Chapter 891: Turning Point of Fate, Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants (2)

It's truly unbelievable how one can survive in the Demon Realm and resist the invasion of Demonic Qi.

"We were only able to survive in the outside world thanks to the willow branches given by the Lord of Green Willow."

Zhu Ming took out a small segment of a green branch from his body, which seemed to create a special protective shield that isolated the invasion of external Demonic Qi.

Other human cultivators were the same, all carrying such branches on them.

"Green Willow?"

Jiang Fan raised a brow and continued to inquire further.

He quickly learned what the so-called Green Willow truly was—the guardian of Green Willow Village and the real ace protecting thousands of human cultivators.

It's a willow tree, but it's also a special Heaven and Earth Spirit Plant.

Although the power of demons is terrifying and the invasion of Demonic Qi is omnipresent, ordinary creatures cannot resist it, yet how could the Heavenly Dao of the Spirit Ruins Realm just stand by and do nothing?

Throughout the long years of evolution, countless plants rose and fell, cultivating special Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants in the Demon Realm with the ability to counter demons and purify Demonic Qi.

Their growth locations would form absolutely safe areas filled with dense Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, completely free from the impurities of Demonic Qi invasion.

Humans could also survive very safely in such environments.

These Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants are not only capable of purifying Demonic Qi but also of devouring the flesh of demons, using their flesh as nutrients to promote the growth of the Spirit Plants.

Because of this, Zhu Ming and others would choose to leave Green Willow Village to hunt demons outside.

As long as they bring back these demon corpses and place them in front of the willow tree, the tree can devour the flesh of these demons, leaving uncontaminated flesh behind.

With the willow tree's assistance, the people of Green Willow Village can eat the flesh of demons without any concern.

These demons, for the humans in the Demon Realm, are also considered a source of food.

But if they're unlucky, they could also be killed by the demons.

Over the years, many hunting teams have died at the hands of demons.

"Interesting, such Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants exist in the Demon Realm?"

Jiang Fan was a bit surprised.

No doubt, demons are not absolutely invincible.

Their pollution ability is indeed terrifying, but it is not unsolvable.

Life still holds unimaginable miracles.

Spirit Plants like the willow tree have emerged as a response to such challenges.

"Actually, similar occurrences have appeared in the Void Realm."

"Before the rise of Taixu Sect, the emergence of demons made all races retreat step by step, even the True Spirits retreated to their own territories, causing chaos in the Void Realm."

"During this time, some special Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants also emerged, capable of purifying areas polluted by demons."

"This drove the demons into utter madness, making every effort to destroy these Spirit Plants."

"Of course, they ultimately failed to succeed."

"If the problems hadn't arisen in the Immortal Realm, demons would not have been able to rampage in the Void Realm for such a long time."

The Primordial Talisman Pen spoke solemnly.

It had observed many shadows of the Ancient Era of the Void Realm from the current Spirit Ruins Realm.

The events that occurred once in the Void Realm seem to be replaying during this period.

History is always so similar.

"Sir, could you tell me where you come from?"

Zhu Ming curiously looked at Jiang Fan.

He sensed that this unfamiliar human cultivator before him was incredibly powerful, unmatched even by the village chief of Green Willow Village, as if he were a mighty demon.

Truth be told, he had met many strong individuals from human villages, but none could compare to this human powerhouse.

In fact, he had some vague guesses in the depths of his heart.

But until he heard Jiang Fan speak, he remained somewhat uncertain.

"I come from the Great Xuan Dynasty."

"Due to an accident, I ended up here."

Jiang Fan spoke straightforwardly, without concealing anything, nor did he need to.

"What!"

Zhu Ming's body trembled, his heart overwhelmed with shock, as waves surged within him.

Green Willow Village possessed numerous books and Inheritance Jade Scrolls, naturally aware of the existence of the Great Xuan Dynasty.

Legend has it that it's the empire unifying the Human Race.

Hundreds of millions of years ago, this area was once part of the Great Xuan Dynasty.

Unfortunately, due to demon invasions, this region became the Demon Realm.

He never expected that the Great Xuan Dynasty still existed and the Human Race hadn't completely vanished.

A rush of indescribable emotions quickly filled his heart.

Boom~~

In an instant, a message suddenly penetrated deep into Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness.

"Fate is always so wondrous, and calamities always come unexpectedly; no one can truly control their own destiny. You personally intervened to kill hundreds of Blood-eyed Demon Wolves and rescued the villagers of Green Willow Village, little knowing this would completely enrage the clan leader of the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Race; it's a Tier Five Demon, extremely powerful.

It has already learned of the deaths of its subordinates and is swiftly heading toward the site of the incident. If you don't make a decision soon, you will attract enormous trouble."

"Fate will provide you with guidance."

"Fate Tip One: Although the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf clan leader is a Tier Five Demon, extremely powerful, with your current strength, killing it is not a difficult task.

Why not take the initiative and intercept this Tier Five Demon halfway, so you can prevent potential disaster by nipping it in the bud and proactively eliminating the threat, eliminating calamity.

But this is the Demon Realm, territory of the demons, and the death of a Tier Five Demon will cause enormous trouble, definitely attracting more powerful demons.

Therefore, you shouldn't kill this Tier Five Demon, but rather seal it, so that other demons will find it hard to detect the perpetual disappearance of the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf clan leader, sparing you from attracting further troubles, preventing a massive calamity for Green Willow Village.

Sometimes killing is not the only solution."

"Fate Tip Two: Of course, you can also choose to utterly kill the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf clan leader, eradicate the demons in this area. The problem is, in the Demon Realm, every piece of territory has powerful demons guarding it.

If a demon dies, it will attract the attention of the demon kingdom, leading to more demons being sent to investigate, bringing you countless demons.

Even with your formidable strength, facing the relentless hunts of powerful demons could lead to an inevitable end; this would also implicate everyone in this area, resulting in their deaths at the hands of demons."

"Hmm?!"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, never expecting that merely killing a group of demons would stir a Tier Five Demon; clearly, the demons in the Demon Realm have formed a vast kingdom.

Their internal organization is very stringent, similar to human kingdoms.

These Tier Five demons are like this region's lords, responsible for guarding this area.

If these demons don't die, naturally, they won't attract any attention from demon kingdoms, but once they die, high-tier demons will come to investigate.

It's like if Fengming City's City Lord suddenly died, it would certainly draw the attention of the Great Xuan Dynasty.

In the Demon Realm, it's indeed true.

So, in this region, having strength alone is not sufficient for survival.

If unaware of the rules here, indiscriminate demon killing will lead to big troubles.

Then, countless high-tier demons will assault, regardless of how many lives you have, you'll end up dead.

"So now, the only plan is to seal the demon, rather than kill it?"

"Fortunately, I also possess methods to seal demons."

"Otherwise, there would genuinely be no way to handle them."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He owned ten Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans, each with different powers, among which the Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman is a special talisman capable of sealing demons.

This talisman can condense into a Heaven-Suppressing Ring, once placed on an enemy, no matter who the enemy is or what abilities they possess, they will be suppressed, rendered immobile.

However, since he is now only a First-Layer Divinity Transformation cultivator, the condensed Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman can seal only Tier Five and below-tier creatures.

Therefore, dealing with a Tier Five Demon is actually not out of the question.

If he couldn't handle it, he would simply have to escape.

Fortunately, the situation hasn't reached the worst-case scenario yet.

Chapter 892: Effortless Crossing the Tribulation, Gaining a First-Grade Opportunity

"Sir, what's happening?"

Zhu Ming noticed the change in Jiang Fan's expression and couldn't help but ask.

"Oh, a demon is rushing towards us quickly."

"I'll go meet it first."

"You all should stay here for now."

Jiang Fan said calmly, and with a flicker of his figure, he disappeared from there in an instant.

"This..."

Upon hearing these words, Zhu Ming and the others were bewildered, unsure of what Jiang Fan meant.

They didn't know whether to stay here or head back to Green Willow Village.

For a moment, everyone was hesitant and indecisive.

However, Jiang Fan's figure soon vanished from their sight.

.....

At the same time, in a certain valley.

This was where the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Race resided, and their clan leader was named Cang Ya, a Tier Five Early Stage demon.

"Damn it, this time the demon race invaded the human race, but they didn't let my Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Race fight."

"And they even made me stay guard in the Demon Realm."

"Are they underestimating my Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Race?"

Clan leader Cang Ya gritted his teeth in frustration.

He knew that during this period, the demon race had prepared a super plan, setting up thousands of Demon Caves within human territory.

A large number of demons passed through the Demon Caves to reach human territory, aiming to make their mark.

But only the elite demons were allowed to join this war.

This made him extremely angry.

Because he considered himself an elite demon too.

If he had the chance to enter human territory and devour a few human Divinity Transformation Cultivators, his cultivation would quickly break through, ascending to Tier Five Perfection without any problem.

If luck favored him, he might even step into the level of Tier Six demons.

Undoubtedly, this war was an unprecedented opportunity for many demons.

After all, those high-tier human cultivators were like ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine.

If they were slain and devoured, the demons' cultivation would surely advance by leaps and bounds.

Because of this, many demons were eager to join the war, each desiring to participate.

Unfortunately, the demon race still needed some demons to stay guard in the territory, and he was one of those left behind.

This made him furious, feeling he had missed a great opportunity.

"Hmm, what's going on? How could a Blood-eyed Demon Wolf be killed?"

"Who has the audacity to hunt my clansmen on my turf?"

Suddenly, clan leader Cang Ya seemed to perceive something. He had a bloodline connection with every Blood-eyed Demon Wolf. If any of them died, he would know immediately.

If it were a usual time, the death of a few Blood-eyed Demon Wolves wouldn't matter, as new ones would be born over time.

But unfortunately, this incident happened when he was in a bad mood, which made him extremely infuriated, feeling the enemy was clearly slapping him in the face, mocking him.

Swoosh!

In an instant, the massive Blood-eyed Demon Wolf flew out of its lair, its body turning into a blood-red light, heading towards the place where the Blood-eyed Demon Wolves had died.

He had to find the culprit who dared to kill his clansmen and rip them to pieces, only then would he be able to vent the fury boiling inside.

"What?!"

But as he ran halfway, he suddenly stopped, discovering a human cultivator blocking his path, leaving him shocked.

After all, this was the Demon Realm. How could there possibly be a high-tier human cultivator here? What on earth was happening?

"Finally appeared, have you?"

The person was, of course, Jiang Fan. The moment he sensed the Tier Five demon, he took action immediately.

Although he also wished to seal it right away, that was nearly impossible. He had to gravely injure it first to seal it completely.

Heavenly Glory Bracelet Talisman!

In an instant, he activated a Life Talisman that he carried.

This was one of the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talismans, an ultimate treasure of extreme hardness, indestructible, capable of changing sizes, and when thrown, could ravage everything, possessing the power to stir the seas and shake the universe.

It was the most apt Spirit Talisman to deal with this Tier Five demon.

Swoosh!

The Heavenly Glory Bracelet Talisman vibrated violently, as if an ancient behemoth had awakened, soaring into the sky. Its surface burst with golden light, too dazzling to look at, transforming into a thick golden bracelet hovering in mid-air the next moment.

The golden runes on the bracelet flowed like living beings, sometimes gathering into ferocious beast heads, sometimes morphing into ancient divine symbols, buzzing with a world-destroying force, swiftly reaching the front of the Tier Five demon.

"What's happening?"

The Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Cang Ya's expression changed drastically. It sensed the destructive aura contained within the golden bracelet, knowing even its demon body couldn't withstand it.

However, it also realized the talisman was locked onto its aura, leaving no room for escape or evasion.

The talisman moved at an incredibly fast speed.

Before it could react, the force hit its head hard.

Dong!

Originally, its head was extremely hard, like a diamond, but now, struck by the Heavenly Glory Bracelet, it was as fragile as a watermelon, instantly shattered.

A terrifying force erupted suddenly, and its massive body flew backward like a kite with a broken string, drawing a trail of blood in the air before crashing heavily to the ground.

Chapter 893: Crossing the Tribulation with Ease, Obtaining a First-Grade Opportunity (2)

Boom~~

The earth seemed unable to withstand this force and instantly burst open.

A massive pit, a hundred feet in diameter, suddenly appeared, with cobweb-like cracks spreading madly from the center, resembling a wound on the cracked earth, constantly making the sharp sound of breaking stones.

Even a thousand miles away, one could see the ground upheaving violently, as if the earth was groaning in pain, startling countless demon birds into chaotic flight in the sky.

The surrounding mountains collapsed with a roar, rocks pouring down like a torrential rain, dust obscuring the sun, shrouding a hundred miles in a haze of chaos.

The Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Clan Leader had long since been torn to pieces, its mutilated limbs and flesh scattered in the pit, staining the ground a gruesome crimson, a truly tragic sight.

At the same time, the aftermath of the Honor Heaven Bracelet continued to rage, the trembling ground did not stop for a long time, occasionally the rumbling sound of landslides could still be heard from afar.

It was imaginable how terrifying this power that could strike down everything truly was.

"As expected, still not dead."

"The demon body is hard to obliterate."

Jiang Fan raised an eyebrow.

He suddenly saw the bloodied and torn Blood-eyed Demon Wolf, whose surrounding flesh began to wriggle swiftly, and within just one breath, it restored itself to its original form.

It was imaginable how desperate other cultivators facing such an undying demon would be.

Without the right means of restraint, one simply could not do anything to these demons.

Fortunately, he possessed a similar means, so his heart was very calm, not feeling like it was a big deal.

"Damn human."

"Dare to attack me."

"You're dead, completely dead, I must tear you to pieces."

The Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Cang Ya was furious, it was the first time it had been beaten so miserably by a human cultivator.

Clearly, this human cultivator was only at the Divinity Transformation level, yet presented a crushing posture against itself, which was unheard of, but this was just a sneak attack.

Now it had reacted, and it was absolutely impossible for this damn human to inflict a second harm.

However, Jiang Fan did not waste a single word with it, and once again activated the second Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman.

Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman!

In an instant, the Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman transformed into a stream of light and shot up to the sky, bursting with golden light, transforming into a golden ring ten feet in diameter, hanging in the sky.

The surface of the ring was densely covered with runes like a reverse galaxy, emitting a faint blue light, as if countless ancient proverbs were flowing upon it.

"What?!"

The Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Cang Ya, upon seeing this, bristled with its hair standing on end, sensing a fatal crisis.

Sadly, it had just suffered serious injuries, consuming a lot of its magic power inside, and could not make any response, only watching helplessly as the golden ring approached.

The moment the Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman descended, the runes suddenly erupted with dazzling bright light, transforming into thousands of chains like spirit snakes coming out of their holes, precisely binding the neck, limbs, and horns of the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf.

Wherever the chains passed, the demonic qi dissipated like snow in boiling soup.

"Damn human, what exactly do you want to do to me?"

"What vile thing do you want to do to the great demon?"

The Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Cang Ya let out a thunderous roar, black mist surging around it, trying to break the chains.

However, the rune chains bizarrely penetrated its flesh upon touching the skin, reaching deep into the veins, and wisps of runes transformed into light dots that penetrated its brow, spreading towards the depths of its soul.

"Seal."

Jiang Fan looked calmly at the other, continuing to mobilize the power of the Heaven-Suppressing Ring Talisman.

The golden ring continuously shrank, and the layers of rune chains continued to wrap around tighter and tighter.

"What on earth is this thing?"

The Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Cang Ya twisted its body painfully, its claws frantically scratching the void, trying to break free from the bind, but the chains only tightened more and the rune light became ever more glaring.

Ultimately, in a roar of unwillingness, it was completely sealed, with its demonic power also bound within the ring.

Even its consciousness slipped into slumber, completely fainting, losing all resistance.

Swoosh!

At this point, Jiang Fan moved with a thought, immediately throwing this Tier Five Demon into the second layer of the Exquisite Tower's world, temporarily imprisoning it, as the opponent could not die for the moment to avoid alerting other demons in this Demon Realm.

"Sealing a Tier Five Demon with just a wave of the hand, truly impressive."

The Human Emperor Sword, witnessing this scene, was immediately amazed.

Having lived countless ages as an Immortal Artifact, it had seen many Daoists.

But never had it seen a Daoist so terrifying, solving a Tier Five Demon so casually.

Such an event was extremely rare, even in the ancient times.

"This is the power of the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture."

"Of course, it is also the power of the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talisman."

"The more Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans mastered, the more terrifying the power unleashed."

"Now he only mastered ten talismans, if he mastered more, the power would probably continue to skyrocket."

"The further cultivated to the later stages, the more terrifying the power becomes."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said with great emotion.

In a certain way, the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture could be considered a post-period cultivation technique, the later the cultivation, the more dreadful the power.

Especially for cultivators like Jiang Fan, who had mastered numerous Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans, could be said to be invincible in the same level in the future, even challenging across levels would not be a hard task.

Indeed, generally, even if Jiang Fan had such ability, he would easily challenge across levels.

Being able to bully the weak or in larger numbers, why do so at risk?

"Exactly."

Jiang Fan also felt quite satisfied, as in this battle he did not use any Magical Treasure, only his Life Talisman, yet easily subdued a Tier Five Demon.

It could be imagined how much his combat power had increased.

For him, the Life Talisman was the foundation of his power, various Magical Treasures were just external things.

"Master, why not kill this demon? Instead, seal it?"

"A dead demon is a good demon."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell said solemnly.

It hated all demons, believing their death would be the best thing for the world.

Merely sealing it, a great hidden threat would remain in the future.

"This is the Demon Realm, the main base for demons."

"The demons inhabiting here are organized and powerful."

"Killing this Tier Five Demon would be like poking a hornet's nest."

"At that time, many demons would swarm in here."

"We are not very familiar with this place; it is not suitable to make a big move now."

Jiang Fan explained.

"You're right, kill the small, here comes the big."

"Simply endless."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron said with great feeling, it had suffered a lot from this.

In the days of Daoist Wan Hua, it suffered much from the enemy's chase.

The enemy was simply endless, killing them was like never ending.

Unlike its current master, after defeating the enemy, the forces behind the enemy had no idea who did it, allowing for a carefree existence without worrying about being pursued by foes.

If Daoist Wan Hua had known this, life wouldn't have been so tough, making enemies all over the world.

"Hmm."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell remained silent, agreeing with this point.

After all, this was not the territory of the Human Race, but the Demon Race's territory, being careful was naturally the necessary thing.

Otherwise, one might get surrounded by demons and die without a corpse.

Even if wanting to kill demons, there was no need to rush now.

The master's decision was indeed correct.

Boom~~~

At this moment, a message instantly entered deep into his sea of consciousness: "You encountered a terrifying Tier Five Demon, after a tough battle, finally completely sealing it, preventing many subsequent troubles, you successfully overcame a great calamity, gaining eight million Luck Points, and one First-Grade Opportunity."

"First-Grade Opportunity?!"

Jiang Fan touched his chin, feeling very surprised, eight million Luck Points was naturally a lot, but a First-Grade Opportunity was also extraordinary, already the best opportunity in the Mortal World, not easy to obtain.

Moreover, this First-Grade Opportunity was on this Tier Five Demon.

Frankly, it was shocking, just a mere Tier Five Demon, what qualifies it to carry a First-Grade Opportunity.

More importantly, demons are notoriously poor.

As demons possess strong corrosive and eroding power, if elixirs, spirit medicines, and other treasures fall into their hands, they would be corroded and lose their effectiveness completely.

Even defeating demons would not yield much harvest.

Chapter 894: Reincarnation Immortal Talisman

Of course, with the Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron, the Exquisite Tower, and other magical treasures on him, he can purify demon bodies and turn waste into treasures, making him somewhat better than other cultivators, at least not leaving empty-handed.

But to obtain other treasures from the bodies of demons, that is really too difficult.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate and immediately took the storage bag from this Tier Five Demon's body.

He gently swept it with his divine sense.

Inside the storage bag, there was an abundance of special ore, but no spirit medicines or elixirs, which are of little help to human cultivators.

However, he quickly discovered that amidst the pile of ore, there was a black fist-sized stone hidden.

Undoubtedly, this black stone was the First-Grade Opportunity.

"Is this really the First-Grade Opportunity?"

"It's just an ordinary ore, why is it a First-Grade Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan was bewildered, feeling very perplexed.

Suddenly, he held the black stone in his palm and gently squeezed it.

With a cracking sound, the black stone couldn't bear such immense strength and shattered instantly, splitting into pieces.

Immediately, a special talisman appeared before him.

"So that's it, this is the First-Grade Opportunity."

"Moreover, this is not an ordinary talisman, it is an Immortal Talisman."

Jiang Fan was ecstatic with joy.

He had previously obtained two Immortal Talismans, one for Immortality and the other for Cause and Effect Communication.

Because of this, he instantly recognized the true origin of this talisman.

It must be an Immortal Talisman from the Immortal Realm.

No wonder this Tier Five Demon didn't recognize its worth; the talisman was concealed within a black stone.

If he couldn't sense the opportunity, he might not have found this Immortal Talisman.

"No way, this is the Reincarnation Immortal Talisman."

"I've struck it rich, truly struck it rich this time."

"How could you come across such an Immortal Talisman? It's truly unbelievable."

The Primordial Talisman Pen exclaimed in excitement upon seeing this talisman.

It couldn't believe what it was witnessing, feeling a profound shock within.

"Reincarnation Immortal Talisman? What effect does this talisman have?"

Jiang Fan curiously asked.

He was still not as knowledgeable as the Primordial Talisman Pen, so he humbly sought guidance.

"Its effects are enormous, too enormous."

"Once this Immortal Talisman is integrated into the soul, even if one dies, they can reincarnate nine times."

"Even after successful reincarnation, one will retain the memories of past lives."

"Having this talisman is equivalent to having nine lives, nine chances to start over."

"It can be said that this talisman is even more precious than the Immortality Talisman."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed deeply.

It had never thought it would witness such a legendary Immortal Talisman.

Even in the Immortal Realm, this talisman is extremely rare, invaluable beyond measure.

After all, not every Immortal can casually craft it.

Although the Immortality Talisman grants eternal life, it has significant flaws, namely the inability to progress in cultivation.

But the Reincarnation Immortal Talisman is different; possessing this talisman is equivalent to having nine lives, and one can restart again and again, almost certainly becoming an Immortal.

Whereas the Immortality Talisman at most allows someone to linger in the Mortal World.

Furthermore, if a catastrophe is encountered, one would still die if killed.

In comparison, the Reincarnation Immortal Talisman is far superior.

"How do you know about such a talisman?"

Jiang Fan curiously asked.

"Naturally, it is known from the Immortal Realm's records."

"It's said that this talisman is incredibly precious even in the Immortal Realm."

"Only a few big figures in the Immortal Realm can obtain it and then bestow it upon their descendants."

"With this talisman, you can reincarnate repeatedly until you become an Immortal."

"It can be said that upon obtaining this talisman, becoming an Immortal is almost guaranteed."

"After all, with nine rebirth opportunities, even a pig could succeed."

"You're truly blessed with fortune. Just by sealing a Tier Five Demon, you've obtained such a talisman, it's truly exaggerated."

The Primordial Talisman Pen sighed.

Initially, it thought this kid just had good luck and fortunes in the Void Realm.

Unexpectedly, after coming to the Spirit Ruins Realm, his fortunes improved even more.

Since the Ancient Era, countless cultivators have longed for this Reincarnation Immortal Talisman.

But now, this kid just seals a Tier Five Demon and gets such a treasure.

If other cultivators knew, they'd probably be enraged, the disparity among individuals is simply too vast.

"Isn't this to be expected? The master is destined."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron said smugly.

For it, the better the master's fortunes, the better for it.

The two had long become one, mutually complementing each other.

Now having obtained the Reincarnation Immortal Talisman, it's destined for immortality.

"Indeed."

Jiang Fan nodded, immediately storing away the talisman.

Although he felt that based on his abilities, he could achieve immortality without reincarnation, this talisman could become one of his trump cards.

After all, no one can predict what unexpected events might occur in the future.

Perhaps one day he will need to rely on this talisman to survive.

In any case, the more trump cards, the better.

However, he didn't expect to gain such benefits in this Demon Realm.

Chapter 895: Reincarnation Immortal Talisman (2)

Originally, he thought that being transported to the Demon Realm meant he was out of luck.

Unexpectedly, there was great opportunity intertwined with misfortune here.

In some ways, coming here might be a bit safer.

After all, a large number of demons are attacking the Great Xuan Dynasty, with the two races at war.

This means that the Human Race's territory isn't as safe as imagined.

If he had stayed in the Great Xuan Dynasty, he might have been conscripted into the army and sent to the battlefield.

But coming to this Demon Realm is different.

On the surface, the Demon Realm is filled with demons everywhere, but due to the war, the high-tier demons have long since left.

Those remaining in the Demon Realm are likely just ordinary demons, so the threat isn't as significant.

Furthermore, with the Exquisite Tower, he can completely practice inside it.

So there's no need to worry about the poor cultivation environment here.

"Let's go check out Green Willow Village first."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin, still curious about the human settlements in the Demon Realm.

Whoosh!

His figure flickered, and he quickly returned to the side of the Green Willow Village villagers.

Due to the short duration of the battle, Brother Zhu and others hadn't left either.

"Sir, you're back."

Brother Zhu and the others were overjoyed to see Jiang Fan return.

They too had sensed the extremely terrifying battle fluctuation just now, sweeping across the Nine Heavens and Ten Lands, causing the earth to tremble and spanning thousands of miles, making them very concerned for Jiang Fan's safety.

Although they had never met Jiang Fan before, and today was their first meeting, since he's a human cultivator, they naturally didn't wish to see him perish at the hands of demons.

So they were very happy to see Jiang Fan return.

After all, survival in this era is extremely challenging for humans.

They also didn't want any high-tier cultivators of the Human Race to fall.

That would be a huge loss for the Human Race.

"Just some demons, nothing worth mentioning."

"Let's head to Green Willow Village first."

Jiang Fan waved his hand and immediately said.

"Sure, sir, follow me."

Brother Zhu nodded and immediately led the way.

In just half an hour, under the guidance of Brother Zhu and the others, Jiang Fan arrived at a towering unnamed mountain peak, thousands of meters high and part of a vast mountain range spanning thousands of kilometers.

The group arrived at a cave on the mountain and immediately walked inside.

"Is Green Willow Village inside the cave?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

"That's right. Ever since demons took this land, there's hardly been any place for the Human Race to stand."

"To survive, we can only find hidden places."

"Some villages live deep underground, some in caves, and some are said to occupy a Secret Realm World to escape demon pursuit."

"Our Green Willow Village is inside a massive mountain range. We dug out a huge space inside, using the thick mountains to hide from demon pursuit."

Brother Zhu said with much emotion.

It's actually thanks to the first generation of Green Willow Village villagers. When the demons first invaded, there were still many high-tier cultivators, with boundless magical powers and vast Divine Powers.

They could naturally build hidden sanctuaries.

But as time passed, high-tier cultivators gradually used up their lifespan, and the new generation of human cultivators grew weaker, unable to build new sanctuaries.

Currently, the strongest in Green Willow Village is the village chief, Shi Hao, a Golden Core Cultivator who can live for five hundred years.

But even so, to the demons, they are still just food, nothing worth mentioning.

"I see."

Jiang Fan nodded.

After entering the cave, he discovered eighteen tunnels inside, but only one led to Green Willow Village. The others were fake, leading to traps.

Under Brother Zhu's guidance, they naturally found the only real passage.

Soon the group returned to Green Willow Village.

At the tunnel's end, many villagers were stationed to prevent demons from invading.

"Brother Zhu, you're finally back."

"You really scared us, being gone so long, we thought you died out there."

"My goodness, what happened? How did you bring back so many Blood-Eyed Demon Wolves?"

"How many are there, three hundred, five hundred? What did you guys experience?"

Many villagers were thrilled to see Brother Zhu and the others return.

But they quickly noticed the hunting team had brought back an unprecedented number of demon carcasses.

Each hunt typically yielded a dozen at most, which was already a great harvest.

Now, over a hundred Blood-Eyed Demon Wolves were brought back, which was unimaginable.

"Haha, this wasn't our doing."

"We just got lucky and met a great person."

Brother Zhu laughed and said to everyone.

What?!

Upon hearing this, the villagers finally noticed Jiang Fan.

After all, Green Willow Village isn't that large, and villagers all know each other.

So, a newcomer was quite noticeable.

"An outsider? Are you from another village?"

"Can't be, it's been over a hundred years since we last encountered people from other villages."

"I thought other villages had long been extinguished, but never expected to meet another human."

All the villagers looked at Jiang Fan with curiosity.

Because they hadn't seen humans other than those from Green Willow Village for a long time, Jiang Fan was the first in a hundred years.

"Don't chat here, let's continue inside the village."

At this moment, a strong voice sounded, as an elder in a white robe arrived, none other than Shi Hao, the village chief of Green Willow Village.

He looked at Jiang Fan with bright eyes, seemingly wanting to say something, but remained silent.

"Yes, Chief."

The villagers made way at these words.

A group quickly moved the demon carcasses, everyone in high spirits.

With so much demon meat, they could now secure a large amount of food.

This was a great gain for Green Willow Village, enough to sustain more people.

"Sir, please come this way."

Shi Hao respectfully said to Jiang Fan.

As a Golden Core Cultivator, he could feel the unfathomable aura on Jiang Fan.

It far exceeded the Golden Core Level.

Someone of this caliber could likely destroy the entire village with a single thought.

Fortunately, he felt no malice from this aura.

Instead, it was full of goodwill.

This reassured him greatly.

Perhaps Green Willow Village's future turning point lay with this mysterious cultivator.

Swish, swish, swish!!

Following Chief Shi Hao for a short while, Jiang Fan soon arrived at a stone house.

In fact, every building in Green Willow Village was made of stone.

Stone was the most readily available material here.

The area was also filled with Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, unaffected by Demonic Qi pollution.

Unfortunately, the Spiritual Qi concentration was only Tier Three.

This limit meant only Golden Core Cultivators could emerge.

No wonder cultivators of Green Willow Village were so few.

"I didn't expect you to be from the Great Xuan Dynasty, sir."

"Arriving here due to an accident."

Soon, Chief Shi Hao learned of Jiang Fan's origins, greatly shaken inside.

The village's ancient texts mention the Great Xuan Dynasty, but it was a human empire from billions of years ago.

Many village elders believed it was long gone.

Yet, to know it still existed elsewhere was deeply shocking.

It also brought tears to his eyes, acknowledging that humanity hasn't been lost.

It still struggles to survive elsewhere.

"Chief, why do you trust me so much?"

"Aren't you worried I'm lying?"

Jiang Fan asked curiously.

He felt it odd for someone to trust a stranger blindly, believing everything said.

It seemed too naive.

"Sir, though I'm not as powerful as you."

"I have a special skill, recognizing good from evil, truth from lies."

"So your words are trustworthy."

Chief Shi Hao smiled slightly.

What?!

Hearing this, Jiang Fan raised an eyebrow, wondering if the elder possessed a unique Life Chart?!

He instinctively realized that this village might not be as simple as it seemed.

Chapter 896: A New Immortal Destiny, The Second Child of Destiny

Boom~~

Jiang Fan's heart stirred, and he immediately activated the Divine Skill of Heavenly Son's Qi Observation.

Instantly, he saw threads of Destiny converging on the village chief, Shi Hao.

Numerous strands of Destiny coalesced into a Life Chart: Discernment of Right and Wrong.

"Middle Grade Life Chart: Discernment of Right and Wrong. Ability: It enables the bearer to discern the good and evil, right and wrong of living beings, and see through illusions, making it difficult to be deceived by illusion techniques. To some extent, it can also reveal the path one should take in their cultivation."

Perceiving this information, Jiang Fan narrowed his eyes, not expecting that this old village chief actually possessed a Life Chart, and it was a Middle Grade one at that.

No wonder he could become the only Golden Core Cultivator in Green Willow Village.

Moreover, he managed the village in perfect order, thriving and prosperous.

The ability to discern right from wrong is an ideal match for a manager.

Hence, this elder holds such high prestige.

"Even Zhu Ming possesses a Life Chart?!"

Jiang Fan also glanced at the hunting team leader, Zhu Ming.

"Lower Grade Life Chart: Courageous and Fearless. Ability: It makes the bearer fearless, undaunted by illusion and terror, always enveloped by courage, while also doubling their combat power."

Although it's just a Lower Grade Life Chart, the ability it contains is not simple.

Not being deceived by illusions and doubling combat power are sufficient to prove the value of this Life Chart.

No wonder he could become a Foundation Establishment Cultivator and even the hunting team leader of Green Willow Village.

It is precisely because of this Life Chart that his combat prowess is extraordinary.

"Grandpa."

"Is this the visiting human cultivator?"

At this moment, a seven or eight-year-old boy ran in from outside, with rosy lips and white teeth, looking curiously at Jiang Fan, seemingly wanting to know if this visiting cultivator really had three heads and six arms.

"Lord Jiang, I'm truly sorry."

"This is my grandson, Shi Ping'an."

The village chief, Shi Hao, looked apologetic towards Jiang Fan, never expecting his grandson to suddenly rush in, fearing the visiting cultivator might be upset.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan's consciousness shivered slightly, and he immediately saw boundless golden Destiny converging on this young boy, much like a coiling dragon, then forming a Life Chart.

"Immortal Grade Life Chart: Devour Heaven and Earth. Ability: It allows the bearer to devour many materials of the world, even allowing the absorption of these materials' properties to strengthen their physique. With this ability, even in the Land of No Spirits, one could become an Immortal through consuming earth."

Perceiving this information, Jiang Fan felt a storm surging in his heart, never expecting to see a bearer of an Immortal Grade Life Chart in Green Willow Village, a truly unique Life Chart.

Furthermore, those with an Immortal Grade Life Chart almost always become a Child of Destiny.

Originally, he thought only Ye Linglong was the sole Child of Destiny, who would have imagined there was a second one.

But upon reflection, this was only reasonable.

If it were a weaker world, limited by Destiny and resources, naturally, there couldn't be more than one Child of Destiny. However, in a Great Thousand Worlds like the Spirit Ruins Realm and the Void Realm, their territory is truly vast, considered boundless, with resources countless, so creating multiple Children of Destiny is rightly expected.

Moreover, multiple Children of Destiny appearing can make the Spirit Ruins Realm much safer, helping it to endure numerous calamities, for a single Child of Destiny is actually far from enough.

"Wait, could my coming here not be by chance?"

"But guided by the Spirit Ruins Realm's Heavenly Dao's Destiny?"

"The purpose is to protect this Child of Destiny's growth?"

"In that case, have I become the elder accompanying a Child of Destiny?!"

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan had a rather odd expression, unsure what to say, realizing it's now his turn to become the caretaker for the Child of Destiny, then fostering their growth.

However, he didn't mind such events, as it promised him significant benefits as well.

He had a premonition that the more Life Charts he activated, the deeper his foundation would be.

So even without Destiny guiding him to contact the Child of Destiny, he would actively seek contact.

"The Life Chart is actually Devour Heaven and Earth. Truly incredible."

"Its ability is to devour many earthly substances."

"Even using these substances to enhance one's constitution."

"This is practically the strongest body refinement physique in the world."

"It means whatever you eat, you supplement with."

"Even demons can be devoured."

"If that's the case, the Demon Realm indeed is the place for this boy's rise."

"For him, those immortal demons are all spirit medicine for his growth."

Jiang Fan marveled inwardly.

He instantly realized the terrifying nature of this Immortal Grade Life Chart.

Ordinary cultivators naturally dread the demonic corruption and invasive nature of demons, but for Shi Ping'an, they pose no fear. Instead, they are his nemesis.

To Shi Ping'an, demons are his food, even his Body Tempering Spirit Medicine.

In the future, he might rely on devouring demons to prove his path.

Though this matter is for the future.

After all, in the early stages, such a special Life Chart is still relatively weak.

Encountering slightly stronger demons might result in being killed, giving no opportunity to survive into later stages.

Chapter 897: A New Immortal Destiny, the Second Child of Destiny (2)

Therefore, a Child of Destiny must have a Guardian, at least to protect him through his vulnerable period.

That way, there is a chance for growth.

"No way, could it be that the Heavenly Dao of this world sent me here just to protect this kid through his early weak phase?"

"Without me, this kid, no, the entire Green Willow Village might have perished at the hands of the Blood-Eyed Demon Wolves."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He thought such a thing was likely to happen.

After all, if Zhu Ming and the others hadn't encountered him, they would have been doomed.

Even if someone stayed behind to hold back the Blood-Eyed Demon Wolves and some people survived, doing so would instead bring a catastrophic disaster to Green Willow Village, attracting demon pursuit.

The entire Human Race village would be wiped out by the Blood-Eyed Demon Wolves.

Even if Shi Ping'an is formidable, he's just an eight-year-old kid right now.

He hasn't even activated his Life Chart yet; there's no way he could survive this calamity.

But my arrival brought hope to Shi Ping'an and the others, reversing their certain death fate.

"No wonder my Destiny suddenly surged."

"And I've gained more recognition from this world's Heavenly Dao; is it because of this kid?"

Jiang Fan's eyes flickered.

He felt his understanding of Fate seemed even deeper.

Every action could cause countless futures to undergo incredible changes.

"Never mind, this is just a small matter."

"I quite like this kid. I wonder if he's willing to become my disciple?"

At this moment, Jiang Fan smiled slightly, indicating he didn't care about such matters.

Then he spoke to the village chief, Shi Hao.

What?!

Upon these words, the villagers of Green Willow Village were all shocked, staring at Jiang Fan in disbelief.

Especially the village chief, Shi Hao, who felt it was unbelievable.

Just now, he was pondering how to deepen the relationship with this mysterious cultivator.

Such a powerful cultivator could easily offer some assistance, enough to help Green Willow Village through its current difficulties.

But he never imagined that this mysterious cultivator would be willing to take his grandson as a disciple.

His special intuition told him the other party was sincere, without any schemes.

This meant his grandson's talent had indeed moved the other party.

Undoubtedly, this was an unprecedented opportunity for his grandson and for the entire Green Willow Village.

"Lord Jiang, are you really serious about this?"

The village chief, Shi Hao, couldn't help but ask.

He was a bit worried if the other party was joking.

After all, he thought his grandson's talent was ordinary, so how could he catch the other party's eye?

"Of course it's true."

"I wonder if your grandson is willing?"

Jiang Fan smiled slightly.

After all, he already had many disciples in the Primordial Talisman Sect and wouldn't mind taking another.

Besides, the other party was a Child of Destiny in the Spirit Ruins Realm.

"Willing, of course, willing."

The village chief, Shi Hao, immediately said, then gestured for his grandson to quickly apprentice.

"Master."

Hearing this, Shi Ping'an was very smart, knowing it was a huge opportunity for himself, he knelt on the ground with a thud, kowtowing three times to Jiang Fan.

"Good."

Seeing this, Jiang Fan felt very satisfied and immediately helped Shi Ping'an up.

Boom~~

In an instant, he sensed a vast Destiny surging from Shi Ping'an's body, then merging into his own, activating Shi Ping'an's Life Chart instantly.

"Hmm?!"

Shi Ping'an blinked, sensing after being helped by his master, his stomach seemed to growl with hunger, feeling as if every part of him was ravenous.

.....

Several days later.

Jiang Fan temporarily settled in Green Willow Village, then casually found an empty space and built a stone house, making it his temporary residence.

After several days of investigation, he almost fully understood the situation of Green Willow Village.

The entire village currently has 18,000 people, nearly 20,000.

Due to the high birth rate in recent years, Green Willow Village began to lack food.

After all, it's deep within a mountain, making growing grain too difficult.

Green Willow Village's lighting relies on a special type of ore called Red Bright Stone.

This stone, with a little infusion of Spiritual Power, can illuminate an area like a light bulb.

Moreover, it can last for a week.

So even without sunlight, Green Willow Village can still be as bright as day, thanks to Red Bright Stone.

Unfortunately, Green Willow Village's limited area makes obtaining food very difficult.

More importantly, they also find it hard to hunt many demons; each hunting trip results in casualties.

Over time, the villagers of Green Willow Village might starve to death.

"The village can be transformed."

"Turn the land into Spiritual Soil and plant some Spirit Rice."

"Also, I can take out the Tier Five Spiritual Eye Spring to enhance the Spiritual Qi of Green Willow Village."

"After all, I already have a Tier Six Spiritual Eye Spring, so a mere Tier Five Spiritual Eye Spring isn't a big deal."

"Wait, was the Destiny guiding me here meant for me to protect Green Willow Village?"

"Am I really becoming an old master?!"

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He felt quite speechless and didn't know what to say.

Yet, coming here brought him many benefits, like the First-Grade Opportunity Rebirth Immortal Talisman.

If he hadn't come here, he wouldn't have had the chance to obtain such an Immortal Talisman.

So giving up some Treasures is really nothing.

"The so-called willow tree is actually a Tier Three Heaven and Earth Spirit Plant."

"Equivalent to a Golden Core Level creature."

"It can devour Demonic Qi and purify demons, thus protecting the entire Green Willow Village."

"If this willow tree were to die, the village would likely be doomed."

"The reason many human settlements in this Demon Realm survive is due to these special Spirit Plants."

Jiang Fan naturally investigated this mysterious willow tree.

The willow tree stood at the heart of Green Willow Village, its size immense, covering the entire settlement.

Occasionally, it emitted a faint green glow.

The Spiritual Qi of Green Willow Village was all provided by this willow tree.

Thus, villagers treated it as a deity, worshipping it.

Every year, they held a sacrifice.

This tradition has become a part of the Human Race villages in the Demon Realm.

"I've found it, I finally found it."

"In some of the Taixu Sect's legacies, I've found a Body Refinement Cultivation Technique."

"Its level is no less than the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture and the Taixu Scripture."

"It's called the Undying Taotie Scripture."

"This is a supreme Body Refinement Cultivation Technique, capable of devouring all kinds of Spirit Medicine to rapidly enhance one's physique."

"The more Spirit Medicine and Spiritual Object one consumes, the faster the enhancement."

"It's said to be a Cultivation Technique that depends entirely on eating, mysterious and profound."

"However, this Cultivation Technique relies too heavily on external resources."

"In the current era of the Void Realm, this Cultivation Technique could almost be deemed useless, impossible even to begin."

"But do you really think this Cultivation Technique suits that boy?"

The Primordial Talisman Pen immediately queried.

Now, it wasn't just that the Primordial Talisman Sect obtained numerous inheritances from the Primordial Talisman Sect, but also from the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect, Taixu Sect, and other Ancient Sects.

The Sect's foundation was tremendously profound, and many top Cultivation Techniques were readily accessible.

"Indeed, this Cultivation Technique is very suitable for that boy."

"He possesses a special Spirit Body."

"I reckon even if he ate dirt, he could achieve Immortality."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Upon hearing the introduction of the Undying Taotie Scripture, he immediately knew it was very compatible with Shi Ping'an.

The top Cultivation Technique, coupled with an Immortal Destiny, was akin to adding wings to a tiger.

There's no doubt that unless Shi Ping'an encounters terrifying danger, relying on his Destiny, he'd survive even in the harshest of environments.

Even in the Land of No Spirits, he could swiftly enhance his cultivation using the power of his Destiny.

This showcases the strength of an Immortal Destiny, with an incredibly high baseline.

If not dead, he'll eventually become Immortal.

"It seems the Primordial Talisman Sect has recruited another excellent disciple."

Upon hearing this, the Primordial Talisman Pen said with a smile, it loved seeing the continual growth of the Primordial Talisman Sect.

The more outstanding disciples there are, the more the sect's legacy will grow stronger.

It never imagined there would come a day when the Primordial Talisman Sect would establish branches in other worlds.

But the proverb does say: "A cunning rabbit has three burrows."

If the Void Realm were ever doomed, the survival of the Primordial Talisman Sect in the Spirit Ruins Realm would not be a bad thing.

Chapter 898: Green Willow Village a Year Later, Grotto Heaven Blessed Land

One year later.

As Jiang Fan settled in Green Willow Village for one year, the village underwent earth-shaking changes.

Firstly, the concentration of spiritual qi has been raised to the tier five level.

If placed in the current Void Realm, it would be considered a grotto heaven blessed land.

This is naturally because of the tier five Spiritual Eye Spring, which Jiang Fan placed near the willow tree, transforming it into a spiritual liquid fountain, occasionally surging with abundant spiritual qi, nourishing the entire village.

Undoubtedly, this has brought immense benefits to every villager.

Besides the Spiritual Eye Spring, Jiang Fan also integrated a Dragon Vein House Charm into Green Willow Village, enveloping the entire village with an invisible barrier, forming a dragon vein.

With this, numerous demons, if approaching Green Willow Village, would be attacked by the dragon vein, having the effect of warding off evil and slaying demons.

Additionally, the Heaven-Covering Wheel Talisman was integrated into the depths of the earth's veins, transforming into an array barrier.

Even if a divinity transformation level demon attacks, they would be unable to do anything to Green Willow Village.

It can be said that over the year, Green Willow Village has been incredibly safe, without a single unexpected death.

Swoosh!

At this moment, Zhu Ming and the members of the Green Willow Village hunting party finally returned, achieving a great harvest this time by hunting a large number of demons, incomparable to before.

However, among this group appeared a never-before-seen member, an elder in black robes.

He curiously observed Green Willow Village.

"Elder Chai, welcome to Green Willow Village."

Zhu Ming smiled slightly and spoke to the elder in black robes.

The individual is also a human cultivator, with cultivation at Foundation Establishment Perfection, named Chai Chengzhi, from Thunder Bamboo Village.

He encountered him while hunting outside.

Meanwhile, Thunder Bamboo Village is also an ancient village nestled in this mountain range, having had long-term contact with Green Willow Village.

However, the two sides had not interacted for a hundred years.

Initially, the people of Green Willow Village thought Thunder Bamboo Village might have been exterminated by demons, but now seeing there is an elder from Thunder Bamboo Village here, he felt incredibly joyful.

At least it represents a glimmer of hope for humans in the Demon Realm.

"Why is the spiritual qi in Green Willow Village so rich?"

"It has already reached tier five level, how was it achieved?"

Upon entering Green Willow Village, Chai Chengzhi felt quite shocked.

As an elder of Thunder Bamboo Village, with mastery over various knowledge and inheritances, he naturally knows of Green Willow Village.

But according to historical records, the protection of Green Willow Village was merely a willow tree, only at tier three level.

In terms of strength, it was much inferior to Thunder Bamboo Village.

After all, the one protecting Thunder Bamboo Village is the Heaven and Earth Spirit Plant, Celestial Thunder Bamboo, possessing powerful combat capabilities, able to control the power of celestial thunder, slaying demons.

So at its peak, Thunder Bamboo Village had a population of over ten thousand.

Even once gave birth to Nascent Soul cultivators.

Unfortunately, it was precisely because of being too prominent, attracting the attention of some demons that attacked Thunder Bamboo Village.

Which caused massive damage to Thunder Bamboo Village, and Celestial Thunder Bamboo was heavily wounded.

This led Thunder Bamboo Village to seal the village for a hundred years, slowly resting and recuperating.

But sealing the village for a hundred years led to the foundation of Thunder Bamboo Village being constantly consumed.

Especially food, which has been drastically reduced.

That's why Thunder Bamboo Village dispatched him to seek other human villages.

Hoping to obtain some food from other human villages to save the current Thunder Bamboo Village.

Initially, he didn't hold any hope for Green Willow Village, thinking this village was weaker compared to Thunder Bamboo Village, and should be unable to provide much help.

But over the short hundred years, the development of Green Willow Village seemed beyond imagination, seemingly more powerful than Thunder Bamboo Village at its peak.

"Well, this is Green Willow Village's secret."

Zhu Ming smiled slightly, without intending to offer any explanation.

Because this is knowledge only known to the elders of Green Willow Village, even ordinary villagers do not know, naturally impossible to tell someone from another village.

"I'm sorry, I was presumptuous."

"But my visit this time is indeed for the food."

"I wonder if Green Willow Village can trade some food with my Thunder Bamboo Village?"

Chai Chengzhi said apologetically, knowing the importance of the matter, and naturally not probing further.

After all, it's a secret of another village.

But he didn't hide his purpose this time, which was to obtain food.

"No problem."

"Over this year, Green Willow Village has achieved a bountiful harvest."

"Planted lots of spirit rice."

"If you have other treasures to trade, obtaining food is naturally not a problem."

Zhu Ming spoke.

If it were a year ago, Green Willow Village would have been anxious for food, already facing the danger of starvation.

But ever since Master Jiang Fan arrived, the situation immediately underwent earth-shaking changes.

Master Jiang Fan planted crystal spirit rice on some empty land in Green Willow Village.

Moreover, the yield reached over ten thousand pounds per acre.

Throughout the year, the entire village doesn't know how much crystal spirit rice was harvested.

It can be said that now every villager has spirit rice to eat every meal, hunger is a thing of the past.

Thus every villager is immensely grateful to Jiang Fan, simply the savior of Green Willow Village.

In terms of prestige, it surpasses the village chief of Green Willow Village.

"Growing spirit rice? Green Willow Village can actually accomplish this?"

Upon hearing this, Chai Chengzhi was astonished, finding it hard to believe.

Long ago, Thunder Bamboo Village naturally wanted to grow spirit rice too, but the matter wasn't that simple.

Chapter 899: Green Willow Village One Year Later, Grotto Heaven Blessed Land_2

To successfully cultivate Spirit Rice, Spiritual Soil is necessary.

In addition to that, rich Spiritual Qi, special planting methods, and so on are also needed.

Of course, they have managed to grow some, but the yield is simply insufficient.

It can only satisfy the appetite of a small portion of people.

Meeting the needs of the entire village is extremely difficult, almost impossible.

Yet Green Willow Village has managed to do so, which is truly astonishing.

In less than a hundred years, Green Willow Village has changed so dramatically.

"Haha, just a small issue."

Zhu Ming chuckled.

He did not plan to explain much.

After all, he was not very familiar with Chai Chengzhi and was unaware of what happened to Thunder Bamboo Village.

It was just out of sympathy for a fellow clansman that he planned to save the other party.

Of course, this was not an unconditional rescue.

Unless the other party had sufficiently precious treasures, taking away a large amount of Spirit Rice was impossible.

"Damn, demons are chasing us."

At this moment, Chai Chengzhi's face changed, sensing terrifying demon auras at the entrance of Green Willow Village, and the ground reverberated with loud tremors.

Clearly, the sound came from demons.

Judging by the footsteps, there were at least hundreds or even thousands of demons.

He couldn't imagine the casualties among the villagers if these demons invaded Green Willow Village.

However, he was extremely unlucky to encounter such a demon invasion at this time.

"Elder Chai, there is no need to worry."

"This is just a small scene."

Zhu Ming also noticed Chai Chengzhi's shocked expression and understood his thoughts.

A year ago, this would have been a disaster for Green Willow Village.

However, ever since Jiang Fan arrived at Green Willow Village, the situation had changed dramatically.

Over the past year, Green Willow Village has faced many similar attacks.

But without exception, they have been easily resolved.

Even the invading demons became food for Green Willow Village.

So instead, they eagerly anticipated these demon invasions, considering it as food delivered to their doorstep.

"A small scene?"

Hearing this, Chai Chengzhi was a bit uneasy, wondering how powerful Green Willow Village was, feeling so calm when facing hundreds or even thousands of demons, considering it just a small scene?!

However, since the other party was so composed, as an elder of Thunder Bamboo Village, he naturally couldn't lose face for Thunder Bamboo Village.

Rumble~~

As these demons approached Green Willow Village, a dragon's roar suddenly echoed in the void.

It was as if a True Dragon emerged from the void, unleashing a terrifying Dragon Vein.

Roar!

The mere sound of the roar caused ripples in the void, generating a dreadful pressure that enveloped the invading demons.

Suddenly, these demons, initially full of killing intent, collapsed to the ground, their souls and wills destroyed in an instant, leaving behind only demon corpses.

They were completely massacred without even approaching Green Willow Village.

This was naturally the power of the Dragon Vein House Charm.

Whenever demons and evil creatures approached, the Dragon Vein House Charm's power would activate, forming a giant dragon to strike down the enemies.

Over the past year, countless demons have perished at the hands of this talisman.

"Haha, these demons have come to their deaths again."

"Killing over a thousand demons at once, truly impressive."

"If this continues, there's no need for the hunting team to go out hunting."

"Indeed, every so often, these demons come to die, practically delivering food to our door."

"Quick, quickly move these demon corpses back, they are all premium meat."

"Yes, after purification by Lord Willow, we can cook and prepare them."

The villagers of Green Willow Village were all delighted to see this scene.

They had witnessed this situation several times before.

Seeing such a scenario, they unhesitatingly left Green Willow Village to transport the demon corpses back, considering it a significant harvest.

A year ago, where would they encounter such good fortune?

"Is it true? Over a thousand demons just killed like that?"

Chai Chengzhi was stunned, unsure of what to say, feeling deeply shocked inside.

He never imagined humans could possess such terrifying power.

After all, humans living in the Demon Realm were far too weak, destined for death if discovered by demons.

Over time, one human village after another was destroyed by demons.

Now, fewer and fewer human villages managed to survive.

If this continues, humans will inevitably be wiped out in the Demon Realm.

"Haha, for our Green Willow Village, this is quite common."

Zhu Ming remarked smugly.

Feeling emotional inside, he knew the true reason was the power of the talismans.

With merely a few talismans laid by Lord Jiang in Green Willow Village, the village gained this level of power.

Now, even when they go out hunting, they are protected by talismans.

This made them feel very safe.

Even under the attack of many demons, they could still come back alive.

During this time, they also learned how to refine talismans.

If they succeed, their future strength will undoubtedly increase significantly.

"Green Willow Village is truly different from the past."

Chai Chengzhi's expression was complex.

Undoubtedly, over a hundred years, Green Willow Village has undergone drastic changes.

Now Thunder Bamboo Village cannot compare with it at all.

But this is a good thing, as a stronger Green Willow Village represents greater strength for the Human Race.

If they were weak, it would be even harder to ask for help.

Perhaps even if Green Willow Village gifted them some items, it would be enough for Thunder Bamboo Village to survive for a long time.

"Why are there so many Foundation Establishment Cultivators in Green Willow Village?"

"There are already over two hundred."

"Even five or six Golden Core Cultivators have appeared."

At this time, Chai Chengzhi scanned with Spiritual Sense, feeling very shocked.

He discovered that the villagers of Green Willow Village possessed extraordinary strength, though their numbers were not many.

Yet the number of Foundation Establishment Cultivators grew so much, it was beyond imagination.

Even five or six Golden Core Cultivators had appeared, which was truly astonishing.

"Haha, during this time, our Green Willow Village has made some progress."

"Nothing remarkable, nothing remarkable."

Zhu Ming said proudly.

In fact, this was due to Lord Jiang's help.

Originally, many of Green Willow Village's elders were already at Foundation Establishment Perfection, just a step away from the Golden Core.

Lord Jiang gifted some Golden Liquid Jade Ring Pills, allowing them to advance to Golden Core.

Other villagers were the same, receiving some Foundation Establishment Pills, and thus advancing to Foundation Establishment.

This year, the strength of Green Willow Village's villagers has seen explosive growth.

Even he himself has elevated his cultivation to Foundation Establishment Perfection.

With a few more months of practice, he can attempt Core Formation.

To be honest, he could never have believed that in just one year, Green Willow Village would go from near extinction to the prosperous scene it is today.

It can only be said that the help given by Lord Jiang to Green Willow Village is incredibly immense.

They don't know how to repay such a significant favor.

"It seems that besides Golden Core Cultivators, Green Willow Village might even have Nascent Soul or higher-tier cultivators."

Chai Chengzhi couldn't help but entertain this speculation.

If his guess is correct, then Green Willow Village is undoubtedly the strongest human settlement he has ever seen.

"Come with me."

"The village chief has been waiting ahead."

"If you have any requests, feel free to speak to the village chief."

Zhu Ming invited.

After all, as an elder of Thunder Bamboo Village, the village chief needs to handle this matter.

No matter what, this was the first exchange between the two villages in over a hundred years.

Perhaps this is also Green Willow Village's first step towards communication with other human settlements.

"Alright."

Chai Chengzhi took a deep breath, feeling that Thunder Bamboo Village's survival depended on this exchange.

He bore the heavy responsibility of Thunder Bamboo Village's survival, and there was no room for failure.

Chapter 900: Destiny Surges, Rise of the Child of Destiny

At the deepest part of Green Willow Village, a stone house.

Shrouded by mist, the area within a few hundred meters had no one approaching.

This had already become one of the forbidden zones of Green Willow Village.

Usually, no villagers would get close.

Because this was where Jiang Fan went into seclusion for cultivation, the villagers naturally avoided it, fearing they might disturb Lord Jiang's cultivation.

At this moment, inside the Exquisite Tower's inner world.

A figure sat cross-legged on the ground, and this person was Jiang Fan.

After a year of arduous cultivation, his cultivation had advanced by leaps and bounds.

After consuming some Tier Five Elixirs, his cultivation finally reached the level of First-Layer Divinity Transformation Perfection.

He was merely a step away from the Second-Layer Divinity Transformation.

"It's time to break through."

Jiang Fan operated the Mixed Element Talisman Scripture, and his Primordial Spirit absorbed the endless Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, with the Primordial Spirit Power rapidly growing, circulating round after round.

Bang!

In an instant, his body shook, sensing that the Primordial Spirit Power seemed to have reached a bottleneck. The immense Magical Power fiercely smashed against the bottleneck, which shattered in response.

Second-Layer Divinity Transformation!

There was no doubt that Jiang Fan easily ascended to the Second-Layer Divinity Transformation Realm, discovering that his Primordial Spirit had enlarged by a third compared to before.

Simultaneously, his mastery over the Power of Heaven and Earth became stronger.

The strength of Divinity Transformation Law Domain further progressed, enveloping all directions.

"Finally ascended to Second-Layer Divinity Transformation."

"I can now manage a hundred things simultaneously."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He found that after ascending to the Second-Layer Divinity Transformation, he could ponder a hundred issues at the same time.

When he was only at First-Layer Divinity Transformation, he could manage only ten things simultaneously.

Clearly, such an ability greatly aids in comprehending various cultivation techniques.

Equivalent to increasing the efficiency of cultivation by several times.

This is why every Divinity Transformation Cultivator is highly knowledgeable, far beyond the comparison of those below Divinity Transformation.

"No wonder Ancient Era cultivators would all ascend to Divinity Transformation with the fastest speed."

"Rarely would they delve into the myriad arts of cultivation."

"Once becoming a Divinity Transformation, they not only possess a long lifespan."

"Also, their learning efficiency greatly improves."

"A day's learning for a Divinity Transformation Cultivator equals a hundred days for a Low-Tier Cultivator."

"The gap is indeed massive, so naturally, Ancient Cultivators wouldn't waste time in this aspect."

Jiang Fan suddenly realized.

However, modern cultivators have no choice but to do this, as it's indeed too difficult to ascend to Divinity Transformation in the current era's Void Realm. Even those who become Foundation Establishment Cultivators are rare, let alone achieving Divinity Transformation.

So, with cultivation advancement being so challenging, they can only delve into other techniques.

It's just the change of times.

"The cultivation of Divinity Transformation Cultivators is essentially soul cultivation."

"As long as the Primordial Spirit can grow rapidly, the cultivation can skyrocket."

"It's for this reason that my cultivation speed is faster than during the Nascent Soul period."

Jiang Fan clenched his fist.

If it were an ordinary cultivator, promoting their cultivation after ascending to Divinity Transformation would become extremely slow.

At least slowing by several times over.

They might not improve much even after centuries of practice.

After all, raising Primordial Spirit Power is much harder compared to increasing Magical Power.

However, he was different.

At the levels of Nascent Soul, Golden Core, Foundation Establishment, and Qi Cultivation, he had laid an incredibly solid foundation.

Additionally, his innate talent in soul cultivation was remarkable.

Therefore, after ascending to Divinity Transformation, his cultivation speed was even faster than during the Nascent Soul Realm.

In just a little over a year, he went from First-Layer to Second-Layer Divinity Transformation.

If this were to spread, it would be shocking how many human cultivators.

"Now that I've ascended to Second-Layer Divinity Transformation, and the Primordial Spirit has further strengthened."

"I can now inscribe a new Life Talisman."

Jiang Fan touched his chin.

He naturally had the new Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman in mind, which was the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman.

This Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman originates from the Immortal Artifact, the Celestial-Filling Furnace.

The main function of this Immortal Artifact is artifact refining; various materials can be placed into the Celestial-Filling Furnace for refining different Magical Treasures, and even refining an Immortal Artifact is possible.

Besides artifact refining, it can repair damaged Magical Treasures, restore their spirituality, and even upgrade them.

In mastering this talisman, one becomes akin to a master of artifact refining.

"It can actually restore the spirituality of a Magical Treasure?"

"If that's true, then the Gate of the Void and Great Sun Buddha Mirror might restore their Artifact Spirits?"

"No, not restore their Artifact Spirits, but rather generate new ones."

"After all, the original Artifact Spirits were long gone."

Jiang Fan's eyes lit up immediately, filled with excitement.

Truth be told, all he had left was the Immortal Dew Bottle, and the Gate of the Void and Great Sun Buddha Mirror had no Artifact Spirits. If he could use the power of the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman to nurture new Artifact Spirits in them, the ability of these three Magical Treasures would greatly enhance, a qualitative change if you will.

Moreover, if damaged Magical Treasures were found in the future, they could be restored with the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman's power.

Though this Immortal Realm Spirit Talisman doesn't wield combat abilities, its supplementary abilities are rather astonishing.

With this thought in mind, he did not hesitate, promptly expending a vast number of Luck Points to comprehend the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman.

...

In merely ten days, Jiang Fan spent a vast number of Luck Points and finally grasped the mysteries of the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman.
