Chapter 132 - Honeymoon

The next morning, Alex slowly opened his eyes. On his right, Alicia still sleeping while hugging him. On his left, Firia also the same. Yesterday is the happiest day of his life. He is delighted that Alicia and Firia are the ones who will be accompanying him for the rest of his life.

After kissing their foreheads, he slowly left the bed, afraid of waking them up. He went to the kitchen to prepare breakfast. Since he made the maids and the butlers rest for a while. He will be the one in charge of food. Well, since they are planning to leave this kingdom and traveling for their honeymoon. Alicia still has four months left. So, he planned to use all those four months to create many happy memories with them.

After he sealed Alicia. He already agreed with Firia to ascend first. There are a few reasons for that. After he ascended, Firia will also follow him in two or three years, judging from her current speed. And even though they can ascend together, they won't be in the same place. Since Maxwell will take her away and trained her and cure Alicia. It also isn't beneficial for him to delay his cultivation for another few years.

Alicia and Firia woke up at noon. He ate all of the breakfast and makes meals again. When they finished their food. There are guests in front of their mansion. Alex already sensed them. He went to meet them, Alicia and Firia also follow him.

The guests are the five leaders of the demihuman race, It seems they are going to go back today.

"We are going back today, Sir Alexander. Congratulation on your marriage" The Elven Queen said. The other leaders also congratulated him.

"If you are planning to go to Demihuman territories, please inform us. We will give you a tour there." Elven Queen

"Of course. I have planned to visit many places for my honeymoon, including your territories."

"Then, we will await your arrival."

"Oh, let me introduced them. They are Alicia and Firia" Alex introduced his wives to them. Now that they have become Alex's wives along with 'Last Night'. Their charm went even further. The Elven Queen lose to their beauty.

"Hello, My name is Alicia Van Rizertia."

"Hello, My name is Firia Merona."

Then he introduced the leaders one by one along with their wife, daughters, or granddaughters. And when he reached Ayaka. "This is Ayaka Saya. She can be considered as my kin."

"Kin?" Alicia and Firia were surprised. But they immediately understood his meaning. After all, they knew that Alex from another world.

On the contrary, the leaders were confused. They didn't know Alex was from another world. When they heard that Ayaka is Alex's kin. What kind of relationship they have?

"Ah, I haven't told you about it, right?" Alex noticed the confusion in their faces. "I came from another world. You know about the hero summoning, right?"

All of them nodded. Alex continued, "I am one of them. Though, I was dragged to this world and banished from there."

"What a fool." Titan leader

"Indeed" Centaur leader nodded in agreement

"They choose that worthless hero over Sir Alexander." The Elven Queen grumbled.

"I know the exact reason why they started the war." Dwarf leader said in a meaningful way

"Yes. Because they are idiots" Druid leader nodded his head.

"That's why please take care of her" Alex said

"Of course. In my territory, She won't be mistreated" Elven Queen assured him. After all, Ayaka currently lives with her daughter in Elves Territory.

"Thank you"

After chatting for a while more. Elven Queen and the rest finally went back home. Alex, Alicia, and Firia also went inside. Since this house is pretty confidential and not many people know about it. All the marriage gift was sent to Rizertia House and Merona House. They can enjoy another newlywed life in this house one more day. Before they set off for their honeymoon.

The next morning. Before they go, Grandduke, along with the others, visited them.

"Father, Mother. Even Uncle and Grandfather. Elder Sister Mia and Elder Sister Mea" Alicia looked at her family. Firia too, "Father, Mother."

They chatted for a while. Alex was grabbed by Alicia's father, Raymond and Firia's father, Marcus.

"Please, make our daughter happy" Both of them said at the same time, with a menacing tone.

Alex only smiled at them, "Rest assured, Fathers. I will make them happy for the rest of their life."

After making sure some other matters concerning their daughters. They finally released him. Since they are going to have a long honeymoon. They have planned to visit many places. And because this world didn't have planes or cars, they will fly from one place to another. Since the carriage was too slow to visit many places if they included the demihuman human territories.

In the night, they enjoyed the second night of newlywed life.

They finally prepared to go. They are planning to go to every town in the Acacia Kingdom, then move to the Holy Kingdom. They didn't want to go to Zircodina Kingdom since their situation is unstable at the moment. After that, they are planning to go to the demihuman territories. All of them brought some necessary equipment such as clothes, etc. Alex stored them in his Space Ring.

"Are you two ready?" Alex looked at his beautiful wives.

"Of course, Husband" They both answered at the same time.

Suddenly, Sherry come out too, "Wuu"

"Of course. Sherry too" Alicia and Firia replied.

Alex holds their waist, and finally, all of them disappeared.

Four months later.

They finally come back to the mansion.

In these four months, they have visited all the places they wanted to visit. A small village that has a big lake in the center of it. The lake stretches beautifully. They can feel the beauty of nature in the village. It is a very romantic spot and become one of the best places on their honeymoon. Blue water which make the heart tranquil and the green scenery while slowly paddling a small boat on the lake.

They also visited a mountain for hiking. Of course, Alex wasn't flying. He slowly ascended to the top of the mountain together with Alicia, Firia, and Sherry. Sherry was above Alex's head all the time, though. The green scenery and fresh air that comes to their nose and ease their hearts as they looked at the green landscape. On the top, Alex makes a campfire and build a big tent for them. Looking at the stars while lying on the ground together with your loved ones. Make the stars look even brighter. They even stayed for a week in this place. They wanted to try living without another person's existence. They make some small wooden houses here to commemorate they stay here.

Another best place for them is Savant Beach, the beach located in the border of Acacia Kingdom and Holy Kingdom. It was their first experience to see the sea, including Alex. Even though he had gone to the beach a few times in his childhood. This is the first time he saw the ocean in this world. Well, it was similar to the Sea back on earth, except some monster that occasionally spotted on the sea. When relaxing in the beach, Alex can't help but humming a few songs from Earth.

Alicia and Firia who was confused with the sound suddenly loved the tone within it. They asked Alex about that tone, Alex said it was a song. In this world, such a thing like a song still unknown to them. All people focus on getting stronger. So, when they heard the song that Alex hummed in his mouth. They asked Alex about it. Alex sang a song for the example. And that made them captivated by the beauty of the song. It made their honeymoon even greater. They sometimes ask Alex to sing a few songs, sometimes they also mimicked him and sang the songs by themselves. Fortunately, Alex had got a guitar and a piano along with their own respective manuals and were stored in the system. Because of the beauty of the manual, he can master the musical instruments at a fast speed. After trial and error, he made a few song scores. He played them with either Guitar and Piano, which made the song even more beautiful.

They visited the demihuman territories. In centaur territory. Alex was often asked to a brawl with the leader. Alicia and Firia also seems able to blend in with them. In Titan Territory, they were shocked when they saw a place full of giants. Especially when they ate. The food is bigger than their whole body. Of course, he and Sherry finished most of the food. Alex didn't have any problem since he is a Cultivator,

Alicia was only taking a small bite (According to the sizes of the titan) and full. Surprisingly, Firia also can eat half of the food. Well, it was to be expected since she also has treated in the path of the cultivator. And the last thing that surprised them is when they slept in a single bed together and They can even playing tag on the bed. Of course, the tag game become a  game later on.

After that, Alex and the rest visited the dwarf territory. They looked at the prowess of their smiths. They show off most of their high-rank weapons. While suggesting he brought one of them as a souvenir. But when Alex shows his SR sword. They immediately shut up and went away with their heads looked down. The Dwarf Leader often offering his daughter to him, resulting in Alicia and Firia tweaked his ears or pinched his cheek.

The last place is the Elven Territory and their most troublesome Elven Queen (Only for Alex, though). He checked a bit on Ayaka, it seems that she wasn't mistreated in here, so he was relieved. The past is the past, now she is one of his kin (From earth). The Elven Princess, Lilia, often sought troubles to him, which results in her to get reprimanded by the Elven Queen or get beaten by Sherry. The most troublesome is the Queen. She accompanies him wherever he goes. Of course, Alex didn't see her that way. The houses in the elven territory were treehouse. It was a fresh experience for them, including Alex.

They strolling to a few more places before, a week before the time to seal Alicia. Alicia seems to start exhausted her life force. She often gets tired quickly. So they decided to go home. They just relaxing in the house for the rest of the week. The rest of his Spirits also finally finished maxing their levels. Alex introduced them one by one to Alicia and Firia. They observed each of his spirits very closely. Especially when they saw Anna's beauty that was on par with them. But, because Anna was so shy and conservative, she didn't show anything in her expression. They just got the feeling this Anna was kind-hearted and seems to be going one of his...ahem.

Finally, Alicia's last day. Alex already felt her life force, and Alicia also already agreed to be sealed today. All of them gathered in the house. From Rizertia House, Merona House, and Royal Family.
