

Gacha 324

324 Warning

There were ten females that were coming to challenge the undead. They did not come to actually clear it. According to rumor, the special realm was full of energy and just by cultivating inside, they would be able to breakthrough far faster than normal.

Letizia La Scola wanted to cultivate in this place. But she also had another thing in her mind. The rumor said that this realm would provide her with a boost in her Sword Intent. As long as they could enter and cultivate, they could improve dramatically.

This was also the reason why Charya even bothered to challenge this place.

"Senior Sister, should we really do this?" One of the girls asked.

"We will be swarmed by the undead."

"Just follow me. I have information from my mot- I mean from Sect Master. We should be fine for a while. At that time, we can improve our cultivation as much as possible." Letizia said.

"Fufu, I am afraid it will be impossible." Another voice was heard from another direction.

Letizia's group was alarmed, especially Letizia. They looked to the front and saw a female. The female was even prettier than Letizia that was said to be the number one beauty of the Willow Continent.

The female that appeared in front of them had black hair tied into a ponytail. She looked at them with a cold glint. They were surprised by her, especially her 5-Star Martial Lord cultivation.

But it was different for Letizia. She knew the person who was standing in front of them. It was one of the Martial Lords that was with Alex back then. She had been searching for him in Mount Hua Sect but to no avail.

She never knew Alex's identity because she never heard about him. But recently, she heard about Alexander Sirius' wanted poster that was posted in the Southern Kingdom.

She wanted to go there. But along the way, she also decided to come to this place since they were close. But the sudden appearance of Anna threw her off.

"Who are you?" One of the girls asked.

"Who I am is not important, but it will be impossible if you want to come to this place."

Letizia frowned.

"What did you say!" The girls were obviously offended by her.

"Stop!" Letizia immediately stopped her as she started checking their surroundings. It was like this too, when she was in Zwaka's place. She wanted to see if there was another person in this place.

"Senior Sister?" the girls were confused by Letizia's action.

"I am just warning you. I do not want to be overbearing, or anything but you should remember that I can kill all of you here." Anna said casually. Even though she said, she did not want to be overbearing, her tone alone was the opposite.

"What?"

"Senior Sister, she is just alone. Are we going to let her say something like this?"

"That's right. We should let her see our power. She may be a 5-Star Martial Lord, but we are ten people."

"Do you know we are from Rainbow Flower Sect!"

The girls were obviously angered by Anna. But only Letizia was sweating as she knew what would happen if they continued. But she did not sense anyone near.

But before she said anything, Alex and Fabio had arrived at the scene.

"I also thought you all should go back. Because the situation will be chaotic soon. I do not mind killing people, but I prefer to avoid unnecessary killing." Alex said casually. He only said that out of his goodwill.

After all, Letizia was only a stranger that he happened to meet once. That was all. Alex only killed his enemy, but those people said something like that to Anna and wanted to kill her. Alex did not mind if he should consider them as his enemies.

"You!" Letizia obviously recognized Alex. Since she had seen his face, Alex did not need to put his mask again.

"Senior Sister, we should-!"

"Stop!" Before anyone made any outrageous comment, Letizia stopped them.

"You are from Heavenly Sword Sect? not Mount Hua Sect?" Letizia asked while looking at Alex.

Alex looked at her in confusion.

"Senior Sister? Do you know them?" The girls were confused.

"Shut up, right now." Letizia only shouted at them.

"Do not tell me, Senior Sister, he is the one you are searching for?" One of the girls suddenly realized something absurd.

"!?" Alex immediately furrowed his eyebrows when he heard that. This was the first time he heard Letizia had been searching for him. He did not care for anything else except for her purpose.

"What do you mean by searching for me?" Alex said coldly.

"Do not you know how lucky you are? Our Senior Sister would even make an Alliance with Mount Hua Sect just for you. She even said that she wanted to marry you! How dare you hide from her... But to think you are only a Martial Grandmaster, it is a good thing that you hid!"

Anna's expression became cold while Alex only looked at them in confusion. He asked Fabio in a low voice, "I never heard something like this. But, this thing should become a big thing, and Nelson should be able to know about it. But why was I never informed about this?"

"I assume Nelson did not know that you were the aforementioned one. After all, we spirits would not receive a part of your memory if we did not come back to the card. And Nelson was the only one that was never recalled. So, since he did not know, he only holds the information himself unless you ask."

"..." Alex looked down, weighing something.

"Heh! You are ashamed now?" The girl continued to spout nonsense.

Alex only looked at Anna, who was trying hard to keep her anger. She was trying to hold herself back from killing them before Alex asked her to kill them.

And because Letizia never told them the full description of Alex, they did not have any clear picture. Alex only sighed. He said to Letizia without any expression, "You should stop her before it is too late."

She finally snapped from her daze. She was trying to comprehend his strength, so she forgot to stop the girl beside her. She recalled the terrifying one was Anna, and when she saw Anna's expression, she shuddered.

She slapped the mouth of the girl that did the talking just now and made an ice to seal her mouth.

"I apologize. We will leave this place." Letizia said something unbelievable to the others.

Alex took out Nelson's card. "Nelson, do you know something happened with Mount Hua Sect and Rainbow Flower Sect?"

"There has been a big movement from them recently. It was about their alliance. They said the only daughter of Rainbow Flower Sect had fallen in love with someone in Mount Hua Sect and wanted to marry him. But because she did not know his name, she was searching for him personally.

"The Mount Hua Sect immediately searched for who she had fallen in love with. Every young master in the sect was present when she was searching for him. Sadly, she didn't find the aforementioned person.

"It was a big deal back then. Because the so-called number one beauty in the continent was personally searching for someone. Do not tell me the aforementioned person was you?"

"Yes. It seems to be like that."

"I am sorry, I did not report you about this. I never knew about that person, and you were busy with the war, so I thought about keeping it for myself until I have more information." Nelson immediately apologized when he knew it was Alex.

"It is fine. You do not know it is me after all."

"Do you want me to do something, Young Master?"

"Nah, she is in front of me right now. I will solve this myself."

"Understood."

After he stored Nelson's card back, he sighed. "I never heard about something like that previously since I am a bit too busy. This is truly surprising to hear."

"So what is the deal about this? I am surprised to hear something like this." He looked at Letizia and said, "Marry me? Really?"

There was no expression in his face. All people in the continent might be overjoyed if the number one beauty in the continent wanted to marry them. But Alex only felt it was annoying.

"Let me explain..." Letizia said while gritting her teeth. If she was meeting him alone, it might be easier to solve this situation. But she was with another nine people.

"So, what is the purpose of that?" Alex said coldly. He never liked a relationship for benefit. After all, he had been betrayed by Sandra, who only became his girlfriend for benefit. Alicia never had any thought about that.

Firia might think like that at first, but they finally fell in love with each other, and that thought never came again. In fact, Firia never thought about that again after she fell in love with him. But it did not mean that Alex would accept her immediately.

They slowly built their relationship, and Alex finally accepted that she was in his heart. If one day he lost everything and could only give them nothing but love. He was sure that Alicia and Firia would still accept him.

As for Letizia in front of him, he could not picture that. Especially in this world where he needed strength to survive.

Letizia's approach was the combination of Firia and Alicia but only taking it from the bad part. She was forcing a marriage, but unlike Alex and Alicia, who decided to put that on hold, she did not care about that. If she was trying to make a relationship with him first like a friend or something, it might be acceptable, but she did not.

And from the look of it, she might want to sacrifice herself for the sake of benefit. She must know about his identity as an Array Master and Pure Fire along with Zwaka's inheritance, Alex would be a huge sheep that needed to prey upon.

Alex was only annoyed about this but had yet to consider her as an enemy. It would only make him be more careful around her.

"I... I..." Letizia did not know how to explain.

"Alex, what should we do?"

"Have them leave this place... They had yet to do something to us." Alex only shook his head. Even if she tried to do something like what she did to Mount Hua, he doubted Heavenly Sword Sect would consent.

They would ask him about it first before they gave their consent to that. After all, with the addition of Maxwell's array inside the sect, they would not be afraid of Rainbow Flower Sect.

\ "You-!" Of course, Letizia aside, when the others heard those words from the likes of Martial Grandmaster, they felt offended.

\ "Stop. We are leaving now!\ "

\ "But Senior Sis-!\ "

\ "No buts. We are going back to the sect.\ " Letizia was already sweating as Anna kept glaring at her. The others were confused but eventually nodded their head. But inside, they were flaming with anger.

On the other hand, Letizia knew that she could not fight with Alex because of the Heavenly Oath. It would be hard to explain to Alex. So, she decided to go back first, maybe visit him later in Heavenly Sword Sect. She had forgotten her intention in going inside the undead region.

Looking at their disappearing back, Anna asked, \ "Alex, are you sure we can let them go like this?\ "

\ "They are not our enemies. But still, Njomo, come out.\ "

\ "Woof!\ "

\ "Follow them. Make sure to report me if they want to do something funny.\ " Alex said coldly. Of course, Alex did not trust them, so he sent Njomo.

\ "Woof!\ "

At first, Alex wanted to punish them like robbing them if they kept trying to mock him or something. But luckily, Letizia stopped it from happening. Although Alex did not mind killing them, he did not want to make an unnecessary killing as it will go bad for his karma.

\ "Let's go back.\ "
