

Four Skills 581

Chapter 581: Sin (1)

Tang Wanhua tightly held the five-colored bead in his hand and carefully placed it in a smaller box. Then, he hung it on his waist and carried it with him.

This area lasted for a hundred years.

During these hundred years, Tang Wanhua was very conflicted. On the one hand, he hoped that the wild beasts would always be obedient and not attack humans again. That way, humans would obtain peace.

On the other hand, Tang Wanhua hoped that the wild beast would make some moves. As long as the wild beast made some strange movements, he could resurrect Wu Shang and he would be able to see his master again.

In the past hundred years, Tang Wanhua had been in such a tangled and complicated mood.

It was only when the ape king of the Western Regions revealed his ambition and fought with Tang Wanhua that both sides were injured. Tang Wanhua displayed even stronger combat strength than when he was young, which made the ape king temporarily give up on the idea of invading the central region.

After this battle, Tang Wanhua knew that the time had come. He could start arranging Supreme's resurrection.

It was one thing to look forward to Supreme Resurrection, but it was another to actually make arrangements.

He found many difficulties in implementation.

Wu Shang had clearly mentioned a few points in his heart before. He wanted to find a willing woman. After Wu Shang was born, he hoped to have a brand new childhood. In other words, Tang Wanhua did not interfere too much.

Thinking about it, this woman that he found not only wanted to give birth to Wu Shang, but also raise Wu Shang.

It was very difficult for a woman to raise Supreme without the help of her husband and Tang Wanhua.

Moreover, it would be very dangerous. When Wu Shang was in this woman's stomach, there was a certain degree of danger. Later on, when Wu Shang was raised, it would also be a certain degree of danger before Wu Shang fully matured.

No matter which step went wrong, Wu Shang would disappear completely, which was bad news for mankind.

Also, where could he find a woman he completely trusted?

With so many difficulties, even Tang Wanhua, who had been managing the entire central region, felt a little uncomfortable. After thinking about it, he decided that he could not completely listen to Supreme.

He decided to find a woman in the royal family's territory. Because the royal family's space was controlled by Lao Bai and the others, it was relatively safer. In addition, he did not tell this woman the truth to prevent the news from leaking. It would be extremely dangerous.

The most important thing about choosing this woman was to find someone who would treat Wu Shang well and protect him.

During that period of time, Tang Wanhua had been searching non-stop in the Imperial Family. In the end, he had chosen a few families. The first one he had chosen was the 'Big' family. This was because the 'Big' family's skill was a Martial God General that had been copied from Wu Shang. No one would be suspicious if he hid it in the 'Big' family.

However, Tang Wanhua had searched all the women in the 'big' family, and none of them could satisfy him.

In the end, he could only look at the other families helplessly. There was no suitable one to choose from.

Tang Wanhua couldn't solve such a difficult problem consciously. He suddenly remembered that Tianji was in the imperial family. Wu Shang's letter at that time also said that if there was anything, he could discuss it with Tianji.

Thinking of this, Tang Wanhua immediately went to look for Tianji.

Tianji only said one sentence, "This is the sin you should bear. I can't block it for you."

Hearing Tian Ji's words, Tang Wanhua left.

At first, Tang Wanhua did not understand what Tianji meant, but he knew that he saw Li Yuan.

Li Yuan had just awakened a skill, but she was already a proud daughter of the royal family. Coupled with Li Xin's favor, she was the eldest daughter of the royal family that everyone knew. Every man yearned for her.

Living in such an environment, Li Yuan was not affected. She was approachable and did not put on airs at all. She was stubborn, just like her father, Li Xin.

For some reason, when Tang Wanhua first saw Li Yuan, he felt that she was very suitable to be Supreme's mother.

After all, this concerned the supreme and the fate of all mankind. He could not be careless.

In the next few days, Tang Wanhua kept collecting information about Li Yuan and secretly followed Li Yuan to see her character.

The more he observed, the more he felt that Li Yuan was suitable.

In the end, half a month later, the final candidate for Li Yanwei was decided.

The troublesome thing was that Li Yuan was a member of the Li family, and Li Xin was famous for protecting her children. It would not work to find a reason to deceive Li Xin.

If he told Li Xin the truth, the risk would be higher. He couldn't guarantee that

Li Xin wouldn't leak it.

Tang Wanhua was in a dilemma. In the end, he made a decision. Since the formal method didn't work, he could only think of other ways.

One night, Tang Wanhua quietly entered Li Yuan's room, knocked her unconscious, and took her away.

Bringing him out of the royal family was the greatest secret. If he did it in the royal family's space, Old White might find out. He could tell Old White anything about him, but he could not afford to make any mistakes. Tang Wanhua found a remote mountain village, entered an empty room, and placed Li Yuan on the bed.

Looking at Li Yuan's appearance, a sense of guilt rose from the bottom of his heart.

Li Yuan was the most suitable candidate, but as long as Li Yuan had supreme power, it was very likely that Li Yuan's life would be ruined.

At this moment, Tang Wanhua finally understood the meaning of Tian Ji's words. He smiled bitterly and said, "I really can't hide anything from you."

From Wu Shang, Tang Wanhua had learned a principle. Once you've decided on something, don't change it easily.

Since he had already decided, he would do it.

He took down the box hanging on his waist and opened it to take out the colorless bead inside.

He stopped in front of Li Yuan and stuffed the bead into her mouth.

Tang Wanhua wanted to give Li Yuan a sip of water, but the bead disappeared in Li Yuan's mouth.

Tang Wanhua was a little puzzled. He did not know if it was normal. After observing for a while, he found no other abnormalities, so he sent Li Yuan back to the Li family.

For a period of time after that, Tang Wanhua did not go anywhere. He had been lurking near the Li family's house. He was only relieved when he heard the news that Li Yuan was pregnant.

The news of Li Yuan's pregnancy spread quickly. Old You, the manager, had to go and warn her that Li Yuan's talent could not be wasted. The father of the child could not be confirmed, so he suggested not to keep the child.

At that time, the Li family was divided into two factions. One faction felt that the child should be aborted. It was not only a problem of the child's talent, but also a bad reputation for the Li family.

The other faction felt that keeping the child was, after all, the flesh and blood of the Li family.

Tang Wanhua saw that the situation was not good and immediately discussed with Old You. He asked Old You to go to the Li family again and tell them that the child could stay.

However, the rules of the royal family could not be messed with. Those who stayed had to live with outsiders.

Tang Wanhua thought for a moment. Wouldn't this be a good opportunity for Wu Shang to experience the hardships of life? He agreed.

This time, the Li family's opinion was unified. The child had to be born, but it had to be an outsider.

Then, the first unexpected thing happened. Li Yuan was too stubborn.

She was not willing to let her son live with outsiders and be treated coldly by others.. In the end, she decided to escape from the royal family!

Chapter 582: Let's Call Him MO Xiu! 1

Li Yuan's sudden escape caused everyone in the Li family to panic and search the entire royal family.

Not only was the Li family panicking, even Tang Wanhua was panicking.

At that time, Li Yuan's condition had just stabilized, and Tang Wanhua had already delayed a lot of time. He took time to go to the outside world to deal with some things.

Tang Wanhua, who was dealing with matters in the Shadow Office, immediately broke out in a cold sweat when he received the news that Li Yuan had escaped from the royal family.

As the person who had laid the foundation of the central continent for the past hundred years, he panicked at this moment. He threw aside everything he was doing and immediately went to search.

The royal family could not enter and leave the royal space freely. It would be very troublesome to find Li Yuan, but Tang Wanhua did not have this problem.

He immediately searched around the entrance of the royal space.

Li Yuan did not have any movement skills and was pregnant. Her speed was relatively slow, so Mr. Tang quickly found Li Yuan.

The moment he saw Li Yuan, he felt the same way he felt when he saw a human defeating a wild beast a hundred years ago.

He felt relaxed all over. He wanted to go up and blame Li Yuan, but when he thought about how much he owed Li Yuan, he finally decided to forget it.

After calming himself down, he walked over.

When Li Yuan saw Tang Wanhua, she was shocked. She thought that Tang Wanhua was here to capture her.

At that time, Tang Wanhua was not as indifferent as he was after that. He did not show his face in the imperial family and the outside world.

Li Yuan had naturally seen Elder Tang before. When she saw Tang Wanhua walk in, she pushed him back and said, "Elder Tang, I don't want to go back to the royal family. I don't want my child to grow up under the discrimination of others."

Originally, Tang Wanhua would definitely bring Li Yuan back to the royal family. No matter what, the royal family would be safer.

However, Li Yuan's words moved Tang Wanhua. 'I'm willing to accompany him for the rest of my life.'

This was the goal that Tang Wanhua had never been able to achieve in his entire life. Perhaps it was the life that Wu Zong had hoped for.

At this moment, Tang Wanhua understood what Wu Shang meant and nodded subconsciously.

Li Yuan saw Tang Wanhua nod and said excitedly, "'Thank you so much. I'll leave now. Just pretend you didn't see me.'"

Li Yuan turned around and was about to leave when Tang Wanhua stopped her, ""Wait! Do you have anywhere you want to go?"

Li Yuan was stunned by this question. She only wanted to run out and live a simple life. She really had no goal to go to. After thinking for a moment, he said two words.

"Shun City!"

"Oh?" Tang Wanhua asked with interest. Why Shun City?"

Li Yuan replied without hesitation, "I've only heard of Yan City and Shun City in the outside world. Yan City is the capital city, so it's not suitable for a simple life.""

Tang Wanhua laughed. What kind of mother did he give Wu Shang?

"Hahaha, that Shuncheng! But I'm worried about you leaving on your own. I'll send you there!"

Li Yuan began to be vigilant. She knew Tang Wanhua's identity very well. Why would he delay time because of such a small matter?

Tang Wanhua had seen countless people in the past hundred years. How could he not see Li Yuan's thoughts? He said, "If you agree, I'll send you back now!"

"No!" Li Yuan quickly said. Then I'll have to trouble you!"

The two of them went to Shun City together. Tang Wanhua chose to travel by train. Since he wanted to live an ordinary life, he would start from this moment.

At first, Li Yuan was very excited. There were new things everywhere in the outside world. A young girl of eighteen or nineteen years old with a rich curiosity saw everywhere she went.

Tang Wanhua brought Li Yuan around Shun City to play as if they were familiar with each other.

At night, the first problem appeared.

Where to live?

Li Yuan frowned. She didn't have any money on her, and she couldn't find a job for the time being. After the child was born, she still needed someone to take care of her and go to school to eat. All of this required money.

"You should have realized it, right?" asked Tang Wanhua. Even if it's a dull life, it's not that easy. Are you regretting it now? If you regret it now, I'll take you back immediately."

Li Yuan stubbornly turned her head and said, "No!" I'm not going back. You came with me just to make me retreat, right?"

"Hahaha, you're thinking too much. I respect your thoughts. Everything is difficult at the beginning. If you want to live in Shun City, you need money. I can help you settle down in Shun City."

Li Yuan was confused again. Why? Why would someone like Tang Wanhua, who was busy every day, help him so much?

Li Yuan did not want to accept Tang Wanhua's kindness, but in the current situation, even if she could handle it, what about the child in her stomach?

"Then...I'll have to trouble you!"

Tang Wanhua nodded, helped Li Yuan rent a big house, and left a large sum of cash before leaving.

Li Yuan looked at the room, which was about the same size as her bedroom. She took it for granted that this was the life of an ordinary person.

From this moment on, Li Yuan began to live alone.

After living in Shun City for a while and understanding the local situation, Li Yuan slowly realized that something was wrong. She thought she was living an ordinary life, but in fact, her living conditions were far better than ordinary people.

Li Yuan did not want to receive so much favor from Tang Wanhua, nor did she want to be controlled by others. Looking at her belly getting bigger and bigger day by day, she decided that after giving birth, she would no longer accept Tang Wanhua's financial support.

On the other side, Tang Wanhua did not leave. Li Yuan's appearance had scared him half to death. He could not let such a thing happen again.

In a hundred years, the imperial family, the outside world, and the Dark Shadow had all entered a stable state of development.

Tang Wanhua took this opportunity to hand over all the power in his hands.

From today onwards, he would not care about anything else and focus on guarding Wu Shang. As long as he did not disturb Wu Shang, Wu Shang would not mind.

Thinking of this, another four months passed and Wu Shang was born.

At this moment, Tang Wanhua had to be there. He found many professionals to help Li Yuan deliver the baby and take care of Li Yuan after giving birth.

Li Yuan became stubborn and refused Tang Wanhua's kindness.

Tang Wanhua persuaded her many times. In the end, Li Yuan reluctantly agreed after considering the child.

However, they had agreed that when Li Yuan's body recovered, she could work independently and live her own life. She hoped that Tang Wanhua would not disturb her.

It was not that Li Yuan was being careful, but Tang Wanhua's actions had been too abnormal. In order to prevent Tang Wanhua from having an excuse to force her to go back, she could only say this.

Of course, Li Yuan was still very grateful to Tang Wanhua. If it weren't for his help, she might not have been able to solve the problem at the beginning.

The child was born. When Tang Wanhua saw the child, he was even happier than Li Yuan. This made Li Yuan feel that there was something wrong with Tang Wanhua.

Tang Wanhua held the child and said to Li Yuan, ""Name!" "Hmm?"

"I said, what's the child's name? Have you thought it through?"

"I haven't thought about this question yet. You've helped me so much, so you can name the child."

"Then...let's call him MO Xiu!"

Chapter 583: Who Is Whose Master (1)

"Then...let's call him MO Xiu!"

Li Yuan repeated the name." MO Xiu? Where did this MO come from? But it's a good name."

"I'm just saying. If you don't like it, you can call him Li Xiu or something else," said Tang Wanhua."

Li Yuan shook her head and said, "I think the name MO Xiu is quite nice. Let's call him MO Xiu!"

Tang Wanhua's mind was filled with a myriad of thoughts as he recalled the conversation he had with Wu Shang.

"Master, what is your name? I'm very curious."

"How many times have you asked? I didn't tell you so many times because I didn't miss you. Don't you understand?" "I understand, but I'm curious. Just tell me!" "I don't want to say!"

"Sigh! I didn't get anything out of him!"

"MO Xiu!"

"Forget it if you didn't hear it!" "Hahaha, Master! I heard it, you said your name is MO Xiu!"

Eighteen years passed in a flash.

As Li Yuan said, she never asked Tang Wanhua for a single cent after her body recovered. She sealed her skills, took an ordinary job, and moved into a small family.

The salary wasn't high, and they were living on a tight budget. Fortunately, Moxiu was obedient since he was young, and the mother and son's lives were relatively comfortable.

Tang Wang Hua saw that Li Yuan and MO Xiu were poor, but both of them were very happy, so he was relieved. He left a letter for Li Yuan and contacted her if she had any difficulties. He then settled down as a librarian in Shuncheng First Middle School.

Li Yuan did not have any skills to protect her, and she was very attractive. She was easily harassed. Tang Wanhua drove these people away in the case and quietly helped Li Yuan.

These 18 years had been very precious to the three of them. Not only did Li Yuan and MO Xiu live a simple life, but even Mr. Tang had been able to live leisurely for more than ten years.

Until that day, when Moxiu awakened a skill!

That night, Li Yuan was not at home because Tang Wanhua was guarding the door. Li Yuan could go and do her work.

Tang Wanhua waited from midnight until Moxiu woke up in the morning. Only then did he leave in relief.

The next day was the day the two of them met.

Moxiu walked into the library with doubts. He wanted to find the records of passive skills in the book, but unfortunately, he found nothing. Tang Wanhua approached MO Xiu at the right time and chatted with him.

He knew that the time had come!

“This student, I see that you have been reading here for a long time. Do you have any doubts?”

“Ah, hello. There are indeed some things that I can’t figure out.”

The master and disciple met again, but this time was different from any other time.

After that, Motheo left the library vigilantly.

MO Xiu had just walked out when Tang Wanhua wanted to chase after him. When he reached the door, he stopped and looked up at the sky.

“He’s getting more and more brazen recently!”

Then, he charged into the sky and blocked a flying demonic falcon. He heavily injured it with a punch and was about to finish it off with another punch when Moxiu's figure suddenly flashed past the alarm clock.

He grabbed the Demon Eagle's wing with one hand and looked down. He found that Moxiu had entered the training field.

He stopped in the air for a while and threw the demon eagle down from the sky, breaking through the roof of the martial arts field.

After Tang Wanhua was done, he sneaked into the training grounds and observed MO Xiu's every move.

He realized that MO Xiu's way of handling things was obviously different from Wu Shang's. It seemed that Wu Shang had made the right decision to take this step. Once he grew up again, he would have a new sense of seriousness. Tang Wanhua also left behind the same sentence." Look what I found."

After this incident, Tang Wanhua didn't take the initiative to look for MO Xiu again. Instead, he called Wang Yu and Wang Lei over to personally teach this batch of cosmic tuition classes.

Furthermore, he raised the standards of the universe tuition classes, not allowing anyone to enter just because they wanted to.

At first, only Yue Yuan and Liu Ziyang could confirm it. One of them was the son of Shun City's local tyrant, Yue Long, and the other was the son of Liu Family, who had a lot of power in Yan City.

Both of them could help MO Xiu in his future development, so Tang Wanhua chose these two people.

Later on, he thought about it. In his previous life, he had come into contact with many women at the final stage. Now that he thought about it, it was possible that he was researching colorless beads and reincarnating.

No matter what, Wu Shang and he had never married in their lives. He was still fine. Previously, he had Li Qing and could be considered to have experienced love.

However, Wu Shang looked like a virgin for ten thousand years.

After thinking about it, Tang Wanhua smiled mischievously.” Master, I can help you. Whether you can achieve it or not depends on yourself.””

After lurking in the library for so many years, MO Xiu’s every move in Shun City could not escape Tang Wanhua’s eyes.

The only girl that MO Xiu had come into contact with was Mu Qingyi.

It just so happened that Mu Qingyi’s identity was special, and it was easy to find an excuse, so he directly gave Mu Qingyi a spot.

In the end, he told Moxiu about the cosmic cram school through his form teacher

After that, Tang Wanhua was more relaxed. There was nothing to do. His greatest pleasure was teasing MO Xiu.

He could not tell Wang Yu and Wang Lei about Moxiu’s true identity. He could only tell them that he was investigating Moxiu’s skill.

Tang Wanhua had quite a good time playing with MO Xiu. In the middle, the beast was not obedient. Tang Wanhua went to settle some matters. When he returned, he was surprised that the assessment had ended.

Tang Wanhua realized that MO Xiu was very vigilant. If he continued to help MO Xiu in secret, it was very likely that MO Xiu would be disgusted. No matter how he thought about it, he should make it clear to MO Xiu that he had no ill intentions or that there was some kind of identity between the two of them.

After some thought, another wicked idea was born.

He could take MO Xiu as a disciple. This way, he would be able to feel the feeling of being called Master by the Supreme.

Tang Wanhua knew that this idea was a little disrespectful, but in the current situation, this was the most feasible way.

Looking at Moxiu testing his skills on the tree, he couldn't help but laugh when he thought about how Wu Shang was going to call him Master in a while.

After that, every time MO Xiu called Tang Wanhua 'master', Tang Wanhua would want to laugh. He wanted to say that he would also have such a day, but he held back every time.

The time he spent with MO Xiu was one of the happiest moments of Tang Wanhua's sorrowful and boring life.

However, no matter how happy they were, they still had to leave.

As the wild beasts of the Western Regions continued to grow stronger, their ambitions gradually became apparent. There were many things that needed to be handled personally, and there were occasional conflicts with the Ape King and other Beast Kings.

In these battles, Tang Wanhua felt powerless for the first time. His injuries became more and more serious, and his body became weaker and weaker.

Until one day, Tang Wanhua could clearly feel how long he could live.

At that moment, Tang Wanhua was stunned. There was still so much reluctance. MO Xiu had yet to awaken his supreme memories, and the two of them had yet to acknowledge each other.

Tang Wanhua knew that he couldn't wait until that day, so he handed his diary to MO Xiu.

At the end of their parting, Tang Wanhua wanted to call him Master, but he didn't say it.

How old are you? Why are you being so pretentious?

Chapter 584: I Only Care About You

Time returned to the present. MO Xiu stood up and hugged Li Yuan.

Li Yuan smiled. She had never regretted giving birth to MO Xiu, even now that she knew the truth.

The mother and son hugged each other for a long time.

This was Mu Qingyi who had brought food to Li Yuan.

Seeing that MO Xiu was no longer kneeling, he stood up and hugged Li Yuan.

Mu Qingyi did not know why, but she had a smile on her lips and did not disturb him.

Li Yuan and MO Xiu both saw Mu Qingyi. Li Yuan gently pushed MO Xiu and said, "Alright, Little Xiu, the matter between us has been resolved. You can have a good chat with Qingyi."

"Alright!" said MO Xiu.

Li Yuan stood up, and Mu Qingyi left with the things in her hands.

Mu Qingyi took the initiative to walk to MO Xiu's side, and MO Xiu stopped her from entering the room.

The two of them stood by the bed and looked out.

“Are you still MO Xiu?” Mu Qingyi asked.”

MO Xiu turned his head and said,“Why do you ask?” Did you notice anything?”

Mu Qingyi looked at MO Xiu’s eyes, the love in her eyes did not diminish at all, and she heaved a sigh of relief.

“I can tell from your attitude towards the Elder of Heavenly Secrets and Auntie. Also, when you came out of the room just now, your gaze was obviously different. ‘

MO Xiu held Mu Qingyi’s shoulders with both hands and looked into Mu

Qingyi’s eyes seriously as he said softly,““Do you trust me?”

Mu Qingyi replied without thinking,““Of course I believe you. Even if I don’t believe in myself, I will believe in you.”

I’m still me,” Moxiu said.” I’m still the Moxiu in your heart. However, I’ve awakened the memories of my previous life. This feeling is a little strange. I know that it didn’t happen in my previous life, but when I recall everything, it feels like it’s still vivid in my mind.”

Mu Qingyi’s expression was even calmer than Li Yuan’s as she said,““In your previous life, were you a Supreme Grand Celestial?”

MO Xiu nodded lightly, puzzled as to why Mu Qingyi asked about knowing. Li Yuan did not tell her either.

“How did you know?”

Mu Qingyi lowered her head and said, "I can feel it. You've already achieved such an achievement in this lifetime. Would it be worse in your previous lifetime?"

Although Mu Qingyi lowered her head when she spoke, there was a sense of pride in her tone.

MO Xiu used one arm to hold Mu Qingyi's shoulder tightly.

From MO Xiu's point of view, his greatest achievement in this life was not saving the Central Continent multiple times, nor was it about how strong he was. It was to have a girlfriend like Mu Qingyi, a mother like Li Yuan, and a bunch of reliable friends.

These things that he did not experience in this life were not complete in this life.

Thinking back to his past and present life, MO Xiu felt that as a hero in the hearts of the people, his past life was perfect. This life was not so perfect due to various reasons. However, as a living person, his past life was a complete failure, but this life was very blissful.

Perhaps others would think that Moxiu's thoughts were selfish, but if he had to make a choice again, he would still choose to go to the north after coming out of seclusion. He would still choose to live his life in this life.

"Qingyi, do you mind that I'm a reincarnated person?" MO Xiu sighed.

Mu Qingyi said, "I said it just now. I only care if you're still MO Xiu. It's good if you are. What's wrong with reincarnation?"

The two of them looked at each other and hugged each other!

Ever since MO Xiu had awakened his memories from his previous life, the thing he did the most was hugging. He hugged Tian Ji, Li Yuan, and Mu Qingyi.

MO Xiu was a little annoyed that he hadn't been able to hug Tang Wanhua after awakening his memories.

That person was his disciple and also his master.

The two of them separated, and before MO Xiu could speak, Mu Qingyi spoke first, "You have just awakened your memories. You have a lot of things to do, right? Go and do your work. Don't worry about me. We'll have plenty of time to be together in the future."

MO Xiu nodded lightly, caressing Mu Qingyi's hair as he said, "You really know me very well. You're really understanding."

Mu Qingyi smiled warmly, like the second sun in the sky.

MO Xiu went out and came to where Elder You was. He watched from afar for a long time.

He looked at Elder You as if he was looking at Tang Wanhua.

MO Xiu just stood there and recalled the various things that had happened between him and Tang Wanhua.

In this life, Tang Wanhua returned all the kindness she had shown him in her previous life.

Tang Wanhua was more suited to be Supreme, and MO Xiu still thought so.

Tang Wanhua's heart was purer than MO Xiu's. He had no selfishness and would achieve whatever he set his mind on.

MO Xiu recalled that he had suspected Tang Wanhua at the start and was afraid that he was up to something.

Now that he thought about it, he just wanted to protect himself.

Tang Wanhua had said that he was leaving a few times. At that time, MO Xiu still didn't understand. He wasn't by his side either. Now that he thought about it, he might have been protecting him most of the time.

Tang Wanhua was his master in this life and had never taught him anything. It wasn't that he didn't want to teach him, but he felt that he shouldn't be rash.

MO Xiu slowly walked forward and sat down beside Elder You. Elder You tilted his head to look at MO Xiu and said, "You're awake?"

"Yeah, I woke up and came to see you!" said Moxiu."

"Why are you here to see an old man like me?" Old You shook his head. You are very important now, and you have a lot of responsibilities on your body. Don't waste your time on me. Go back to your work, or continue to cultivate in seclusion. My old friends have died for the sake of mankind. One day, I will find an opportunity to find them."

MO Xiu looked at Elder You and ????? not here as MO Xiu today. ""

"Then what identity?" Old You asked curiously. There's no need to say anything else to persuade me. I'm fine staying here."

MO Xiu didn't follow You Lao's words and only said two words.

"Supreme!"

When Old You heard this word, he was stunned for a moment before returning to his normal state. He said unhurriedly, "The name Supreme is very special.

Others can call you that. If you call yourself that, others will gossip about you. Young man, you'd better be humble."

At this moment, Elder You still did not know that the person sitting next to him was the true Supreme.

MO Xiu stood up and placed his right hand on Elder You's shoulder. He changed his tone and said, "Little You, you really don't recognize me?"

Elder You's entire body trembled. This tone and words seemed to have returned to a hundred years ago, to his youth.

Elder You suddenly stood up and carefully sized up MO Xiu. He said in a suspicious tone, "Are you really Supreme? They looked a little alike, but they were different."

Moxiu said, "That's right, I'm Supreme. You might not have heard of reincarnation. I've reincarnated. Think about my skills. Aren't you familiar with them?"

Elder You had seen MO Xiu's [Ending of] skill before. Previously, he felt that it was familiar, but he couldn't recall it. Now that he thought about it, it was indeed the same as the Supreme skill. It was just that it hadn't reached its final form.

Elder You understood and was about to kneel down when MO Xiu pulled him back.

"No wonder! Old Tang said that Wu Shang is still in the central region!"

Chapter 585: Gently Pressing Her Forehead

"No wonder Old Tang kept saying that Wu Shang was in the central region at the last moment."

MO Xiu nodded and said, "I just awakened my memories, and I just found out about it."

Elder You's hands were shaking, and he looked extremely agitated. MO Xiu patted him, and he actually cried.

"Hahaha! So that's how it is, so that's how it is. As long as you're alive, humans can't be defeated by wild beasts. The heavens have eyes, Old Tang! You hid it from us so hard!"

MO Xiu looked at Elder You who was crying tears of joy and slowly said, "In the end, I was still a step too late. I didn't get to see Yoruhan for the last time."

When Elder You heard MO Xiu's words, he shook his head desperately and said, "No, I can't! Supreme, as long as you're here, Old Tang can leave with peace of mind. He's lived too tiredly, leaving may be the best home for him."

MO Xiu sighed deeply. The people he felt the most sorry for in his life were probably Li Yuan and Tang Wanhua.

"There's no need to call me Supreme. Just call me MO Xiu. I'm MO Xiu in this life, and I'll be MO Xiu in the future!"

Elder You nodded. The two of them chatted for a long time until night time.

In Old You's eyes, regardless of whether this young man was MO Xiu or Wu Shang, he was the only person in this world who had lived in the same era as him. Only MO Xiu and Tian Ji had common topics to talk about. That fellow didn't really talk.

MO Xiu had just awakened his memories and realized that the only people he knew in his previous life were Tian Ji and him. Chatting with him could be considered as venting his emotions.

At night, MO Xiu bade farewell and left. This conversation was different from the last time. There seemed to be more meaning in Old You's eyes.

After leaving Old You's place, MO Xiu didn't return to his room. Instead, he summoned his Holy Sword and stepped onto it, heading towards the center of Yan City.

Moxiu's destination for this trip was very clear. He was going to find his comrades.

At this moment, Xiao Hong and the other three were in seclusion. MO Xiu went to look for everyone, starting with Xiao Hong.

MO Xiu quietly came to Xiao Hong's room. Xiao Hong was in a meditative state and hadn't woken up yet, so she didn't notice MO Xiu coming in.

This time, Moxiu wasn't here to reminisce about the past. He didn't wake Xiao Hong up. He stretched out a finger and lightly tapped Xiao Hong's forehead before withdrawing his hand.

Strangely, Xiao Hong didn't wake up because of the disturbance from the outside world. Her brows were tightly furrowed, as if she had fallen into a deeper meditative state.

MO Xiu looked at Xiao Hong quietly. He had always known that Xiao Hong was interested in him.

The two of them didn't have a good relationship at first. Xiao Hong hated him at first, but then she wanted to use him. After that, they worked together again and again, and the two of them trusted each other. Their relationship was also pulled closer.

However, MO Xiu had been acting dumb all this while. He didn't know how to face Xiao Hong. Now that he had awakened his supreme memories, he had figured out many things.

He decided to only love Mu Qingyi in this life and did not plan to have anything with Xiao Hong.

Leaving behind a sigh, MO Xiu left.

Tears flowed from the corners of Xiao Hong's eyes. She seemed to know that MO Xiu had been here, and she also seemed to know MO Xiu's decision.

After MO Xiu left, he went to the next person's secluded meditation place, Yang Qingzhuo!

He gently tapped Yang Qingzhuo's forehead.

MO Xiu had always felt that Yang Qingzhuo was special.

At first, she felt that Yang Qingzhuo was a little strange. His personality was hard to accept. He was like a stalker.

After she moved in with Yang Qingzhuo, she felt that she was just like a child, a child with no sense of security.

Later on, when he entered the Royal Family, Yang Qingzhuo found his own direction and no longer relied on MO Xiu. He only sent MO Xiu some messages from time to time.

MO Xiu had never thought about the relationship between a man and a woman when it came to Yang Qingzhuo. He didn't know if Yang Qingzhuo had ever thought about it.

No matter what, MO Xiu was very happy to see Yang Qingzhuo getting stronger and finding his own direction.

MO Xiu left to look for the next person, Liu Ziyang!

Liu Ziyang had spent the longest time with him, from the cosmic cram school to Yan Da, and then to the royal family.

MO Xiu had witnessed Liu Ziyang's transformation from fat to thin, and from a silly person to a reliable person.

Moxiu was very reassured by this person who had always called him Boss.

In the end, he also tapped Liu Ziyang's forehead lightly before leaving.

Next was Yue Yuan.

As Yue Long's son, Yue Yuan was the most reliable when it came to handling matters. MO Xiu was also very willing to hand things over to him.

Not for anything else, but for being steady and happy.

After MO Xiu left the team, Yue Yuan and Yang Qingzhuo became fixed partners, and their skills were very compatible.

Yue Yuan could attack and defend, he could add status and control the enemy.

Yang Qingzhuo, who was the support of the offense, was the perfect match.

MO Xiu also lightly tapped his forehead and left.

They arrived at the last person's residence, Xiao Xinru.

Compared to the others, Xiao Xinru had the least contact with him. It could be said that he had very little contact with everyone else.

Xiao Xinru was similar to Nong Zhang. Nong Zhang was a battle maniac, while Xiao Xinru was a skill maniac.

In the beginning, when he first came into contact with Xiao Xinru, he was actually making use of Xiao Xinru's large-scale skills.

After entering the Imperial Family, it was entirely because MO Xiu had taken a fancy to Xiao Xinru's talent and wanted to rope her in. He coaxed and tricked her into entering the Imperial Family.

In the imperial family, when Xiao Xinru was seriously injured and on the verge of death, MO Xiu looked for Li Ling 'er and asked Zhuge Zhong to save Xiao Xinru.

Xiao Xinru had changed since then. She slowly realized the feelings between people.

He also slowly realized the friendship in the team.

Moxiu gently tapped his forehead.

When the five of them had finished reading, MO Xiu did not return. Instead, he rode his sword to Shun City.

He did not inform Yue Long or the Li family.

MO Xiu strolled aimlessly on the streets of Shun City, experiencing the past twenty years of his life alone.

MO Xiu didn't regret what he had done in this life. However, he did feel some regret. He had never had a childhood and had spent his life cultivating.

Even Shun City, the city he grew up in, had places he had never been to before.

As he walked, MO Xiu arrived at the starting point of everything, Shun City No.1 Middle School.

It was late at night, and the school gates were closed. MO Xiu sneaked in and went to the place where he used to study.

In the end, he stopped at the library. This was the place where Yoruhana had lived and accompanied him for more than ten years.

Moxiu entered the library and went to the last row of bookshelves to find a hidden room.

Pushing the door open, she saw that it was full of dust. No one had lived in it for a long time.

It seemed that no one lived here after Yoruhana left.

MO Xiu removed the dust from the table and sat down on the bed.

Moxiu didn't do anything and just sat there, as if he wanted to experience Yoruhana's feelings as she sat on the bed.

After a long time, MO Xiu stood up and opened the secret passage.

Before the firearms war, Moxiu had come here and taken the Heaven Defying pearl.

This time, he came with a completely different mood.

Stroking the walls of the narrow passageway, he slowly walked forward, feeling that Yoruhana was standing right in front of him.

Moxiu's expression was pained as he clutched his chest and shook his head desperately.

"Yoruhana, I've let you down. I've made you carry so much, but you didn't find happiness in the end.."

Chapter 586: A Conversation

After walking out of the secret passage and the small room, MO Xiu casually picked up a book and sat in the seat where he first met Tang Wanhua.

She opened the book and sat there, not knowing if she had read it.

It wasn't until dawn that he put the book back and quietly left.

After returning from Shun City, MO Xiu only saw the three of them before he started his closed-door cultivation.

The first one was Li Yuan. Li Yuan, who had calmed down, told MO Xiu a lot of things that happened when MO Xiu was young.

There were some things that MO Xiu remembered and some that he didn't. He even mentioned Tang Wanhua's help along the way.

MO Xiu listened with great interest. There was no sadness, only nostalgia.

The second person was Mu Qingyi. After MO Xiu left, Mu Qingyi did not leave the room and quietly waited for MO Xiu to return. The moment MO Xiu entered, Mu Qingyi responded, "'You're back?' 'Have you been waiting for me?' Moxiu nodded."

Mu Qingyi smiled as she held MO Xiu's arm and said, "'Yeah, your status is different now. I have to take good care of you. Otherwise, what if you find another woman?'"

"How could that be? Having you in this life is enough!"

Mu Qingyi said angrily, "This life? Are you playing word games with me? You can reincarnate, right?"

Mu Qingyi suddenly laughed happily. She covered her mouth and muttered, "'Hahaha, I was just joking. Look at how scared you are.'"

"I'm not afraid!"

The third person MO Xiu met was Tian Ji!

The two of them should sit down and chat, which was why MO Xiu was the last to look for him.

As soon as MO Xiu entered, Tian Ji smiled and said,""I've been waiting for you for a long time!"

MO Xiu sat opposite Tian Ji and said,""You didn't say anything to me, did you?"

"Of course not, it's not necessary for you.""

Why didn't you stop him when he went to the Eastern Region to assassinate

Old Snake?" MO Xiu asked.'

Tianji smiled and said, "I knew you would ask me this question.""

"Why didn't you stop them? His survival means a lot to humanity, and it also means a lot to me."

Tianji was helpless and could only explain," Because there was no other way. He chose the time a little too late. If he had reincarnated you a few years earlier, he might not have died. In the past few years, he had to deal with the Western Regions non-stop, and his injuries were getting more and more serious. When he found me, his lifespan did not exceed three months. He could not wait for you to awaken."

MO Xiu sighed heavily. He was the one who had harmed Wanhua. He couldn't blame anyone else. Wanhua had shouldered too much, resulting in her not even leaving a descendant behind.

Tianji continued, "It's not impossible to let Wanhua live. He needs people from the Zhuge family to extend his life. That will sacrifice a lot of people from the Zhuge family. You know, Wanhua won't agree to this. There's another reason. I asked Wanhua to kill Old Snake. ""

MO Xiu didn't say anything and quietly looked at Tian Ji.

"At that time, I calculated that if Old Snake didn't die, the eastern region would join the war. The central region might not even be able to survive until you awaken, let alone countless casualties. In the entire central region, only Wanhua had the ability to kill Old Snake."

MO Xiu nodded his head. He understood Tian Ji's intentions. In front of all the humans in the central continent, he had to make a choice. Tang Wanhua was the same.

"I understand. It's just a pity for Yoruhana."

"Wan Hwa Shi, the person who dedicated his entire life to mankind, is greater than you and me."

'Yes, I am!'

Seeing that MO Xiu was in a bad mood, Tian Ji changed the topic. ""How do you plan to deal with the Heaven Devouring Beast?"

The question of heavenly secrets always hit the nail on the head.

"I plan to meet him," Moxiu said. "Something happened in this life, so I think we can reconcile.""

"When? After he went into seclusion?"

"Hahaha!" MO Xiu laughed loudly. How did you know I was going into seclusion? As expected, I can't hide anything from you!"

Tianji stroked his beard and said, "You've awakened your memories, so your comprehension of skills will reach the level of your previous life. I'll give you some time to recover to the supreme level. ""

MO Xiu nodded and did not deny it.

There were two ways to level up a skill. One was to obtain spiritual energy from the outside world to forcefully level up, which was the method used by the royal family and ordinary people in seclusion.

However, there were some drawbacks to this method. It was not easy to customize one's skills through one's own comprehension. In other words, it was to level up in the direction one wanted. Moreover, if one's comprehension was insufficient, one would not be able to fully unleash the power of the skill.

The second method was comprehension. When one's comprehension of one's skill reached a certain level, it would naturally level up. There was only one drawback to this method, and that was that it was slow!

It required a long period of time and multiple uses of the skill to slowly comprehend it. It could be leveled up after comprehending it alone, and the power of the skill would be very objective. Before Moxiu entered Royal, he had always leveled up through comprehension.

Now that Moxiu had awakened the supreme memories of his previous life, his understanding of the skill was naturally preserved.

As long as there was enough time, Moxiu would be able to recover his strength from his previous life to a certain extent.

Tian Ji continued, "Mn, once the Heaven Devouring Beast is settled, the wild beasts will be easy to deal with.""

"Yes, yes," MO Xiu said. "In the past hundred years, if it wasn't necessary, you almost didn't calculate the heavenly secrets. Why is that?"

Tianji said, "I've been thinking about a problem. You're right. Tianji is not something that cannot be changed. You jumped out of Tianji and created a miracle. I want to see if humans will walk better without my help."

"Looks like you've finally thought it through. The heavenly secrets you've peeked into are only auxiliary. The ones who truly control fate are still us."

"Yes, you used a hundred years to prove that you were right. How can I not believe it? Do you still blame me? It's my fault for stopping you."

"Don't joke around," Moxiu said. "I've never blamed you. In that situation, whether you were the leader of the humans or my friend, you should have stopped me."

Tianji let out a long breath. He let out all the self-blame and guilt he had felt for the past hundred years.

"That's good. It's good that you don't blame me!"

MO Xiu stood up and walked to Tian Ji's side. He patted Tian Ji and said, "Never forget that we are friends who have experienced countless life and death situations."

"There's still one more thing I have to tell you. You can't come out of seclusion this time. There will be a disaster in the central region during this period of time." "

MO Yu wanted to say, "Don't worry, humans can survive this difficult time. The strength of the central region is very strong."

Tian Ji did not oppose MO Xiu like last time. Instead, he said, "I trust you more than Tianji!"

The two of them laughed at the same time. They seemed to be very happy, but also seemed to be venting their years of depression.

"Will the humans win this time?"

“Victory!” “That’s good!”

“Yes!”

“Also, I’m already an old man, but you’re so young!”

Chapter 587: The Secrets of Heaven (1)

MO Xiu and Tian Ji’s conversation ended. The last topic was whether they should publicize the news that MO Xiu was Supreme.

Although Moxiu’s reputation in the central continent was very high, he was the hero of the entire central continent.

However, no matter what, it could not compare to the name of Wu Shang. If Wu Shang appeared, the news of Wu Shang’s return would not be a joke. That would make all humans full of confidence and ignite everyone.

The benefits were still great. Tianji wanted to announce the news.

Not only could it increase the confidence of humans, but it could also intimidate the beasts in all directions.

In the end, Tianji’s suggestion did not pass, and MO Xiu did not agree.

MO Xiu only used one sentence to convince Tian Ji.

“It’s been more than a hundred years.”

Although MO Xiu’s reputation and deterrence weren’t as great as Supreme’s, MO Xiu represented hope.

Even if there was no Supreme, humans could still survive in the war initiated by wild beasts.

Based on the current situation, the two of them discussed many details.

The scene of the two of them sitting together and discussing matters seemed to have returned to a hundred years ago.

As they discussed, both Tian Ji and MO Xiu were very happy. It had been a long time since such a feeling had appeared.

In fact, it had been a long time, a hundred years.

The two of them chatted from early morning to late night, and then from late night to early morning.

The content of the chat was very complicated. They talked about everything. Most of the time, they were chatting. Occasionally, they would suddenly get serious about something.

When night fell, MO Xiu came out of Tian Ji’s room.

At this moment, the wild beasts had already moved. It could be seen that they could attack at any time.

All the departments, be it the border or the central region, from Xi Bei’s commanders to the civilians, were all on high alert.

At this critical moment, two major events happened in the central continent.

Rather than saying that it was a big matter, it was better to say that it was something that everyone was paying attention to.

The first thing was that Moxiu had woken up from his awakening, and the citizens were finally relieved.

However, Moxiu had just finished awakening and had started to enter seclusion. Moreover, he had spread the news that this seclusion would last for a very long time.

Under the constant threat of external threats, Moxiu was once again in seclusion. This was not good news for the people.

At this moment, in the hearts of the people, Moxiu was the most reliable person. Once a war broke out, without Moxiu around, everyone would feel uneasy.

The first thing was bad news, but the second thing was good news.

The Elder of Heavenly Secrets, who hadn't appeared during the hundred years of peace and the attack on the central region, had finally appeared.

He took off his long robe and changed into a black suit when he was young, revealing himself in front of everyone.

He also claimed that he would temporarily take over the command of the central region.

Although Tianji's name was not as good as Supreme, it was not much different. After the history was released, the people had seen the names Supreme and Tianji appear together countless times in the records.

During that period of great chaos, the supreme lord of war and the heavenly secrets of the world saved mankind from fire and water

Seeing the person in the records with their own eyes, the people's emotions were unprecedentedly high, and they were full of confidence in the upcoming battle.

This was what MO Xiu and Tian Ji had discussed. MO Xiu would temporarily not announce Supreme's identity, and Tian Ji would appear to take charge of the situation.

The original commander, Xi Bei, immediately handed over his authority when he saw the Elder of Heavenly Secrets appear.

The Elder of Heavenly Secrets began his next plan.

On the other side, Moxiu returned to his room and sat down. He took a deep breath and entered a state of cultivation.

Everything had been settled. All the doubts in MO Xiu's heart had been resolved. Why did Tang Wanhua trust him so much? Why did he choose him as the heir?

Why did he never teach himself anything and let himself control everything?

This was because MO Xiu was not Tang Wanhua's disciple, but his master.

Also, why would Moxiu grow to a certain extent every time he awakened a skill? It was because his Supreme Memory was showing signs of recovering.

At this moment, MO Xiu was completely focused. Coupled with his understanding of skills from Unrivaled Memory, his strength would have a qualitative leap when he came out of seclusion again.

In the northern region of the Alliance, Boboxiu only had three things to do every day.

He looked at the information, gave out the mission, and also paid attention to whether Moxiu had woken up from his awakening state in the central region.

Just as he received the news, MO Xiu woke up.

Boboxiu heaved a sigh of relief. Boboguo asked, "Xio, is Mr. MO really that important to you?"

"Yes," Bobosio said seriously. "Although I've never met Mr. MO before, I'm his teacher. I've heard about Mr. MO's performance in the firearms war. His strategy is amazing. Do you know?" Mr. MO can also turn the situation around in a desperate situation. Every blow hits the enemy's vital points, do you know that???"

Bobo nodded with a smile. He was already used to Boboxiu's admiration for Mr. Mo. However, Mr. Mo's actions were indeed worthy of admiration.

Southern Region of the Alliance.

King Nan and a woman were sitting in a tent. There were humans and beasts guarding outside the tent.

The beasts and humans guarding outside were at daggers drawn, and the atmosphere was tense.

However, without the orders of the two people in the tent, they could not make a move.

Inside the tent.

On one side was the white-haired King Nan. Although his hair was white and his skin had aged, the spirit in his eyes was not any worse than before.

After the war ended, King Nan chose a completely different path from Wu Shang and Tang Wanhua.

Wu Shang went to deal with the marine race while Tang Wanhua stayed in the central region.

King Nan's choice was to announce that he was dead to the outside world, then quietly hide and hide his strength. He did not pay attention to anything in the south, only wanting to hold on to his combat strength.

Reality proved that he was right. After a hundred years, he was the only one who could continue to fight against the wild beasts and defend the south.

Sitting on the other side was a woman. She looked young, about 20 years old.

She did not show any fear when facing King Nan.

King Nan looked at the woman in front of him calmly and said slowly, "Who are you? He had never seen it before. Why was it here? I want to negotiate with the Phoenix King and the Elephant King. Can you represent them?"

The woman was equally calm and said, "Yes! If not, I won't come here."

King Nan frowned slightly. "As far as I know, phoenixes and elephants can't transform into humans. Are you a human or a beast?"

The woman broke the quilt beside her, picked up one of the pieces, and handed it to King Nan.

King Nan didn't understand what was going on. After flipping through the fragments, he asked, "What do you mean?"

The woman smiled. Her smile was very strange. She was clearly a beautiful little girl, but her smile seemed very sinister.

He did not know if it was because his skin was too fair. "My appearance is human, but my heart is a beast!"

Chapter 588: Breakthrough (1)

"I look like a human, but I'm a beast inside."

King Nan once again looked at the woman in front of him seriously and said, "You are a human, why do you say that your heart is a beast?" The woman snorted coldly. I'm here to negotiate with you, not to talk about me."

"How dare you speak to me like this?" King Nan slammed the table and said angrily. Even if a beast king came, would they dare to do so?"

The woman didn't panic at all. She leaned back and leaned on herself. She crossed her legs and said, "Are you going to talk or not? You know the strength of the Southern Region."

"The Southern Mountain Range is indeed very powerful," King Nan said disdainfully. "However, you will have to pay a heavy price if you want to flatten our southern region."

The woman didn't want to continue arguing, so she slowed down and said, "Aren't we sitting here today to discuss countermeasures? How about we each take a step back?"

King Nan raised his eyebrows and felt that something was wrong. "What do you mean by taking a step back? I can walk here today with only one purpose, and that is to stop the war!"

The woman spread her hands and said, "That's what we mean!"

"Then why do you say that we each take a step back?" King Nan said unhappily.

Since you don't want to fight anymore, sign a truce agreement."

The woman was clearly prepared. She took out the documents and placed them on the table.

"I've already agreed to the agreement. Take a look!"

King Nan took the agreement and read it carefully from top to bottom.

The agreement did not have a time limit. It only stipulated that the beast southern region would not start a war with the human southern region.

The more King Nan read, the more satisfied he became. There were no terms that were unfavorable to the south, and he was ready to sign.

However, when King Nan was about to sign, he saw the last clause and his expression changed.

King Nan was furious. He threw the document on the table and pointed at the woman. "What's with the last one?"

The woman picked up the document unhurriedly and pretended not to know what the last line was. She picked it up and looked at it, then said, "Oh! You're talking about this one. This one doesn't harm the interests of the southern part of the human race. Why is the Southern King so angry?"

King Nan slammed the table and stood up. "The last one says that the wild beasts of the Southern Region want to enter the human central region. Why is that?"

The woman smiled and said, "King Nan, aren't you asking the obvious?" "If we can't beat you, we'll go to the central region."

"Don't even think about it! Humans are a group of people and will not kill each other!"

"I didn't ask you to deal with the central region."

“No way! Don’t even think about it! “If you want to enter the central region, you have to cross over my corpse! If you dare to take a detour and attack the central region, I will personally lead my men to intercept you!”

The woman glared at King Nan and said, “Stubborn! ””

King Nan pointed to the exit of the tent and said, ””“You can leave. I won’t send you off!”

The woman knew that the chances of success were slim, so she didn’t say anything else and turned to leave.

After the woman left with the beast army, a person walked in. “How did it go, King Nan?” he asked.”

“Beast wants me to make way for them to attack the central region?”

The Southern King placed the interests of the south at the forefront, but he still understood the principle of losing the lips and the teeth being cold.

Once the central region was occupied, the southern region would not be the only one attacking him.

The wild beasts were good at scheming. King Nan would definitely not let them succeed.

“Does Beast really think we are fools?”

“Who is the woman who negotiated with me just now? Why did you help the beast?”

“Don’t you know her? She was the one who commanded the siege. Otherwise, how could the phoenixes and elephants get along with such tactics?”

“Oh? No wonder she said she could represent the Beast King. What was her name? What is his background?”

"I don't know her name. I only know that she's the military counselor of the Southern Mountain Range. They couldn't find out, but rumors said that she was from the central continent and had lived with the beasts in the southern region since a long time ago."

"This woman is a little strange," King Nan said thoughtfully. "The people of the Central Plains want to kill their way to the Central Plains?" Why?"

In the middle.

In the following month, the movements of all parties were relatively small. The east side was as quiet as ever. Whether it was the snake tribe or the cat tribe, they had no intention of participating in the war.

In the north, due to Boboxiu's interference, the bear clan and the Turtle clan had yet to determine a victor. It was now a period of calm, so intense battles often occurred, but they were not as frequent as before.

In the south, ever since that woman spoke to King Nan last time, there had been no more attacks.

The south finally had a chance to breathe after a long period of chaos.

Finally, it was the west. The western region had been very active recently. It should have recovered a lot of its previously damaged vitality and was eager to try.

However, even though they were active, they did not launch a decent attack on the central region.

Most of them were small leaders of the Western Regions doing things at the border, and there were occasional conflicts.

Overall, the entire battlefield was stable and seemed to be coming to an end.

In such a calm situation, it was inevitable that some people would relax. Whether it was the central region, the south, or the north, some people had already begun to relax.

They felt that the disaster had passed and the beasts would not launch a large-scale battle. Both sides entered a period of cold war.

Xi Bei had specially found the Elder of Heavenly Secrets to ask what was going on. The wild beasts did not seem to want to stop fighting, but instead seemed to be launching a general attack.

Tianji's reply was very simple. Don't let your guard down. The wild beasts could attack at any time. This would be a disaster for the central continent.

After speaking to Xi Bei, he lowered his head and began to write and draw on the map on the table. Clearly, he had something important to do.

Ever since Tianji took over the command, Xi Bei's pressure had decreased a lot. He was now in charge of guarding the border.

Now that he had returned, he sent back the order that he could not relax and was ready to fight at any time.

On Tianji's side, he used a red pen to draw circles on the map.

He muttered to himself, "Mo Xiu, you really know how to find problems for me.

There are so many holes. How am I supposed to block them?" Sigh!"

A week later, the beasts would launch a surprise attack on the central region!

This time, it was still a surprise attack, but the opponent was different. It was no longer just the Western Regions.

The apes and foxes in the west, the bears and turtles in the north, and the phoenixes in the south. All the wild beasts had arrived except for the eastern region.

Their target was clear and direct. They would attack the central region and first gnaw away the hardest bone before dealing with other areas.

The Fox King must have paid a great price to invite them.

The previous month had not been calm, but a long storm was brewing.

Beast's plan to successfully invade had now become fraught with difficulties. They urgently needed a breakthrough.

The central region was their breakthrough point!

Chapter 589: If the Central Continent Wins, Mankind Will Live, If the Central Continent Wins, Mankind Will Die

The central region would be facing three opponents and would be in a difficult situation.

The first was the people of the Western Regions. After a few months of recuperation, the Western Regions had recovered quite a bit.

First, order was restored. The Fox King once again took complete control of the Western Regions.

The Fox King had only done one thing in the past few months, and that was to become an army!

The wild beasts in the Western Regions, whether they were soldiers in the former ten cities, former underground forces, or just ordinary citizens.

All of them would be organized and become part of the army.

From the Fox King's actions, it could be seen that this time, the Western Regions would risk everything to attack the Central Region.

If they were to pull all the wild beasts of the Western Regions along, victory or defeat would depend on this one move.

It was also the Fox King's actions that moved the Bear clan and Turtle clan of the north, as well as the Phoenix clan of the south.

Since the wild beasts were all in trouble, they needed a breakthrough. Once this breakthrough was opened, humans would be completely defeated.

As for why he chose the central region, the reason was very simple. Whether it was geographical location or strength, the central region was the most crucial. That was why he chose the central region.

The Bear clan and the Turtle clan gradually calmed down during the cold war. They knew that this could not continue. It was a form of exhaustion for both sides.

In order to prevent the northerners from interfering with the attack, the Turtle clan and the bear clan contacted each other in private. They disguised themselves as fighting at the borders before launching a surprise attack on the central continent.

When this news reached Boboxiu, he was furious.

This was the first time Bobo had seen Boboxiu so angry. He asked, "This isn't your fault. No one expected that the two tribes, who were like fire and water, would suddenly collude in secret."

Boboxiu shook his head and said, "No, I can't! I shouldn't have made such a mistake, we must save it! Use the strength of your subordinates to support the central region!"

Bobo had always listened to Bobo's fame and fortune, but this time, he had a different opinion.

"Xio, listen to me. I know that you admire Mr. MO and yearn for the central region's langur monkeys, but now isn't the time to be in power together. You know very well that the army under me is our trump card in the north. You've always been carrying it out like this. Now isn't the time to expose yourself. Once we're discovered, all our previous efforts will be in vain. I don't understand the situation, but I do. Once the central region is defeated, we'll be finished. I'll lead the others to help the central region. Don't reveal that army, okay?"

Bobo said solemnly to Bobo, ""Brother! Ever since I entered the tent, I've always treated the head captain as my father and you as my biological brother. The north is also my home. I won't be in power together with you."

Even though Boboqi had passed away for some time, Boboxiu still addressed him as the head captain.

Bobo shook his head with a determined look in his eyes.

"No, I can't! I can't listen to you this time! I want to guard the north!"

Boboguo's voice was a little loud. Boboxiu was stunned for a moment and shouted at Boboguo, ""You have to listen to me! You've always listened to me. What's wrong this time?"

"No, I can't! The central region is very important, but I don't agree to the northern region being sacrificed for the central region!"

Ever since the two of them met, they were like brothers. This was the first time they had an argument.

Boboxiu had the authority to command, but in terms of military power and prestige, Boboxiu was inferior to Bobogo.

This was also the reason why Boboqi asked Bobogo to restrict Boboxiu.

Boboxiu slumped onto the chair weakly while Boboguo sat down firmly in front of him.

The two of them looked at each other, neither of them giving in.

As time passed, their emotions slowly calmed down.

Bobosio took a cup of tea and sipped it carefully.

Bobo understood Boboxiu very well. Seeing Boboxiu drinking tea, he said, ""Have you calmed down? Are we still going to use all our forces in the north?"

Bobosio took a sip of tea and slowly placed the cup on the table.

"Looks like my cultivation isn't enough." "Hmm?"

Bobo was a little confused. What did he mean?

Bobosio smiled, no longer as impatient as before.

"If it were Mr. MO, he wouldn't have yelled at you in such a situation, right? My cultivation is still not enough. I'm still far from it!"

Boboko didn't know why Boboxiu said this, so he asked, ""So? Have you changed your mind?"

'You!"

Bobosio waved his hand and said, "Don't be anxious. I'll explain it to you slowly. You'll understand. It was my fault for not making things clear.""

Bobo was not a stubborn person, or else he would not have been working under Boboxiu. He also wanted to know what Boboxiu was thinking.

Bobosio took out a map and spread it out on the table. He pointed at the center and said, ""The central region is at this location, in the center of the entire continent."

Bobo nodded. Everyone knew this.

"You know what will happen if the central continent is defeated!"

Boboguo nodded slightly. The central region had lost, the entire game had been lost.

"It looks like the three regions are besieging the central region, but in reality, it's a decisive battle between the western regions and the central region. Both sides will use all their trump cards, and either one of them will die."

Bobo could roughly understand what Boboxiu meant. He raised his head and looked into Boboxiu's eyes.

" You mean, this battle..."

"Brother! Why am I sitting here?"

"Because you have the ability to help the north out of its predicament."

Boboxiu bitterly shook his head and said, "" To be honest, if peace is restored one day, I don't know how to restore order in the north. My strongest ability is to judge the situation, and Mr. MO and the head captain's strategy precisely requires people who can accurately judge the situation. So you should trust me in my judgment of the situation this time."

Bobo's eyes wavered. He looked at Bobo and then at the map on the table.

While Boboguo was hesitating, Boboxiu said a decisive sentence.

“Decisive battle! This time, it was not just a decisive battle in the central region, but also a decisive battle for all of humanity. The outcome of this battle would directly affect the survival of the northern region. Mr. Mo’s previous plan was useless. This time, if the central region won, humanity would survive.

If the central region lost, humanity would die.”

Bobo raised his head, no longer hesitating. He stood up and bowed to Bobo.

“I understand!” I was wrong just now. I wasted so much time because of this. I’ll go reorganize the army now. Not only my subordinates, but all the troops in the north will participate in this war and move to the border! Life and death depended on this battle!”

Bobosio clenched his fists tightly. He had thought that he could defeat the North Region according to Mr. Mo’s plan, but it seemed that he had failed.

However, after thinking about it, the Western Region was so anxious because they were afraid of Mr. Mo. They were afraid that things would change if they were too late.

A single person could actually make the beasts of an entire region fear him.

Mr.. MO was really an amazing person!

Chapter 590: MO Xiu Has Not Moved, The Heavenly Secrets Are Unsettled! 1

South.

After that negotiation, the Southern Mountain Range remained silent.

The Southern Region had let down their guard a little. King Nan only felt that it was a little strange. That woman's tone was very firm. Why did the Southern Region not make any moves after the negotiation?

It was only when the phoenixes used the convenience of flying to cross the south and land directly in the middle to launch a surprise attack that King Nan realized that the Southern Mountain Range had not changed their target and wanted to attack the middle.

King Nan was furious and ordered the entire southern region to go to the border to help the central region.

Even Boboxiu was able to see through the situation. King Nan had lived for over a hundred years, so how could he not know that this battle would be a decisive one?

It was not only a decisive battle, but also an opportunity for all of humanity. As long as the central continent could hold on and defeat the western region, then humanity would welcome victory.

As this was a battle that would stake everything, this battle was destined to be even more tragic than a hundred years ago.

This time, there was no way to retreat! If humans were exterminated or enslaved, they would win! Beast was pushed out of the stage of history.

Life and death, there was no way out.

In the middle.

The sudden and fierce attack was immediately blocked by the corresponding city in the central region.

Just like how they knew that wild beasts would suddenly attack, they set up checkpoints in the middle of a fixed location.

This was a typical battle style of the Elder of Heavenly Secrets. Before the enemy made a move, he would make preparations, lay out his plans, and wait for the enemy's arrival.

Ever since Old You had spoken to MO Xiu that time, he had become more energetic and took the initiative to look for Tian Ji to request for him to lead his troops into battle.

This was what Tianji wanted to see. Another powerful and trustworthy person was a good thing.

The Western Regions were the most important. They still had the main force of the imperial family and the support of the surrounding cities, and they were guarded by Xi Bei.

The remaining two sides were more troublesome. The north side was left to Old You to lead personally.

However, there had been no leader in the south, nor were there any peak experts guarding it. It was definitely impossible to rely on the people arranged in advance. They would not be able to hold on for long.

However, the elites had to be in the Western Regions. The Western Regions were the most powerful, and the pressure on the Central Region was the greatest.

Just as Tianji was at a loss, the big cat came to request to fight.

"Old Man Tianji, my 'big' family requests to fight! I will definitely defend the south!"

Tian Ji calculated with his fingers and said," The south isn't a place you should go. Stay here and protect MO Xiu!"

"The 'big' family will stay behind. I'll go to the south!"

"Don't say anymore. Stay by MO Xiu's side." The Elder of Heavenly Secrets shook his head."

Big Cat shook its head helplessly and slowly walked towards the door.

The Elder of Heavenly Secrets muttered to himself, "How strange, how interesting!"

Big Cat thought that the Elder of Heavenly Secrets had changed his mind. He turned his head and asked, "Can I go to the south now?"

"You don't have to go," the Elder of Heavenly Secrets said. "Someone has already rushed over. You can just stay here."

Big Cat knew the situation in the central region. There was no one who could be used, even though the north and south were rushing to the border to prepare for support.

However, the wild beasts were still ambushing. The south and north of the central region needed to hold on until reinforcements arrived.

"Who is it?" asked Big Cat curiously. "Who can save this situation?"

Tianji smiled and stroked his beard. "Let us wait and see!"

Big Cat rolled its eyes and hurriedly walked out of the room. This Elder of Heavenly Secrets had not changed. He never spoke clearly.

As soon as he went out, Big Cat bumped into Li Yuan, who was walking towards him.

"Head Patriarch, what did the Elder of Heavenly Secrets say? To go to the front line?"

"You're out of seclusion?" Big Cat asked. "If you don't let me leave, I'll just stay here quietly!"

“May I ask why the Elder of Heavenly Secrets didn’t let you go?” Li Yuan asked tentatively.”

“Letting me stay by Moxiu’s side is good too! “Moxiu is very important to the central continent. Last time, the Elder of Heavenly Secrets asked me to wait for Moxiu. This time, he gave the same order, so I can only listen.”

Li Yuan nodded and said,“Oh! What about the south? Is there a way to solve it? I...can go.”

Big Cat was stunned for a moment. He did not know Li Yuan very well. She had been missing for nearly 20 years. After returning to the royal family, she had kept a low profile. He did not know how strong she was.

To be able to say such words at this time, it seemed that he was more confident in his own strength.

Big Cat said,“ The Elder of Heavenly Secrets won’t even let me go, let alone you.

However, he said that someone was going. As for who it was, he didn’t say.””

Li Yuan slightly relaxed her nervousness. It was good that it could be resolved. She could stay by her son’s side.

At this moment, MO Xiu was still in seclusion and did not have the slightest intention of coming out of seclusion.

As long as the people had some combat strength, they would spontaneously seek the army to join them and show their strength for the central region.

At this time, no one could be alone. During this month of peace, the various City Lords had done a good job, letting the people experience what war could bring and how hard it was to come by a short period of peace.

However, the people were very concerned about Moxiu. They didn't know what had happened to him. They didn't know why he had just woken up from his awakening and entered seclusion again.

Now that the news of the wild beast's surprise attack was gradually spreading, Moxiu had no intention of coming out of seclusion.

After Moxiu awakened, he did not show his face. Many people speculated that there was a huge problem with Moxiu during his awakening.

In reality, he had not woken up all this time. The officials had only said that he had zone into seclusion after waking uD to stabilize the morale of the armv.

If MO Xiu had really woken up, why didn't he show up and say a few words?

There was no way to avoid such a situation. On the one hand, the people really cared about MO Xiu. It was inevitable that they would tear each other apart and let their thoughts run wild.

On one hand, MO Xiu was in a hurry to enter seclusion, so he didn't waste too much time. He also didn't have time to say anything in public.

He hadn't thought about it at that time and hadn't expected it to have such an impact.

In the past, he had always emphasized the importance of morale. The people had to have confidence.

That was to let the soldiers at the front line have a better combat condition.

The situation was different now. No one knew when this battle would end. The central continent might be like the Western Beast Region, mobilizing every single person, every single ordinary citizen.

At this time, reassuring the people was of utmost importance.

Therefore, Tianji, who had been in seclusion for a hundred years, came out to make up for the time when MO Xiu was not around.

Now that rumors were spreading everywhere, it was definitely not the right way to suppress them. After all, the people did not do anything wrong, so there was nothing wrong with guessing.

This was the only thing that gave Tianji a headache, so he had no choice but to step in.

In front of all the people, he spoke openly.

“Regarding MO Xiu’s matter, I will explain it to you. I understand that you are worried about MO Xiu, but please believe me, believe me tonight. MO Xiu’s seclusion is very important.”

Tianji was afraid that his words did not carry any weight, so he added another sentence that he had said a hundred years ago.

“MO Xiu hasn’t moved yet, and the heavenly secrets are undecided!”
