

Fortune 911

Chapter 911: Fate Is Smiling Upon Him (2)

If there were a choice, it naturally wouldn't want to be a prison guard here.

Unfortunately, it had no choice, being appointed by the higher demons to guard this place.

"But there's no need for you to worry about anything."

"All these years, this prison has never had any issues."

"No one has dared raid the prison here."

"And of course, the human cultivators imprisoned inside could never escape."

"As long as we're careful, we'll be able to complete our work."

The blue demon guard comforted.

It had been a prison guard here for over a thousand years, never encountering any issues.

But being a prison guard here had little benefit, so few demons could endure for long.

Often, after a while, a batch of guards would resign.

And then new guards would come in.

The reason it managed to stay here so long was because it had no other choice.

After all, it committed a grave mistake and was punished to serve as a guard here, needing at least a three-thousand-year term to end it.

"That's good."

The red demon guard breathed a sigh of relief upon hearing this, thinking that if even the old guard said so, then the security of this human prison shouldn't have any major problems.

Surely the prison wouldn't have issues just as it took office.

If anything really went wrong, it would be terribly unlucky.

"Alright, enough talking."

"Follow me into the prison for an inspection now."

"Our work isn't just about guarding the main gate."

"We also need to check on those imprisoned human cultivators."

"Ensuring none of these human cultivators are dead."

The blue demon guard said in a deep voice.

It took out the token from itself, directly opening the prison door.

Bang~~

In an instant, the barrier of the entire prison was opened.

The two demon prison guards also walked in through the entrance.

What they didn't know was that at the moment they opened the prison door, a figure silently followed them, sneaking into the prison as well.

Swish swish swish!!!

The two demon prison guards walked along the long underground staircase, having no idea how far they traveled, eventually reaching the innermost area of the prison.

The place had been hollowed out and constructed with numerous cells.

Each cell imprisoned a human cultivator.

No one knew exactly how many people were held here.

But every human cultivator inside the cells was bound with thick, black chains.

Each black chain was engraved with twisted demon runes.

It was precisely because of these black chains that their powers were sealed, making it impossible for them to escape from this cell regardless of their cultivation level.

When these two demon prison guards arrived, they immediately attracted the attention of many human prisoners.

"You bastards, come on, just kill me."

"A bunch of cowardly demons, you make me sick."

"Is this all you demons are capable of? Do you dare fight me?"

"Let me out if you have the guts, I'll kill you in a heartbeat."

Numerous human cultivators cursed and yelled angrily.

"Just ants, and you dare speak to me this way?!"

The red demon prison guard's face changed upon hearing this, anger boiling, thinking that they were just a bunch of homeless dogs and yet dared to speak such blatant blasphemy to it, utterly unaware of their limitations.

"Ignore them."

"These guys know they can't escape, so they're deliberately speaking to provoke us, they just want to seek death."

The blue demon prison guard said indifferently.

"I see."

The red demon guard suddenly realized, evidently knowing that this group of human cultivators realized it was new and deliberately said such things to provoke it, just wanting to use its strength to kill them.

If it acted impulsively, it might really have fallen into the trap.

After all, these guys inherently wanted to die.

"Hehe, just a group of dying people."

"Perhaps you don't know yet, thanks to your identities, we've been thriving in the Great Xuan Dynasty."

"Recently, we've established thousands of demon caves within the Great Xuan Dynasty's territory."

"I reckon it won't be long before the Human Race is entirely exterminated."

"By then, even if you wish not to die, you won't have that choice."

The blue demon guard mockingly laughed.

It didn't mind revealing some news from the outside world to these human prisoners.

What?!

This statement caused the faces of numerous human cultivators inside the prison to change dramatically. They never expected the situation outside to have deteriorated to this extent.

All of this was because they were captured.

If they hadn't fallen into the hands of demons, the humans wouldn't have been driven to such a precarious state.

Each one was furious to the extreme, struggling desperately, rattling the chains on their bodies.

Unfortunately, their cultivation had long been sealed, leaving them akin to mortals.

It was utterly impossible to break free.

They couldn't even commit suicide.

"Hmm, no humans have died, that's not bad."

"Today's patrol ends here, let's leave."

Seeing the despair on the faces of these human cultivators, the blue demon guard felt very satisfied, even delighted.

Despite being annoyed by the curses of these human cultivators, it couldn't strike at them, otherwise, it might just be fulfilling their wishes.

But now by revealing some outside news and bringing these foul-mouthed human cultivators to despair, it felt very satisfying, this is the result of offending it.

However, it didn't want to stay here long, as these human cultivators had such vile mouths.

It was quieter outside the prison.

Swish swish swish!!!

The two demon guards quickly left the place, returning to the prison gate to guard it quietly.

The prison was left with just the group of imprisoned human cultivators.

Instantly, the place fell silent, exceptionally eerie in its quietness.

Even the drop of a pin on the ground could be heard clearly.

"Do you think what that demon said just now is true or false?"

At this moment, an old voice spoke, carrying immense authority in its tone.

"Ice Soul King, whether what the other party said is true or false, it no longer holds any meaning for us."

"We are sealed by the Forbidden Spirit Magic Lock, completely unable to escape."

Speaking was the Spirit Feather King, an Integration Cultivator, and a King of the Kingdom under the Great Xuan Dynasty.

Unfortunately, he fell into the demon's trap and was captured and sealed here.

Besides him, there were also four Integration Cultivators imprisoned here, all of whom were kings of the Great Xuan Dynasty.

The most powerful among them was the Ice Soul King.

Additionally, there were three other Integration Cultivators, namely the Giant Stone King, Phantom King, and Flame Tower King.

If in the outside world, they were Great Powers of the Human Race.

Regrettably, here, they were merely prisoners, at the mercy of the demons.

"Yes, honestly, I think this might be true."

"After all, the demons replaced us."

"Using our identities, they've become unchecked within the Great Xuan Dynasty."

"Such happenings aren't surprising."

"I can't believe our mistake caused the death of the Human Race."

The Giant Stone King said through clenched teeth, very unwilling.

The other human cultivators remained silent.

They had nothing left to say.

Now they were just prisoners. Even knowing the outside world's situation, they were powerless.

Each one was utterly desperate.

Swish!

At this moment, Jiang Fan, using the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, bypassed the demon guards, followed them, and very inconspicuously sneaked inside. He quietly observed this group of imprisoned human cultivators, not speaking.

Although he was deep within enemy territory, where the slightest mistake could lead to his death, he felt no fear, but rather, confidence.

Because fate was smiling upon him.

Bang~~

At this moment, a message once again seeped into Jiang Fan's mind: "You finally arrived at the prison holding numerous human cultivators. Seeing so many imprisoned human cultivators, you naturally want to help, but you're unaware that if you act recklessly, not only will you fail to rescue these human cultivators, but you might end up causing their deaths. This is because among these human prisoners, someone has already become a traitor, serving as a slave to the demons."

What?!

Perceiving this fate's warning, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted. Initially, he wanted to act immediately to rescue these human cultivators, but now it seemed the situation wasn't that simple.

If he acted rashly, he might find himself trapped here as well.

Chapter 912: Slaying the Human Race Traitors, Power of the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber

After all, there are traitors among these human cultivators.

If they are rescued and the traitors suddenly strike, I might end up doomed.

Even if the traitors don't act, they can inform the demons of this.

At that time, a large number of demons will come, and I would be surrounded.

But before Jiang Fan could think much, the fate hints came rushing in again.

"Fate will give you hints."

"Fate hint one: Normally, a newcomer cultivator would find it difficult to identify the traitors hidden within, but you possess the power of fate hints, allowing you to discern the true identities of the traitors. There are a total of ten Refining Void traitors and one Integration traitor (click for specific information).

Before rescuing these human cultivators, you can act first, eliminating these human traitors. Their cultivation is sealed by the Forbidden Spirit Profound Demon Lock, rendering them powerless to resist you. But you must act decisively and eliminate them within ten breaths, or they will inevitably relay the message."

"Fate hint two: Merely eliminating the human traitors is insufficient. On the surface, it appears there are no demon prison guards within this prison, but in reality, there is a Divinity Transformation Demon with a hundred eyes hidden here, integrated into the walls, monitoring every move within the prison.

Originally, there were even more powerful demon prison guards in this prison, but due to the intense battle situation, they have been deployed elsewhere, leaving only the hundred-eyed demon of the Divinity Transformation Realm.

They believe that this prison has been secure for countless years, and leaving for just a few days wouldn't pose any problems, which leaves an opening for you.

If you want to ensure no mishaps, you must take care of the hundred-eyed demon, preventing your jailbreak news from being leaked, specific location of the hundred-eyed demon (click to view)."

"Fate hint three: Even if the human traitors are eliminated and the Divinity Transformation Demon is killed, overcoming numerous crises, and rescuing these human cultivators, remember, your ultimate goal is to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

So after rescuing these human cultivators, leave immediately and head near the Demon Hall to wait for the right moment, don't waste time, for these human cultivators are all old foxes and will not trust you.

Of course, you don't need their trust; as long as they escape and attract the attention of a large number of demons, that's sufficient. There's no need to get too deeply involved with them."

Upon sensing this information, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted.

Evidently, even if he snuck into this prison silently, completing the task wasn't as simple as it seemed, with too many pitfalls.

No wonder it is a choice of nine deaths and one life.

If he can't eliminate all the interfering options, he might very likely perish here.

"Even if I save them, they don't trust me?"

"Though, indeed that's true."

"These human Refining Void and Integration cultivators have lived for countless years, they certainly wouldn't trust easily."

"Luckily, I don't need to interact with these cultivators."

"As long as they can help me, split the demons' firepower, that's enough."

Jiang Fan squeezed his fist.

Thinking of this, he looked at the location of the hundred-eyed demon.

Only to see the demon hidden deep within the walls, its eyes merged into the stone, appearing incredibly sinister and evil.

If it weren't for the fate hint, he wouldn't even know that a hundred-eyed demon was concealed here.

Undoubtedly, if he acted recklessly, he would definitely be spotted by this hundred-eyed demon.

At that time, who knows how many demons would rush over to surround him.

To rescue this batch of human cultivators, he must kill this hundred-eyed demon.

And the best is to kill the demon instantly, not giving it a chance to retaliate.

Otherwise, his plan would certainly fail.

"To instantly kill this hundred-eyed demon, it seems I must rely on the power of the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber."

Jiang Fan thought carefully, wanting to silently slay the hundred-eyed demon without giving it a chance to resist, only the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber has such capability.

After all, it is a magical treasure capable of even slaying immortals, not to mention the petty Divinity Transformation Demon.

Thinking of this, he didn't hesitate any longer, activating the immense Primordial Magical Power within him, fully energizing the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber.

Instantly, the saber's surface was covered in dense runes, emitting a faint glow, a terrifying murderous aura brewing at the blade tip, seemingly distorting the surrounding void.

Whoosh!

The next second, Jiang Fan locked onto the hundred-eyed demon's aura, the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber suddenly flew out, transforming into a white streak of light, moving at unthinkable speed.

"What's happening?"

The hundred-eyed demon was originally resting within the wall, thinking it was just a boring surveillance task, and after so many years, nothing unexpected had happened.

Thus, it lost its vigilance, believing nothing would go wrong here.

But at that moment, it felt a lethal threat, and hundreds of eyes suddenly opened, unleashing terrifying demonic qi, trying to locate the source of danger.

Unfortunately, its actions came too late.

Boom!

A flying saber pierced through one of its eyes instantly, its main eye, and key point.

Even more terrifying, the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber erupted with a dreadful wave of destruction, blasting along the causality line.

Chapter 913: Slaying Human Traitors, Power of the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber (Part 2)

Hundreds of eyeballs shattered under this destructive force simultaneously.

"Am I, am I dead? Just like that, I'm dead?"

"Who on earth killed me?"

The Hundred-Eyed Demon was instantly bewildered. It had no idea what had happened, nor where the enemy was concealed, and couldn't even send out any messages.

In just an instant, it was killed by the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber, without any chance to resist.

Of course, this scene wouldn't be hidden from the human prisoners held here.

They had been here for so long, and it was their first time encountering such a change.

"What happened? Why did this Hundred-Eyed Demon suddenly die?"

"Who on earth killed this Hundred-Eyed Demon?"

"Could it be that the Great Xuan Dynasty found out we were missing and sent someone to rescue us?"

"Heh, don't dream. This is the Demon Cave, deep within the Demon Realm. Even as powerful as the Great Xuan Dynasty is, there's no way they could send someone to rescue us from the Demon Realm."

"True, it's probably some kind of internal chaos among the demons themselves."

"Indeed, it doesn't really concern us. Let's just watch the show."

"After all, for us, dying here might actually be a liberation."

"Yeah, if someone killed us, we'd actually be grateful. At least the demons hiding within the Great Xuan Dynasty would be exposed, reducing our sin."

Many human cultivators were discussing intensely.

They were quite curious about what enemy had killed the Hundred-Eyed Demon, the prison guard.

Due to the power of the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, they couldn't see Jiang Fan's form at all.

To them, Jiang Fan was essentially an invisible man—unseen, unfelt.

Some traitors hidden among the human prisoners were also anxious and uncertain.

Because they hadn't received any information either.

This meant there must have been a major upheaval in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

But they had long been sealed with the Profound Demon Lock, unable to do anything.

Now they could only wait and see what transpired.

"Exactly."

At this moment, Jiang Fan also retrieved the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber.

He was quite satisfied with the power of this Sub-Immortal Artifact.

As expected of a treasure collected by a True Spirit; its destructiveness was no joke.

Without the power of the Immortal Slaying Flying Saber, it might have been impossible to kill the Hundred-Eyed Demon in an instant.

But now, he had no time to waste. He must quickly kill the traitors hidden among the prisoners.

Of course, for someone who already knew their identities, it was an easy task.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!!!

In a flash, Jiang Fan conjured multiple avatars, each entering a different cell.

He wielded various Magical Treasures, ruthlessly attacking these human traitors.

Boom~~

In just an instant, eleven traitors were slain.

They couldn't even utter a word before being killed.

To be honest, these were Refining Void and Integration Cultivators, incredibly powerful.

If not for the Profound Demon Lock, he could never have defeated them.

But under the confinement of this treasure, those traitors were no more than ordinary humans.

In just a blink of an eye, they were slaughtered effortlessly.

"Damn, this guy killed the Phantom King."

"Old Liu, Old Liu and the others were killed by him too."

"What on earth is he trying to do?"

Many human cultivators were both shocked and enraged.

Initially, they had harbored a sliver of hope, thinking this sudden stranger might be a savior sent by the Great Xuan Dynasty to rescue them.

But seeing the Phantom King and others slaughtered by the enemy, they immediately grew furious.

After all these years, they had grown quite familiar with the likes of the Phantom King, becoming sworn friends.

They harbored a little fantasy that maybe someday, they could escape and survive.

But the deaths of the Phantom King and others shattered their dreams.

These people no longer had a future; they were destined to die here.

"Silence."

"Keep making noise, and you'll all get killed too."

Jiang Fan's voice rang out.

What?!

Hearing this, the Ice Soul King and others showed a hint of fright in their eyes. They could tell it was a human voice, as the voices of demons and humans were different.

But this wasn't a certainty.

Some unique demons could mimic human voices too.

However, they were just prisoners, long bereft of resistance, at the mercy of others.

Normally, demons had no reason to deceive them.

Frankly, they had little value left.

Their only value was in staying alive to protect the demons hidden within the Great Xuan Dynasty from exposure.

"Who exactly are you?"

"What's your purpose here?"

The Ice Soul King asked.

Other human cultivators also perked up their ears, eager to know the mysterious cultivator's purpose.

Unfortunately, due to the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf's protection, they couldn't detect where Jiang Fan was.

It was as if he was omnipresent, merged with the void.

"Don't overthink."

"I will help you break the Profound Demon Lock and restore your cultivation."

"But this is the Cyan Stone Demon Cave."

"Whether you live to leave depends on your own skills."

Jiang Fan didn't plan to answer any of their questions since he knew these human cultivators didn't trust him. He didn't need their trust either.

He just wanted to use them as shields.

Of course, for them, it was the only chance to survive; a mutually beneficial situation.

"Break the Profound Demon Lock? That's impossible."

"It's made from special high-tier materials."

"Unless you have an indestructible Secret Treasure to shatter all materials, breaking it is just wishful thinking."

The Giant Stone King said.

He didn't believe this mysterious cultivator had such abilities.

He had tried numerous methods to destroy this treasure.

But the treasure constantly absorbed his magical power, leaving him weak.

Over the years, he couldn't tell how much power he had lost.

If he weren't an Integration Cultivator, he'd probably be dead.

Boom~~

But before he could finish his words, a cold light flashed, striking his Profound Demon Lock.

The once extremely sturdy treasure couldn't withstand this saber light.

In an instant, the Profound Demon Lock shattered into countless pieces.

A vast power surged from his body.

The long-lost strength erupted once again.

"How can this be? The Profound Demon Lock destroyed? How is it done?"

The Giant Stone King was shocked yet joyous.

He never imagined such a thing would happen, that this mysterious cultivator could destroy this demonic treasure.

He had thought he'd never break free from the chains in his lifetime.

But it wasn't just him; the other human cultivators experienced the same.

They also saw their Profound Demon Locks severed and shattered.

Their cultivation returned.

"Oh my god, it's a demonic treasure, and it really shattered."

"Haha, I can feel my magical power returning quickly. It's exhilarating."

"Who are you? Who exactly are you? Are you truly from the Great Xuan Dynasty sent to save us? Has the emperor found out about our capture?"

"Yeah, what happened to the Great Xuan Dynasty? Are they truly at war with the demons? As the demons said, have many demon caves appeared within the dynasty?"

Many human cultivators were ecstatic, stepping out of their cells.

At this moment, they experienced the joy of freedom.

Previously, they had been hopeless, with no expectation of leaving alive.

But now, they could feel the raging magical power within once more.

Nothing could be better.

They were also searching for the mysterious cultivator who helped them, trying to trace his presence.

However, Jiang Fan wasn't lingering. After freeing the cultivators from the Profound Demon Locks, he immediately used his Innate Divine Techniques of Shrinking Earth into Inches, leaving the human prison and returning to the surface.

"Stop shouting."

"I just sensed a fluctuation in the void."

"That person has probably left already."

The Ice Soul King said.

Chapter 914: Combined Demon, Breaking Out of the Demon Cave

"Left? How could he leave so quickly?"

"What exactly is that guy's motive?"

"Yeah, he saved us. Doesn't he want some reward?"

The human cultivators were instantly bewildered, unable to comprehend the true purpose of this mysterious cultivator.

If he were an enemy, then why did he save them and help shatter the Binding Spirit Mysterious Demon Lock?

But if he's a friend, it also doesn't make sense because he killed the Phantom King and others.

In other words, this mysterious cultivator is impossible to define as friend or foe.

"What is this guy's objective?"

"Is he a friend or an enemy?"

The Spirit Feather King spoke in a deep voice, feeling very confused.

"I think he should be a friend, at least he's friendly to us."

"Otherwise, it's impossible for him to rescue us."

"After all, if he were on the demon side, he wouldn't do such a thing."

"At the very least, he should be an enemy of the demons."

The Ice Soul King said calmly, having a clear understanding of the matter.

This mysterious cultivator couldn't possibly be on the demons' side.

If he were truly a demon, he absolutely wouldn't have saved them.

Unfortunately, the other party ran so quickly that he had no chance to see through his true nature.

"If that's the case, why did he kill the Phantom King and others?"

"He killed them, yet allowed us to survive."

"Why on earth would he do that?"

"Does he have a grudge against the Phantom King?"

The Flame Tower King couldn't understand no matter how hard he thought.

"It's not necessarily a grudge."

"There's actually another possibility."

"That is, the Phantom King and the others betrayed the human race and became lackeys of the demons."

"The other party knows about this, which is why he killed them, to eliminate traitors."

The Giant Stone King said calmly, voicing his speculation.

Hearing this, the faces of many human cultivators changed, because when they thought about it, over the years, the Phantom King and the others indeed had many suspicious points.

If the Phantom King and the others were truly traitors, then their acting skills were too masterful, manipulating them as though in the palm of their hand, which was extremely hateful.

But the mysterious cultivator remained a stranger to them, and this was just speculation, lacking substantial evidence, so they were still skeptical.

However, other Integration Cultivators had flickering eyes. In fact, they weren't fools; they also sensed this point, but without evidence, they couldn't rashly suspect these companions.

"Whether the Phantom King and the others are traitors is now meaningless because they're dead."

"As for whether the mysterious cultivator is a friend or foe, it holds even less significance."

"Because for us, the most important thing is to escape this prison, or even this demon cave."

"But you surely know how difficult this task is."

"If we fail, we'll die here."

The Ice Soul King said calmly.

Right now, he couldn't care less about the mysterious cultivator's true intentions.

The most important thing now was to escape with their lives.

If they couldn't leave here alive, everything else was meaningless.

After all, breaking the seal was only the beginning.

"Ha, after being tortured by demons for so many years, I've long regarded life and death as outside matters."

"If we can't escape, it's merely death."

"If I can take some high-tier demons with me before I die, then it's worth it."

The Giant Stone King said with a grim expression, exuding a deep killing intent.

"So it seems we've reached a consensus."

"Let's first recover some cultivation here."

"Once we regain some strength, we'll break out of this prison and the demon cave."

The Ice Soul King said with a grim killing intent.

The other human cultivators nodded, as they had already resolved to risk death.

This might be their final battle.

They were aware that the mysterious cultivator might be planning to use them.

But it didn't matter. As long as they could deal a heavy blow to the demons, so what if they died?

After being tormented for such a long time, they had long had enough of living.

Being able to take revenge before dying was their greatest fortune.

.....

At this moment, the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, Demon Hall.

At the instant of the Hundred Eyes Demon's death, it was immediately sensed by the Stone Demon stationed at the Demon Hall. It possessed the ability to petrify everything, turning any life form coming near it into blocks of stone.

Thus, it was assigned to the Demon Hall to guard the demon core in the cave.

No matter how fierce the war, it was still not sent out.

Because, regardless of anything else, the safety of the demon core cannot be compromised, as it is the most crucial element of the cave. Even if it means wasting a Combined Demon's combat power, it is worthwhile.

At that moment, it also promptly detected the death of the Hundred Eyes Demon.

"What happened? Why did the Hundred Eyes Demon guarding the human prison suddenly die?"

"Who exactly killed the Hundred Eyes Demon?"

"Could it be that a human cultivator is making a move, attempting a prison break?"

The Stone Demon looked extremely displeased, for since the inception of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, there had never been such a huge change. A Divinity Transformation Demon actually died silently in the prison.

Whether or not someone is attempting a prison break, this is a significant event for the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

If indeed a breakout occurs, releasing those human cultivators, it would be a severe blow to the demons, an occurrence it could not allow to happen.

The problem was, the timing of this incident was extremely unfortunate.

Chapter 915: Combined Demon, Breaking Out of the Demon Cave (2)

Several days ago, the Cyan Stone Demon Cave dispatched a large number of high-tier demons, leaving its interior quite vulnerable, with only a few hundred Refining Void Demons and three Combined Demons remaining.

Including myself, there are just four Combined Demons.

The rest are Divinity Transformation Demons.

However, I need to guard the Demon Core and can't leave easily.

There's no doubt the enemy knows this, seized the opportunity, and decided to launch a prison break.

But how did the enemy infiltrate the Cyan Stone Demon Cave without a sound?

Why hasn't it sensed the enemy's presence even now?!

"Skeleton Demon, Yaksha Demon, Blood River Demon."

"Go check the human prison immediately and see what exactly is happening inside."

"Perhaps some human cultivators have escaped from the prison."

The Stone Demon immediately gave orders to the other three Combined Demons.

After all, it is the master of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, holding the authority over the demons, and the other demons must obey.

"Heh heh, is someone really breaking into the prison?"

"Such audacity, who would dare come to Cyan Stone Demon Cave for a prison break?"

"It's so boring staying here; I didn't expect such entertainment."

"Let's go see who's so bold."

The three Combined Demons heard these words and immediately flew out from various residences within the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

In almost the blink of an eye, they arrived near the prison holding the humans.

...

Meanwhile, Jiang Fan's figure also appeared near the Demon Hall of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

In front of him stood a towering palace.

The entire palace was lined with dense Restriction Arrays, filled with countless twisted Demon Runes, and shrouded in terrifying Demonic Qi, frightening and alarming.

Undoubtedly, the Demon Core of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave must be deep within this Demon Hall.

He understood why approaching here recklessly would be certain death.

Even with the Celestial Cicada Spirit Leaf, an Immortal Realm Treasure, it would be difficult to break in recklessly.

This is the core of the Demon Cave, not a place where a Divinity Transformation Cultivator can just enter casually.

Of course, those powerful demons probably wouldn't expect a human of the Divine level to dare to intrude here, something unheard of.

Boom~

At this moment, powerful demons instantly arrived near the human prison.

Then a battle broke out instantly.

The entire Cyan Stone Demon Cave trembled, as if heaven and earth were shaking, with voids vibrating from all directions, the ground cracked, and even the sky split open.

This is the battle of the Body Integration Realm.

Reaching this level can be considered great power in the Mortal World, capable of destroying heaven and earth with a mere gesture.

Even from such a distance, Jiang Fan could sense the terrifying destructive power of the Integration Cultivator.

Getting a bit closer might result in being caught in the aftermath and dying.

"Fortunately, I ran quickly."

Feeling this terrifying battle ripple, Jiang Fan was deeply relieved.

His strength was still too far from the Integration Realm, not a match for this level of cultivator.

Being among these monsters, even a trace of malice might be unbearable.

But luckily those human cultivators were saved.

If they hadn't helped relieve the pressure, he probably wouldn't have had the chance to infiltrate the Demon Hall.

Boom~~~

In an instant, another message seeped into the depths of his consciousness.

"You've successfully rescued these human cultivators; their prison break attracted the attention of many demons from the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, leaving the Demon Hall in an unprecedentedly vulnerable state.

You're a step closer to success, but even so, you must remain vigilant because a Combined Stone Demon is still hidden within the Demon Hall.

If you're careless, you'll be killed upon entering the Demon Hall, as easily as a Stone Demon crushing an ant.

"Destiny will give you hints."

"Destiny Hint One: The Demon Hall conceals a Perception Array, and unless you're a Mahayana Cultivator, you'll be unable to deceive its senses, one of the most crucial defenses of the Demon Hall.

Normally, you can't outsmart this array, but don't worry, the time will soon come with the battle between human Integration Cultivators and Combined Demons, causing collateral impact that will affect the Demon Hall.

This power will temporarily interfere with the Perception Array, so you need to seize the moment to slip into the Demon Hall, rendering the Combined Stone Demon unable to detect your presence."

"Destiny Hint Two: Entering the Demon Hall is just the beginning; the real challenge is dealing with the Combined Demon. If you cannot defeat it, you cannot destroy the Demon Core of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Fortunately, you possess the Flag of Equality, an incredible Immortal Artifact, that can allow the weak to overpower the strong. When you activate this artifact, it will lower the cultivation of this Combined

Demon to the Divinity Transformation Level, giving you the only chance to kill this demon, so you must go all out and leave no room for retaliation."

"Destiny Hint Three: If you manage to slay the Combined Stone Demon, swiftly use the Human Emperor Sword to destroy the Demon Core of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, because other demons will soon learn of the events transpiring here.

If you delay, other Combined Demons will be transmitted here, causing your plan not only to fail but also to implicate other human cultivators, leading to total collapse."

Sensing this message, Jiang Fan couldn't help but clench his fist.

Clearly, his plan to infiltrate the Cyan Stone Demon Cave was thrilling at every step.

If one step is wrong, he will perish and become food for the demons.

After all, his cultivation is too weak, only at the second-layer Divinity Transformation.

Like a novice player entering a high-tier dungeon.

Normally, he wouldn't stand a chance of clearing this dungeon.

But under the power of the Destiny Hints, a path to break the deadlock appeared for him.

Yet even so, this path is not easy to tread.

A mistake would result in a gruesome death at the hands of demons.

However, Jiang Fan, having faced countless perils, had long become accustomed to such things.

Since his cultivation journey began, he often walked a tightrope on the edge of a cliff.

And this was unavoidable.

Having killed those Divinity Transformation Demons, if he doesn't personally act to destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, a great calamity will follow, leaving him with no place for burial.

"Does the Demon Hall really conceal a Combined Demons?"

"Even at this critical moment, it remains inside?"

"To the demons, the Demon Core is of utmost importance."

"No matter what, it can't be abandoned."

"Even if those human cultivators are let go, the Combined Demon would never leave the Demon Core."

"It seems direct confrontation is inevitable."

Jiang Fan arched a brow.

He originally thought that a large number of escaping human cultivators would attract all the demons to pursue them.

But obviously, those high-tier demons aren't fools and wouldn't leave their nests defenseless.

Important places are still guarded by many demons.

Because they're also worried that human cultivators might attack crucial areas of the Demon Cave.

"It seems I need to wait for the right moment."

"Let's stay here and wait."

"The right time should come soon."

Jiang Fan calmed down immediately, restrained his aura as if he vanished from the world, even when demons passed nearby, they couldn't sense his presence.

Regarded him as nothing but air.

Many demons also went to support and attack the Ice Soul King and other human cultivators.

Both sides engaged in an unprecedented battle at the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Booming~~~

In the sky above, many Integration Great Powers clashed, each strike releasing destructive power, causing void fissures, shattering the earth, creating terrible waves of destruction.

At this moment, when both sides clashed again, a terrifying destructive wave struck the Demon Hall.

Instantly, the barrier covering the entire Demon Hall shattered like glass, showing countless cracks, causing the entire palace to crack open.

"The opportunity has arrived."

Seeing this scene, Jiang Fan's eyes gleamed with excitement.

Without a doubt, this is the opportunity mentioned in the Destiny Hints.

He had indeed waited for the perfect chance to silently infiltrate the Demon Hall.

Whish!

With this thought, Jiang Fan didn't hesitate, utilizing the Divine Skill of Shrinking Earth into Inches.

In almost the blink of an eye, his figure entered the Demon Hall.

Chapter 916: Equality Domain—Combined Demons Can Also Be Slain

At this moment, the battle between the four Integration Cultivators of the Human Race and the three Combined Demons was intensifying.

They naturally could not notice Jiang Fan silently infiltrating the Demon Hall.

After all, the battle at the Body Integration Realm was incredibly intense, leaving no energy to care about other matters.

A single mistake could result in being killed by the enemy.

"Humans, how exactly did you escape from the prison?"

"Who helped you?"

The Skeleton Demon roared in anger, utterly baffled.

Normally, this group of human cultivators was impossible to escape.

Because they were long sealed and unable to break free from the Prohibition Spirit Profound Demon Lock.

So someone must have secretly infiltrated the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, snuck into the prison, and saved them.

The problem is, this is the Demon Realm, the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

How could mere human cultivators silently infiltrate this place?

If humans truly did infiltrate, have they mastered a way to freely enter and exit the Demon Realm?

If it's true, then it's definitely a heavy blow to the demons.

It might even reverse the offensive and defensive positions.

So it must figure out what happened, no matter what.

Otherwise, a similar event might occur a second time.

"Haha, do you think we would tell you?"

"Don't think you demons are anything special."

"In fact, your demonic schemes have long been seen through by us humans."

The Ice Soul King sneered.

Although he didn't know how that mysterious cultivator managed it, judging by the furious expressions of these Combined Demons, that mysterious cultivator must be opposed to the demons.

The enemy of my enemy is naturally a friend.

So it didn't hurt to bluff and intimidate these demons.

The more apprehensive these demons were, the greater the advantage for them.

"Still bluffing here?"

"If you humans really had such skills, how could your Integration Cultivators be held until today?"

"Hand over the one who saved you immediately, or today you'll find life unbearable and death unattainable."

The Yaksha Demon said murderously.

It wouldn't be so foolish to be bluffed by just a few words from the other side.

However, it did acknowledge this was indeed a blunder by the demons.

Just because the battle was at a stalemate, such a significant loophole appeared in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Which resulted in the demons' years of plans being ruined.

This was a huge lesson.

But that's all it is. As long as these human cultivators are captured back or killed, they would still be assured of victory, as the demons are now launching a massive invasion into the human territory.

Even if some others were exposed, it wouldn't matter, the human race would still face inevitable destruction.

"Life unbearable, death unattainable? You think we're afraid of such things?"

"Come on, let's have a good fight and see who dies here today."

The Giant Stone King laughed heartily, filled with fighting spirit, unafraid of death.

Though they did have four Integration Cultivators, they had been imprisoned for too long, with too much of their essence depleted, making it extremely difficult to deal with the three Combined Demons.

In this battle, they were undoubtedly at a disadvantage.

But even so, their fighting spirit soared, and the worst outcome was just dying here.

They had long accepted death.

If they could take some demons with them before dying, it would be well worth it.

"Truly stubborn."

"In that case, I shall grant you death."

"The flesh of human Integration Cultivators must be quite delicious."

The Blood River Demon said murderously.

Boom~~

The seven Integration Great Powers clashed instantly, resembling beams of light colliding.

Ordinary cultivators couldn't even see their moves.

It seemed as if they collided tens of thousands of times in a second.

The entire Cyan Stone Demon Cave became their battlefield, causing many buildings to collapse and countless demons to fall.

After all, the aftermath of battles between Integration Cultivators could not be withstood by low-tier demons.

Huge craters appeared on the ground, cracked and fragmented.

.....

At this moment, deep within the Demon Hall.

An Integration Realm Stone Demon occupied the spot, its body resembling a massive sculpture, seemingly eternal.

The external events naturally could not escape its notice.

It was observing every move of these human cultivators.

Of course, its greater concern was the hidden enemy, the mysterious one who saved many human cultivators.

Earlier, it used all its abilities to find traces of the enemy in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Yet until just now, it hadn't found any clues.

It's as if the enemy appeared out of thin air in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, unbelievably baffling, beyond imagination.

This made it feel a vague sense of unease.

After all, the unknown is the greatest fear in the world.

"Who on earth did such a thing?"

"Was it a human Integration Cultivator, or did some Mahayana Cultivator intervene?"

"But that's irrelevant, I've already informed the Combined Demons from other demon caves."

"As long as we delay a bit longer, the other Combined Demons will soon teleport here."

"By then, we can capture all these wretched human cultivators in one fell swoop."

The Integration Realm Stone Demon remained calm, its heart stone-cold.

Even though countless low-tier demons had fallen in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave at this time, to it, low-tier demons were like ants. No matter how many died, it didn't matter.

If they died at the hands of humans, it only meant the opponent was too weak, such was the fate of low-tier demons.

Chapter 917: Equality Domain, Even Combined Demons Can Be Killed (2)

No wonder the other demons.

Besides, it wouldn't leave the Demon Hall easily.

After all, this is the most important place in the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Even if the other three Combined Demons died, this place must not be lost.

Otherwise, the Cyan Stone Demon Cave will be completely doomed.

"Forget it, no matter who you are, you cannot shake the Cyan Stone Demon Cave in the least."

"When other reinforcements arrive, that's when your death date comes."

The Stone Demon at the Body Integration Realm looked at the battle between the other three Combined Demons and the human cultivators with indifference, as if watching a play, like a spectator.

Swoosh!

At this moment, a figure silently arrived at the deepest part of the Demon Hall, facing the Stone Demon at the Body Integration Realm, the visitor was Jiang Fan.

He took advantage of the previous battle to create a flaw in the restriction array of the Demon Hall, quietly sneaking in, undetected by any demon.

"Who is it?!"

At this moment, the Stone Demon's expression changed, its instincts told it an uninvited guest had intruded into the Demon Hall, causing great unease within.

Indeed, the mysterious enemy's true purpose was not to rescue those human cultivators.

The real purpose was the Demon Hall, the demon core here.

However, it is a demon at the Body Integration Realm, and a Stone Demon at that.

In terms of strength, few demons could defeat it at the same level.

After all, the Body Integration Realm is different and has huge disparities.

Jiang Fan did not speak because he knew that saying even a word would reveal a flaw, leading to being instantly killed by this Body Integration Realm demon.

So the moment he stepped into the Demon Hall, he activated the Immortal Artifact, the Flag of Equality, without saying anything.

Boom~~

The Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality soared into the sky, red light flooded across the sky like a tide. The flag was not ordinary silk, but woven from countless threads of crimson-gold light, resembling a burning fire of balance, neither intensely scorching nor dim, instead conveying a gentle harmony with the world.

On the flag surface, immortal patterns moved like living creatures — countless red lines of consistent thickness transformed into red dragons joining at the tail, an endless cycle without regard for precedence;

At times forming twin-born immortal lotuses, petals unfolding without hierarchy, each pattern's luster, thickness, and agility were consistently precise, erasing the word "difference" from the world.

More astonishing was the mysterious rune rising in the center of the flag surface: these runes were not fixed in shape, sometimes forming the ancient script for "Equal", sometimes breaking down into countless indistinguishable small symbols, surrounded by a faint purple-gold halo. Upon closer inspection, every symbol was identical, even the curve of strokes and frequency of spiritual power vibrations were perfectly uniform, as if replicated from the same "rule template", conveying an unassailable "indiscriminateness".

"Equality Domain."

Jiang Fan's eyes flashed with cold light, completely unleashing the power of this Immortal Artifact.

The crimson flag surface unfolded, the Equality Domain expanded like a sky; there was no earth-shattering pressure, just a silent force of assimilation spreading in all directions. Where it passed, the clouds on the peaks no longer varied in height, the birds and beasts in the woods no longer differed in strength, even the dust in the wind seemed to have equal weight imposed. The entire world appeared enclosed within a transparent glass cover, and all within bore the imprint of "equality".

"What's going on?"

The Stone Demon at the Body Integration Realm's expression changed, initially it had been searching for the enemy's traces, but never expected the enemy wouldn't give it the chance, immediately utilizing terrifying domain power.

It felt its body grow heavy, as if burdened by the weight of a hundred mountains, the fearsome demonic power within enveloped by the crimson domain.

As the Equality Domain enveloped it, the mysterious purple lines on the Stone Demon visibly dulled, even its eyes capable of seeing a thousand miles were veiled in a layer of gray shadow.

It fearfully sensed the rampant demon power within being forcibly compressed and stripped away, and in three breaths its cultivation, able to contend with the peak of the Body Integration, plummeted abruptly, finally stabilizing at the second layer of Divinity Transformation.

"Are you kidding me, why has my cultivation suddenly dropped to the Divinity Transformation level?"

"Wait, is this the legendary Immortal Artifact, the Flag of Equality?"

"This is the Immortal Artifact from the Immortal King of Equality, how did it end up in this realm?"

"Wasn't this Immortal Artifact said to have been destroyed long ago?"

The Stone Demon looked at the crimson flag in disbelief, recalling all the legends about the Flag of Equality, rumors stated that within its domain, no matter the background or cultivation, everyone was equal.

No distinctions existed between them.

For weaker creatures, this was certainly a huge advantage.

But what about inherently powerful demons? It was simply humiliating, forcibly weakening their power.

At this moment, it finally saw the enemy wielding the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality.

Divinity Transformation Cultivator!

A Divinity Transformation cultivator from the Human Race.

"I see, so you were the one who helped the Ice Soul King escape prison, a mere Divinity Transformation cultivator like you."

"I didn't expect you to be so daring."

"Just a mere Divinity Transformation, you dared to intrude into the Demon Cave, committing such atrocious acts."

The Stone Demon was furious, simply outraged.

It never imagined that the Cyan Stone Demon Cave facing unprecedented catastrophe was caused by a mere human Divinity Transformation, such a ridiculous notion, hardly anyone would believe it, utterly absurd.

This infuriated it to the extreme.

A respectable Body Integration demon being underestimated to such a degree, a mere ant-like Divinity Transformation cultivator actually thought it could easily deal with it?

"You might think by borrowing the power of the Flag of Equality, you weakened my power, you can defeat me?"

"But I'm telling you, that's pure fantasy."

"Even among equals, I am an invincible existence."

"A mere Divinity Transformation cultivator daring to provoke me, simply courting death."

The Stone Demon sneered, murderous intent enveloping it.

But inwardly it was grateful, indeed the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality was powerful, within the Equality Domain, everyone's cultivation was equal.

But it wasn't absolute equality, it was at most relative equality.

It had a powerful demon physique and an undying body.

A mere human Divinity Transformation couldn't possibly be its match.

However, this might not be a bad thing.

If it acted, killing this arrogant human cultivator, it would not only avert the calamity for the Cyan Stone Demon Cave but also acquire the Flag of Equality.

It could be said that this was a win-win situation.

"Noisy."

"You talk far too much nonsense."

"I don't have time to waste on you, die."

Jiang Fan looked at the Stone Demon indifferently, knowing that if the opponent were at the Body Integration realm, he was naturally no match, one confrontation and he'd be dead.

But under the suppression of the Immortal Artifact Flag of Equality, the cultivation was evenly matched.

Clearly, this Divinity Transformation demon was certainly not his opponent.

Swoosh!

In an instant, he took out a second Immortal Artifact – the Human Emperor Sword.

As this Immortal Artifact appeared, it immediately invoked the boundless destiny of the Human Race between heaven and earth.

Like the Heavenly Dao sensed something, a terrifying force infused into the Human Emperor Sword, emitting golden light, infinitely augmenting Jiang Fan's power, as if the Human Emperor had descended.

"Is this the weapon of humanity?"

"Impossible, you are not the Human Emperor of the Human Race, how could you wield the weapon of humanity?"

"Who are you, really? Why wield such power?"

The Stone Demon's expression changed dramatically, hardly believing.

It sensed a mortal threat.

Though its demon body was indeed powerful, the weapon of humanity extremely restrained the demon body.

If struck, it would be akin to receiving a Dao wound.

Even an undying body couldn't heal.

It's a unique method enough to kill demons.

This mysterious human cultivator was definitely prepared to completely slay it.

At this moment, infinite chill surged deep within.

It felt like prey trapped in a spider's web, encompassed by the net of destiny, already nowhere to flee.

Chapter 918: Heavenly Merit Descends, Boundless Destiny

Boom~~

Jiang Fan launched an attack without hesitation, not bothering to waste words with this demon.

Because he knew the opponent was definitely stalling for time.

The enemy's reinforcements could arrive at any moment.

If he wasted too much time with the opponent, he would be doomed.

Once other Combined Demons arrived, it would be the end for him.

After all, the power of the Flag of Equality could only be used once.

To use it again, he would have to wait twenty years.

So this was his only chance to kill this Combined Demon, and he could not miss it.

Bang!

In an instant, the power of the Human Emperor Sword exploded, a golden sword light swept out at an incredible speed, as if it could split the world in two.

"It's over."

The Stone Demon's face turned ashen, it tried to struggle, tried to dodge, but it was too weak now, merely at the Divinity Transformation Level.

Faced with the power of an Immortal Artifact, it had no chance to dodge.

Even at the moment of seeing the golden sword light, the terrifying Sword Aura had already reached it.

Boom~~

The next second, it felt its solid Stone Demon body being split by the sword light, torn into halves effortlessly, as if cutting tofu.

At the same time, the terrifying destructive power of the Human Emperor Sword exploded, containing the power to annihilate everything.

In just an instant, its soul was completely obliterated, leaving not even a trace behind.

On the ground lay the massive corpse of a demon, exuding a dense Demonic Qi, seemingly capable of eroding everything.

"Dead? Just like that, a Combined Demon was killed?"

The Demon-Vibrating Bell was momentarily dumbfounded, finding it unbelievable.

It knew how terrifying a Combined Demon was, such demons were nearly impossible to kill, even if a Mahayana Cultivator attacked, the demon could possibly escape.

But now, its master, just a Divinity Transformation Cultivator, actually killed a Combined Demon.

If this news were to spread, it would surely shock the world.

Even in the Void Realm of the Ancient Era, it would arouse shock among countless cultivators, simply a miracle.

Indeed, the reason its master could kill the Combined Demon was because of the power of two Immortal Artifacts.

The point is, these two Immortal Artifacts were also obtained by its master, part of its master's abilities.

If this isn't an accomplishment, what is?

Earlier, it believed its master would surely become an unprecedented great figure, and had now begun to make a name in the world, accomplishing such extraordinary feats.

"Just a mere Combined Demon, what's it worth."

"Even if a Mahayana Realm Demon were here, the master would be able to kill it."

The Ten Thousand Transformations Immortal Cauldron said smugly.

It didn't know exactly how powerful a Body Integration Realm Demon was.

Anyway, as long as someone opposed its master, they were enemies that needed to die.

That was already a matter of course.

"My heavens, to have obtained the corpse of a Body Integration Realm Demon."

"If it can be completely refined, how much Spiritual Soil could be obtained."

"This is truly a windfall."

The Exquisite Tower was excited beyond words, immediately storing the massive Body Integration Realm corpse away, placing it into the second layer of the Exquisite Tower's world.

For other cultivators, a demon's corpse was merely hazardous material, but for it, it was a Treasure of Heaven and Earth, like numerous Ten-thousand-year-old Spirit Medicines, it could turn waste into treasure.

No doubt, this was indeed a tremendous harvest.

Boom~~

At this moment, the Flag of Equality fell to the ground, its original red glow vanished instantly, and the Equality Domain disappeared without a trace.

Clearly, the recent battle consumed most of its strength.

Swoosh!

Jiang Fan waved his hand, immediately storing this Immortal Artifact away, as it was one of his trump cards, even if it could only be used once every twenty years, that was still rather impressive.

Especially when facing an unbeatable opponent, once the Flag of Equality was used, there was a chance to turn the tables.

Normally, he would find it difficult to kill this Combined Demon.

But with the help of the Flag of Equality, he could turn the impossible into possible.

At this moment, his gaze turned to the depths of the palace, where a gigantic Demon Core lay, densely covered with Demon Patterns, containing terrifying Magic Energy, the core of the entire Demon Cave.

It could be said that the speed of the demons eroding this world was this fast because of the Demon Cave.

The Demon Cave rooted deeply in the earth, could madly devour every corner, corrupting the land.

Furthermore, as demons resided within the Demon Cave, their Undying Bodies became even more formidable.

If not for the Demon Cave, demons wouldn't devour the world so quickly.

Of course, destroying the Demon Cave could also deliver a severe blow to the demons.

After all, cultivating a new Demon Cave wasn't an easy task for them.

"Human, what exactly do you intend to do?"

"You must not act rashly."

"If you dare to strike against me, you will surely become the nemesis of the demons."

"Then not only you, but your entire family would suffer, have you considered the consequences?"

At this moment, a voice suddenly rang out, embodying a false bravado.

It was the Demon Cave.

Undoubtedly, it was a living demon.

But it didn't have much offensive power, focusing its abilities on defense and support.

Chapter 919: Heaven-Sent Merit, Surging Destiny_2

At this moment, it sensed a mortal danger.

If this human cultivator in front of it made a move, it would undoubtedly die.

Of course, it didn't expect this human cultivator to stop.

The reason for saying these words was merely to buy time.

It sensed that powerful demons would soon teleport from other demon caves.

As long as it could delay for a few breaths, it could survive.

"Noisy."

Jiang Fan certainly understood its motives and wasn't planning to waste words with it.

Holding the Human Emperor Sword, he slashed fiercely at the giant demon core.

Boom~~

A terrifying golden sword light blasted forward, seemingly tearing apart this world.

The originally indestructible demon core was instantly shattered under the power of the golden sword light.

Undoubtedly, the power of the Human Emperor Sword was especially effective against the demon cave.

Like ice and snow meeting sunlight, it quickly melted away without any strength to resist.

"It's over."

The Cyan Stone Demon Cave was utterly despairing, but it could do nothing as it sensed its core being destroyed, its consciousness completely shattered.

In just an instant, it was eradicated, falling into endless darkness.

"Not bad."

Seeing the demon core completely destroyed, Jiang Fan sensed the entire demon cave starting to collapse.

The purpose of his venture into the Cyan Stone Demon Cave was fully achieved.

He couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

Although the operation seemed very smooth with no unexpected events, Jiang Fan knew it was all thanks to the power of destiny's prompt.

If he hadn't seen through the fog of destiny, he would have probably perished at the hands of the demons long ago.

Let alone being able to effortlessly slay a Combined Demon and destroy the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Boom~~

In an instant, Jiang Fan sensed the void start trembling, and a golden beam of light descended from the heavens, revealing densely packed golden merit runes, filled with endless origin energy.

Suddenly, this energy instantly penetrated deep into Jiang Fan's body.

He suddenly found his cultivation level rising at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Originally, his cultivation was merely at 1% of the Second-Layer Divinity Transformation, but in the blink of an eye, it rose to 10%, 20%, 30%...

In just three breaths, it reached 100%.

He was just one step away from advancing to the Third-Layer Divinity Transformation.

Moreover, this vast origin energy hadn't been completely devoured, he only absorbed a small portion of it.

It transformed into a golden energy sphere, merging into his sea of consciousness.

"Heavenly gift."

"This is a gift from the Heavenly Dao."

Jiang Fan instantly understood what had happened, having shattered the demon core and destroyed the demon cave, he received the gift of the Spirit Ruins Realm from the Heavenly Dao, gaining enlightenment and absorbing vast origin energy.

This was why his cultivation surged so rapidly.

Within the blink of an eye, it reached Divinity Transformation Perfection at the Second Layer.

"Received a heavenly gift?"

"That's quite normal."

"Similar events happened in the Ancient Era."

"If a cultivator makes a great contribution to heaven and earth, they receive gifts from the Heavenly Dao."

"But not every deed can earn a heavenly gift."

"Only truly world-saving deeds get acknowledged by the Heavenly Dao."

"Destroying a demon cave is such a deed."

The Human Emperor Sword said this matter-of-factly upon witnessing the event.

It had seen many similar events before.

This is a special reward mechanism produced when the Heavenly Dao faces calamities.

"Indeed, demon caves harm the world immensely."

"They're akin to malignancies on the world, continuously devouring the world's essence."

"Destroying a demon cave returns the devoured essence to the world."

"The world can even absorb the demon cave's essence to strengthen itself."

"So receiving a heavenly gift is quite normal."

The Primordial Talisman Pen said in a deep voice.

It too had seen sages in the ancient era perform similar acts.

Thus, Jiang Fan's destruction of a demon cave was indeed a major deed for the world.

Equivalent to eradicating a tumor for the world.

So gaining recognition from the Spirit Ruins Realm was only natural.

"I see, so this is the world's origin energy?"

"No wonder it benefits cultivators endlessly."

"Probably even more than any ten-thousand-year-old spirit medicine or elixir."

"With such a vast amount of origin energy, I can quickly ascend to Divinity Transformation Perfection."

Jiang Fan clenched his fists excitedly.

Indeed, the Spirit Ruins Realm was a land of opportunity for him.

Initially, he thought going to the Cyan Stone Demon Cave might yield little treasure, merely a futile effort.

Who could have imagined obtaining some heaven and earth origin energy?

This surpassed any elixir or spirit medicine by countless times.

If this essence could be fully digested, reaching Divinity Transformation Perfection wouldn't take long.

This greatly enhanced his cultivation efficiency, with limitless benefits.

Boom~~

A message instantly entered his sea of consciousness: "Congratulations on destroying a Cyan Stone Demon Cave, slaying a Combined Demon, surviving a life-or-death ordeal, and gaining one billion Luck Points."

"This."

Upon sensing this message, Jiang Fan's pupils contracted, and his heart was filled with tumultuous waves.

The amount of Luck Points gained this time was unbelievably astonishing, reaching a staggering billion.

Who knows how many ordeals one would have to go through to obtain such Luck Points.

But now, he acquired them all at once, truly outrageous.

Yet upon closer thought, it seemed quite normal.

After all, he did destroy a demon cave.

Even an Integration Cultivator might struggle to achieve this, it was practically a miracle.

So incredible, few would believe such an absurd tale.

"With so many Luck Points, I can likely cultivate the many Life Talismans on me to the Proficient Level."

Jiang Fan beamed with delight.

He knew how tough it was to cultivate each Immortal Realm talisman to the Proficient Level.

If it were easy, the Primordial Talisman Sect's ancestors in the ancient era wouldn't have cultivated so few Immortal Realm talismans. He could save plenty of time, though consuming a lot of Luck Points was also necessary.

Fortunately, he now gained one billion Luck Points all at once.

A fortune overnight, essentially.

"My luck has skyrocketed."

"Now, I count as a Child of Fortune in the Spirit Ruins Realm."

Jiang Fan smiled faintly.

He noticed his luck had surged compared to before.

The Fortune Golden Dragon above his head grew double in size.

More importantly, this Fortune Golden Dragon resonated with the Heavenly Dao of the Spirit Ruins Realm.

As if he was inherently a Child of Fortune spawned by this world.

Obviously, he already gained recognition from this world's Heavenly Dao.

"Received such immense luck from the Spirit Ruins Realm, is this akin to being an honorary citizen?"

Jiang Fan stroked his chin.

Such matters seemed normal.

Though he was an outsider, he had made tremendous contributions locally.

Even outperforming natives by countless times.

The Heavenly Dao of the Spirit Ruins Realm wasn't foolish; its methods were versatile.

Regardless of the cat's color, as long as it catches mice and benefits the Spirit Ruins Realm, it's a good cat.

During this period, Jiang Fan made outstanding contributions to the Spirit Ruins Realm, even reversing part of its fate, naturally gaining the Heavenly Dao's recognition.

Of course, this was greatly beneficial for Jiang Fan as well.

It meant he had an abundant fortune in the Spirit Ruins Realm, allowing for more opportunities.

Boom~~

Suddenly, another message entered Jiang Fan's sea of consciousness.

"Fate is always fickle. Although you've destroyed the Cyan Stone Demon Cave and dealt the demons a heavy blow, your actions have thoroughly enraged them, and they now view you as a thorn in their side, needing swift removal. Your reputation begins to spread in the demon race and even among the human great powers of the Great Xuan Dynasty, so you will face the pursuit of the Spirit Ruins Realm's demon race, and staying here means certain death."

"Fate will provide you guidance."

Chapter 920: Destroying the Cyan Stone Demon Cave—Mahayana Realm Demons Enraged

"Another destiny hint?!"

Jiang Fan squinted his eyes.

He hadn't expected so many destiny hints to appear during this time, indicating that he was facing huge calamities. A wrong choice would lead to irreversible doom.

After all, he was just a small Divinity Transformation Cultivator participating in such disasters, akin to a novice player entering a high-tier dungeon—purely seeking death.

Moreover, the appearance of destiny hints also consumed his Destiny.

Fortunately, the Destiny he acquired far exceeded what he consumed, so it didn't matter much.

Before Jiang Fan could think further, the message of the destiny hint came again.

"Destiny Hint One: Although the Demon Race is furious, vowing to kill the enemy who destroyed the Cyan Stone Demon Cave, without the void teleportation of the Demon Cave, they find it difficult to quickly arrive at the Cyan Stone Demon Cave.

Furthermore, most of their top combat power has been drawn away by the Great Powers of the Human Race, and they cannot dispatch more powerful demons in the short term.

Nevertheless, they still have ways to track your traces, though you can use the Gate of the Void's random teleportation to help you move to another location.

Generally, random teleportation is very dangerous, but you are favored by the Heavenly Dao of the Spirit Ruins Realm with abundant Destiny. This teleportation will assuredly realize your wishes, aiding you in escaping the pursuit of demons."

"Destiny Hint Two: Of course, you can also choose not to flee, fighting side by side with the human cultivators you rescued. But you all will be hunted by the Demon Race, and even Mahayana Realm demons will personally take action. By then, you will have no escape in heaven or earth and die at the hands of demons."

Feeling this message, Jiang Fan felt deeply moved.

It was clear that destroying the Cyan Stone Demon Cave was merely the beginning.

It's like stepping into the shoes of Daoist Wan Hua; killing the young leads to the arrival of the old.

Especially since he caused the death of so many demons, it would certainly infuriate the Demon Race, resulting in their full-force pursuit—such intensity not something a Divinity Transformation Cultivator could withstand.

Luckily, he possessed the Gate of the Void and could teleport away at any moment.

No matter how angry the Demon Race became, it would be hard to chase him.

Whoosh!

Thinking of this, Jiang Fan hesitated not a moment, immediately activating the Gate of the Void.

Then he consumed a large amount of Spirit Stones.

The next second, he vanished from this void.

.....

Time was slightly adjusted earlier.

As Jiang Fan completely shattered the Demon Core inside the Demon Cave, every demon of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave sensed it because their souls were long bound to the cave.

If the Cyan Stone Demon Cave was destroyed, they would inevitably suffer heavy damages.

"It's over; it's over. I sense the Demon Core of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave has been destroyed."

"How is that possible? Didn't they say there were Combined Demons guarding near the Demon Core? How could it be destroyed?"

"We've been tricked—completely fooled this time. The enemy's true goal wasn't to rescue the human cultivators but to entirely annihilate the Demon Cave's core."

The numerous demons discussed with immense despair visible on their faces.

Especially those Low-tier Demons, their connection to the Demon Cave was deep, some even birthed from it, being one with the cave.

Thus, when the cave died, they too would perish.

Boom~~

In an instant, countless Low-tier Demons died, dropping from mid-air and hitting the ground hard, creating massive pits.

Each had their eyes wide open, bodies fragmented, lifeless—clearly dying with unfinished business.

Though High-tier Demons had not died, they were also uniformly heavily injured.

Most of their power was lost.

Especially the three Combined Demons—Skeleton Demon, Yaksha Demon, Blood River Demon—they were the first to sustain severe injuries, with no quick recovery possible.

"Damn it, who destroyed the Demon Core?"

"Where is the Stone Demon, what did that guy do, and why didn't he protect the Demon Core?"

"His presence is no longer felt, likely killed."

"Impossible, how could the Stone Demon die in such a short period? Could it be that a Mahayana Cultivator intervened?"

The Skeleton Demon, Yaksha Demon, Blood River Demon—the three Combined Demons—felt both shocked and incensed, believing the Cyan Stone Demon Cave had been calculated by the Great Powers of the Human Race and that it was a trap targeting the cave.

They had already conceived thoughts of retreat, attempting to escape this place.

But where would the Ice Soul King and others let them leave? This was a golden opportunity to kill them.

Boom!!

Merely one skirmish later, the three Combined Demons—Skeleton Demon, Yaksha Demon, Blood River Demon—could no longer stand, slain by the Ice Soul King and others. They turned into corpses lying on the earth, lifeless, breath extinguished.

At this moment, the Ice Soul King, Spirit Feather King, Giant Stone King, Flame Tower King, and other cultivators took a deep breath, panting heavily, with little Magical Power remaining.

They looked upon the scene of the Cyan Stone Demon Cave collapsing entirely, feeling deeply astonished.

Originally, they thought they were doomed, impossible to survive, having even prepared for death here, thinking dragging a few High-tier Demons down with them would be a great gain.

Who could have foreseen it; in an instant, the entire Demon Cave collapsed, and other Combined Demons, as well as Refining Void Demons, were heavily injured, then easily killed by them.