

Gacha 237

237 Summon

Alex didn't get anymore reply from the system. He sighed as he opened the Gacha. Luckily, the system didn't get locked. Alex used the 'Draw 5x' option.

He opened the box with five balls within it. Alex opened the first gacha ball.

[Summoning Ticket (SR) x5]

Alex was astonished to see the Summoning Ticket at the very first gacha. It was the one thing that he wanted the most. After all, he was going to use 'Summon 10+1'.

Looking at the ball, Sherry came toward him with a star on her eyes. "Wuu Wuu (Master, can I try?)"

Alex was not sure. He looked at her eyes. Alex pondered in his mind. 'Is it her instinct for the ball? No no no, she is a fox...'

Well, he had punished her a few moments ago. Alex let her try once. "Sure, just once."

"Wuu!" Sherry seemed to be happy with it. She imitated Alex when opening it. She placed her paw on the 'G' character on the ball. The ball opened, and Alex can see a card appeared from within. He had seen a card like this, twice to be exact.

Alex immediately took the card and looked at the drawing on the card. It was a spear. After taking it, he got a notification.

[Spear Mastery (UR) x1]

He was genuinely astonished. He can't help but mutter, "Is this the legendary beginner luck?"

He remembered the first time Anna opened a gacha ball. She got a Sword Mastery (UR) too. That's why he was wondering if this was the legendary beginner's luck. Alex immediately hugged Sherry.

"Sherry, you must be an angel. I am sorry to beat you just now. I will feed you as much as you want after we get back." Alex said while patting Sherry's head. Well, he surely can feed Sherry. When he got back to the sect, Song Yu must have exchanged it with Spirit Stones, which should be more than three million Spirit Stones.

"Wuu!" Of course. After hearing that, Sherry immediately filled with joy.

Alex then remembered that there was Leoz here. Leoz had yet to try the gacha ball. Alex thought that beginner luck might work like magic once again.

"Le-"When he wanted to call Leoz, the word stuck on his throat. He remembered that he also had a Summoning Ticket. He suddenly wanted to use his summoning first before opening the third gacha ball.

He opened the Summoning panel. He used the 'Summon 10+1'. As soon as he used that, eleven cards appeared in front of him.

[Salijan (SR) x1]

[Angrixon (R) x1]

[EXP Card (SR) x1]

[Sapas (UC) x1]

[EXP Card (R) x1]

[Nelson (UR) x1]

[Asan (C) x1]

[EXP Card (R) x1]

[Rafik (UC)]

[Fabio Donatelli (UR) x1]

Alex looked at the cards with his dumbfounded face. He was surely astonished to see that he got two UR once again in this summoning. Back when he got Anna and Leoz, he remembered that they came together too. Alex can't help but leap out of joy.

He was sure happy when he saw this. Anna and Leoz can imagine what kind of spirits he got. Anna came to him, smiling. "Young Master, who did you get?"

"I got two UR Spirits. One of them is Nelson. If I'm not wrong, he is the one who you recommended me back then, right?"

Anna was surprised too. He really came at the right time. When the situation got like this, Nelson saved the day with his very useful information. Leoz was happy with it too. After all, he didn't need to do any spy thing since they were so complicated. He was bothered by that this whole time. After all, his place was on the battlefield.

[Nelson (Dark)]

Level: 1/80 (No Cultivation)

Exp: 0/1000

HP: 600

ATK: 10

DEF: 2]

Alex immediately summoned Nelson. As it was the first summoning. The gate appeared in front of him. A male figure appeared from within the gate, walking toward Alex. He had long black hair that tied into a ponytail. He wore a blue shirt that got covered with a blue jacket. When Alex looked at his pants, he was familiar with that. It was jeans.

"Young Master." Nelson kneeled in one knee and greeted him without expression. He should be one of those guys, the quiet yet reliable guy.

Alex was dumbstruck when he saw that. He never thought that there were jeans out there. In this world, there were many types of clothes. From ancient Chinese clothes to European clothes as one would expect from another world that got connected with multiple lower worlds. Their culture had mixed up.

Alex wore a stylish blue T-shirt and long black cotton pants. He just wore clothes that were easy to move. Alex didn't really bother with the style as long as it was useful. Leoz only used a leather jacket and long cotton pants.

Anna was a bit to details, though. She wore a white colored shoulder tie up top with flower pattern and a black mini skirt with a single golden stripe at the bottom. She appeared gorgeous.

When Alex saw Nelson's stylish clothes, he felt something a bit off. After seeing Alex's troubled look, as expected of the spy, Nelson immediately understood Alex's thinking. "Young Master, I am not a ninja. So, please refrain from thinking like that. As a spy, I need to use many clothes for the sake of camouflage. It is not only for blending in the dark but also in the daylight."

"Cough." Alex opened his eyes wide when he heard that. He turned his head away, embarrassed. Yeah, Alex was thinking about that. Thinking about a person that used full black clothes from up to down, leaving only their eyes open.

"Ahem, I am glad you joined our rank at this period."

"Understood. I will investigate the Zhou Kingdom per Young Master's memory." Nelson said. He had basic information about Alex and his current situation. So he immediately knew what to do.

"Yes, I leave it to you." Alex nodded.

"Young Master. May I ask whether Young Master has summoned my subordinates?"

Alex furrowed his eyebrows. "Subordinates?"

"Yes, from the gacha summon just now. From your memory, you didn't manage to summon any of my subordinates. So, may I ask who else you have summoned this time?" Nelson asked.

Alex frowned. He didn't know that there was such a thing. Alex looked at the card. "I got Salijan, Angrixon, Sapas, Asan, Rafik, and another UR spirit."

Nelson shook his head. From his expression, Alex could know that Nelson's subordinate wasn't on that list. Nelson then said, "Then, I need to apologize to Young Master first."

"Apologize? For what?" Alex was bewildered when Nelson suddenly apologized to him. They just met after all.

Nelson said, "I can only cover the Zhou Kingdom for the time being. If I have two subordinates, I might be able to cover the whole continent."

Alex was dumbfounded when he heard that. What the f. He just thought about the information in the Zhou Kingdom. But, Nelson wanted to cover the whole continent? That was pretty insane. "Ahem, you can get the information about the Zhou Kingdom first since they are the one who is the most suspicious."

"Understood." Nelson nodded.

"By the way. Who are your subordinates?"

"I have a total of ten subordinates in the system. Three of them are classified as SR Spirit, and the rest are Rare ranked spirits. As for who they are... Young Master can immediately recognize them. All of their names start with N."

After hearing that, he immediately checked the summoning list. There were indeed three SR spirits and seven Rare ranked spirits inside the list. To be exact, they were the only one name that started with N. "I see."

Alex found something odd. Although he can't see their figure or something, he remembered that the SR Spirits was not a complete humanoid while the Rare spirits or below were basically a beast. Alex couldn't understand this.

"Young Master, please rest assured. I have trained them. As long as you don't mind their appearance, they are perfect subordinates. I have trained them personally." Nelson said after he saw Alex's perplexed expression. He then continued. "We are specialized in Information and Assassination. So, if Young Master wants to assassinate someone, please leave it to us, we won't disappoint you."

"En." Alex only nodded.

Seeing that their conversation was over. Anna came to him and asked. "Young Master, you said that you got another UR rank Spirits. Who is he/she?"

"I got Fabio Donatelli."

Upon hearing the name, Anna and Leoz were dumbstruck as their jaw dropped. Even Nelson, who had a poker face until now, showed an amused expression. Not long after that, Anna suddenly showed an expression of disgust. Leoz also followed suit. Nelson closed his eyes. He seemed didn't want to be bothered by it.

Alex obviously didn't understand their behavior. He was confused by their reaction. "Why? Is there something wrong with this person? Should I not summon him?"

"Well, he has the same element as you, a fire, a pretty strong one at that. His power is also top notch as he can rival Leoz in fighting power. He is also more reasonable and smarter than muscle brain Leoz." Anna said.

Alex showed a confused expression. From what he heard from Anna, this 'Fabio Donatelli' seemed to be a nice spirit. In fact, this kind of praise made Anna's, and the rest' expression became more puzzling. He asked, "Isn't he a nice guy?"

Leoz and Nelson immediately rolled their eyes. Anna didn't know how to explain. She tried to explain it to Alex. "Well, he is indeed a nice guy, but..."

"But..." Alex gulped down. He thought, 'Is there something wrong with this guy? Don't tell me he is gay?'

"Hmm, Young Master should be able to see another 'Donatelli' name in the summoning list." Anna said.

Alex opened the list once again. He saw there was indeed a UR spirit with Donatelli's name. The name appeared to be a female. Her name was Vera Donatelli. Alex then nodded at her. "Yes, her name is Vera Donatelli."

"Well, they are a married couple." Anna said.

"Isn't it good?" Alex tilted his head. At least he was not gay like what he thought.

"Argh... How do I explain this..." Anna became a bit frustrated. She looked at Leoz and Nelson, who immediately turned their head away. Anna sighed, "How about Young Master summon him first?"

Alex puzzled with their reaction. He took Fabio's card and said, "Summon."

A gate appeared once again as a handsome man appeared. He had long red fiery hair as his right eye was covered by his red hair. He wore a red shirt with a black jacket and long black pants. This guy seemed to be able to charm many women out there.

"Fabio Donatelli, greet your highness." He came in front of Alex and greeted him on his knees.

Alex nodded. "Yeah, nice to meet you. But please don't call me with Your Highness thing, you can just call me Young Master since it is more beneficial in our situation. And you can stand up."

Alex looked at Anna and the rest. He didn't find anything wrong with him. Fabio looked like a loyal and cool knight for him. Alex was wondering why they presented a disgusted expression on their face. His doubt would be answered soon as he heard what next.

"Yes, Young Master..." Fabio stood up and looked at Alex mysteriously.

Alex was perplexed with this. He started doubting it again whether Fabio was gay or not. But, considering he had married so it should be fine. "What is it?"

"...It is not like I really want to call you, Young Master, alright. It is just because of your order." Said Fabio while trying to look away, embarrassed.

Alex's eyes widened. Anna and the rest had this disgusted expression as they shuddered when they heard that. Anna immediately snapped, "That's it. This is why! According to Young Master's memory. This guy is an incurable Max Level tsundere."

Because she was frustrated, Anna spouted so many terms at once. Alex made a weird smile, "Well, isn't it fine. We won't be too bored if all of us have our own personality."

"He acts like this all the time. You will find it annoying after some time." Anna said.

"Well, it is not like we will be together the whole time." Alex said.

"Young Master, you remember about him having a wife, right?" Anna asked.

"Yes, I remember it." Alex nodded.

Anna then said, "His wife is..."
