

Fortune 871

Chapter 871: Favored by the Heavenly Dao, Destiny Adorns the Body_3

"If not dealt with in time, I'm afraid it will follow in the footsteps of the Void Realm."

The Human Emperor Sword said in a deep voice.

It had a sense of foreboding, feeling that this Great Thousand Worlds would meet the same fate as the Void Realm.

Although this realm is currently in its prime, it could perish overnight.

Like a towering skyscraper, it takes years to build.

But to destroy it, it only takes a moment.

Destruction is always far easier than creation.

"But how did these anomalies fixate on this woman?"

"Could it be related to the Life Chart?"

"Can these anomalies sense cultivators with a Life Chart?"

"Do they also know that cultivators with a Life Chart are special, possessing unique talents, so they want to eliminate them early?"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He felt that his guess was getting pretty close to the truth.

These anomalies must have some special method to perceive cultivators with a Life Chart, and then manipulate other cultivators to assassinate these geniuses one by one, completely eradicating them.

If these geniuses were to fall, it would be an unimaginable blow to this world.

"Thank you, senior, for saving my life."

"I am Ye Linglong."

At this time, the woman beside him, Ye Linglong, looked at Jiang Fan cautiously, feeling very uneasy inside.

Although the other party did kill these terrifying cultivators in front of her, it doesn't mean he deliberately saved her.

If this stranger harbored malicious intent, he could kill her in an instant.

For the sake of her own life, she felt she needed to take the initiative to make a good impression.

If she did so, perhaps she wouldn't need to die today.

"You don't need to be so cautious."

"I came here specifically to save you."

Jiang Fan said bluntly.

"Save me? Why?"

Ye Linglong was stunned, as she had never met this mysterious senior before. Why would he go out of his way to save her?

Could it be related to her background?

Or perhaps connected to her grandmother?

For a moment, many thoughts surfaced in her mind.

"I have no connection with anyone around you."

"The reason I saved you is simply because you are special and worth saving."

Jiang Fan did not plan to hide anything.

"I am special?"

Ye Linglong was even more puzzled. She was just an ordinary female cultivator, even though she had some beauty, it was nothing remarkable. If her aptitude were truly outstanding, she wouldn't just be a Ninth-Layer Qi Cultivation cultivator now.

If she couldn't break through further, she might have to graduate from the Daoist academy.

The geniuses in the academy had already advanced to Foundation Establishment.

Some monsters had even reached Golden Core.

"Ordinary?"

Jiang Fan raised an eyebrow.

He understood why Ye Linglong thought of herself as ordinary, probably because her Life Chart had not been activated.

Some cultivators possess a Life Chart, but if the opportunity never arises, it might not activate in their lifetime.

Ye Linglong was no different.

Her Only I am Venerable Life Chart had not been activated, so she was just an ordinary girl now.

Her cultivation talent was quite mediocre as well.

Only when the Life Chart gets activated can she truly embark on the path to invincibility.

Of course, there were those who were slain by enemies before their Life Charts were activated.

After all, a cultivator's unfulfilled potential still made them a weakling.

However, perhaps he could help this girl in front of him activate her Only I am Venerable Life Chart.

Chapter 872: The World Hunts Life Charts, Life Chart Is Spirit Body

To be honest, ever since Jiang Fan could see Life Charts, he instinctively mastered the ability to activate them.

This was a kind of talent for him, or perhaps an instinct.

Like how fish are born knowing how to swim, it's innate and requires no learning.

If it were an ordinary cultivator, they might need to go through various opportunities to truly activate their own Life Chart.

But he didn't need to.

By consuming a certain amount of Luck Points, he could help others activate their Life Charts.

The woman in front of him, Ye Linglong, wouldn't know what she would have to go through to succeed in activating her Life Chart; perhaps she would need to survive a life-and-death situation.

But with his help, she didn't need to go through such danger.

Bang~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan lightly pointed a finger at Ye Linglong.

What?!

Seeing Jiang Fan making a move, Ye Linglong was startled, thinking this mysterious cultivator wanted to kill her, but when she saw the finger gently touching her forehead.

She sensed a mysterious energy entering her body.

Boom!

In an instant, she felt a certain shackle deep within her body break, as a mysterious energy surged out from the depths of her being, spreading throughout her entire body.

This mysterious energy not only allowed the Washing Marrow and Cutting Meridians, transforming her physique.

Even her Spiritual Root Talent was enhanced.

Originally, she was just a Middle-grade Spirit Root, but now she astonishingly reached the level of a Celestial Spirit Root.

Her comprehension also received an incredible boost.

"What did you do to me?"

Ye Linglong's beautiful eyes widened, unable to believe it.

She sensed an earth-shattering change in her body, as if she could establish her Foundation at any moment if she wished.

The many Divine Powers she had learned before were instantly comprehended.

Her cultivation within her body also received a geometrical increase.

"I only helped you break through the shackle."

"It's getting late, you should hurry back."

Jiang Fan didn't explain much, waved his hand, indicating for the other to quickly leave.

"Senior, thank you for saving my life."

"In the future, if I, Ye Linglong, achieve any success, I will definitely repay this favor."

Ye Linglong gave Jiang Fan a deep look.

She also didn't know what this mysterious senior's true intentions were for her.

But she knew that the weak have no voice.

The only thing to do is to seize opportunities, constantly improve cultivation, and keep climbing upwards.

Only by mastering power can one master their own destiny.

She no longer wished to experience situations beyond her control like today's life and death crisis.

Swoosh!

Thinking of this, Ye Linglong took the Thousand-year-old Spirit Medicine and quickly left the place.

Soon, the valley was left with only Jiang Fan.

"Interesting, so this is the causal connection?"

"As long as I help others activate their Life Charts, when they grow, I can share a portion of the destiny."

"This is angel investing."

Jiang Fan touched his chin.

He sensed a thick line of cause and effect forming between him and Ye Linglong.

Moreover, this line was nearly unbreakable.

After all, this was a life-saving favor, a favor for achieving the way; the cause and effect were unimaginably significant.

To be honest, he felt he might have found how to cultivate his own Great Blessings Equal to Heaven Life Chart.

He needed to establish causal connections with Child of Fortune.

Help them activate their Life Charts.

In this way, if these Children of Fortune could grow, the help to him would be immeasurable.

Bang~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan waved his big hand, immediately picking up the five Storage Bags on the ground.

They were left by some mysterious cultivators from earlier.

With a thought, he activated the Power of Fortune within himself, a mysterious energy spreading across these Storage Bags.

Sizzle~~

In an instant, all sorts of techniques left on these Storage Bags were obliterated, even the cause and effect, which emitted wisps of black smoke.

This was also a way to use Luck Points, eliminating all sorts of tracking methods, disorienting fate.

In this way, whatever methods the enemy left behind could be completely obliterated, removing hidden dangers.

"These five are from the Celestial Punishment Association."

"And this organization is very mysterious, specializing in hunting prodigies of the Spirit Ruins Realm."

"It's likely they are beings controlled by the eerie, specifically eliminating the geniuses of this realm."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said in a deep voice.

It also gained part of the memories from those cultivators.

Although the most crucial memories were sealed by a mysterious force, preventing them from seeing.

But it also learned part of their origins.

Originally, they were just ordinary cultivators of the Great Xuan Dynasty, normally, achieving Golden Core would perhaps be their limit, but with the help of the Celestial Punishment Association, their cultivation advanced rapidly.

In a few centuries, they quickly advanced to Nascent Soul, even Divinity Transformation.

In fact, many members of the Celestial Punishment Association appeared in this way.

The eerie targeted those with mediocre or even low talents, tempting them to join the Celestial Punishment Association while granting them immense power, rapidly enhancing their cultivation.

But what these cultivators didn't know was that they were long controlled by the eerie, becoming their puppets.

At critical moments, they were death warriors.

Many prodigies died tragically at these people's hands.

Even capturing some members couldn't harm the foundation of the Celestial Punishment Association.

"This world indeed contains immense danger."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

Chapter 873: The World Hunts Life Charts, Life Chart Is Spirit Body_2

But for now, he doesn't want to engage with the Celestial Punishment Association; he came to this world merely to obtain cultivation resources.

If there is any trouble, it's easy to die here.

Moreover, there are plenty of top cultivators in this world, no need for a mere Nascent Soul to deal with it.

Perhaps high-tier cultivators have already noticed this, but he is simply unaware.

For him, the most important thing is to enhance his cultivation and ascend to Divinity Transformation.

Being merely at the Nascent Soul realm is truly too weak, barely worth mentioning.

Boom~~

At this moment, a message suddenly entered the depths of his consciousness sea: "You personally took action and slew a group of Tribulation Cultivators containing a big secret, successfully passing a calamity, and received five million luck points and a fourth-grade opportunity."

Undoubtedly, not until now did passing this calamity count.

Though this harvest is not excessively large, its impact on the future is extremely profound.

"A fourth-grade opportunity? Could it be the treasures inside these storage bags?"

"There are elixirs of Divinity Transformation level, Five Elements Celestial Movement Pill, and as many as ten of them."

"With these elixirs, ascending to Divinity Transformation Perfection becomes even easier."

"As expected from the Spirit Ruins Realm, the cultivation resources here are incomparable to the Void Realm."

Jiang Fan's heart stirred, he opened several storage bags to find they were filled with numerous elixirs, including some Tier Five elixirs.

If it were in the Void Realm, killing Divinity Transformation cultivators wouldn't yield Tier Five elixirs, as they are extraordinarily rare.

As soon as they are refined, they are likely swiftly consumed by Divinity Transformation cultivators, leaving none behind.

It is only in Great Thousand Worlds like the Spirit Ruins Realm that Tier Five elixirs exist in abundance.

After all, to them, Tier Five elixirs are merely ordinary, the truly valuable ones are Tier Six elixirs, Tier Seven elixirs, or even Tier Eight elixirs.

...

A few days later.

Jiang Fan also entered the nearby Fengming City, residing in an inn, exploring the city carefully.

This is a colossal city, possessing a Tier Five spirit vein, with a large number of cultivators living there.

Unlike the Void Realm, here cultivators live in cities rather than on mountain peaks.

The reason for this phenomenon is because cultivators in this realm have mastered the divine power of relocating spirit veins.

The sects in the Void Realm are always established in deep mountains, as spirit vein sources are usually there, rarely appearing on plains.

And since these sects lack the ability to relocate spirit veins, they can only build sects nearby, or markets.

However, in the Spirit Ruins Realm, they have mastered the divine power of relocating spirit veins, naturally building cities where suitable for living, just relocating nearby spirit veins when choosing a location.

Moreover, cities on plains can accommodate populations far larger than those in mountains.

Because of this, the Spirit Ruins Realm boasts sprawling Cultivation cities.

The cities are enveloped in dense spiritual qi, suitable for cultivators' everyday cultivation.

But Jiang Fan isn't concerned with these matters.

He's more focused on Life Charts, as they are truly crucial.

"Indeed, Life Charts are extremely rare."

"Almost one in a million."

"Even among cultivators with spirit roots, few possess Life Charts."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Honestly, over these few days, while observing the many cultivators of Fengming City, housing at least millions of them.

He used the divine power of weather divination, trying to find other cultivators with Life Charts.

But he was disappointed, finding not many similar talented individuals.

Undoubtedly, anyone like Ye Linglong, a Child of Destiny, is exceedingly rare.

"Still, this proves one point, the so-called Life Chart is actually a Spirit Body."

"Or rather, Spirit Bodies are indeed Life Charts."

"Thus, Spirit Bodies are not hereditary."

"They randomly appear on different cultivators, purely based on luck."

"Hence, Spirit Bodies cannot be measured, nor can Life Charts."

Jiang Fan narrowed his eyes.

He now felt a sense of enlightenment, believing he has grasped the mystery of Spirit Bodies.

Like his Dao Companion Su Weiwei's special spirit body, Taiyin Virgin Body, which is in fact a type of special Life Chart; similarly, Lu Youyou's Tongyu Phoenix Marrow Body is also a special Life Chart.

The power of Life Charts integrates into cultivators' bodies, manifesting different characteristics.

Meanwhile, before cultivators' Life Charts are activated, Spirit Bodies can't be detected by ordinary means.

"The emergence of Life Charts is possibly due to the world's origin."

"Within the Endless Void, Life Charts are birthed."

"But they are captured by the world's origin and randomly placed on different living beings."

"The stronger the world, the more Life Charts it can capture."

"Thus, the number of talents in these worlds naturally increases, presenting prosperous eras."

"Moreover, these talents also become part of the world, sheltering the original world, aiding the Heavenly Dao in overcoming calamities, and even helping the Heavenly Dao to strengthen its origin."

While Jiang Fan repeatedly observed the fate and Life Charts of humanity, he instinctively sensed that the source of Life Charts must have a significant connection with the world's origin or the Heavenly Dao.

The Heavenly Dao of these worlds perceives the significance of Life Charts, naturally capturing them and integrating them into the world.

Chapter 874: The World Hunts Life Charts, Life Chart Is Spirit Body_3

It seems that in every era, the Child of Fortune is born this way.

When the world's Heavenly Dao senses danger, it releases these Life Charts, integrating them into individual cultivators, resulting in the birth of numerous Children of Fortune and prodigies in that era.

Because of this, some top Great Powers have also noticed this pattern: if an era suddenly sees the explosive emergence of prodigies, it signifies that a great calamity is imminent.

To some extent, this serves as a warning from the Heavenly Dao to the world.

And so it is with the Spirit Ruins Realm.

Sensing the arrival of an apocalyptic calamity, it released an Immortal Destiny like Only I am Venerable, allowing an invincible figure to be born in this era to help the Spirit Ruins Realm endure the calamity.

Undoubtedly, those mysterious forces are also very familiar with the workings of the world. They have special methods to sense those cultivators with Life Charts and preemptively eliminate them.

This is a struggle between the mysterious forces and the Heavenly Dao.

"But it's not to say that without a Life Chart, one cannot achieve anything."

"In fact, possessing a Life Chart only means that the baseline has been elevated."

"Yet cultivators without Life Charts can still become Immortal."

"Even after becoming an Immortal, they can enter the Dao and forge new Life Charts."

"It's just that these cultivators without Life Charts have a low baseline, but their upper limit is not fixed."

"If they have enough opportunities and understanding, they can still soar to great heights."

Jiang Fan narrowed his eyes.

In fact, throughout Fengming City, he had seen numerous cultivators without Life Charts advance to Nascent Soul and even Divinity Transformation. Lacking a Life Chart did not hinder their cultivation.

It's just that without a Life Chart, they are missing certain special talents.

Of course, if one could possess a Life Chart, the path of cultivation would naturally be smoother.

"By the way, let's see how Ye Linglong is doing."

"Such a Child of Destiny must be surrounded by unique individuals."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly.

Although he didn't know where Ye Linglong lived, it didn't matter. With the power of the Celestial Respect Crown Talisman, he could see the cause and effect line between him and Ye Linglong.

Through the causal connection, it naturally led him to her location.

Swish!

An hour later, Jiang Fan followed the causal line and quickly arrived at a slum in Fengming City.

Here, there was a courtyard known as the Orphanage.

It's said that a kind-hearted old lady couldn't bear the thought of orphans dying, so she established this orphanage.

At least a dozen orphans lived inside.

Among them, Ye Linglong was the oldest and the leader of these orphans.

Just as he arrived near the yard, Jiang Fan heard voices coming from inside.

"Linglong Sister, I heard you advanced to Foundation Establishment and even advanced to the Intermediate Dao Academy, right?"

"More than that; I heard Linglong Sister has caught the eye of a Divinity Transformation and has become their disciple."

"Oh my, if that's the case, Linglong Sister might become a great figure in the future. She might even undergo Divinity Transformation."

"Haha, not just Divinity Transformation! I think Sister can become a Duke or a Prince."

In the yard, many teenagers were excitedly talking.

They surrounded Ye Linglong, each with a look of admiration on their faces.

"Really? Is it true or false?"

"How can there be so many with Life Charts here?"

"Every orphan here has a Life Chart!"

"It's ridiculous."

"Is this what a Child of Destiny is?"

Jiang Fan blinked. He sensed that all the dozen or so orphans in the yard had Life Charts, though they hadn't been activated yet.

Yet, elsewhere in Fengming City, he couldn't find any cultivators with Life Charts.

But here, they were everywhere.

It was truly outrageous.

Chapter 875: Nascent Soul Perfection, Breaking Through to Divinity Transformation

Boom~~

At this moment, Jiang Fan looked at the orphans in the nursery hall, among whom four were the most outstanding.

One of them was named Xiao Duan, about fifteen years old, possessing an Upper Grade Life Chart of fortune-seeking.

Indeed, he had the ability to seek fortune.

This meant he had the ability to sense opportunities and could know where treasures and great luck existed.

However, he did not have the ability to avoid evil, meaning he lacked a premonition to avoid danger.

If he had the power to avoid evil combined with fortune-seeking, it would certainly be an Immortal Destiny Life Chart.

But with only half of the ability, it could only be an Upper Grade Life Chart.

Even so, this ability was already quite astonishing.

If one's strength was sufficient, one could seek various opportunities to quickly grow oneself.

Of course, if it were only like this, the boy might tragically die while searching for opportunities.

But with Ye Linglong's help, their cooperation would be perfect.

It seemed his existence was meant to provide opportunities for Ye Linglong.

Of course, for this boy, Ye Linglong was also his guardian.

Both were considered mutually cooperative, complementing each other.

"Jiang Mo."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, looking at another boy.

There was another fifteen-year-old boy named Jiang Mo, who appeared honest and simple, like a simpleton. He also possessed an Upper Grade Life Chart of plainness.

But don't underestimate this Life Chart.

If it were a Lower Grade level of plainness, then cultivation would be mediocre, magic fighting would be mediocre, destiny would be mediocre, everything would be ordinary, but one could safely and smoothly live to their natural end.

Compared to those extremely unlucky cultivators, this was already considered a good end.

Many ordinary people envy it.

If it reached the Middle Grade level, the ability of this Life Chart would further enhance, his aptitude, magic fighting, and destiny would become average, not comparable to prodigies, but much better than the lower tier.

Although this Life Chart wouldn't gain appreciation from any predecessors, it wouldn't be noticed by enemies either, like living among many cultivators as an average person, such characters could certainly live to the end.

And when it reached the Upper Grade level of plainness, the ability became more terrifying. This Life Chart could reduce one's presence, even if doing something extraordinary, it would naturally be ignored by people, not attracting any cultivator's opposition.

Even if infiltrating the enemy's camp, they would regard him as one of their own, perceiving no threat.

It could be said wherever he went, he could grow safely and smoothly.

If it reached Immortal Grade level, plainness would have a qualitative transformation, the destiny on the other would surge, wherever he went, he would find opportunities.

Moreover, companions, enemies, and predecessors around them would overlook his existence, even making the enemy forget their memories, lower hostility, often effortlessly playing the fool and eating the tiger.

Even if the enemies wanted to hunt him down, they would inexplicably encounter various disasters.

"Su Wangyue."

Jiang Fan looked at the third orphan, a fifteen-year-old girl who also possessed an Upper Grade Life Chart of the child of lightning.

With this Life Chart, she was a natural child favored by thunderbolt.

Once she practiced thunder-related magic and swordsmanship, progress would be rapid, and unleash extraordinary power.

This was indeed a combat-type Life Chart, extremely powerful.

"And Liu Shengnan."

Jiang Fan looked at the second girl, also fifteen years old, who possessed an Upper Grade Life Chart of insight.

Cultivators with such a Life Chart had a heart like a mirror, instantly perceive the flaws and intentions in an opponent's moves, and predict their next action.

In battle, Sword Intent flowed with mind, where the heart directed, the sword reached, with no hindrance.

No matter how complex the sword moves, with the talent of insight's blessing, one could counter and retaliate in the simplest and direct way, the sword stance was transparent and pure, without a trace of distraction.

It was said that she was also a born Sword Cultivator, extremely powerful in combat.

Once she embarked on the Sword Cultivation path, her progress would be swift and unstoppable.

Apart from these, the dozen other orphans all had different Life Charts but were at least Middle Grade Life Charts or above.

Undoubtedly, they were exceptional geniuses among cultivators.

"Is this the pull of destiny?"

"An Immortal Life Chart naturally attracts many geniuses."

"Making this girl a center of destiny."

"Also she is the big sister in this nursery hall, practically born to be a leader."

"If Ye Linglong grows up to become the Empress in the future, these companions might all be her main support."

Jiang Fan smacked his lips in admiration.

He came to realize what a Child of Destiny truly was, this was exactly a Child of Destiny.

In the early phase, it seemed ordinary and plain, but numerous prodigies had long gathered around them.

Once beginning to rise, they were unstoppable.

Though during the Void Realm period, he was referred to by ancient magical treasures and cultivators as a Child of Destiny, he knew he was not the Heavenly Dao's chosen Child of Destiny for the Void Realm.

The true Child of Destiny may belong to someone else.

But wherever they appear or who they are, he temporarily did not know.

However, he had done many things favorable to the Heavenly Dao of the Void Realm, naturally gaining Heavenly Dao's approval.

Chapter 876: Nascent Soul Perfection, Breaking the Infant and Transforming to Divinity (Part 2)

A vast destiny converged upon him.

Even though he was not the one appointed by the Heavenly Dao, the Heavenly Dao was not rigid either.

Whoever can save the Void Realm, whoever they might be, they are the Child of Destiny.

Thus, he was able to receive the boundless assistance of the Void Realm's destiny.

"Let's activate the Life Charts of these little ones first."

Jiang Fan's heart stirred.

With a gentle gesture, a stream of mysterious energy instantly penetrated these children's bodies.

Boom~~

In an instant, these children couldn't withstand this energy, collapsing one after another to the ground, falling into a deep slumber.

This sudden change caused Ye Linglong to jump in fright.

But soon, a voice sounded beside her ear: "Don't worry, they are just asleep. When they awaken, they will find their bodies have undergone a tremendous transformation."

"Is this the senior?!"

Upon hearing the voice, Ye Linglong's heart tightened. She hadn't expected that mysterious senior to have followed her here, and she had no idea what their true intentions were.

"These are some special Communication Talismans."

"As long as it's not a place cut off by cause and effect, you can communicate with each other."

"And it ignores distance and location."

"After refining them, you can contact each other. Take them."

Jiang Fan gifted some of the Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman's sub-talismans to Ye Linglong and others. Even in the Spirit Ruins Realm, communication was a significant issue, and there seemed to be no Cause and Effect Communication Immortal Talisman in this world.

Thus, this Immortal Talisman should have a significant impact in this world.

He also discovered the power of the Immortal Talisman, as its strength could have an effect even across two worlds. He could also use the power of the Communication Talisman to contact his Dao Companion far in the Void Realm, without any delay, which was extremely incredible.

"This."

Ye Linglong received the Communication Talisman, highly curious about these special talismans.

But before Ye Linglong could say anything, Jiang Fan quickly left.

Furthermore, he didn't plan to reside in Fengming City; instead, he intended to live and cultivate in the wilderness.

Since acquiring a residence or cave abode in Fengming City required resident status.

Which he didn't possess.

More importantly, he was about to break through to Divinity Transformation.

Once he ascends to Divinity Transformation, it will undoubtedly create a great stir.

Staying in Fengming City is not a good idea for him, as it might attract the attention of other cultivators.

So it's better to leave here.

After all, he possessed the Exquisite Tower, and could cultivate anywhere.

...

A year later.

Deep within the Fengming Mountain Range, a certain cave, inside the Exquisite Tower's internal world.

After a year of arduous cultivation, combined with refining some Tier Five Elixirs, Jiang Fan's cultivation advanced dramatically.

Now, his cultivation had skyrocketed, finally reaching the level of Nascent Soul Perfection.

Just a step away from breaking through to the Divinity Transformation Realm.

This made Jiang Fan feel quite satisfied.

After spending such a long time, he finally sees the hope of ascending to Divinity Transformation.

If successful, upon returning to the Void Realm, he would become a dominant force.

Even in the Spirit Ruins Realm, within the Great Thousand Worlds, Divinity Transformation Cultivators are considered elite. At least, they're not amateurs, and could even become rulers of a city.

"So this is Nascent Soul Perfection?"

Jiang Fan sat cross-legged on the ground, sensing the depths of his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi, where the Nascent Soul resided.

At this moment, the Nascent Soul matured completely, transforming into a complete infant, but not an ordinary infant, constructed entirely from pure energy, with no impurities.

Each breath from the Nascent Soul resonated with the spiritual qi between heaven and earth, invoking the vast power of the Nascent Soul.

"To break through to Divinity Transformation, one needs to condense the seed of the Primordial Spirit."

"Only then can the infant break to birth the Primordial Spirit."

"At that time, it will be a qualitative improvement and transformation."

"But during the breakthrough, one cannot stay in the Exquisite Tower but must be outside to undergo the breakthrough."

"Otherwise, it won't be able to attract the Celestial Tribulation."

Jiang Fan carefully contemplated his path to ascend to Divinity Transformation.

For him, ascending to Divinity Transformation seemed incredibly easy because his foundation was so solid.

The main concerns were the Heart Demon Tribulation, the Divinity Transformation Celestial Tribulation, and possibly even the Human Tribulation.

These tribulations are the primary causes for failing the Divinity Transformation.

However, where he was placed, he meticulously selected a remote area within the Fengming Mountain Range, where people seldom tread, typically avoiding other cultivators.

This maximizes the avoidance of the Human Tribulation, although it's not a hundred percent foolproof.

"Let's begin."

Jiang Fan didn't dwell on these issues, and began circulating the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture.

Immediately, spiritual qi surged from all directions, funneling into the depths of his Elixir Field and Sea of Qi.

His spiritual sense and magical power all converged in the depths of the Nascent Soul.

Compression, compression, continuously compressing.

At this moment, numerous talismans gathered together, starting to condense into a special seed.

And this was the seed of the Primordial Spirit.

For ordinary Nascent Soul Cultivators, condensing the seed of the Primordial Spirit is extremely challenging.

Firstly, it requires exceptionally pure, impurity-free magical power; secondly, it requires spirit sense at the Divinity Transformation Level. Only by combining these two can the seed of the Primordial Spirit be condensed.

Yet for Jiang Fan, this was remarkably easy.

He had already met and far exceeded the standards.

Ordinary cultivators can use the Primordial Spirit Pill and other elixirs to help themselves condense the seed of the Primordial Spirit.

Boom~~

In that instant, this seed of the Primordial Spirit began absorbing the boundless energy from the Nascent Soul. Endless energy from within the Nascent Soul was also absorbed into this seed, with dense Dao patterns appearing on its surface, containing infinite mysteries.

When the seed of the Primordial Spirit absorbed sufficient energy, it started to germinate.

Crack, crack~~

Instantly, the Nascent Soul fractured like glass, with cracks forming.

Then, pure blocks of energy swiftly entered the deepest part of this seed.

In merely a moment, this seed rapidly grew, like an infant maturing swiftly, growing into a youth, an adult, and finally into a mature man.

The Nascent Soul deep within the Elixir Field and Sea of Qi also underwent a metamorphosis, transforming into an adult male resembling Jiang Fan.

Primordial Spirit!

Undoubtedly, this was the Primordial Spirit!

And the Primordial Spirit is not merely a soul; it is an energy aggregate formed from magical power, soul, and other energies, comparable to the cultivator's second body.

For this reason, the Primordial Spirit can detach from its body and roam the heavens.

If a Nascent Soul leaves the body, it faces various tribulations between heaven and earth, and if it doesn't promptly possess another, it risks dissolving back into heaven and earth.

But the Primordial Spirit differs; its resilience against external tribulations is much stronger, enduring even thunderbolt assaults.

Even if a cultivator remains with only a Primordial Spirit, it can survive for a long time.

"So this is the Primordial Spirit? Truly formidable."

Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a chilling brilliance.

Upon sensing the moment he condensed the Primordial Spirit, his control over the Power of Heaven and Earth surged by more than tenfold, as if he had become the ruler of this realm.

With just a thought, he could mobilize infinite terrestrial energy, unleashing destructive might.

This was akin to being a deity in the human realm.

Simultaneously, his spiritual sense underwent transformation, becoming divine sense.

Only by condensing the Primordial Spirit can one harness the Power of Divine Sense.

"Moreover, this doesn't seem to be an ordinary Primordial Spirit."

"In the depths of the Primordial Spirit are embedded Life Talismans."

"Like armor, protecting the fragile Primordial Spirit."

Jiang Fan recognized the uniqueness within his Primordial Spirit.

If it were an ordinary Primordial Spirit, there would be no protective force.

But he practiced the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, incorporating numerous Life Talismans long ago.

Upon transforming into the Primordial Spirit, these Life Talismans became part of it, merging into the Primordial Spirit.

On the surface of his Primordial Spirit, numerous talismans appeared, such as Fortune-Telling Talisman, Celestial Respect Crown Talisman, Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman, Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman, Heaven-Destroying Sword Talisman, Heaven-Dominating Blade Talisman, and others.

Each talisman contained distinct power.

These Life Talismans formed layers of barriers, enveloping every corner of the Primordial Spirit.

This gave the Primordial Spirit exceptional defense.

Even if it ventured away from the body, its defensive ability was incredibly strong, capable of surviving for a long time.

Such is the power of the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture.

If it were an ordinary cultivation technique, this characteristic wouldn't exist.

Their Primordial Spirit wouldn't be so powerful.

Chapter 877: Like Divine Retribution, the Strongest Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation

"The catastrophe is coming."

At that moment, Jiang Fan sensed a movement in his heart.

He perceived the instant his primordial spirit within him coalesced successfully, an endless tremor erupted between heaven and earth, with tiny cracks suddenly appearing deep within the void.

Strands of demonic qi seeped out from these void cracks.

In just a matter of moments, the area spanning several thousand kilometers was enveloped by endless demonic qi, forming a demon realm.

A myriad of celestial demons were also drawn to Jiang Fan's primordial spirit aura.

"Haha, another human cultivator has ascended to divinity transformation."

"Jie jie, what a marvelous soul energy, this is a newly birthed primordial spirit."

"No way, is this for real? It's clearly a newborn primordial spirit, how can it be this powerful?"

"Opportunity, this is an unprecedented opportunity. If we devour this primordial spirit, our power will surely skyrocket."

"Devour him, devour this human primordial spirit immediately."

Hundreds of outer celestial demons swarmed towards him, instantly sensing the abundant primordial spirit aura emanating from Jiang Fan, an undeniable tonic akin to ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine.

In fact, the reason cultivators attract outer celestial demons during their breakthroughs is precisely because these demons fervently desire to devour pure soul energy, seeing it as akin to discovering a thousand-year, ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine.

Success would lead to a substantial surge in their power.

Thus, every cultivator's breakthrough draws a significant number of outer celestial demons.

And the primordial spirit nurtured by Jiang Fan was exceptionally potent, akin to ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine to these celestial demons.

It's no wonder they refuse to back down.

Rumble~~

In an instant, the overwhelming demonic qi shrouded these outer celestial demons, attempting to infiltrate Jiang Fan's body to provoke the heart demons deep within him, dragging him into an endless illusion realm.

If a cultivator's mind has gaps, they are easily snared, falling into the heart demon illusion realm with no way to extricate themselves.

Ultimately, these cultivators' souls would be entirely devoured by the celestial demons, becoming their sustenance.

"Hmm, there are also enemies."

Jiang Fan narrowed his eyes.

He initially believed the assault of these outer celestial demons was the entirety of the catastrophe, but suddenly, he sensed powerful demonic qi surging up not far away.

A group of black-robed demon cultivators appeared in an instant.

Their cultivation had indeed reached the early stage of divinity transformation.

Undoubtedly, these were five divinity transformation demon cultivators.

They had concealed themselves within the Phoenix Mountain Range, but upon sensing Jiang Fan's breakthrough aura, they awakened one by one and emerged to investigate.

"Tsk tsk, suddenly there are celestial phenomena, I wondered what it could be, turned out it was a Nascent Soul cultivator from the human race about to ascend to divinity transformation, but I didn't expect such a grand commotion, affecting tens of thousands of kilometers."

"Such a staggering breakthrough phenomenon, must be an unparalleled prodigy. But why does such an unparalleled prodigy choose to break through in the wilderness instead of within a city? Isn't he afraid of a catastrophe?"

"He probably experienced an epiphany, forcing him to choose this place to break through, but for us, this is a golden opportunity."

"Haha, that's right, such an unparalleled prodigy is certainly a disciple of some great power, the wealth he carries likely exceeds even that of typical divinity transformations. Slaughter this guy, and we will surely earn a fortune."

"Encountering the five of us, this must be this brat's fate. Today, this fellow will surely die here."

"Stop the nonsense, slaughter this brat to prevent any unforeseen events."

A total of five early-stage divinity transformation demon cultivators appeared here, their eyes fixed on Jiang Fan, revealing a greedy look, each one exuding terrifying murderous intent.

To them, this Nascent Soul cultivator about to break through was nothing less than a premium feast.

Of course, this brat possesses unparalleled talent, backed by a formidable power.

But as demon cultivators, they care little for such matters.

As long as they take out this brat and swiftly flee, even the forces behind him would have no chance of finding them.

"Not only has the Heart Demon Tribulation appeared, but also the Human Tribulation."

"Two kinds of tribulations appearing together."

"Is this the divinity transformation tribulation I must endure?!"

Jiang Fan narrowed his eyes.

Undoubtedly, if an ordinary Nascent Soul cultivator encountered such tribulations, it would be certain death.

But he remained utterly unperturbed, as destiny's prompt had not appeared.

This also signifies that destiny's prompt sees such tribulations as insignificant to him, merely trivial frost and snow, incapable of triggering even a hint of notification.

"Indeed, for an ordinary Nascent Soul cultivator, five early-stage divinity transformation demon cultivators are utterly irresistible."

"But for someone like me who has already ascended to Tier Five, such enemies are nothing."

"Moreover, I am under the protection of various magical treasures."

"Never mind, I should dispose of these guys swiftly."

"Because afterward, the Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation will also appear."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted with a trace of cold light.

Boom~~

In an instant, he activated his innate divine technique.

Seeing Me as Heaven!

The moment this innate divine technique was activated, an irresistible pressure surged forth like the heavens splitting and the earth opening, releasing with a roar, the emperor's aura between heaven and earth, transforming into tangible golden ripples expanding outward in all directions.

It was as if endless human destiny converged upon Jiang Fan's body, radiating a golden brilliance.

The void trembled slightly under this pressure, the vast sky like layers of glazed tiles hammered by a colossal mallet, generating endless ripples across the void.

Chapter 878: Like Divine Retribution, The Strongest Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation (Part 2)

This overwhelming pressure enveloped the vast territory at an incredible speed, causing those approaching Outer Celestial Demons and the murderous Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators to feel a tremor deep within their souls.

"What's going on? What happened?"

The numerous Celestial Demons and Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivators were suddenly stunned, completely unaware of what was happening.

To their astonishment, they found their bodies gripped by an invisible giant hand, then pinned down.

They were originally ferocious, intending to pounce on Jiang Fan and devour the soul of this human cultivator completely.

But in the next second, their knees buckled heavily into the dust, especially the five Demon Cultivators at the Early Stage of Divinity Transformation, they felt they couldn't withstand this terrifying Emperor's pressure, the sound of their bones cracking mixed with suppressed whimpers resounded ceaselessly.

More terrifying was that the Emperor's pressure directly assaulted their Sea of Consciousness, as if a mighty drum was being pounded at the depths of their souls, with "Boom—Boom—" sounds threatening to shatter their Primordial Spirits, stirring up apocalyptic illusions in their Sea of Consciousness.

"What a joke, I'm a Divinity Transformation Demon Cultivator, how could I kneel before a Nascent Soul Cultivator."

"Ahhh, I am an Outer Celestial Demon, a noble Celestial Demon, I cannot submit to this lowly human."

"What exactly has this human done to us?"

The various Outer Celestial Demons were terrified to the extreme.

They were originally formless, bodiless Celestial Demons, yet they were easily suppressed by this soul pressure.

Like vassals, they knelt before the Emperor.

Even raising their heads was an impossible feat.

For this would be a grave disrespect, a capital offense.

"It's over, this is over, we've hit a brick wall this time."

The five Demon Cultivators at the Early Stage of Divinity Transformation were terrified to the core.

The pressure they encountered was even more terrifying.

The Demonic Qi within them crumbled inch by inch under the pressure, numerous Demon Cultivators bled from their seven orifices, their eyes filled with fear stemming from deep within their bloodlines, their courage frozen under the pressure, leaving only instinctive prostration and trembling, with even the courage to look up and gaze shattered completely.

The whole world was suffused with resplendent golden light and boundless pressure, proclaiming the supreme majesty of the Emperor's authority.

At this moment, they knew they had hit a brick wall.

They finally began to realize, this was no opportunity, it was a catastrophe.

But moments ago, they were so bewildered by the vast Tribulation Qi in their hearts, they foolishly came over to die.

Isn't this asking for death?

"Die."

Jiang Fan glanced sideways, looking indifferently at the group of Outer Celestial Demons and Demon Cultivators.

He activated a Secret Treasure on his body—the Great Sun Buddha Mirror.

Undoubtedly, this Secret Treasure was the most suitable Magical Treasure to deal with this group of Outer Celestial Demons and Demon Cultivators, as it could unleash vast True Sun Fire, burning these dark creatures to death.

Not even ashes would remain.

And after he condensed his Primordial Spirit, activating the Great Sun Buddha Mirror could unleash even more might.

Swoosh!

The Great Sun Buddha Mirror roared and hung in the sky, its surface emitting a thousand golden rays, as if absorbing the sun from the nine heavens within.

In an instant, endless True Sun Fire erupted from the mirror, fiery red flames enveloped in resplendent golden glow, like thousands of fire dragons soaring to the sky.

The void trembled, as a thousand-zhang golden Buddha's phantom slowly emerged, the Buddha's face compassionate yet carrying undeniable majesty. Behind the Buddha, Buddha Light shone universally, reflecting the whole world like a world of glass.

Clusters of True Sun Fire condensed in the void, transforming into enormous Swastika Symbols, as the symbols circulated, they burst forth with dazzling light, where they passed, many substances were annihilated inch by inch, all Demonic Qi completely evaporated.

Meanwhile, from the depths of the void came waves of Buddhist chants, like loud gongs, divine music, every note containing supreme Buddhist teachings. As the chants echoed, the Outer Celestial Demons and Demon Cultivators howled in pain, their bodies' Demonic Qi rapidly melting under the dual assault of True Sun Fire and Buddhist chants, like snow encountering the blazing sun.

"Escape, hurry, this guy is a monster."

The various Outer Celestial Demons and five Demonic Cultivators at the Early Stage of Divinity Transformation were terrified to the point of wetting themselves, they felt the crisis of life and death.

At this moment, where would they dare to take advantage of the chaos to kill this human cultivator before them, now they were the ones facing disaster.

The problem is, isn't this kid a Nascent Soul Cultivator? How could he be so powerful?

Even the might unleashed by veteran Divinity Transformation Cultivators might not be more than this.

Unfortunately, it was already too late for them to escape.

Because the might unleashed by the Great Sun Buddha Mirror was too fast, too fast.

Before they could react, this terrifying destructive power had already come upon them.

The Celestial Demons and Demon Cultivators engulfed by the Swastika Symbols were instantly incinerated to ashes by the True Sun Fire. The crackling of flames, the wails of demons, and the Buddhist chants intertwined, composing an epic song of demon vanquishing.

Before long, these extremely arrogant Outer Celestial Demons and the five Demon Cultivators at the Early Stage of Divinity Transformation, under the might of the Great Sun Buddha Mirror, completely dissipated into the world, leaving behind a scene of peace and tranquility.

The Outer Celestial Demons who originally wanted to enter through the void fissure saw this scene, each one was scared out of their wits and quickly retreated, not daring to enter this world.

Although they did intend to devour the humans' Primordial Spirits, they weren't fools, knowing who they could provoke and who they couldn't.

If it was to die, they naturally wouldn't come in foolishly.

In merely a moment, the Demonic Qi that had originally spread for miles had all dissipated, as if completely annihilated by the True Sun Fire.

Chapter 879: Like Divine Retribution, the Strongest Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation (Part 3)

"Have I just overcome the Heart Demon Tribulation?!"

Witnessing this scene, the Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron was stunned, lost for words.

Ordinary Nascent Soul Cultivators often struggle immensely attempting to pass the Heart Demon Tribulation, sometimes facing numerous life-and-death crises.

But its master, on the other hand, directly killed all these Outer Celestial Demons.

What was even more terrifying was the appearance of the Divinity Transformation Human Tribulation, featuring five formidable early-stage Demon Cultivators.

No matter the Nascent Soul Cultivator, facing such enemies, death would be inevitable.

Yet now, in just a blink of an eye, these five early-stage Demon Cultivators have been burned alive.

Without even knowing their names.

It feels as though they came to die.

"Indeed."

At this moment, Jiang Fan took a deep breath, greatly satisfied with his innate divine power Seeing Me as Heaven, a divine skill comparable to Long Wei, a skill suitable for defeating weak foes.

Any being with a soul lacking strength will be forcibly controlled by this divine power.

They'd even kneel on the ground, motionless.

The weaker ones might faint, completely losing consciousness.

Even the Outer Celestial Demons found it hard to resist.

Boom~~

Instantly, Jiang Fan sensed pure soul energy emerging from the void, having slain this group of Outer Celestial Demons, he received a soul's gift.

This was the reward for overcoming the Heart Demon Tribulation, strands of pure energy seeped deeply into his Primordial Spirit, and he felt his Primordial Spirit grow larger compared to before.

His divine sense power was similar to that of a First-Layer Void Refining; advancing further requires substantial time and resources.

Now, with these gifts, he saved a lot of painstaking cultivation time, truly gaining great benefits.

"And the last ordeal remains, the Divinity Transformation Celestial Tribulation."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, lifting his head to gaze at the sky.

The heavens suddenly plunged into darkness, tribulation clouds, like swirling ink, churning and converging furiously at high altitude at a visible speed. Within moments, impossibly thick tribulation clouds covered over ten thousand kilometers, their fringe dark cloud threads resembling a death chain locking the entire land into a trial.

Strange purple lights occasionally flickered on the cloud surface, seeming to hold countless restless ancient fierce beasts.

Suddenly, an earth-shattering roar exploded, purple lightning serpents darted out from the depths of the tribulation clouds; agile figures roamed freely among clouds, leaving trails of glaring purple electric lights in their wake.

Soon, a more massive thunder dragon phantom slowly emerged, its body twisting and coiling, dragon scales glinting metallic cool light, dragon mouth wide, spraying waterfall-like purple thunder light downwards.

At another corner of the cloud, a Thunder Phoenix spread wings ablaze with purple electricity; each wing flap induced violent air tremors, with phoenix cries echoing endless pressure across the skies.

Purple thunder serpents, dragons, and phoenixes traversed, roared in the tribulation clouds, intertwining a terrifying yet magnificent spectacle. Their rumbles rose and fell like countless battle drums sounding simultaneously, shaking the ground, while distant mountains collapsed under this pressure.

"One hundred and eight strikes of Divinity Transformation Celestial Thunder, this is the most fearsome Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation ever."

Jiang Fan was deeply shaken.

He knew typical Divinity Transformation cultivator's thunder tribulation survived only forty-nine Celestial Thunders at most, slightly talented ones sixty-four, even immensely gifted ones faced merely eighty-one Celestial Thunders.

Yet now, appearing with one hundred and eight Celestial Thunders, proving extraordinarily terrifying.

This was not a celestial tribulation anymore, but a divine punishment.

Despite seeming merely twenty more Celestial Thunders, each additional amplifies its power.

This couldn't be endured by an ordinary Nascent Soul Cultivator.

Chapter 880: First-Layer Divinity Transformation, The Path of Divinity Transformation Cultivation

Of course, such a terrifying celestial tribulation naturally also shook the Phoenix Cry Mountain Range.

The many cultivators appearing in the Phoenix Cry Mountain Range witnessed this scene, all were deeply shocked.

"A Divinity Transformation Celestial Tribulation covering a hundred thousand kilometers, which family's peerless genius is crossing the tribulation in the Phoenix Cry Mountain Range?"

A Void Refining Cultivator was incomparably shocked.

Although he had seen even more terrifying celestial tribulations, he had never seen such a frightening Divinity Transformation Celestial Tribulation.

This is no longer a celestial tribulation, but a divine punishment.

Only when an extraordinary genius emerges in the world, will such a calamity be born.

Just like someone who owes debts of hundreds of billions, it might seem they are in debt, but not everyone has the ability to owe so much; a celestial tribulation is the same reasoning.

"Why don't we go and have a look, and see who exactly is crossing the tribulation?"

Someone suggested.

"Foolish, what do you think this is? This is a celestial tribulation."

"Once you step into the range of the celestial tribulation, you too will be enveloped by tribulation qi and regarded as a person crossing the tribulation by the heavenly dao."

"If you are a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, a Divinity Transformation Celestial Tribulation will descend, if you are Refining Void, a Refining Void Celestial Tribulation will come down."

"If you are an Integration Cultivator, then an Integration Celestial Tribulation will descend."

"Going inside, you are not watching a show, but seeking death."

Another cultivator sneered coldly, he thought the other was simply too ignorant, absolutely unaware of the horror of celestial tribulations.

It is precisely because of the attributes of celestial tribulations that no one dares to help others cross them.

Any celestial tribulation can only be crossed by relying on oneself.

If other cultivators help, the power of the celestial tribulation will increase instead.

"I never thought the celestial tribulation was so terrifying."

"But who exactly is this person, why cross the tribulation in the wilderness and not in the city?"

"Could it be that the person doesn't know crossing the tribulation in the city is better?"

Someone felt very puzzled, because they rarely saw someone choose to cross the tribulation in the wild, after all, the dangers encountered crossing the tribulation in the wilderness are too numerous, the success rate is very low.

Even noble descendants choose to cross the tribulation within the protection of their family elders.

And not choosing to cross the tribulation in the wilderness.

"Not sure, but there are two possibilities for this situation."

"The first is the person is a peerless genius of a family, currently traveling, but suddenly comprehends something, compelled to cross the tribulation in the Phoenix Cry Mountain Range."

"The second possibility is the person is actually a loose cultivator, but possesses extraordinary talent, with no elder protection, hence choosing to cross the tribulation in the wilderness."

"But regardless of which possibility, it proves the person's talent is exceptional."

A Void Refining Cultivator speculated.

Upon hearing this, many cultivators' eyes lit up.

They originally intended to leave, but now they wished to stay and wait.

Perhaps they could wait until the person finishes crossing the tribulation, and make acquaintance with such a peerless genius.

If it is a loose cultivator, then they could recruit.

Even if it is a noble descendant, it could mean expanding connections.

.....

Several days later.

The Phoenix Cry Mountain Range, within the tribulation crossing land.

This place was simply devastated, with tens to hundreds of mountain peaks collapsing, the ground appeared with massive deep pits, rubble scattered, and kilometers long cracks crisscrossing the earth.

The place seemed struck by catastrophic forces, filled with a aura of destruction.

Yet a figure stood firm in the center of the calamity, though clad in tattered clothes, still unwavering, with qi and blood like blazing suns, felt even miles away.

"Finally crossed the Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation."

The person was precisely Jiang Fan, who took a deep breath, his eyes flashing with a terrifying light.

The one hundred and eight divine thunders of Divinity Transformation were undeniably terrifying, even though he cultivated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, possessed many Life Talismans, along with numerous secret treasures aiding, it still left him extremely distressed.

Yet regardless, he managed to withstand it, thoroughly crossing the Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation.

The tribulation clouds in the sky completely dispersed.

Bang~~

In an instant, threads of Qi of Creation, like mountains collapsing and seas bursting, surged into Jiang Fan's body.

The injuries he suffered due to crossing the tribulation also swiftly healed.

More importantly, the magical power and spiritual power within him visibly increased.

Just these gifts of the heavenly way alone can save him a hundred years of arduous cultivation.

"So this is the gift of the heavenly way?"

"With this origin energy, advancing to Second-Layer Divinity Transformation should be quick."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists, feeling his body filled with violent magical power, the primordial magical power within rapidly increasing, although encountering unprecedented Divinity Transformation Thunder Tribulation, the benefits gained were astonishing.

His spiritual power also rose to the Second-Layer Void Refining.

Compared to before, unknown how much stronger he's become.

"Hmm? There are other cultivators coming?"

At this moment, Jiang Fan's heart moved, sensing numerous surrounding cultivators observing the tribulation crossing area.

After all, the movement of his tribulation crossing was too large, taking several days.

Though these cultivators dared not approach due to the celestial tribulation, now, with the tribulation ended, they naturally wished to come see the person crossing the tribulation.

However, Jiang Fan did not intend to meet these cultivators.

He was not a cultivator of this realm, and unfamiliar with their methods.

Hence, better not to have contact.

Fortunately, he possessed the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, such an Immortal Realm treasure.

Once activated, this treasure could conceal his aura and presence.

After advancing to First-Layer Divinity Transformation, the power of this treasure became even more formidable, not only Divinity Transformation Cultivators, but even Void Refining Cultivators, and possibly Integration Cultivators might not perceive his existence.
