

Gacha 123

123 Appearance

"John"

He wanted to flare up but he holds himself back. He needs to wait for the Demi-human to arrive. If he arrives there by himself, the situation wasn't going to change. It's better if he comes together with the Demi-human. It will be more convincing that way.

Alex continues observing the situation, it seems that Zircodina King is in the crowds but he can't be bothered by him, his focus is on those four who are fighting in the air still going at each other greatly. But after he observed them closely. It seems that one of the armored man was helping Leyfon. Alex assumed that he is on the same side. That means, currently Acacia fought Zircodina and Holy Kingdom at the same time.

Suddenly, An old man came into the fight. The old man brought another old man by grabbing his head. But the problem is, the old man in his grab was injured all over that he can die at any moment. Alex frowned. Who is he? enemy or friend?

On the battlefield, The sudden appearance of an old man surprised all of them

"Y-you are the Previous King of Zircodina Kingdom, Edmund de Andalla Zircodina." The pope was surprised, he can't help but blurt the old man's name.

That's right, the one who came is Zircodina's previous king. But the people from Acacia wasn't surprised by his appearance. Their surprised come from the one that brought over by Zircodina's Previous king. It was Bryan.

"Old Bryan"

"His Majesty"

The one in Zircodina Previous king's hand is the Acacia Kingdom Previous King, Bryan Zelle Acacia. Leyfon, Draco, and Marco were thoroughly angered. Leyfon immediately disappeared.

The moment he appeared, he is in front of Edmund. He swung his sword to his neck. But, Edmund grabbed his sword. Suddenly, his hand was covered by a black colored fire. The sword suddenly started to melt. Leyfon was surprised, he immediately retreated.

"Hehe, Try this flame" Edmund pointed at Edward with his index finger. A laser-like flame appeared from his finger. Its target is Leyfon. Leyfon tried to dodge it, but because it was too sudden. It hit his left hand while he dodging.

"Argh" Leyfon groaned. He looked at his left hand. The spot the flame hit him suddenly burn. "Argh, what is this. I felt my mana was burned"

His left hand was on fire. He tried to suppress the fire with mana but to no avail. He immediately cut his left hand. His left hand fell down to the ground. He didn't notice that Edmund send another attack to him. The moment he notices it, he didn't have any time to react.

Suddenly, Draco went in front of Leyfon. He blocked the attack with his sword. The sword melted but at least the attack was destroyed by the sacrifice of his sword. He brings Leyfon away from the battlefield.

"Long Live Your Majesty. Kill those Acacia Bast*rd's"

"Marco, what is that flame? I don't remember him having an element?"

"I don't know" Dean Marco also confused, he remembers that Zircodina Previous King is a warrior. But he just used some weird fire. He looked at Leyfon's left hand on the ground. Leyfon's left hand was burned completely, only leaving the bone on the ground, in addition to Bryan. He immediately realized something. "You, you are the one who killed those innocents people"

"What are you talking about?"

"Enough with your pretense" Marco released his mana. "I will kill you here. Flame Sprites, Rise and kill my enemy"

A few flame pillars rose from the grounds and charged toward Edmund.

"Kill me? With only you? You are only a rank 8 fire mage, while I'm...a rank 9. Die" He burned all Marco's Fire easily. "Haha, Look at that. This is my power, the power befitted me"

"You... You have reached rank 9"

"I will erase the Acacia Kingdom, I will erase the other races and make my Zircodina to the top"

"You, I won't let you"

Suddenly a spear flying at a fast speed. Its target is Edmund's left hand. The hand that holding Bryan. Because of this surprise attack, Edmund released Bryan from his grips and melt the spear

'That spear...' He looked at the familiar spear, he knew, the only one who has that spear is..."Alex"

He immediately grabs Bryan and retreat.

A few minutes ago,

Alex observed the situation carefully. He was surprised to see that Leyfon suddenly lose an arm. At that time, he really wanted to charge there. But this is not the time, From their reaction, it seems that the half-dead old man in his hand was an important person in the Acacia Kingdom. Of course, he didn't know that he is his Grandfather-in-law. When his teacher was suppressed he raised his spear. The moment he thinks he wins, Alex takes that chance. He aimed at the hand which holding the injured old man.

"Spin Throwing Art. Spin Throwing"

After that, he immediately disappeared. He needs to make his appearance even if the Demi-humans still haven't come.

...

After Marco grabbed Bryan he retreated to Draco and the others. Marco immediately fed him some healing pills

"How are his injuries?" Draco asked.

"I don't know. I fed him some healing pills. Hopefully, he will be fine. But, now we need to..."

"Teacher" Alex suddenly appeared beside them. "Who is he? I heard you came here in a rush. Why is that?"

"Alex huh, nice assist back then. This injured old man is your Grandfather-in-law, Alicia's Grandfather, The Previous king. That old man in the air is also a previous king but from Zircodina Kingdom, his name is Edmund De'Sh*t. We got a report, there is a mass murderer that murdered all of the citizens from three of our towns. And the one who killed them is that man.? previously, he was a rank 8 warrior, but suddenly he becomes a rank 9 and can use that weird flame."

Alex frowned, he seems to recall something.

The Pope was surprised that there is a sudden youth who appeared among them. He didn't even notice him approaching them. Sandra and Maria were shocked when they saw Alex suddenly appeared. But, the one who reacts the most is...

"You, you Bast*rd. Alexander Sirius. I will kill you" Yes, the hero, John Penn. The deep grudge between him and Alex makes him insane. Back then, after Maria and Sandra escaped he was insane. He used all the soldiers without care to help him boost his strength. Finally, after countless soldiers died, He reached rank 6 in a short time. But it seems that Alex is still stronger than him.

"So, you are Alexander Sirius. It is our kingdom's fault to banish you. That's why I will give you one more chance. Kneel down and give your full loyalty to Zircodina Kingdom and I will spare your life" Edmund suddenly spoke.

'Ah, it is him. The one that Master told me back then. Master, you really raised a flag for me' Alex laughed a bit. "Are you still dreaming? Why do you still sleep talking?"

"You- you will regret your choice. Even if you can beat your Teacher, I am far stronger than him. I am a rank 9. You won't have the chance to win."

"Is that so? If I kill you here, what will happen to your Kingdom then?"

"Haha, You want to kill me? With you alone? What a joke" Edmund laughed.

While he laughing, suddenly a gentle voice was heard on the battlefield. "No, he is not alone. Wind Sprites, Wreck my enemy. Storm"

"Wood Sprites, Lock my enemy. Wooden Cage"

Suddenly, a wooden cage appeared and locked Edmund inside and a wind tornado appeared from the ground and swallow the cage along with Edmund.

"Sir Alexander. Sorry, we are a bit late" The Elven Queen and the other leaders along with their rank 7 generals arrived before him.

"No, it was my fault that I suddenly rushed here"

"What?"

"They are the five leaders of the Demi-humans."

But the most eye-catching is the Elven Queen. Because of her unparalleled beauty, the soldiers whether they were from Zircodina, Holy Kingdom, or even Acacia were mesmerized by her beauty.

"They...they seems respectful to that youth"

"Young Alexander. It seems that we ave arrived at the right time."

"Haha, yeah. But..." Alex looked at the wind tornado. He frowned, the leaders also looked at it. Suddenly, a black colored flame appeared on the tornado before it spread and eating the tornado away.

"Never thought that the demi-human will help you. Since you have gathered here together, I will kill all of you here"

"Be careful of that black flame. If you get hit by it, you will..." Alexander explained the black flame but before he finished, Leyfon cut in. "That flame didn't burn you. But, it corrodes you. It corrodes you so fast that you won't even believe it. The moment you hit by that flame in your vital area. That's the end of you"

"I will fight him" Alex said

"We four will help you. It seems that Titan Leader's compatibility with this opponent was very poor. If it will corrode him, then it's better to have him standby" The Elven Queen replied hurriedly. The other leaders also nodded, only the Titan leader seems a bit reluctant, but he can only accept it "All rank 7 generals will stand by"

"I will also help you" Dean Marco said hurriedly. "Draco, you help Leyfon protect the soldiers and Old Bryan"

Draco nodded. Six of them stood side by side, looking at Edmund.

"Haha, no matter how many of you come to me. I won't be defeated. With this flame, with this special power. I will be the king who governs the entire world"

"You are insane. Lightning Sprites. Hear my word and strike my enemy. Thunderstorm" The Elven Queen cast her magic. Sound of thunders were heard in the sky. Suddenly, a thunder strike down to Edmund.

"This is my proudest creation, Gigantic Axe." The dwarf cleave his ax down toward Edmund

"Wood Hand" Two big hands made of wood appeared from the ground.

"Centaur Secret Skill. Mountain Cleaving"

"Fire sprites, trap my enemy. Fire Net"

"Fire Phoenix Art. First Stage. Phoenix Summon"

All of their magic charged toward Edmund. Edmund dodge the Thunderstrike first. He burned the wood hand with his flame. He burned Dean Marco's Fire net. But because of that, he didn't have the time to dodge the strike from Dwarf leader and Centaur Leader. But he didn't panic, instead, he smirked.

"I also proud of my sword." He blocked the Dwarf Leader Axe with his sword. He used his flame to the ax and melted it away. Because of the difference of rank, he easily blocks the Dwarf Leader Axe and blew him away. Then he turned to Centaur Leader sword strike. "Zircodina Imperial Sword Style. Omni-Slash"

The two sword waves clashed and destroyed each other. Alex's Phoenix finally arrived.

"Boom!"

"Did it hit him?"

Alex frowned. When the smoke cleared. He saw a broken black ball in the sky. Inside of it is Edmund.

"What is that fire, it has the same power with my flame. Impossible. Your fire..."

"Fire?" Alex was confused. His teacher defeat with a person with this ability back then. But was he defeat him because he is stronger? Or because his fire is stronger? But his current flame is the fake flame produced by Phoenix Fire Seed. He soon comes to a realization. "I see, that was the answer all along"

Alex suddenly walked to the front. "I'm sorry. Can you guys leave him to me? I think it is my destiny to kill him" while secretly adding 'thanks to my Master's raising the flag' in his heart.

"Alex?"

"Sir Alexander? No, I won't let you do that. Our opponent is..." Elven Queen seems to desperately denied his idea.

"Elven Queen Shelfia" Alex smiled. "Look, even the Dwarf Leader seems can't join the fight anymore"

"Ugh... Ashamed. If I know the enemy is like this. I will bring all my collection here."

"You are stronger than me and recognized by our Divine Tree. If that is your will. I will abide by it." The centaur leader suddenly spoke.

"Centaur Leader. You-" The Elven Queen wants to retort him. The Centaur Leader only smiled at her.

"Teacher" Alex turned to his Teacher.

"You- if you die here. I will fight him to death" The dean still grumbling with himself.

Alex only smiled at him before turning to Elven Queen.

"Fine! Just remember, I will join again if you can't take it. Remember, you can treat me as your meat shield"

'Why did you say those misunderstanding words right now?' Alex scratched his cheek. "Thanks"

"Ho, you have said your goodbye with them? Do you think you can kill me with you alone? Even if you all fight me together you can't beat me"

"Haha" Alex laughed.

"Why are you laughing, you brat?"

"No, I just realize that you are dumb"

"I am dumb? You are courting death"

"That's right. You are dumb. Can't you even understand why I want to fight you alone? It's mean that I alone am enough to fight you. You dumbass"

"You Brat. I will kill you!"

Alex took out his another spear from his gacha inventory. Then he throws his sword to the ground.

"Haha, you want to fight me with only that spear? With the way, I see it you are only courting death. Though you suddenly pulled out something like that means you have a space element that startled me a bit. You will die today"

"Haha, no way I fight you with this spear alone" Alex took out another weapon from his inventory. A golden sword suddenly appeared in his hand. It brimmed with very powerful energy which all of the people present never see in their life. It was far stronger than any kind of sword they have seen. Alex clenched the sword tightly. 'As expected of Grandmaster rank Sword. It was really different'

"I see, so that sword is your confidence lie. But it was all useless. I will burn that sword to dust with my Fire"

"Is that so? Then how about I give you the reason why I alone am enough to deal with you" Alex smirker

"Hmph"

"Fire Phoenix Seed. Burst Out." The Fire Phoenix seed inside his body revolving like crazy before bursting out. The Pure Fire that suppressed in there spread out and even gushing out of Alex's body. The flame makes him look very majestic. That pure bright flame makes all the people present who had a fire element want to kneel in front of him. He was like a Fire Lord that governs over Fire. And finally, he said "PURE FIRE ON!"

He raised his sword in his right hand, he clenched his spear on his left hand. "Let's fight"
