Medicine."

"Equivalent to a Ten-thousand-year-old Spirit Medicine, its value is simply immeasurable."

"If I devour the medicinal power of this Spirit Medicine, it might elevate my Soaring Snake Technique to Tier Five."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists, feeling incredibly excited.

He knows well the power of the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma; it is a ganoderma that grows by absorbing the Power of the Stars, its surface sparkling with starlight.

After consuming it, cultivators will have the Power of the Stars enter their bodies, merging with their cells, restructuring physical form, allowing the body to better perceive and absorb the Power of the Stars in the world, enhancing the body's flexibility and coordination.

Even in the Ancient Era, such Ten-thousand-year-old Spirit Medicines were extremely rare, worth their weight in gold.

Honestly, he didn't expect the Yiling Secret Realm to still have such a Tier Five Spirit Medicine left.

Previously, his progress in the Soaring Snake Technique was very slow; without the aid of Body Tempering Spirit Medicines, it could take decades, or even hundreds of years, to break through.

Of course, for a cultivator practicing the True Spirit Technique, this is already considered rapid progress.

But for Jiang Fan, it was still too slow; naturally, he didn't want to spend so much time cultivating the Soaring Snake Technique. If he could save the time spent on arduous cultivation, why not?

"If the Soaring Snake Technique advances to Tier Five, then my Lifespan will increase dramatically, and my power will also surge."

"Then dealing with the Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation will also become much simpler."

Chapter 864: Surviving the Death Tribulation and Obtaining the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma_3

Jiang Fan was filled with anticipation.

However, he naturally didn't immediately devour the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma but instead kept some seeds.

He could make use of the Immortal Dew Bottle's power to plant this Tier Six Spirit Medicine within the inner world of the Exquisite Tower.

As long as there was enough Immortal Dew, it was still possible to cultivate a large number of Star Body Tempering Ganoderma.

This would not only be greatly beneficial to him, but also advantageous for the sect.

...

A few days passed.

Jiang Fan placed the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma into the Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron, instantly refining the ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine completely into drops of azure medicinal liquid, sparkling like stars.

Each drop of the starry medicinal liquid was filled with a rich fragrance.

Just smelling it alone could expel a hundred maladies and prolong life.

If sold, its value in Spirit Stones would be unimaginable.

However, he naturally wouldn't foolishly sell it but chose to use it himself.

With this thought, Jiang Fan immediately consumed one drop of the starry medicinal liquid.

Boom~~

The moment the drop of starry medicinal liquid entered his stomach, it was immediately devoured and refined. He felt as if a bright azure star had appeared within his body, suffused with abundant star energy.

Threads of star energy easily merged into his meridians, acupoints, flesh, bones, and even every single cell, rapidly enhancing every corner of his body.

It was as if his body was soaking in an extremely pure star energy.

The strength of his body was rapidly increasing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"The Soaring Serpent Nascent Soul Chapter is actually the Refining Internal Organs Chapter."

"It requires the integration of the Soaring Serpent Rune into the internal organs."

"To cultivate to the Perfection Level of the Nascent Soul Chapter, it requires integrating 666 Soaring Serpent Runes."

"If practiced diligently, it would take at least several hundred to a thousand years."

"But with the assistance of the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma, this pure star energy can protect the internal organs from any damage, making the inscription of the Soaring Serpent Runes much easier."

"This is simply the ultimate Body Tempering Spirit Medicine."

"Only an Ancient Secret Realm like the Yiling Secret Realm could possibly have such a Tier Six Spirit Medicine."

"This already corresponds to a Void Refining Level spirit medicine, possessing at least ten thousand years of medicinal power."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground.

He also spent a large amount of Luck Points to comprehend each Soaring Serpent Rune of the Soaring Serpent Nascent Soul Chapter.

After all, he had a massive amount of Luck Points, at least over ten million, if not twenty million.

Therefore, consuming this amount of Luck Points was nothing.

This also allowed him to completely understand all the Soaring Serpent Runes of the Soaring Serpent Nascent Soul Chapter.

At this moment, he perceived each Soaring Serpent Rune easily integrating into his internal organs.

He estimated it wouldn't take long to fully integrate 666 Soaring Serpent Runes.

In fact, it was just as Jiang Fan anticipated.

In merely a year, Jiang Fan easily integrated all 666 Soaring Serpent Runes into his internal organs, allowing these runes to connect with each other, reaching a state of thorough understanding.

Boom~~

Instantly, each rune connected with one another, resembling the head and tail of a Soaring Snake joining, as a Soaring Snake coiled within the depths of his internal organs, causing every part of the organs to be completely connected by an overwhelming Bloodline Power.

An aura of terrifying ancient wildness emanated from his body, as if an Ancient Divine Beast had awakened.

Chapter 865: Divine Power: Seeing Me as Heaven, 100,000 Years of Lifespan

"It's time for a breakthrough."

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, feeling a great sense of joy within.

It's undeniable that the Tier Six Spirit Medicine, Star Body Tempering Ganoderma, possesses millennia of medicinal power. Without the assistance of this Tier Six Spirit Medicine, how could he achieve further progress in the Soaring Snake Technique within a year?

He knew the next Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique was the Divinity Transformation Chapter, which also included the Bone Marrow Refining Chapter.

This realm primarily focuses on the tempering and strengthening of the bone marrow.

Bone marrow is regarded as an important reservoir of Life Energy and essence in the human body. Through cultivation, impurities in the bone marrow can be removed, making it purer, simultaneously enhancing the vitality and vigor of the bone marrow, allowing it to better nourish the body and provide stronger energy support.

In the Cultivation Realm, the most renowned is, of course, dragon marrow.

This is a mysterious substance from the True Dragon, which, when consumed by any creature, has the effect of Washing Marrow and Cutting Meridians.

It is precisely because of this that the Bone Marrow Refining Chapter of the Soaring Snake Technique integrates as many as three thousand Soaring Serpent Runes, enabling the bone marrow within the body to transform into Divine Marrow.

Once successful, the body will contain endless vitality, with each drop of marrow infused with indestructible substance, making the physique unbelievably strong.

"Let's begin."

At this moment, Jiang Fan activated the Soaring Snake Technique. The Soaring Serpent Rune deep within his body began to light up, emitting a faint golden glow, merging with one another, as if forming a Grand Array.

Under the resonance of countless Soaring Serpent Runes, the Soaring Snake Bloodline deep within him began to boil, seemingly forming a Qi and Blood Soaring Snake, roaming various places within his body.

With every Circulation it completed, the Qi and Blood within him grew stronger.

A total of three hundred and sixty Circulations were completed.

The Qi and Blood had grown unbelievably immense.

He felt the blood within him start to boil, rolling like magma.

The temperature within his body rose at a visible speed, reaching thousands of degrees, tens of thousands, causing the surrounding soil and stones to melt in the intense heat.

Even the liquids in the air evaporated into steam.

An area of hundreds of kilometers formed a zone of high temperature, as if situated within a massive volcano.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan wielded the immense Qi and Blood within him and charged toward the Tier Five bottleneck.

In the depths of the void, a colossal bloodline gate seemed to take shape, with chains of black weaving atop it, forming a massive shackle, hindering the crash of Qi and Blood.

Bang, bang, bang!!!

But Jiang Fan paid no mind, wielding the immense Qi and Blood within him, repeatedly crashing into this bloodline gate once, twice, ten times, twenty times...

Eventually, he crashed into it a total of ninety-nine times.

This gate was covered with dense cracks.

Boom!

Suddenly, Jiang Fan crashed once more, and the Soaring Snake condensed from Qi and Blood easily shattered this gate, seemingly breaking through the Tier Five bottleneck entirely.

He felt the Qi and Blood Power within him surge.",

The transformation was truly earth-shattering compared to before.

A potent Bloodline Power began to permeate into the bone marrow, causing a degree of transformation from ordinary marrow to Divine Marrow.

"Did I finally break through?!"

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

The surrounding Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi suddenly became enormously chaotic, and the previously clear sky was instantly devoured by dark thunderclouds, the cloud layer boiling like heated water, tearing open to reveal a golden fissure in the center.

In the fissure, a gigantic serpent shrouded in purple lightning emerged: its scales gleaming with a purple-gold luster, its eyes radiating like sun and moon, and as it flicked its tongue, cloud clusters coalesced, remarkably resembling the Ancient Divine Beast Soaring Snake's apparition.

The clouds encircling it were not ordinary, but gathered from pure Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi. Each swish of its tail brought forth thunderous booms, and the clouds transformed following its roaming trajectory into the spectacle of "Cloud Riding", with golden brilliance piercing through the fissure, painting the ground in a glaze color.

Simultaneously, beneath Jiang Fan's feet, the earth suddenly burst forth with glistening golden light, countless golden lotuses breaking through the cracks, their petals crystal-clear, with innate Dao charm flowing at the center, an anomaly known as "Earthly Blossoming Golden Lotus".

As the golden lotuses bloomed, deafening roars emanated from the depths of the void—resonating with innumerable divine beast apparitions, akin to dragon roars and phoenix chirps, yet mixed with the unique hiss of the Soaring Snake, the sound waves tangibly vibrating, causing ripples like water's surface, even the distant mountains slightly trembling under this pressure.

At this moment, Jiang Fan also discovered the air around him compressed by golden energy, forming visible ripples, the void seeming torn apart with hints of chaotic-colored light bands.

"So powerful."

"This is what Divinity Transformation Level body cultivation is."

Jiang Fan exclaimed in amazement.

He sensed the Qi and Blood within him had consolidated into streams, transforming into countless Qi and Blood Soaring Snakes, moving along the meridians; each impact triggered bone explosions reverberating throughout his frame, the ground beneath him cracking like a web, with what seeped from the fissures being not soil.

But a golden stream of Spiritual Qi, emitting a sonorous resonance, as if the earth itself was bowing to this force.

Beneath his skin, Qi and Blood boiled like magma, and a golden serpent silhouette traversed back and forth visibly; each passage caused his muscles and bones to emit refining pops, his physical attributes rapidly rising visibly.

The most mystical change occurred deep within the bloodline—innumerable mysterious golden runes emerging from the bone marrow, extending through the blood vessels to the entire body, the runes flashing with ancient radiance, seemingly carved with the mysteries of the universal origin.

Chapter 866: Divine Power: Seeing Me as Heaven, 100,000-Year Lifespan (Part 2)

They converge and reorganize in the void, eventually transforming into streams of brilliant Dao scripture, floating above his head: Each character on the scripture swallows spiritual qi, emanating a profound sense of various laws, allowing one to perceive the laws of the Soaring Snake's water control, sky traveling, and thunder swallowing.

It seems like the revival of the ancient bloodline of the Soaring Snake.

"A new bloodline divine technique has been nurtured."

"Its name is: Seeing Me as Heaven."

Jiang Fan's eyes reveal a trace of golden light, perceiving the vast message from the depths of his bloodline; this is not a divine technique from the Soaring Snake bloodline.

It is a powerful soul divine technique bred from the integration of the Soaring Snake bloodline and his own soul talent, along with the emperor's great destiny.

Once this divine technique is used, all living beings within the coverage of his soul power will be forcibly controlled, involuntarily kneeling.

The stronger the soul power, the longer the enemy will kneel.

Even unable to muster any thought of resistance.

Like facing the heavens themselves.

If the previous bloodline divine technique, Soul Devourer, was a type of attacking soul divine technique, then Seeing Me as Heaven is a control type of soul divine technique.

This power resembles the dragon's might of a True Dragon, capable of intimidating all things.

Yet, his divine technique is stronger than the dragon's might, capable of forcibly oppressing all beings, compelling them to kneel.

See me, as you would see heaven.

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart moves, immediately opening the virtual panel on himself.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Great Danger Survival, Leads to Future Fortune]

[Lifespan: 100,000 years]

[Spirit Root: Celestial Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 23 million]

[Wealth: 12 billion spirit stones]

[Cultivation Technique: Soaring Snake Technique, Divinity Transformation Chapter (Tier Five Early Stage)]

[Cultivation Technique: Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, Fourth Layer]

[Innate Divine Techniques: Emperor's Gaze, Shrinking Earth into Inches, Palm Wind, Water Control, Soul Devourer, Seeing Me as Heaven]

[Life Talisman: Yin Yang Mandarin Duck Talisman (Great Success), Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Destroying Sword Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Dominating Blade Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Transforming Staff Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Dependent Spear Talisman (Beginner), Heaven-Reaching Bridge Talisman (Beginner), Heavenly Glory Bracelet Talisman (Beginner), Celestial Respect Crown Talisman (Beginner)]

[Realm: Ninth-Layer Nascent Soul (60%)]

[Profession: Tier Four High-grade Talisman Master (99%)]

Undoubtedly, compared to before, his cultivation level has improved tremendously.

First is the increase in lifespan, soaring from fifty thousand years to a hundred thousand years, a full double increase.

If this were told, not many cultivators would believe it.

Ordinary Divinity Transformation cultivators can live three thousand years, which is already considered quite good, but he can survive a hundred thousand years.

Even the longevity species of the mortal world are nothing but this.

"The lifespan indeed soared."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist, feeling very satisfied.

In fact, when his Soaring Snake Technique upgraded to Tier Five, he also realized the substantial improvement of life substances within him, incomparable from before.

However, he did not expect the lifespan to soar so much, reaching a hundred thousand years, quite astonishing.

Such a long lifespan, it's uncertain how many dynastic changes one could witness.

No wonder the ancient era's true spirits looked down on mortals, even indifferent.

Others can witness hundreds of generations of mortal deaths just by taking a nap.

This being said, who would care for those short-lived species?

Even compared to high-tier cultivators and true spirits, the difference in lifespan is vast.

The life levels of both are completely different.

Thankfully, after cultivating the Soaring Snake Technique, he has become a longevity species, naturally possessing a long lifespan.

"The cultivation has also risen to the 60% level."

"It's not far from Nascent Soul Perfection."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

In fact, throughout this year, he hasn't cultivated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture much.

Yet, due to refining the Tier Six spirit medicine, Star Body Tempering Ganoderma, and with the assistance of this ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine, his cultivation advanced rapidly.

Moreover, the medicinal liquid of the Star Body Tempering Ganoderma hasn't been fully digested, only partially.

If fully digested, advancing to Nascent Soul Perfection wouldn't be a significant issue.

By that time, he might enhance his cultivation to Divinity Transformation Level.

Subsequent qualitative improvements and changes may occur.

"Didn't expect the Soaring Snake Technique to breakthrough to Tier Five so quickly."

"The cultivation speed is incredibly fast."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed at this scene.

Typically, cultivating ordinary Qi Cultivation techniques should be faster.

After all, Qi Cultivation is sometimes easier than body refinement.

And True Spirit Technique, as the strongest body refinement technique, can nurture the supreme true spirit bloodline.

The difficulty of cultivation is imaginable.

If it were so easy, there wouldn't have been so many cultivators practicing True Spirit Technique in ancient times.

Such a technique can't be passed on widely, only a few prodigies might master it.

Yet, Jiang Fan is an undisputed anomaly, a freak.

Instead, True Spirit Technique cultivation speed is somewhat faster.

But this is actually good, having a strong physique makes passing through the Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation easier.

"Elder Fu, have you investigated where exactly this world is?"

Jiang Fan took a deep breath, calming down his boiling blood qi and began to inquire.

He knew throughout this year, the Primordial Talisman Pen occasionally left the Exquisite Tower to gather information outside.

Presuming with Elder Fu's skills, he must have grasped the general situation here.

"Previously, my luck was good."

"Encountered several fallen Nascent Soul cultivators."

"Through the Soul-Searching Technique, obtained most of their memories."

"Thus learned some situations about this world."

"According to the memory of those local Nascent Soul cultivators, this realm is called Spirit Ruins Realm."

"It is said there are numerous Spirit Ruins Secret Realms in this world, nobody knows where they come from, but these secret realms contain abundant spiritual qi and various valuable cultivation resources."

"Through exploring these Spirit Ruins Secret Realms, cultivators in this world obtained countless cultivation resources, hence there are numerous high-tier cultivators, not only Divinity Transformation cultivators, but also Void Refining cultivators, Integration cultivators, even Mahayana cultivators exist. It's an enormous world like the Void Realm's ancient times."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said solemnly.

"So that's how it is."

Jiang Fan nodded, he actually foresaw this point earlier, after all, such a dense spiritual qi concentration, such superior cultivation environment, giving birth to many high-tier cultivators is actually a matter of course.

Now, with this intelligence, it is thoroughly confirmed.

"But this world is also very chaotic."

"It contains three races: Human Race, Demon Race, and Demon Race."

"These three races occupy three regions of the Spirit Ruins Realm."

"They have been fighting for hundreds of millions of years."

"Accumulated countless deep-seated hatred."

"Even every century, a war erupts, often leading to rivers of blood."

"Luckily, our current location is in the interior of the Human Race territory, called Phoenix Mountains."

"It is said a Phoenix once appeared deep in this mountain, hence the name."

"Nearby is also a major Human Race city, called Phoenix City, with a population over a hundred million."

"The city lord is Xu Ling, a cultivator of Divinity Transformation Perfection."

The Primordial Talisman Pen revealed the intelligence it knew thoroughly.

This is attributed to obtaining some local cultivators' soul memories.

Otherwise, it couldn't have gathered intelligence so precisely, as if experienced firsthand.

"Moreover, the Human Race has been united."

"Named the Great Xuan Dynasty."

"This dynasty rules the entire Human Race territory, then grants the duke titles to various lords."

"Becoming a Divinity Transformation cultivator allows one to become a city lord, advancing to Void Refining permits becoming a duke."

"To become a king, one must be an Integration cultivator."

"Once becoming a Mahayana cultivator, one can be an emperor."

"And this generation's Human Emperor in Spirit Ruins Realm is Ye Wuxian."

The Primordial Talisman Pen continued.

Undoubtedly, Spirit Ruins Realm is completely unlike Void Realm, the Human Race here has been unified for hundreds of millions of years, unlike Void Realm's division, chaos, and internal conflicts.

Chapter 867: Life Chart: Only I am Venerable, Child of Destiny of the Spirit Ruins Realm

"This realm's Human Race has actually been unified?"

"And there's even Mahayana Cultivators."

"It truly is a vast world."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He could sense the terrifying extent of the Spirit Ruins Realm, which utterly surpassed the current era of the Void Realm.

Perhaps the Void Realm of the Ancient Era might have exceeded it.

But in the current era, it couldn't even compare.

However, this might not be a bad thing.

Because this signifies he can acquire abundant cultivation resources in this world.

To aid him in advancing to Divinity Transformation, or even Refining Void, Integration, and Mahayana.

If he remains in the Void Realm, even cultivating during Divinity Transformation would be an incredibly difficult task.

Let alone advancing to realms beyond Divinity Transformation.

"What is the so-called Spirit Ruins Secret Realm?"

"Is it the same as the Secret Realm World in our Void Realm?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron curiously asked.

"Actually, it's quite similar, just with different names."

"But there's one difference."

"Some Spirit Ruins Secret Realms might originate from the Immortal Realm."

"They are said to come from the Immortal Cave Mansions of the Immortal Realm."

"So often, some fortunate ones in the Spirit Ruins Realm obtain opportunities and inheritances from the Immortal Realm, soaring to great heights."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said.

"In this case, this world indeed has countless opportunities."

The Exquisite Tower, Demon Refining Pot, Demon-Vibrating Bell, and other Magical Treasures were immediately excited.

They believed that perhaps this world would have opportunities for them to ascend to Immortal Artifacts.

After all, even the Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron managed to become an Immortal Artifact, so it was possible for them too.

"However, the civilization of the Human Race in the Spirit Ruins Realm and that in the Void Realm are quite different."

"Due to the unification of the Human Race, the Spirit Ruins Realm doesn't have organizations like sects."

"Ordinary people live in cities, and upon reaching a certain age, the dynasty sends people to test their Spirit Roots."

"Ordinary people without Spirit Roots enter Martial Dao Academy, while cultivators with Spirit Roots enter the Taoist Academy to get foundational cultivation methods, and even receive guidance from high-tier cultivators, effectively achieving mandatory education."

"Outstanding graduates from the Taoist Academy become officials of the Great Xuan Dynasty or join the military."

"Ordinary graduates then leave the Taoist Academy to join various commercial organizations, where they can obtain cultivation resources and subsequent cultivation techniques."

The Primordial Talisman Pen continued.

Undoubtedly, the cultivation civilizations of the Spirit Ruins Realm and the Void Realm are vastly different.

This is due to the history of the Spirit Ruins Realm, along with various resources.

"So in this world, Human Race cultivators all become officials."

"Moreover, the dynasty is supreme, unifying the entire Human Race."

"The Great Xuan Dynasty has never changed its dynasty over hundreds of millions of years."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin, feeling increasingly familiar with the Spirit Ruins Realm.

"It's not that there's never been a change in dynasties; the Great Xuan Dynasty is merely a name."

"In reality, there have been many changes in emperors, and even the royal family has changed many times."

"Whoever can become a Mahayana Cultivator can become the emperor of the Great Xuan Dynasty, thereby becoming the new royal family."

"The capable ascend, while the inept descend; this is the Great Xuan Dynasty."

The Primordial Talisman Pen continued.

"So in that case, the Great Xuan Dynasty is somewhat chaotic?"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

"Depends on the place."

"In urban areas, it's relatively safe."

"Protected by laws and arrays, cultivators living in cities dare not act.

Once they do, they will be pursued by the dynasty with nowhere to hide."

"But outside, or within Spirit Ruins Secret Realms, anything goes."

"Regardless of the abundant resources in the Spirit Ruins Realm, cultivators still clash frequently."

"Despite the many resources, there is still more demand than supply."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said.

"Hmm."

Jiang Fan nodded, but no matter what, this world is indeed easier for cultivation compared to the Void Realm.

For him, the cultivation resources he needs in the future will likely have to come from the Spirit Ruins Realm.

Boom~~

Just then, a message suddenly penetrated deep into his sea of consciousness.

"Fate is often unexpected, and with the slightest carelessness, one may fall into the abyss; this is true for you and others."

"Fate will provide you with guidance."

"Fate Tip One: A butterfly's wings gently flap can cause a storm thousands of miles away; you, who have reached Ninth-Layer Nascent Soul, are the same, and your choices will affect countless beings, even the fate of the entire world.

Not far from where you're in seclusion, a woman is in a life-and-death tribulation; if you take action, you can help her overcome this tribulation, allowing her to soar, and you will benefit greatly."

"Fate Tip Two: You can also choose not to intervene and watch as the woman perishes, in which case you won't suffer any losses, but this will impact the fate of the entire Spirit Ruins Realm, bringing it closer to catastrophe."

"This."

Upon perceiving this message, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted.

He hadn't expected a fate tip to appear at this time, instructing him to personally intervene and save a woman.

By the information from the fate tip, the identity of this mysterious woman is quite astonishing.

Unexpectedly, she affects the future operation of the Spirit Ruins Realm.

To be honest, he knows that only a certain type of character can have such an impact, a Child of Fortune, or even a Child of Destiny. Only the death of such individuals can alter the future of the entire world.

Chapter 868: Life Chart: Only I am Venerable, Child of Destiny of the Spirit Ruins Realm (2)

But what kind of Child of Destiny could possibly encounter a life and death tribulation at this moment?!

And as a Child of Destiny, can't they even overcome a single life and death challenge?!

More importantly, in what appears to be the prosperous Spirit Ruins Realm, an apocalyptic calamity is destined to appear in the future? What is happening, and what kind of disaster is lurking secretly?

He felt that the seemingly calm Spirit Ruins Realm had long been teeming beneath with undercurrents.

Common cultivators are unaware of this, assuming everything is just as calm as it appears.

"However, since I can save the Child of Destiny of this realm, this deal seems rather lucrative."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

To be honest, he was willing to make a move because it posed no danger to him.

If it truly required him to risk himself, then it wouldn't have any meaning.

But this was just a casual act anyway.

It's like buying some original stocks of a super company, and in the future, there's a chance to earn ten thousand times the profit, so why not?

Moreover, he's quite curious about what kind of woman could become the Child of Destiny of this realm.

Perhaps interacting with other Children of Destiny might also be of tremendous benefit to him.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate, his figure flickered, and he immediately left the inner world of the Exquisite Tower.

Boom~

At this moment, Jiang Fan's spiritual sense spread out, enveloping an area of a hundred thousand kilometers.

It's necessary to understand that this was a spiritual sense at the Void Refining level, able to blend into the void, undetected by cultivators below the Void Refining level.

Everything within the range of his spiritual sense would be perceived clearly.

Instantly, he saw that in a Nameless Valley, there appeared five cultivators, each wearing black robes, four were Nascent Soul cultivators, while one was in the Early Stage of Divinity Transformation.

Darkness, evil, and sinister auras emanated from their bodies, their faces showing ruthless expressions.

And a woman lay on the ground, clutching a thousand-year-old Spirit Medicine, her eyes filled with utter despair because she didn't expect to encounter five such powerful cultivators in this place.

For someone like her, a mere Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation cultivator, they were an unmatched existence.

Boom!

The moment he saw this woman, Jiang Fan shuddered, the innate divine ability Emperor's Gaze on his body instinctively activated.

Mysterious runes emerged in the depths of his pupils, seemingly containing endless laws at work.

In the next second, he suddenly saw the woman was imbued with abundant destiny.

Simultaneously, he also saw a mysterious force residing within her.

Countless destinies gathered together, coalescing to form a fruit, then a light flashed at lightning speed, arriving before him instantly.

Immediately, a wave of information entered the depths of his sea of consciousness.

"Cultivator: Ye Linglong, Age: Eighteen."

"Life Chart: Immortal Reincarnation, Only I am Venerable (Unactivated)"

"Origin: After the failure of XX Immortal's Dao attainment, their entire cultivation returned to heaven and earth, the immense essence scattered throughout the realms forming this unique Life Chart, it is an Immortal Grade Life Chart."

What?!

Upon sensing this information, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted, and his heart stirred up turbulent waves.

He knew well that the source of his strength came from his unique Life Chart — Great Blessings Equal to Heaven.

By possessing this Life Chart, he gained immense destiny, allowing him to turn danger into safety and seek fortune while avoiding evil.

He did not know how many calamities he had avoided, and how many fortuitous opportunities he had obtained.

Yet he still doesn't know where his Life Chart comes from.

Initially, he assumed he was the only one with a Life Chart.

But now it seems that's not the case, although rare, Life Charts do exist in this world.

But this time, it turns out this seemingly Child of Destiny woman actually possesses the Only I am Venerable Life Chart.

And it's an Immortal Grade Life Chart.

"How did I suddenly begin to see the existence of Life Charts?"

"Previously, I only saw destiny."

"Could it be because my spiritual power has been enhanced to reach the Void Refining level?"

"Thus, it drives the power of the Emperor's Gaze, not just able to see destiny, but also Life Charts."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists.

He felt certain it was the case.

Otherwise, he should have seen the Life Charts before, not now.

Only by reaching a certain level of strength can one perceive the power of Life Charts.

Immediately, he continued to study the Only I am Venerable Life Chart, seemingly gaining more information about this Life Chart.

This Life Chart is divided into two parts, one is Only I, mastering Only I allows one to rapidly master any cultivation technique, any Daoist technique, any divine technique or magic, while also able to innovate and even exert over twice the effect, enhancing combat strength by one fold during battles.

The second is Venerable, it can form a Venerable domain, any living being's power within the domain will be weakened by more than half, indiscriminately so.

"It's too abnormal, is this what a Child of Destiny is?"

Jiang Fan was greatly shocked, at a loss for words.

Without a doubt, Only I am Venerable is a naturally combat-oriented Life Chart, deemed invincible at its level.

To begin with, having this Life Chart makes one a prodigy of the realm, capable of rapidly learning anything with the finest comprehension.

Even that is sufficient enough, its combat capabilities are even more terrifying.

After all, during combat, one's strength doubles, while the opponent's power diminishes by half, resulting in a combat power four times that of the enemy, truly terrifying.

Presumably, no matter the opponent, they're vanquished immediately, with no one able to match her.

Moreover, as cultivation grows, the effect of this Life Chart becomes increasingly formidable.

Crushing Qi Cultivation stage cultivators is insignificant, but crushing Integration stage cultivators or even Mahayana stage cultivators, now that's truly terrifying.

It's only fitting that she's the Child of Destiny of this realm, her talent is certainly not in vain.

Once this woman grows, she will undoubtedly become the strongest cultivator in this realm, with unparalleled strength.

Simultaneously, this Life Chart does not have a weak phase, always in a strong phase, definitely exceeding norms.

If this were a game, it would surely need a nerf.

But this is reality, and reality is unapologetically unfair.

"By the way, could Daoist Taixu of the Void Realm from the Ancient Era also be a Life Chart possessor?"

Jiang Fan stroked his chin, highly suspicious of this point.

Perhaps Daoist Taixu too possessed Life Chart power, explaining his overwhelming might, sweeping everything aside.

Regrettably, he too cannot meet Daoist Taixu to ascertain what Life Chart the other possesses.

"Nonetheless, Life Charts originate from the Immortals' failure in Dao attainment, right?"

"After their demise, the essence scattered, thus forming unique Life Charts."

"Life Charts then dispersed across the myriad worlds, granted to certain fortunate individuals."

"Thus the emergence of so many prodigies?!"

"If it's indeed like this, it's like a whale falling and giving birth to myriad beings."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He began contemplating the source of Life Charts, perhaps it truly bears great relation to the immortals of the Immortal Realm.

Due to the fall of immortals, numerous Life Charts were born in the Mortal World, obtained by mortals.

But what about his Life Chart Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, where does it come from?

Was it some immortal's Dao attainment failure, or from his traveler status, or merely good luck?

"Additionally, Life Charts seem to possess hierarchical distinctions."

"There are Lower Grade Life Charts, Middle Grade Life Charts, Upper Grade Life Charts, Immortal Grade Life Charts, and Seven-Colored Life Charts."

"Life Charts below Immortal Grade are common, and different individuals might share the same Life Chart."

"There might even be multiple identical Life Charts."

"However, Life Charts above Immortal Grade, each one is unique, never duplicated."

"Such as my Great Blessings Equal to Heaven."

"Apart from myself, virtually no one else could possess it."

Originally, Jiang Fan wasn't aware of these details, but after witnessing the Only I am Venerable Life Chart, it seemed as though some information was transmitted from the depths of the void.

As if messages from the Heavenly Dao were conveyed to him, allowing him to know innately, very miraculously.

Chapter 869: Favored by the Heavenly Dao, Blessed by Destiny

At this time, within the Nameless Valley, the situation took a drastic turn for the worse.

"How could I be so unlucky?"

The girl's name was Ye Linglong, an orphan, eighteen years old, with ordinary and unremarkable aptitude.

Eighteen years ago, on a certain night, she was picked up by an old grandma and raised for eighteen years.

Although she joined a Daoist academy, her aptitude remained ordinary and unremarkable.

But suddenly, her grandmother fell seriously ill, and after taking many medicines, there was no improvement, and the family's wealth was exhausted.

In order to earn money for medicine, she chose to venture out of Fengming City and came to the Fengming Mountain Range, hoping to find some wild Spirit Medicine.

This time, her luck was indeed good as she unexpectedly found a Thousand-year-old Spirit Medicine.

If she sold it, she would definitely make enough money to cure her grandmother.

Yet she never expected to accidentally stumble upon a gathering of mysterious individuals.

This brought upon her a deadly calamity.

Moreover, given her current cultivation level, facing these Nascent Soul Cultivators, even thinking about escaping was impossible.

Death, she didn't care about.

After all, her life had been saved by her grandmother, and now it seemed like she was just returning it.

But what made her unwilling was, if she died, what would happen to her grandmother, and to those orphans her grandmother saved, to her brothers and sisters?

If she and her grandmother were gone, they would likely end up on the streets, starving to death.

"Oh, there's actually a Qi Cultivation Stage rookie here."

"Leader, it seems the location you picked for the gathering isn't that great, getting discovered by outsiders."

"This sort of thing always happens, the world is full of unexpected events, no one can control destiny."

"That's true, luckily it's just a Qi Cultivation Stage rookie, so it's no big deal."

"This woman looks pretty good, why not catch her and sell her?"

"Foolish, do you want to expose our Celestial Punishment Association? Kill her, we can't allow our traces to be leaked, or else you and I will die."

The group of mysterious cultivators was discussing, emanating a chilling killing intent.

Although Ye Linglong was quite attractive, to them, she was nothing.

So-called women were just beauties on the surface but skeletons underneath.

Moreover, they were members of the Celestial Punishment Association, fugitives of the Great Xuan Dynasty.

If exposed, not only would they be in trouble, but countless others would also be implicated.

So they could not permit any possibility of their information being leaked.

Swish!

In an instant, a figure appeared in front of this group of mysterious cultivators, the newcomer was Jiang Fan.

Since he had decided to intervene, he naturally wouldn't let this woman encounter any danger.

"Who are you?!"

The five mysterious cultivators' expressions changed drastically, especially the cultivator at the Early Stage of Divinity Transformation, who was particularly incredulous because, within his perception range, this guy suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

Even though the opponent's aura was only at the Nascent Soul Stage, he wouldn't underestimate the enemy one bit.

"Kneel."

Jiang Fan looked calmly at this group of mysterious cultivators, unleashing his Bloodline Divine Techniques.

Seeing Me as Heaven!

This was a Bloodline Divine Technique he gained after advancing to the Tier Five, an extremely powerful control divine technique.

Once activated, any living being within his spiritual sense spread would involuntarily kneel, as if they were seeing the Heavenly Dao itself.

Boom~~

Instantly, not just the five mysterious cultivators, even Ye Linglong was the same, they immediately kneeled on the ground, their knees bled from kneeling.

They felt a terrifying soul pressure, as if seeing a human emperor.

Their bodies seemed to be enduring the weight of a huge mountain.

They were immobilized.

Even the Divinity Transformation Cultivator was the same, he sensed his body seemed to have lost control, in just a moment, the enemy seized control.

"How is this possible? A mere Nascent Soul Cultivator, how can he be this powerful?"

The Divinity Transformation Cultivator couldn't believe it, feeling utterly humiliated.

He had lived so long, never subjected to such humiliation, forcibly commanded, kneeling before an enemy.

What scared him more was that he felt it was perfectly natural.

It seemed kneeling before this mysterious figure was not something disgraceful.

Soul Devourer!

However, Jiang Fan did not stop, with a wave of his hand, he quickly unleashed a second Bloodline Divine Technique—Soul Devourer.

Having advanced to Tier Five, the power of this Bloodline Divine Technique had increased tenfold, reaching the Divinity Transformation Realm.

Boom~~

A solidified Ancient Soaring Snake emerged from the air, its body etched with countless mysterious runes, exuding an ancient, fierce, and formidable aura.

Like the revival of an Ancient Divine Beast.

It opened its mouth wide and swallowed the five mysterious cultivators.

In an instant, the souls of these five cultivators were devoured, their bodies collapsed to the ground, their eyes losing all color.

Without a doubt, mere Early Stage of Divinity Transformation Cultivators were nothing to Jiang Fan, who had reached Tier Five, capable of swallowing their souls in one gulp.

"The master is truly too strong, even a Divinity Transformation Cultivator can be easily killed."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron watched this scene, feeling very emotional.

It clearly remembered that Jiang Fan was just an ordinary cultivator in the past.

Chapter 870: Heavenly Dao's Favor, Destiny Bestowed (Part 2)

Any cultivator at the Foundation Establishment or Golden Core level can easily kill him.

Let alone terrifying entities of the Divinity Transformation Level such as rulers.

But now, with just a single move, he could crush a Divinity Transformation cultivator. It's simply too astonishing.

If you hadn't seen it with your own eyes, who would believe such a thing?

It can only be said that decades of cultivation have brought a monumental change in the master's cultivation.

Ordinary Divinity Transformation cultivators are no match for the master now.

"This is only to be expected."

"This kid is now at Tier Five."

"Though his Qi Cultivation is still at the Nascent Soul level, his real combat strength has long reached Divinity Transformation."

"Getting rid of an ordinary Divinity Transformation is simply easy, no need for surprise."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said smugly.

It felt that its own foresight was good; it had chosen such a Child of Destiny as the successor to the Primordial Talisman Sect.

If it had chosen another cultivator, the legacy of the Primordial Talisman Sect might have vanished into the river of history by now.

Even itself might have faced severe injuries, leading to the obliteration of its consciousness.

It would have been impossible to survive to the present day.

"Huh?!"

Jiang Fan's pupils constricted, as he sensed a sudden change.

His eyes were fixed upon the front.

Originally, he thought this would have killed the enemy, but then a sudden mutation occurred.

From the corpses of these five, strands of black aura began to emerge.

From their bodies crawled out strange black insects, making one's hair stand on end.

At the same time, a chilling voice echoed.

"Damn humans, you actually ruined our grand plan."

"I want you dead."

The voice seemed to seep up from Hell, causing one to shiver.

Even the Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron, Primordial Talisman Pen, and other magical treasures couldn't help but shiver, as if encountering a formidable enemy.

"Strange, this is strange."

"Why is there something strange in this world?"

The Demon-Vibrating Bell couldn't help but shout.

Why would such strange things appear here?

Were they here to kill this woman?

Witnessing this scene, Jiang Fan's pupils constricted, and numerous thoughts surfaced deep within his sea of consciousness.

Undoubtedly, the calamity faced by this woman was not an accident but part of a strange plan.

If he hadn't intervened, the other party might have succeeded.

In that case, the Spirit Ruins Realm would suffer the fall of a Child of Destiny, which would be a significant blow to the realm.

No wonder the destiny guidance mentioned that this woman would affect the fate of countless beings in the Spirit Ruins Realm's future.

Perhaps this was also a turning point in destiny.

By choosing to intervene, he disrupted the strange plan, thus making them so angry and frantic.

Though many thoughts surfaced inside him, Jiang Fan didn't stay where he was but chose to act.

Great Sun Buddha Mirror!

In an instant, Jiang Fan activated this secret treasure. The mirror revealed dense, mysterious runes, as if an unparalleled Buddhist scripture had emerged.

Strands of crimson flames gushed forth; this was the True Sun Fire.

Under his manipulation, the strands of True Sun Fire suddenly erupted, rushing towards these strange entities.

"This is the True Sun Fire."

"Damn humans, how could they wield such flames?"

These black insects were shocked and angry; they never expected this human to possess True Sun Fire, flames that especially countered them.

But now it's too late to escape; they have nowhere to run.

Boom~~

In a moment's time, the mighty True Sun Fire spread over, enveloping these black insects.

They had no ability to resist, their bodies emitting sizzling sounds and black smoke.

Soon these black insects were burned to nothingness, disappearing entirely from this world.

"Huh?!"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He sensed that after slaying these black insects, his own destiny suddenly surged.

Vaguely, the Heavenly Dao of this world seemed to cast a gaze downwards.

Originally, his aura was incompatible with the Spirit Ruins Realm.

If some Great Power level cultivators were present, they might have discerned his difference, thereby revealing his identity.

However, the vast destiny poured onto him, rapidly altering his aura.

As if gaining recognition from the Heavenly Dao of this realm, he received a residence permit from the realm's inhabitants.

"These are not strange entities."

"They should be parasites nurtured by strange powers."

"They parasitize on these human cultivators, affecting their subconscious minds."

"Severely, they can even modify their memories, manipulate their actions and behaviors."

"Similar incidents occurred in the Void Realm during the Ancient Era."

"A group of mysterious cultivators continually assassinated the champions of the Void Realm."

"But at that time, no one paid attention to it, resulting in the fall of numerous champions."

"This was one of the crucial reasons for the defeat of various races during Ancient Times."

The voice of the Human Emperor Sword emerged, speaking quietly.

Seeing these black, strange insects seemed to remind it of some unpleasant memories from the Ancient Era.

This made its tone quite solemn.

"What does it mean? Is this world repeating the events of the Void Realm's Ancient Era?"

Jiang Fan raised his eyebrow and inquired.

"Not clear, but it looks quite similar."

"It seems these strange entities have set their sights on this world."
