

Wife 101

Chapter 101

Clara said, “Evie will go back and burn candles for you on your death anniversary.”

Diana fell silent. After a long while, she said, “Alright, I’ll head back

Clara said, “I’ll ask Evie to come in and see you off.”

She asked Mark to get some white candles out and make a show out of it before asking Evelyn to come in. She then asked Evelyn to light the candles and offer more prayers for Diana, allowing Diana to look at Evelyn for a little while longer.

After that, Diana reluctantly left Evelyn’s rental place.

Clara turned the lights on once Diana left.

“Has my grandma left?” asked Evelyn.

Clara hummed a reply. “Your grandma was bullied by the owner of the grave below hers. It was Shanny’s grandfather from the lower village. He’s an old–timer ghost who died over decades ago. That’s why he’s bullying your grandma, who’s a newbie ghost.

“He even hooked up with an old lady ghost. He snatched your grandma’s clothes and gave them to that old lady ghost. He also threw your grandma’s shoes into the river.

She continued, “Your grandma even went back to look for your grandpa to ask him for a change of clothes. But your grandpa said that there weren’t any of her clothes left at home since they were all disposed of.

“Your grandma slipped into your mother’s dream yet she did not think much about it after she woke up. That was why she had no choice but to disturb you. She said that you were her beloved granddaughter She wouldn’t have disturbed your sleep and work if she could help it.

Clara said, “She wanted to look at you again before she left. That’s why I asked for you to burn her some candles and offer your prayers to see her off.”

Evelyn couldn’t see Diana. She wasn’t sure if Diana had said all those things.

However, she was already in tears by the time Clara finished speaking. She teared up even more when she remembered their close–knit relationship back when Diana was still alive.

The ghost whom others were afraid of was the family member whom she longed to see but could no longer do so.

Clara handed Evelyn some tissues. She then said, “You should call your mother later. Ask her to stock up on some white candles from the town’s candle shop, so that she can manifest some clothes, shoes, socks, and other daily necessities for your grandma..

‘She should also manifest some sword, sticks, hoes, or any weapons that she could use to protect herself. If not, try manifesting some household staff to accompany your grandma. They could even protect her from getting bullied by her neighbors.” W@W.nov@IWorm.COM

It was impossible to ask Shanny’s family to move their family graves elsewhere. As such, they could only send prayers and manifest more things for Diana to protect herself with.

That way, her neighbors wouldn’t be able to bully her no matter how hostile they were. Diana would then be able to rest in peace, while her family could live in peace.

Evelyn wiped her tears with the tissue and calmed herself down. She then called Lilia and told her the entire story. She also reminded Lilia to stock up on white candles from the town’s candle shon the neut www.nóvêl.worm.com day for Diana’s sake.

2/2 w@w.w.Ve(i)wôrM.čôM

Lilia said, “I thought I was just dreaming. I never expected that it really was your grandma’s doing. It was raining that night, and our chickens were restless. I even got up and went to check the chicken coop, but I didn’t see anything. I dreamt of your grandma later on and I told your grandpa about it the next morning. wwW.n.V@Lworm.cóm

“Do you know what your grandpa told me? He said that your grandma came back that night. She was soaking wet as it was raining, and she asked him to get her a change of clothes. He told her that there were no clothes of hers left at home, so she couldn’t get changed.

She continued, “He even said that they chattered and bickered the entire night your grandma came back. I got goosebumps when I heard his words. Fortunately, I never treated your grandma badly when she was still alive. Otherwise, I’d be afraid that she would come back to strangle me.”

Evelyn replied, “So, that’s really true. Mr. Fowler was really accurate–what he said is exactly the same as what you said.”

Mark’s abilities once again expanded her understanding of the world. Were there really ghosts in the world?

Lilia said, “I’ll go get the white candles tomorrow morning to manifest some broomsticks for your grandmother. She can beat them up with broomsticks if they dare to rob her of her belongings again. She loved hitting others with a broomstick when she was still alive.”