Chapter 901: Destiny Surges, Rise of the Child of Destiny (Part 2)

At the same time, he successfully fused the talisman into his Primordial Spirit, making it his Life Talisman.

Vaguely, a shadow of an ancient furnace was imprinted in his Primordial Spirit, becoming a part of it.

"Let's test the power of the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman."

With a thought, Jiang Fan immediately activated the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman.

The talisman exploded in an instant, countless streams of light converged into an ancient and simple furnace—the Celestial-Filling Furnace. Its body seemed cast from chaotic blue stone, crisscrossed with countless mysterious runes that flowed like living creatures, sometimes forming celestial tracks, sometimes condensing into mountain veins, vaguely carrying the profound mystery of "The Dao is Fifty, Heaven Evolves Forty-Nine". The steam from the furnace mouth was not ordinary fire, but visibly colorful Qi of Creation, which immediately attracted the wild gathering of Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi upon its appearance.

Swoosh!

In the next moment, he took out the Great Sun Buddha Mirror from his body and placed it into the Celestial-Filling Furnace.

As soon as the mirror entered the furnace, its many mysteries immediately revealed themselves.

"So many cracks?!"

"Just how much damage did it suffer?"

Jiang Fan's pupils contracted as he saw no less than forty-nine cracks inside the Great Sun Buddha Mirror. Frankly, if he hadn't spent a large amount of Luck Points to refine the mirror and partially restore its power, the mirror's spirituality might have continuously faded.

In just a few hundred more years, this magical treasure would completely lose its effectiveness.

"I see."

"No wonder the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman can repair the damage of magical treasures."

"It can actually invoke the Qi of Creation between Heaven and Earth."

"Then use the Qi of Creation to ameliorate the internal damage of the treasure, thereby completely repairing it."

Jiang Fan's eyes showed a glint of understanding, and he appeared to suddenly realize something.

As the Great Sun Buddha Mirror entered the Celestial-Filling Furnace, the runes on the furnace body suddenly shone brightly.

With a sound of "hum", those wandering runes rushed to the mirror surface; some turned into golden threads to stitch the gaps, others turned into sweet rain to soak the cracks, while the core Qi of Creation surged into the mirror body like a tide.

Under the wrapping of the Qi of Creation, the edges of the first crack began to dissipate its dead silence, emitting a faint Buddha Light.

At the gap, the broken mirror surface actually regenerated at a speed visible to the naked eye, and a vague Buddha Dharma image appeared.

However, it wasn't long before the power of the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman quickly dissipated.

"Did it only mend one crack?"

"After all, it's not the real Celestial Immortal Artifact Celestial-Filling Furnace, but a Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman."

"So the power of the talisman is limited."

"Each Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman can only invoke one Qi of Creation."

"With so many cracks inside, it would take at least forty-nine days to completely mend them all."

"However, if these cracks can be fully mended, it would definitely bring about earth-shaking changes and greatly enhance the Great Sun Buddha Mirror's power."

Jiang Fan felt quite excited.

He already saw the hope of fully restoring the Great Sun Buddha Mirror.

Originally, he didn't know how to successfully repair this magical treasure, but after successfully condensing the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman, the situation became vastly different.

"However, the level of the Gate of the Void is indeed too high."

"Just an Entry Level Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman can't affect the Gate of the Void at all."

"It probably requires further enhancement of the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman's skill level to repair the Gate of the Void."

"But if the Great Sun Buddha Mirror can be repaired, that would be quite remarkable."

Jiang Fan smiled slightly.

He was very satisfied with the power of the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman.

After all, just an entry-level talisman, it already possesses such incredible power.

This surpassed mortal talismans by many times.

Boom~~

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan's heart moved, and he immediately opened the virtual panel on his body.

[Name: Jiang Fan]

[Life Chart: Great Blessings Equal to Heaven, Attribute: Suffer a great calamity but have a great fortune in its wake]

[Lifespan: 150,000 years]

[Spirit Root: Celestial Spirit Root]

[Luck Points: 28,000,000]

[Wealth: 12 billion Spirit Stones]

[Realm: Second-Layer Divinity Transformation (1%)]

[Profession: Tier Five Low Grade Talisman Master (65%)]

There's no denying that after advancing to the second layer of the Divinity Transformation Realm, all of his data received a substantial boost.

Following two calamities, his Luck Points also skyrocketed by 28,000,000.

Of course, throughout this year, he spent a large amount of luck to cultivate the skill level of the Life Talisman and comprehend the Celestial-Filling Furnace Talisman, so there are only 28 million left now.

However, even so, having so much luck is quite immense.

"After cultivating for so long, I should soon be able to hone some of the Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans to a skillful level."

"If I can hone them to a skillful level, the power of the Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans will definitely soar."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He felt that after advancing to the Divinity Transformation Realm, his mastery over the Thirty-Three Celestial Spirit Talismans increased.

Undoubtedly, the condensation of the Primordial Spirit also greatly improved his comprehension.

This is the reason why he could enhance the skill level of the Life Talisman so quickly.

And he could focus on multiple tasks at once, simultaneously comprehending different Life Talismans.

Undoubtedly, this is the advantage of advancing to the Divinity Transformation Realm.

If he were still at the Nascent Soul Level, he wouldn't be able to comprehend so many Life Talismans simultaneously.

The sheer time consumption would have been immense.

Of course, even for an average Divinity Transformation Cultivator, even if they could comprehend simultaneously, if their comprehension isn't enough, their progress would be painfully slow, or even nonexistent.

After all, the mysteries of the Immortal Realm Spirit Talismans can only be grasped if you can comprehend them; otherwise, spending more time won't even lead to entry.

"My Destiny also increased quite a bit."

"I didn't expect that in just one year, my Destiny would soar."

Jiang Fan's heart moved, and he looked at the Fortune Golden Dragon on his body.

Compared to before, its size swelled by at least double.

He didn't expect his Destiny to grow so rapidly.

However, it's closely related to the two Children of Fortune.

For example, Ye Linglong, since she awakened her Life Chart and became the princess of the Great Xuan Dynasty, her Destiny soared, sky-high, giving him abundant Destiny.

Secondly, there's Shi Ping'an. Although his Destiny didn't soar as Ye Linglong's did, his Destiny rapidly increased, especially towards the later phase.

What made him even more amazed was that there were no less than twenty individuals with Life Charts in Green Willow Village. Though most had Lower Grade or Middle Grade Life Charts, it was still quite extraordinary.

It can only be said that, as a Child of Destiny, they naturally gather some prodigies around them.

"In the Demon Realm, there are also other human villages."

"These human villages surely have many talents."

"If these villages could be interconnected, it would probably lead to Shi Ping'an's Destiny soaring."

"Thereby accelerating Shi Ping'an's cultivation efficiency."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

However, he didn't plan to interfere with Shi Ping'an's fate. Children of Destiny like these actually don't need anyone's intervention; they are like weeds that grow quickly as long as they have some sunshine and water.

Even if they experience numerous tribulations, they won't be destroyed by the elements.

This is the fearsome aspect of a Child of Destiny.

Therefore, he didn't need to interfere much in Shi Ping'an's affairs, just impart his teachings and answer questions.

This is also why he wanted a Child of Destiny to become his disciple.

After all, such a genius disciple requires little attention and can naturally grow rapidly into towering trees.

Such disciples are probably what every master dreams of.

However, finding such a disciple isn't easy.

Only a few appear in an era.

Boom~~

Just at this moment, Jiang Fan's heart trembled, sensing a message from a destiny prompt entering deep into his sea of consciousness.

Chapter 902: Calamities Upon Calamities, The Only Chance of Survival

"Destiny is always so unfathomable. While you were in seclusion cultivating, calamities came one after another. Nine Divinity Transformation Demons have arrived at the Cyan Stone Mountain Range. They have received orders from above to completely eliminate the remnants of human villages in the Cyan

Stone Mountain Range. Currently, the battle between humans and demons is extremely fierce; they aim to eradicate the myriad hidden threats of the Demon Realm.

There's no doubt that they have already grasped a lot of information about the human villages. Once they reach the Cyan Stone Mountain Range, the human villages there will face an unprecedented catastrophe."

"Destiny will provide you with guidance."

"Destiny Tip One: Escape now, immediately flee the Cyan Stone Mountain Range. After all, this is the Demon Realm, the territory of demons. With your strength, dealing with this group of Divinity Transformation Demons is not too big a problem.

But this is ultimately the Demon Realm. If you dare to kill this group of Divinity Transformation Demons, it would be akin to stirring up a hornet's nest; inevitably, it would invite Refining Void Demons to come after you, and then you would undoubtedly die. Even though the Cyan Stone Mountain Range is vast, it offers no shelter for humans. Sometimes running away is actually a pretty good choice."

"Destiny Tip Two: Facing life or death, if you don't die after ten thousand years, even if this is the Demon Realm, what does it matter? What does it matter if it's the territory of demons? If they dare to invade human villages, they must be prepared to fall. It's time to sound the horn of human counterattack.

If it were a usual Divinity Transformation Cultivator, perhaps the only option would be to flee. But with the destiny guidance, you can find the one path of life among countless dead ends.

Occupying the Cyan Stone Mountain Range is the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, home to countless demons, including Integration Realm Demons. This is a dragon's den and tiger's lair; ordinary cultivators enter only to face certain death.

Fortunately, the demons are mounting a large-scale attack on the Great Xuan Dynasty. Countless High-tier Demons are being transported into the dynasty via the demon cave, which has caused the rear defenses of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave to become vulnerable, with many High-tier Demons no longer in the cave.

Thus, even if you strike down the invading Divinity Transformation Demons, it will be difficult for them to quickly dispatch Refining Void Demons to hunt you down. Perhaps if you slay this group of Divinity Transformation Demons, you'll head straight to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave to destroy it. If you can achieve this, it will certainly cause significant damage to the demons."

"Destiny Tip Three: Of course, you may also choose to surrender, turning into a demon, and completely become a strange servant. In this way, you won't need to resist terrifying demons. Serving demons as a dog is also a path."

Sensing this message, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted, and a storm rose in his heart.

He initially thought he could at least cultivate here peacefully for a period; as long as he could cultivate safely for seven or eight years, he could return to the Void Realm.

In this way, with the Void Realm as backing, he wouldn't have to worry about encountering too much danger in the Spirit Ruins Realm.

After all, if danger really arises, he can always escape through the Gate of the Void.

However, he underestimated the calamities of this world.

Once the Life Chart of the Child of Destiny was activated, immense destiny spread forth, yet calamities would also follow.

It wouldn't give ordinary cultivators any time to breathe.

"Cyan Stone Demon Cave?!"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He had been in the Spirit Ruins Realm for two or three years, continuously collecting numerous pieces of intelligence about this world.

Naturally, he had also come to know a lot about demons.

Currently, a third of the entire Spirit Ruins Realm is occupied by demons.

Their method of occupation is through the demon caves.

For demons, the demon caves are like fortresses.

They live within the demon caves.

With the demon caves as centers, they govern various regions.

Moreover, demon caves can transport to and from each other.

The whole inside of the Demon Realm doesn't even know how many demon caves have been constructed.

After all, the Spirit Ruins Realm is excessively vast, stretching tens of billions or hundreds of billions of kilometers.

Even Void Refining Cultivators and Integration Cultivators find it difficult to traverse such distances.

Thus, demons also need to leverage the power of demon caves to transport to other areas.

In a certain sense, demon caves are critical bases for demons.

Like a network, they cover every corner of the Demon Realm.

Once a demon cave appears in a region within human territories, numerous demons and demon creatures will spread out.

This leads the area to quickly fall and become demon territory.

Thus, both the Human Race and the Demon Race will attack demon caves; it's imperative not to let demon caves take root.

Meanwhile, demons naturally hope to construct demon caves in major regions.

This is how they can enwrap the world with demonic power and demonize all creatures.

"You're asking me, a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave?"

"That's simply too exaggerated."

Jiang Fan felt speechless, unsure of what to say.

He felt as if a Great Demon had ordered its Little Demon to fight against Sun Wukong, purely seeking death.

It's crucial to realize that every demon cave is a significant base for demons, heavily guarded.

To them, Divinity Transformation Demons are merely ordinary elites.

Refining Void Demons in the demon cave are hardly unusual.

Even Combined Demons are stationed there.

For someone like him, an insignificant Second-Layer Divinity Transformation Cultivator, to dare step into the Cyan Stone Demon Cave is to flirt with death.

But indeed, as the destiny tip suggested, if he could destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, then this vast mountain range would be safe for a brief time.

Chapter 903: Unrelenting Calamity, The Only Chance of Survival (2)

At least it won't attract the demons' revenge.

After all, with their full-scale invasion of the Human Race territories, they don't have the energy to focus on what's happening inside the Demon Realm.

"Should we run?"

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

He wasn't really against the idea of running away. After all, he'd already run countless times to avoid disasters.

Sometimes, when the enemy is too strong, it's necessary to dodge their edge.

If you choose to fight head-on, it's outright foolish, akin to courting death.

But with that, the humans in the entire Cyan Stone Mountain Range wouldn't survive.

Of course, owning the Exquisite Tower, he could naturally take all the villagers of Green Willow Village and leave.

But other villages wouldn't be so lucky.

However, it hadn't come to that; it's not a must-run scenario yet.

According to the information from his destiny tips, there's still a glimmer of hope.

"If it were a year ago, killing a Divinity Transformation Demon would certainly provoke the demons' revenge."

"So we could only choose to seal the Divinity Transformation Demon Cang Ya to avoid letting them know of Cang Ya's death."

"But over the past year, the times have changed, and the situation is completely different now."

Jiang Fan pondered upon the information given by his destiny tips.

Without a doubt, a year ago, when the Human Race and the demons had just started their war, the situation hadn't reached a fever pitch, and most demons were still in the Demon Realm.

But as time went on, and the situation developed, more and more demons joined the war.

This led to an emptiness within the Demon Realm.

After all, no demon would've guessed that there would be humans daring to act recklessly inside the Demon Realm.

In a sense, it's akin to being hidden under their noses.

So this is also an opportunity.

"However, it's not entirely unfeasible to give it a try."

"If successful, the benefits would be enormous."

"No, that's not right, this matter must succeed; there's no other way out."

Jiang Fan's eyes flashed with a hint of coldness.

If an ordinary cultivator dared to do such a thing, it would indeed be courting death.

But with destiny tips in hand, he could find the lone path to survival among countless dead ends.

Moreover, he sensed that if he really tried to flee, it would only delay his demise.

Only by acting preemptively can he nip the calamity in the bud.

This was his only chance at life.

Whoosh!

With this thought in mind, Jiang Fan's figure flashed, performing the Shrinking Earth into Inches, quickly leaving Green Willow Village.

No one in the entire Green Willow Village knew he had left.

He had no intention of telling the villagers of Green Willow Village anything, for they were too weak.

Even if they knew these matters, they wouldn't be able to make any difference.

.....

Whoosh!

At this moment, a group of Divinity Transformation Demons flew out from the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

They had received a task from the Cyan Stone Demon Cave to purge all human villages within the Cyan Stone Mountain Range.

But their expressions were quite sour, filled with dissatisfaction.

After all, for them, dealing with some human villages was too simple, not even worth lifting a finger.

"Damn it, forcing us to do such menial tasks. Why not send us to the Great Xuan Dynasty instead? We should be fighting in the Human Race territories, not staying here idly wasting time."

A Divinity Transformation Demon named Chi Jiao was very dissatisfied.

Because the truly capable and promising elite demons all went to fight in the Human Race territories.

As long as they devoured some Human Divinity Transformation Cultivators, their cultivation would skyrocket.

The humans remaining in the Demon Realm were too weak.

Even if they devoured all these humans, it wouldn't benefit them much; it's like eating snacks.

"Alas, there's nothing we can do about it."

"We're just not as strong as the other demons."

"So such trivial tasks fall to us."

Another Divinity Transformation Demon named Green Eyes felt very helpless.

In the world of demons, power determines hierarchy.

The discrimination based on strength is quite severe.

They were assigned these small tasks because they were too weak.

The truly powerful demons had long left the Cyan Stone Demon Cave to go to the Great Xuan Dynasty of the Human Race.

Only the old, weak, and ill were left behind.

Even if they were unhappy, there was nothing they could do, as they were too weak and could only comply obediently.

"Forget it, let's finish this task quickly, and then return to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave."

"But who would've thought there'd still be humans lingering in the Demon Realm."

"I thought humans had long been exterminated in the Demon Realm."

"How did they manage to survive here?"

Another Divinity Transformation Demon was very curious.

It originally didn't know there were still humans remaining in the Demon Realm. According to its understanding, humans should have been completely exterminated in the Demon Realm long ago, so how could there still be humans?!

Even if there were humans, they would have turned into demons under the long-term erosion of Demonic Qi.

Yet, there were still some human villages existing in the Cyan Stone Mountain Range.

Although they posed no threat to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, it was still an incredible thing.

"It's said that these humans survived by using the power of some Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants to purify the Demonic Qi."

"Their survival is purely because the Cyan Stone Mountain Range is too vast, spanning billions of kilometers."

"And it's filled with towering mountains and ridges everywhere."

"Those mortals are like weeds. They can proliferate anywhere they please."

"Plus, they pose no threat to us demons."

"So we haven't intentionally gone out of our way to trouble them."

"After all, our numbers aren't that many, and we can't waste time searching for mortals."

Green Eyes explained.

Undoubtedly, the mortals survived due to the sheer vastness of the Cyan Stone Mountain Range.

Numerous peaks were densely packed within.

Those mortals simply needed to find a peak and hide within the mountains.

Unless specifically looked for, it was nearly impossible to find them.

And as demons, they couldn't waste time looking for such ants.

Over time, the mortals got the chance to survive.

"If that's the case, why does the leader want us to eradicate these humans?"

"Even if they remain in the Cyan Stone Mountain Range, they don't pose much of a threat."

One Divinity Transformation Demon asked curiously.

"Those humans certainly pose no threat."

"The leader's real target is the Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants."

"Those plants have a special ability to purify Demonic Qi, posing a significant threat to us demons."

"Our main task this time is to destroy those special Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants."

"As for the mortals, a mere puff would kill them all; there's no need to waste too much time."

Chi Jiao, the Divinity Transformation Demon, said calmly.

It was very clear on the mission's objective, which was to eradicate the Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants.

The demons absolutely wouldn't tolerate these Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants existing in the world.

Especially if those Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants were acquired by the Great Xuan Dynasty of the Human Race, they would surely develop ways to counter the demons.

The demons couldn't allow such a thing to happen.

Therefore, every so often, they needed to clean out the Heaven and Earth Spirit Plants.

"The problem is that the mortals are so deeply hidden."

"We likely won't find too many human villages in a short time."

One Divinity Transformation Demon frowned. It didn't think the task was difficult or dangerous.

It purely felt it was a waste of time.

After all, trying to find human villages in a mountain range spanning billions of kilometers is like looking for a needle in a haystack.

"Haha, and that's why the High-tier Demons don't want to take this task."

"No rewards and a massive waste of time."

"Who would want to do such a thankless task?"

"That's why we've been assigned to handle it."

Green Eyes, the Divinity Transformation Demon, said through gritted teeth, feeling quite dissatisfied.

They, these demons, were already considered the weak ones, only meant for such chicken-rib tasks.

"Well, there might be another way."

"I heard the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Cang Ya is stationed in this area."

"This guy should know a good deal of information."

"If we can get Cang Ya's help, we'll probably find many human villages."

"Then, we can quickly complete this task and return to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave."

"Unfortunately, for some reason, we haven't been able to contact Cang Ya yet. Who knows where that guy is?"

Chi Jiao, the Divinity Transformation Demon, spoke in a deep voice, sharing his plan.

"Then what are we waiting for? Let's go to its lair."

"Is that guy not coming back?"

The Divinity Transformation Demons clamored.

Chapter 904: Surviving the Calamity, Gaining a First-Grade Opportunity

Before long, many Divinity Transformation Demons arrived at the Blood-eyed Demon Wolf Race's lair.

Without any courtesy, they began searching for Cang Ya's whereabouts.

But soon they realized that Cang Ya wasn't at this place.

"Strange, where did that kid Cang Ya go, why isn't he at his own lair?"

"And now we can't even contact him."

The Divinity Transformation Demon with green eyes frowned, feeling quite discontent.

He thought that guy was purely neglecting his duties.

Of course, more importantly, it was wasting their time.

Truth be told, they really didn't want to stay in the Cyan Stone Mountain Range for so long.

The best would be to complete the task within a few days, then return to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

But without Cang Ya's help, how could they quickly find the exact location of the human settlements?

"Could it be that something really happened to Cang Ya, is he dead?"

Another Divinity Transformation Demon speculated.

"How could he be dead? This is the Demon Realm."

"Although battles happen often between demons, the more important thing now is the war with the Human Race."

"In any case, demons can't possibly initiate a war right now."

"Perhaps Cang Ya has gone deep into the Cyan Stone Mountain Range."

"Let's wait a few more days, maybe he'll return, we just have to wait."

The Divinity Transformation Demon with red horns said calmly.

If Cang Ya were really dead, then the Cyan Stone Demon Cave would be the first to know.

Because every demon beyond Divinity Transformation is connected to the Demon Cave.

Upon death, it would surely alarm the Demon Cave.

But the Cyan Stone Demon Cave hasn't reacted, which means Cang Ya isn't dead.

Moreover, he's only temporarily away from here for a while, which is actually quite normal for Divinity Transformation Demons, not worth making a fuss over.

"That's true, if he were really dead, the Demon Cave would have certainly known."

Many Divinity Transformation Demons nodded in agreement.

They also felt there was no need to make a fuss for now.

Furthermore, to eliminate the numerous human settlements in the Cyan Stone Mountain Range, they've prepared for a long-term battle.

...

Whoosh!

At this moment, a figure appeared silently nearby.

The newcomer was Jiang Fan.

Having received Destiny's hint, he arrived here in advance.

And indeed waited for the arrival of this group of Divinity Transformation Demons.

Due to the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, he entirely concealed his aura, so this group of Divinity Transformation Demons couldn't detect his presence, as if he were invisible.

"Nine Divinity Transformation Demons, huh? They've come to the Cyan Stone Mountain Range after all."

"If they really act, I'm afraid no human settlement would survive."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes, looking calmly at the group of Divinity Transformation Demons.

"Master, more demons have appeared."

"Should we kill them this time, or seal them?"

The Demon-Vibrating Bell spoke, its tone filled with deep murderous intent.

However, it knew that killing demons here might provoke huge trouble.

"No need to seal them this time, just kill them directly."

Jiang Fan said flatly.

Previously, he chose to seal the Divinity Transformation Demons for fear of provoking demon hunts after killing them.

But now it's different; killing these Divinity Transformation Demons will make the next plan run more smoothly.

"That's really great."

The Demon-Vibrating Bell was very excited, although it didn't know why its master changed his mind this time, its master's decisions were always correct, and each choice maximized benefits and avoided danger.

It couldn't wait anymore.

Boom~~

Instantly, Jiang Fan took out the Demon-Vibrating Bell, and his vast Primordial Magical Power infused into it.

Undoubtedly, after advancing to the Second-Layer Divinity Transformation, he could urge more power from the Demon-Vibrating Bell.

It flew out from Jiang Fan's body, floating quietly in the air.

The clock was ancient and solid, the carvings on its surface seemingly contained endless years in their silence.

Suddenly, mysterious golden runes emerged slowly from the depths of the clock body, streaming on the clock as if alive, each rune seeming to contain the ultimate truth of the universe, forming a profound Dao Scripture, emitting a sacred aura that made the heart tremble.

In the next moment, under Jiang Fan's urging, the Demon-Vibrating Bell began to tremble slightly, at first just a deep hum, then the tremors grew more intense, as if some ancient power was waking from eternal sleep.

With the increasing vibrations, a terrifying Power of Sound Waves abruptly erupted from the clock body, not a piercing noise, but carrying a majesty and dominance that struck directly at the soul.

"What's happening? Why did I suddenly feel a sense of dread?"

"Damn it, enemies, someone intends to ambush us."

"What a joke, this is the Demon Realm, who would dare do that?"

"A human cultivator, this is the aura of a human cultivator's magical treasure."

"Damn it, could it be a human cultivator has infiltrated the Demon Realm to ambush us?"

Many Divinity Transformation Demons' faces changed dramatically.

They were originally planning how to find the human settlements, but at this moment, each one stood bristled, trembling all over, sensing a fatal crisis.

At this moment, they also saw an ancient giant clock floating in the air, emanating a sacred, ancient aura, containing dreadful Demon-Vanquishing Power.

It seemed as if this giant clock contained mysterious powers to destroy demons, especially restraining demons.

They wanted to resist, but it was already too late.

Chapter 905: Surviving the Calamity and Obtaining the First-Grade Opportunity (Part 2)

Since Jiang Fan launched a surprise attack, catching them off guard, this group of Divinity Transformation Demons stood no chance.

Clang~~ Clang~~ Clang~~

It was as if the sound of world destruction erupted, ringing the death knell of the demons.

For whom does this mourning bell toll?!

Immediately, this terrifying Power of Sound Waves burst forth. Wherever it reached, the void trembled violently. The originally stable space rippled visibly, like a lake disturbed by a massive stone, with waves visibly spreading and even causing slight distortions in space.

"It's over."

The numerous Divinity Transformation Demons were ashen-faced, unable to even summon the demonic power within their bodies.

The sound wave swept over them, leaving them no time to react. In an instant, their bodies shattered into pieces, not even letting out a scream, turning into mist of blood and fragmented bones swirling in the sky.

A total of nine Divinity Transformation Demons' bodies were torn apart, turning into countless pieces.

But the power of the Demon-Vibrating Bell wasn't over.

The Power of Sound Waves swept across, and in an instant, demons within hundreds of kilometers turned to dust, vanishing into thin air.

Not even a moment's resistance could be offered.

The hard ground first rumbled faintly, then cracked into terrifying fissures like a spider's web, quickly expanding and shattering the earth into pieces.

In the distance, under the impact of the sound waves, the mountains shook continuously, boulders tumbled down, ultimately collapsing with a loud crash. Dust filled the sky, blotting out the sun, making it seem like the entire world was trembling before this power.

"It really deserves its reputation; the Demon-Vibrating Bell's power is indeed terrifying."

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Previously, with his low cultivation, he could only unleash a tiny fraction of the Demon-Vibrating Bell's power.

As he advanced to the Divinity Transformation Level, he was able to harness some of the magical treasure's power.

However, even so, he still couldn't completely unleash the entirety of the magical treasure's power.

He could sense that the Demon-Vibrating Bell held even more terrifying power that had yet to be activated.

But there was no helping it; compared to high-tier cultivators in the Mortal World, he still lagged behind significantly.

He estimated that at least upon advancing to Refining Void or Integration, would he be able to completely unleash the full power of the Demon-Vibrating Bell.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!!!

But at that moment, beams of black light burst forth from the bodies of those Divinity Transformation Demons — these beams were unmistakably the demons' souls.

Although they suffered a terrifying attack from the Demon-Vibrating Bell, they were, after all, Divinity Transformation Level demons.

Completely killing them wasn't such a simple matter.

"These guys aren't dead yet?!"

The Demon-Vibrating Bell was furious.

It felt that it had weakened significantly compared to its prime.

Clearly, they were merely minor Divinity Transformation Demons, yet a single strike hadn't killed them.

Instead, it gave them a chance to escape.

This was a humiliation to itself.

This made it feel very angry.

"Escape? They can't escape at all."

Jiang Fan's eyes glinted coldly; he had somewhat anticipated this scenario.

After all, this is the Demon Realm. The opponents are Divinity Transformation Level demons with various means and an undying body.

Instantly killing them would indeed be very difficult.

But it doesn't matter. If they aren't killed once, then he would kill them a second time.

After all, after the previous strike, this group of Divinity Transformation Demons had already been heavily damaged.

Compared to the beginning, they didn't know how much weaker they had become.

"Damn it, he's a human Divinity Transformation cultivator."

"His courage is truly too great, daring to intrude into our Demon Realm as a mere human Divinity Transformation cultivator."

"No wonder Cang Ya went missing; it's likely he fell at the hands of this Divinity Transformation cultivator."

"A conspiracy, it must be a human conspiracy. The humans must be planning something big, sending this Divinity Transformation cultivator into our Demon Realm. We must immediately return to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave and report this incident."

"That's right, there's no need to fight this guy; as long as we report this, this human Divinity Transformation cultivator will surely die."

Numerous Divinity Transformation Demons discussed fervently.

In just a moment, they exchanged the deepest thoughts of their hearts.

Without a doubt, they were frightened by Jiang Fan's terrifying power. Clearly, he was just a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, yet he could easily crush them. If they didn't have some means, they might have been killed just now.

So naturally, they planned not to continue fighting with this mysterious human Divinity Transformation Cultivator, but chose to flee and return to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave to report the matter.

Once the Refining Void Demons in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave learn of this, no matter how powerful this human cultivator is, he will be undoubtedly doomed.

"Kill."

Jiang Fan took out the Primordial Talisman Pen from his body, infusing his vast Primordial Magical Power into it. At that moment, he seemed to resonate with the Primordial Talisman Pen, reaching a unity of man and artifact realm.

He felt an unparalleled harmony with the Primordial Talisman Pen, as if they were originally one entity.

At this moment, holding the Primordial Talisman Pen like a longsword, terrifying sharpness erupted from him, as if he had transformed into a Peerless Sword Immortal.

Under Jiang Fan's majestic Primordial Magical Power stimulation, numerous Primordial Talismans appeared on the Primordial Talisman Pen. These talismans were complex and exquisite, containing the aura of chaos at its inception, intertwining with each other as if forming a miniature world.

On the talismans, dazzling golden light bloomed, pure and blazing, carrying an unassailable divine aura, dispelling all surrounding gloom.

Countless talismans flickered uncertainly within the light, seemingly accumulating some vast power.

Suddenly, the pen tip trembled fiercely, and several condensed golden lights burst out, like lightning tearing through the darkness, too fast to follow its trajectory.

These golden lights contained the terrifying Power of Sharpness, leaving even the air torn apart in their wake, emitting a sharp whistle. Even more terrifying, the lights seemed to possess spirituality, precisely locking onto the demons' qi from afar, making it impossible for them to escape the deadly pursuit, regardless of how they dodged.

"Not good."

The Divinity Transformation Demons turned ashen; they felt that the terrifying power had utterly locked onto them, with no escape no matter how they dodged.

More importantly, these golden lights were faster than their escape speed.

In just an instant, they were upon them.

Boom~~

The golden lights pierced through the demons' souls unimpeded. The moment the light touched them, their bodies convulsed violently, eyes full of extreme fear and despair.

Their souls rapidly dissolved in the light, as if even their undying souls began to disintegrate, emitting a suffocatingly destructive aura.

In moments, the demons, initially fierce and aggressive, turned to ashes, utterly annihilated between heaven and earth.

"That was exhilarating, truly exhilarating."

"Daring to be rampant despite being mere demons, they were simply courting death."

The Primordial Talisman Pen laughed heartily.

It hadn't unleashed such power in a long time.

It almost forgot that it wasn't just an artifact of inheritance, but a tool for slaughter.

No matter the many magical treasures in the Void Realm, its Power of Slaughter ranks in the top ten.

Even the founding ancestor of the Primordial Talisman Sect could not fully unleash its power.

Boom~~

At this moment, a message instantly penetrated deep into Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness: "You killed a group of Divinity Transformation Demons, preemptively thwarted a future life-and-death tribulation, and successfully overcame a great calamity. You gained seven million Luck Points and a First-Grade Opportunity."

Upon sensing this message, Jiang Fan immediately felt relieved.

Without a doubt, it now truly meant he had slain the group of Divinity Transformation Demons and overcame the calamity.

Simultaneously, he no longer needed to worry about any slip-through-the-net demons.

But he knew the calamity was only just beginning.

The subsequent tribulations originate from the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

If he couldn't handle the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, he would still face a life-and-death tribulation.

Fortunately, having eliminated this group of Divinity Transformation Demons, he gained some time.

At least the calamity won't erupt immediately.

"I even acquired a First-Grade Opportunity?"

"Is the opportunity from these Divinity Transformation Demons?"

"Mere Divinity Transformation Demons; how could they possess a First-Grade Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan was very curious about the First-Grade Opportunity. With a wave of his hand, he immediately collected the storage bags from those Divinity Transformation Demons, filled with treasures they've accumulated over countless years.

Now they were all his.

If these Divinity Transformation Demons learned about this, they would be infuriated to death.

The treasures they painstakingly obtained over the years all became wedding clothes for someone else.

Chapter 906: Acquiring the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality, Equality Immortal King
Demon Realm, Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

This is an enormous demon city, inhabited by countless demons.

The entire city is shrouded in endless black demonic qi, making it impossible to see what is inside.

At this moment, deep within a palace.

A huge black demon core exists here, its surface covered with countless mysterious twisted runes, as if it is the core of the entire demon cave, and it is also connected to the soul of every demon.

At the instant when demons like the green-eyed ones at the Divinity Transformation level perished, nine mysterious threads deep inside this huge black demon core were abruptly severed, and the demon guarding this place suddenly awakened.

It frowned, as if sensing something.

"Hmm, nine Divinity Transformation demons died?"

"And they died at the same time? What exactly happened?"

"They had received a mission to go to the Cyan Stone Mountain Range and planned to annihilate a human village."

"But suddenly they died. Who exactly killed them?"

This mysterious demon felt quite puzzled.

Although Divinity Transformation demons are nothing significant to them, at most they are elite demons; if they wanted, they could completely spawn a bunch of Divinity Transformation demons.

But in any case, Divinity Transformation demons still represent a certain level of combat power.

Moreover, they died in the Demon Realm, so it's impossible not to investigate.

"However, they are currently engaged in fierce battle with the Human Race, and the Cyan Stone Demon Cave cannot send over any Refining Void demons."

"Sending Divinity Transformation demons would be pure suicide."

"In that case, let's wait for a while."

"In seven days, there should be Refining Void demons available."

This mysterious demon thought for a moment and made a decision.

It didn't think the death of nine Divinity Transformation demons was a big deal.

What is truly important right now is the war with the Human Race's Great Xuan Dynasty. If they lose, they will surely suffer heavy losses, so it cannot risk the overall situation for a few Divinity Transformation demons.

And it's just a matter of waiting seven days, which is completely bearable.

Thinking of this, it fell silent again, as if it had turned into a statue in the palace.

.....

Meanwhile, Jiang Fan was carefully examining the Storage Bags left behind by the Divinity Transformation demons.

It has to be said, these Divinity Transformation demons were far wealthier compared to the previous Cang Ya.

The Storage Bags were filled with treasures in abundance.

However, he was more concerned about that First-Grade Opportunity, as it's the highest opportunity in the Mortal World.

It's not something that can be obtained casually.

"Is this the First-Grade Opportunity?"

Jiang Fan's pupils contracted as he took out all the treasures he obtained this time and placed them in the inner world of the Exquisite Tower, where treasures piled up like a mountain.

Then he saw in the pile of treasures, there appeared a crimson flag.

But this flag was in a damaged state, without any treasure's glow, as if it were completely dead.

It was precisely because of this that the Divinity Transformation demon who obtained this treasure was completely unaware.

They had no idea they had obtained a First-Grade Opportunity.

"An Immortal Artifact, this is definitely an Immortal Artifact."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He already possessed several Immortal Artifacts, such as the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber, the Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron, the Human Emperor Sword, and so on, so he was very familiar with Immortal Artifacts, having a keen intuition.

So the moment he saw this flag, he knew it wasn't an ordinary Magical Treasure, but an Immortal Artifact.

It's just that this Immortal Artifact seemed to have experienced a fierce battle, resulting in its damaged state.

Because of this, no one could detect that it was actually an Immortal Artifact.

Or rather, even knowing it's an Immortal Artifact is useless, because its spirituality was almost destroyed.

Ordinary cultivators couldn't activate this Immortal Artifact at all.

Even obtaining this crimson flag, they would likely be at a loss.

However, he was not an ordinary cultivator; while ordinary cultivators couldn't refine this Immortal Artifact, he could.

"Since it's a First-Grade Opportunity, then I can try to refine it."

"No matter what kind of Magical Treasure, if it belongs to the Immortal Artifact level, then it certainly has endless mysteries."

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan did not hesitate; he immediately consumed a large amount of Luck Points.

One million Luck Points, two million Luck Points, five million Luck Points...

In the end, he consumed a total of ten million Luck Points.

A vast amount of mysterious energy instantly poured into this crimson flag.

The flag, originally in a dormant state, was infused with mysterious energy, and the spirituality hidden deep within this Immortal Artifact was instantly activated. The flag began to glow with countless runes and law patterns.

It also emitted a crimson light, releasing wisps of mysterious aura, shaking the void.

It was as if this flag turned into boundless flames, burning away all injustice, turning everything crimson.

Boom~~

Instantly, Jiang Fan felt his body tremble, and his soul instantly entered the depths of this crimson flag, establishing a connection with this Immortal Artifact.

He immediately knew he had refined this Immortal Artifact, also restoring part of its power.

The next second, a vast amount of information surged from this dark golden flag, and he instantly learned its origins.

"Immortal Artifact: Flag of Equality (in a damaged state)"

"Ability: Equality of All Beings, it can manifest an Equality Domain, capable of temporarily equalizing everything within the domain in terms of power, status, rules, etc.

Chapter 907: Obtaining the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality, the Immortal King of Equality (Part 2)

No matter the cultivation level of the cultivator, under the influence of the Flag of Equality, they can only exert the power of the same level as the holder. With this flag, even the weak have a chance to defeat the strong.

Because it is damaged and has lost a lot of its power, once used, it can only be used again after twenty years, so use it wisely. It has the ability to turn the tide of defeat."

"Origin: It comes from the Immortal King of Equality of the Immortal Realm and is an immortal artifact refined by the Immortal King of Equality. It contains the Law of Equality. He could not bear to see injustice in the world and hoped to build a world where everyone was equal regardless of race, background, or cultivation level. Unfortunately, he failed."

"This."

Sensing this information, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted. He never expected that this dark gold flag had such a grand origin and was greatly related to an Immortal King of the Immortal Realm.

Under the power of this flag, all beings are equal.

Although this immortal artifact is in a defective state and can be used only once every twenty years, the effect it exerts once used is unimaginable.

Under the effect of this immortal artifact, the cultivation of high-tier cultivators can be sealed, making the enemy as weak as oneself.

Even when facing a Refining Void, Integration, or even Mahayana Cultivator, it still possesses the power to fight.

No wonder this is a First-Grade Opportunity.

With mastery of this immortal artifact, it's a fifty-fifty chance against anyone.

"Oh my, the master got another immortal artifact."

"I didn't expect this strange flag to be a magical treasure."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron exclaimed upon seeing this scene.

Honestly, it couldn't figure out what kind of treasure this unusual flag was.

But after the master tinkered with it for a while, this magical treasure immediately came to life.

It could sense the formidable nature of this immortal artifact, containing incredible power.

Even in a damaged state, it's unmatched by ordinary magical treasures.

"This guy's luck is against the heavens."

"Even coming to the Spirit Ruins Realm, he experiences adventure after adventure."

"Now obtaining an immortal artifact is really incredible."

The Human Emperor Sword was also dumbfounded.

It's not that it hasn't seen Children of Destiny; every Child of Destiny is born with immense fortune, favored by the Heavenly Dao from birth.

So no matter what a Child of Destiny does, they can turn bad luck into good and experience endless adventures.

The issue is that this only benefits them in their native world.

If they go to another world, they won't have such luck.

Might even have no luck at all and face endless misfortune instead.

After all, the Child of Destiny from the Void Realm wouldn't be recognized by the Heavenly Dao of the Spirit Ruins Realm.

Yet this young man not only enjoys boundless fortune in the Void Realm but also in the Spirit Ruins Realm.

This is truly incredible.

If not witnessed firsthand, it wouldn't believe such an astonishing thing.

"Are immortal artifacts really so worthless now?"

"Just casually acquiring them?"

The Primordial Talisman Pen was also very surprised.

Even in the heyday of the Primordial Talisman Sect, there was no way to master several immortal artifacts.

But how long has this guy been cultivating, and he's obtained so many? It's really exaggerated.

Looks like no matter which world he goes to, he can make a name for himself.

However, it was also quite pleased, for only such a cultivator could lead the Primordial Talisman Sect to rise again.

"Wait, could the only hope be this immortal artifact, the Flag of Equality?"

At this moment, Jiang Fan was no longer bothered with the discussion about his magical treasures, squinting his eyes as he stared at the flag.

He suddenly recalled the previous message from fate, which prompted him to take action and kill the group of Divinity Transformation Demons.

If he had chosen to flee instead, the group of Divinity Transformation Demons would definitely wreak havoc in the Cyan Stone Mountain Range, devastating human villages.

By then, the Human Race's destiny would be continually weakened, and he would lose a top-tier opportunity.

Fortunately, he chose to act and killed the group of Divinity Transformation Demons, thus acquiring the immortal artifact Flag of Equality.

Although doing so would certainly alert the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, attracting even more terrible demons, initially heading to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave seemed like a death wish. But with this immortal artifact Flag of Equality, he might just have a chance to kill those demons.

"Interesting, is this the mysteriousness of fate?"

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Initially, as a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, he had no chance of destroying a Demon Cave.

But now the situation has changed.

Demons are in battle with the Great Xuan Dynasty, and their elites have been deployed. Not many strong demons are left in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Plus, with his newly acquired immortal artifact, the Flag of Equality, he seemingly has a shot at destroying the Demon Cave.

It could be said this opportunity is the convergence of time, place, and people.

If this chance is missed, it would likely be tough to find another opportunity to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Mysteriously, he seemed to see many threads of fate intertwined together.

Boom~~

In an instant, a message immediately plunged into the depths of his consciousness sea.

"The mystery of fate lies here. If you wield the proper means and strike at the right moment, even the weak have a chance to defeat the strong. Even an ant might slay a dragon.

Having obtained the Flag of Equality, you preliminarily have the possibility to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, but it's just a possibility. Take one wrong step, and it could lead to eternal doom."

"Fate will provide you with hints."

"Fate Hint One: You have struck down the group of Divinity Transformation Demons. Although this has alerted the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, due to the fierce battle, the Cyan Stone Demon Cave cannot send forces to hunt you down temporarily. You have at most seven days left.

If you want to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, it's best to head there immediately. The demons wouldn't expect a human cultivator to stealthily infiltrate the Demon Cave, making this your only opportunity.

As a human, if you enter the Cyan Stone Demon Cave without concealment, you will undoubtedly be immediately detected by the demons. Fortunately, you have the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf to mask your aura and hide your presence. Based on the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, even Integration Cultivators would have difficulty detecting your traces, but you need to be cautious of certain special detection methods and Mahayana Cultivators. As long as you are careful, the demons in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave will struggle to detect your existence, which is where your chance of survival lies."

"Fate Hint Two: You can also choose to flee. After all, sneaking into the Cyan Stone Demon Cave is extremely dangerous. A slight misstep could see you encircled by demons and lead to your demise and Dao disappearance.

But if you choose to flee, numerous human villages in the Cyan Stone Mountain Range will fall victim to demon encirclement, and you will also face endless pursuit by demons, becoming a stray dog in the Demon Realm."

Receiving this message, Jiang Fan's eyes glimmered with a sharp light.

Undoubtedly, after slaying this group of Divinity Transformation Demons, he no longer has a chance to escape. The bow has been drawn, and there's no turning back; now, he can only move forward, with no retreat possible.

Either those demons die, or it's his end.

Thankfully, he possesses the power of fate hint, guiding him to find a glimmer of survival.

"Master, where are we heading next?"

"After getting rid of these Divinity Transformation Demons, we've sure stirred a hornet's nest."

The Exquisite Tower asked curiously.

Earlier, it had already collected the bodies of the slain Divinity Transformation Demons and demons, and instantly refined them, resulting in the acquisition of a large amount of Spiritual Soil for the Exquisite Tower.

This also strengthened some of its powers.

However, it still worried about the ensuing demon hunts.

After all, this is the Demon Realm, the dominion of demons.

Surviving under demon pursuit is no simple task.

"No worries, we'll head directly to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave."

"This time, I'll destroy this Demon Cave once and for all."

Jiang Fan said casually.

"What?!"

Upon hearing this, the Primordial Talisman Pen, Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron, and Demon-Vibrating Bell were immediately stunned, looking at Jiang Fan in disbelief.

Swoosh!

With this thought in mind, Jiang Fan did not hesitate and instantly flew towards the direction of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

After all, he only had seven days left.

There's not much time to waste; it truly is a race against time.

Chapter 908: Immortal Realm Treasure, Concealed Aura

Three days later.

Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

This is a massive Demon City.

The entire city is tightly shrouded by an endless Demon Cloud, which is not an ordinary mist, but the condensate of the resentment of billions of vengeful spirits. It appears in a heart-stopping deep purple and inky black, with occasional dark red lightning cracking within the depths of the cloud, like the blood-colored eyes of a demon. The Demon Cloud is constantly rolling, with a greedy desire to devour all light hidden in its flowing traces.

The city walls are built with the bones of millions of giant beasts mixed with obsidian, towering thousands of feet high, resembling ferocious fangs rising from the depths of the earth.

The walls are not smooth, but are covered with densely packed, twisted dark runes that seem alive, constantly wriggling and deforming, sometimes stretching into eerie incantations, sometimes curling into faces of pain-stricken ghosts.

Whenever the Demon Cloud surges especially fiercely, the runes emit a faint green glow, illuminating the walls like the gates of the Netherworld, accompanied by a low humming sound in the air — the runes are absorbing the evil aura from heaven and earth, sustaining the operation of the entire city.

Inside the city, it is simply a paradise for demons.

Countless demons gather, roam, and roar here.

The streets are paved with solidified blood and stones, making a sticky sound underfoot.

In the sky fly winged demons with fleshy wings, drooling venom; on the ground crawl reptilian demons with hundreds of legs and plated armor; in the alleys skitters shadowy phantoms that feed on fear.

Their forms are bizarre: some are monsters made of multiple heads stitched together, some have twisted bodies half-human, half-beast, while others have no fixed form, just a blob of constantly shifting viscous black mist.

At this moment, many demons were also chatting, discussing the war between demons and the Great Xuan Dynasty.

After all, this matter is of utmost importance to them.

"How's the recent war with the Great Xuan Dynasty? Why does it feel more and more intense?"

A demon asked curiously.

"Indeed, it's getting more intense, haven't you noticed? Many Integration and Refining Void demons have been dispatched to the Great Xuan Dynasty, and even Divinity Transformation demons have become fewer."

"No wonder I felt there are so fewer demons in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave these days."

"The war is so intense, we won't lose this battle, will we?"

"Hehe, how could we possibly lose, mere humans can't be our match."

"That's right, the heritage of the Human Race is far inferior to ours; if not for the Heavenly Dao protecting them, mere humans would have been wiped out by us long ago."

"Just wait, in no time, we'll hear of the demons' victory, and this world will sooner or later become our territory."

"It's a pity though, the leaders didn't send us to the Great Xuan Dynasty. If we'd gone to human territories, killing a few human cultivators might have helped us advance to Refining Void."

"Isn't it true? It's said that many Divinity Transformation demons have already advanced in the Great Xuan Dynasty, who knows how many human cultivators they devoured, we're so envious."

"War is indeed the best opportunity for our demons to evolve."

"But many demons have also fallen, perhaps participating in the war isn't a good thing."

"There's nothing to worry about, it's just a return to the embrace of the Demon God."

Many demons discussed fervently.

They were exceedingly enthusiastic about the war, eager to rush out and join the fray.

Unfortunately, they weren't chosen by the leaders and had to remain in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Yet, unbeknownst to them, an uninvited guest had stealthily infiltrated the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

The visitor was naturally Jiang Fan.

He flew towards the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, spending three days to finally reach it.

At the same time, he noticed that the cave's rules were quite lax, with no demon detection at all.

It seems that from the demons' perspective, it's impossible for any enemy to dare invade the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Therefore, they weren't very vigilant.

Thus, leveraging the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, he easily infiltrated the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

"It's too outrageous, how many demons are there in this demon cave?"

Jiang Fan marveled.

He glanced at the numerous demons on the street, numbering in the tens of thousands just by sight.

Not to mention those he hadn't seen yet.

The demons residing in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave probably number in the millions.

"Master, won't we be discovered by these demons?"

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron trembled at this moment, never expecting its master to have such audacity as to charge into the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

One must know, this is the demons' lair, with countless powerful demons residing inside.

If its master's aura leaked and was detected by the demons here, not even a thousand lives would be enough.

"Haha, no need to worry."

"The power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf is indeed formidable."

"Even standing on the demon's streets, not a single demon can detect me."

Jiang Fan smiled faintly.

Once again, he realized the might of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, worthy of being an Immortal Realm Treasure.

At this moment, he felt his body shrouded by a mysterious force, transforming him into a void-like existence.

Not only did it conceal his form, rendering him invisible, but it also diminished his presence.

Chapter 909: Immortal Realm Treasure, Concealment of Aura (2)

Even the divine sense probes of the demons within the Demon Cave cannot detect the slightest trace.

This is also why he can swagger into the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, unafraid of being discovered by the demons.

At least cultivators below the Mahayana stage cannot detect his existence.

"The power of this Immortal Realm Treasure is indeed incredible."

"If I could gather all nine pieces, it would be quite extraordinary."

The Primordial Talisman Pen also agreed with this point.

To be honest, though it was well-informed, seeing the scene filled with demons all around it was enough to make even it tremble with fear.

A mere Divinity Transformation Cultivator daring to venture into the Demon Cave is simply unheard of, even unprecedented.

Of course, daring to enter a Demon Cave is nothing new; there have been stubborn cultivators in history who have done so.

However, those who managed to leave alive were extremely few.

"But what should be done next?"

Jiang Fan frowned slightly.

Even though he had already infiltrated the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, truly destroying it was not such an easy task.

Even if many powerful demons had already left this place.

As long as some Refining Void Demons remained, he could not possibly defeat them.

Moreover, the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality can only be used once.

It can only be used at a crucial moment, where a decisive strike is necessary.

More importantly, he didn't know how to truly destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

To be honest, it was his first time encountering a demon's lair, and he lacked much experience.

At this moment, the voice of the Human Emperor Sword sounded: "You ventured here, presumably intending to destroy this Demon Cave. During the Ancient Era, Demon Caves also appeared in the Void Realm. The cultivators of that time took great pains to eliminate these Demon Caves, and many fell."

Its tone was filled with emotion, as if reminiscing about the bloody battles of the past.

"Do you know how to destroy this Demon Cave?"

Hearing this, Jiang Fan's heart was stirred, and he eagerly asked.

He also recalled the origins of the Human Emperor Sword, considering all it had experienced in the Void Realm.

Naturally, it had battled numerous demons and knew many secrets about them.

The Demon-Vibrating Bell and Primordial Talisman Pen, among other magical treasures, had also experienced those times.

Unfortunately, they had been severely injured and lost most of their memories.

This meant they knew little about many ancient secrets.

But the Human Emperor Sword was different; it was like an ancient cultivator, knowledgeable about many secrets.

It probably understood Demon Caves quite well.

"Certainly."

"From a certain perspective, a Demon Cave is a special kind of demon."

"They are vast in size, can expand infinitely, and have astonishing defenses."

"Thus, they became the lairs of demons."

"In the Ancient Era, demons bred many Demon Caves, attempting to invade the entire Void Realm."

"But eventually, these Demon Caves were destroyed through joint efforts of various factions and True Spirits."

"If they had been allowed to proliferate, the Void Realm would have completely fallen."

The Human Emperor Sword said gravely.

"The Void Realm once also suffered from the harms of Demon Caves?"

"If so, how can I destroy a Demon Cave?"

Jiang Fan asked bluntly.

"Deep within each Demon Cave, there is a core called a Demon Core."

"Due to the existence of the Demon Core, Demon Caves are so powerful and can keep expanding, consuming the world."

"To destroy a Demon Cave, one merely needs to shatter this Demon Core."

"Furthermore, once the Demon Core is shattered, destroying the Demon Cave, all demons associated with the Demon Cave would be severely damaged."

"Some weaker demons might even die immediately."

"For this reason, Demon Caves are considered the critical point for demons, extremely important."

"They will heavily guard the area around the Demon Core, not allowing anyone to approach."

"This Cyan Stone Demon Cave is not simple."

"The demons guarding the Demon Core are likely at least of the Body Integration Realm."

"If you rashly approach, it would only lead to certain death."

The Human Emperor Sword said flatly.

It was not optimistic about Jiang Fan's actions this time, really thinking they were too reckless.

Just a Divinity Transformation realm, and yet daring to venture into a Demon Cave.

Furthermore, having the audacity to plan to destroy the Demon Cave was too ridiculous, purely seeking death.

Fortunately, this kid had the Immortal Realm Treasure Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf; otherwise, as soon as he approached the Demon Cave, the demons inside would have discovered him, killed him, and turned him into their food.

"So, if I deal with the demons guarding the Demon Core, I can shatter the Demon Core?"

Jiang Fan's eyes lit up, and he continued to inquire.

"Dealing with the demons guarding the Demon Core is only the first step."

"In fact, the real difficulty is how to shatter the Demon Core."

"You must know, this is the core of a Demon Cave, containing immense energy."

"Even an ordinary cultivator giving everything they have wouldn't harm the Demon Core in the slightest."

"But I am different; I am the Human Emperor Sword."

"I happen to possess the special ability to shatter the Demon Core."

"If you can really deal with that Combined Demon, then wielding the Human Emperor Sword will allow you to shatter the Demon Core."

"However, it's likely you won't even be able to approach the location of the Demon Core."

The Human Emperor Sword said flatly.

It acknowledged that the concealing ability of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf was powerful.

However, the breaking concealing ability near the Demon Core was beyond imagination, and even a Mahayana Cultivator could detect it.

If this kid rashly approached, it would simply be courting death.

Honestly, it didn't want to see this kid foolishly die in this Demon Cave.

This kid was still too young; dealing with a Demon Cave was indeed too early.

He should at least progress to Integration, or even Mahayana, before dealing with a Demon Cave.

"I see."

Jiang Fan's eyes revealed a glint of brilliance.

Without a doubt, this was the ray of hope that destiny had hinted at.

He possessed the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, capable of silently infiltrating the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

He also wielded the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality, which should allow him to deal with the powerful demons guarding the Demon Core.

Finally, coupled with the power of the Human Emperor Sword, there was a slight chance of destroying the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

But this was only a theoretical possibility.

After all, this was a demon's lair, riddled with restrictions and teeming with demons.

Taking a wrong step could lead to detection by the demons, resulting in death and annihilation.

It's like walking on a tightrope, and even a single misstep was unacceptable.

Boom~~

At this moment, a message instantly entered deep into Jiang Fan's consciousness.

"You have finally infiltrated the Cyan Stone Demon Cave. Even though you possess various means, there is a slight chance of destroying the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, yet you feel an uneasy sense within—will things go as smoothly as you imagine?"

In fact, your intuition is correct. The Demon Core is hidden within the Demon Hall of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, and there are detection methods left by Mahayana demons inside, showing their extraordinary concern for the Demon Core.

If you dare to approach the Demon Hall, even with a treasure like the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, your presence will be exposed, and then you will surely be slapped to death by the Combined Demon. Fortunately, destiny always allows a glimmer of hope."

"Destiny will provide you a hint."

"Destiny Hint 1: If you are alone, it will undoubtedly be difficult to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave. But why not seek allies? Unknown to you, a human prison has been constructed deep beneath the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, where human cultivators captured by the demons from the Great Xuan Dynasty are imprisoned.

These human cultivators are sealed inside the demon prison, with virtually no chance of escape. Normally, you would have no opportunity to rescue them.

However, due to the demons waging war with the Great Xuan Dynasty, a large number of demon prison guards have been redeployed, leaving the demon prison unprecedentedly vulnerable.

You can fully utilize the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf to infiltrate this demon prison; if you successfully rescue these human cultivators, you might leverage their power to help divert the demons' attention, achieving the effect of leading the tiger away from the mountain, making it much simpler for you to infiltrate the Demon Hall later."

"Destiny Hint 2: Alternatively, you could choose to directly infiltrate the Demon Hall, but you would be immediately discovered and killed by the Combined Demon, without even a chance to use the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality."

Chapter 910: Fate Is Watching Over Him

"They're actually imprisoning human cultivators? What's the reason behind this?"

Jiang Fan furrowed his brows.

He felt quite curious about this.

After all, humans to demons are nothing more than food, similar to spirit medicine.

After consuming them, they enhance a demon's power.

Typically, when demons capture humans, they eat them directly, not locking them up at all.

Yet, there is a prison for humans within the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, which is truly baffling.

There must be a peculiar reason for this.

"It seems this human prison is the method to unravel the situation."

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

Clearly, it's not easy to approach the Demon Hall right now.

The place is filled with countless restrictions.

Even with the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, it's hard to evade those powerful demons.

If he could truly release that group of human cultivators, he could likely use their strength to sabotage the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Whoosh!

At that thought, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate and immediately flew towards the human prison.

Guided by fate's hint, he soon found the prison's location.

The prison was situated in a remote corner of the demon city.

Without being familiar with the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, it would be quite difficult to find it.

Before Jiang Fan appeared a huge underground facility.

The deep cavern entrance extended to unknown depths underground.

Surrounding the entrance stood demon guards, all of Divinity Transformation level.

However, clearly, these demon guards were dozing off, seeming very bored.

This situation was quite normal.

Since the establishment of this human prison, there has not been any incident.

No human cultivator has escaped from it.

Nor has there been anyone attempting a prison break.

Gradually, the demon guards stationed here naturally became less vigilant.

Each one was lazily fulfilling their duty.

"Sigh, I can't believe we're so unlucky, being assigned to guard this human prison."

"I say, it would be better to deal with these human cultivators rather than imprisoning them."

"Doing this is a pure waste of resources."

An angry red demon guard spoke.

It believed it was unnecessary to imprison these human cultivators and it would be better to eat them directly.

Not only would it save a lot of manpower and resources, but it would also enhance the demons' cultivation.

Imprisoning these human cultivators is purely thankless labor.

"Heh, you know nothing."

"These human cultivators cannot die. If even one of them dies, the higher-ups will hold us accountable."

"Perhaps you don't know, the identities of these cultivators within the Great Xuan Dynasty have been replaced by demons."

"If they die, those spies who infiltrated the Great Xuan Dynasty might be exposed."

"Then it would ruin the grand plan of our demons."

Another blue demon guard sneered.

It explained the importance of their duties.

If the human cultivators imprisoned here died, the demons' years of infiltration plans would all be for nothing.

"The identities of these human cultivators have been replaced?"

"How did they achieve this?"

Hearing this, the red demon guard was shocked.

"It's not a big deal."

"Over the years, we demons have laid traps and drafted elaborate plans."

"Then captured these high-status human cultivators."

"Following that, we demons replaced their identities and appeared openly within the Great Xuan Dynasty."

"Because of this, over the years, the demons' plans have been executed smoothly, allowing them to quietly establish numerous demon caves within the territory of the Great Xuan Dynasty."

The blue demon guard said proudly.

This is something every demon prison guard knows.

Only its companion beside it is newly appointed and unfamiliar with this human prison.

But it doesn't mind explaining to its companion.

After all, if an accident truly occurs, it too cannot avoid responsibility.

"Brilliant, truly brilliant."

"Previously, I wondered why our demons' plans were progressing so smoothly. So, there were these insiders?"

"The Great Xuan Dynasty might not even know there are already many demon traitors within their ranks."

The red demon guard came to a realization.

It admired the wisdom of those high-level demons, realizing they were not just brute forces.

When it comes to plotting and scheming, how could mere humans compare to our demons?

They can only meet their demise at our hands.

"Now you also understand why the human cultivators imprisoned here cannot die, right?"

"These human cultivators are all high-status and have left life tokens within the Great Xuan Dynasty."

"If they die, wouldn't it immediately expose the demon traitors?"

"Therefore, these human cultivators mustn't die under any circumstances."

"We must even prevent them from committing suicide."

The blue demon guard said sinisterly.

"I see."

The red demon nodded.

It also understood the importance of this prison.

Though this place may not have much to offer, it concerns the future outcome of the demon war.

If problems truly occur with the human cultivators inside, they might find themselves in deep trouble.

It's no wonder other demons were gleefully scoffing upon learning they were appointed as guards here.

After all, becoming a guard here doesn't bring much benefit, but if something really goes wrong, they'll be punished, a typical position with great responsibility but little reward.
