

Gacha 431

431 Kill!

"Leoz, go to that unit and obliterate them. I will prepare EXP cards for you." Alex said while pointing his finger to a certain unit, which numbered around five thousand. Although they numbered five thousand, Alex could see that the unit was pretty close to other units, so he was planning to obliterate them together.

Leoz nodded and went toward them. Meanwhile, Alex called his system. "System, use 500 Gacha Tickets, and use the summoning coins I get."

After getting all the 500 Gachas, Alex got around 83 Summoning coins in which he got twelve EXP cards. It was enough for Leoz to level up Leoz and made him use that Lightning God Cannon again.

On the other hand, Leoz was facing these many units. They were trying to attack him, but Leoz simply clasped his hands as ten lightning balls suddenly appeared in front of Leoz and formed a circle. They were connected by a lightning line.

The lightning circle suddenly got bigger and bigger until it made a hundred meters circle. In the center of the circle suddenly glowed brightly. Back when he was only a small Martial Lord, Leoz could only make a 30 meter one, but this time he could use a hundred meter one.

"Thunder God Cannon!"

The lightning shot out a laser beam. It destroyed everything in front of its way, killing thousands of soldiers. Because of the situation, Leoz decided to use his full power in this state since he would be able to use this move again after Alex raised his level with the EXP cards.

The after effect immediately startled not only the enemies but also the allies. They were shocked that Leoz just killed more than ten thousand people in a single attack.

Honda Sana thought she could kill ten thousand people with her Peak Martial King cultivation, but it would not be like Leoz since she did not have a big move like that. All of her deadly skills were a bit more toward a single opponent.

"What happened just now?"

"All the soldiers in here died just like that?"

"What exactly are our enemies?"

The people started panicking again even after their morale got revitalized a little bit. It was so sad when you wanted to get back up, but reality hit you hard once again. You would become depressed like these soldiers. They wanted to fight the enemies, but in their thoughts, they were thinking, 'Could they?'

Leoz immediately came back to Alex's side as his True Spirit Body disappeared. He looked a bit worn out at this point.

"I am sorry, Leoz. I really need to rely on you for this." Alex apologized as he took out two EXP cards. After killing a total of forty thousand soldiers, Leoz's EXP had raised quite a bit.

[Leoz (Thunder)]

Level: 47/80 (7-Star Martial King Stage)

Exp: 205398/380000]

Sadly, if not because of the power difference, Leoz might be able to level up. However, with this EXP, Alex only needed two EXP cards. And he could not level him up again since he already had a whole realm different from Alex.

[Leoz (Thunder)]

Level: 48/80 (8-Star Martial King Stage)

Exp: 25398/390000]

His energy started coming back. Leoz then said, "Young Master. I think you should make Jeanne do another one. She might even kill more than me."

"???" Alex looked at him, confused.

"Well, Jeanne has a big trump card, so I think it is a good time to use her power. Although I am not good with strategy, I think it will be good in the long run to create chaos in the enemy's back." Leoz explained.

"What kind of attack Jeanne uses?"

"This... Can Young Master open the roof a little bit?" Leoz asked.

"No." Alex shook his head. He then pointed at the translucent barrier wall. "I can only open the door."

Leoz sighed. "Jeanne's attack is from the sky. It should be able to obliterate more than fifteen thousand soldiers in one go and create massive chaos."

Alex looked at him for quite a while before saying, "Well, I can open a Spatial Gate to send the attack inside, but I can't do it from this distance."

"Then, I shall accompany you," Leoz said.

"..." Alex contemplated for a while before opening Jeanne's status.

[Jeanne (Thunder)]

Level: 46/80 (6-Star Martial King Stage)

Exp: 57865/370000]

Alex decided to do it as he took out two EXP cards and used it on Jeanne.

Jeanne was surprised that she got a surge of energy and finally noticed Alex raised her level.

"Change with Greg and come here," Alex said.

"Understood." Both Jeanne and Greg immediately changed place before Jeanne made her way toward Alex.

However, just before they were setting out, Alex stopped as he thought of something.

He immediately looked at the entire battlefield, trying to find someone.

On the right side, the disciples were getting a bit overwhelmed. So, Alex immediately took out Anna's card, "Go to our right and help them."

"Understood."

On the contrary, in the middle, they were overwhelming these soldiers because of Leoz and the others. As for the left side, it was in a standstill as Fabio and Vera focused on the Martial Lords, not giving them a chance to retaliate.

Just within one hour, Alex's group managed to kill fifty thousand soldiers, including the thirty thousand people he killed in the first round. The others managed to kill around twenty thousand soldiers while sustaining only two thousand casualties.

It was a good number considering they were outnumbered at the start. Of course, even though the enemies had five thousand Martial Lords, it was not like all of them were in the front. Some of them were in the back, waiting until they could go to the front.

He also found Charya in the process. She was using her Sword Rite and killed many people at a good rate. Of course, it could not be compared to his spirits.

Alex tried to search for an individual and finally saw her after two minutes of searching. It was Letizia.

Alex wanted her to use the Freezing Tornado or whatever. With her Pure Ice Element, it should be enough to kill one or two thousand people with that. Although he did not really want to use her, it was still better than seeing her restricting her full power. Letizia could not use her power because she was afraid she would injure the others around her, so Alex wanted to bring her along.

In the front, he doubted anyone from Rainbow Flower Sect or Heavenly Sword Sect could see him making a portal. As for Letizia, she would surely keep the secret.

"Wait for me here, I am going to bring one more person." Alex left, making the others confused.

Alex suddenly appeared behind Letizia, making her surprised. She instinctively swung her sword at him. Alex stopped it with his bare hand.

"Master!" Letizia froze. "I am sor-!"

Alex did not let her finish her words and just dragged her away. "Come with me."

"Kya-!"

"Master, what do you want me to do?" Letizia asked.

"Just follow my instruction later. It is time for you to release your full power since you can't use it when you are with them, afraid of injuring them, right?" Alex shrugged.

"Ah!" Letizia looked down, embarrassed.

After bringing her along with Leoz and Jeanne. They finally flew toward the enemy's back as Leoz kept killing all the people in their way. Alex specifically chose a place where the enemies concentrated.

"Found it." Alex pointed toward the place and looked at Jeanne. "That place. I don't know what kind of attack you will do, but don't worry about the barrier."

Jeanne looked at him and nodded. "Yes, I won't disappoint, Master."

She then clasped her hands and prayed. "Lightning Spirit Worship o' Spirit God. Use my body as the catalyst, so you may strike my enemy with your lightning. Lightning Dragon!"

Once again, lightning appeared out of nowhere and turned into a dragon. The lightning dragon struck forth, raising the hair on their hands.

"Look, what is that?"

"Lightning?"

"But, it is a dragon!"

"Prepare for an attack!"

Alex raised his hand and made a portal to send the dragon inside. The people tried to attack the dragon but were engulfed by it.

Before the dragon crashed to the ground, Leoz immediately went to the front and raised a thunder barrier, protecting Alex and Letizia.

"Boom!"

A massive explosion appeared, killing thousands of people. Letizia could only drop her jaw in shock. To think a move like this did exist, her Heaven Tier Martial Art looked very cute in front of this technique.

"What is that?"

"It made a huge explosion!"

"There is also a giant crater."

The people became pale as they were scared of this power. They never thought a power like this would exist. Of course, after using this, Jeanne had used almost all of her power, so she might not be able to join the fight afterward. Alex might be able to raise her level again. Still, Alex decided to hold onto the EXP cards and waited if the others needed it.

He also had an option to use all the tickets he got from this to get the EXP cards, but it would not be wise for him to do that. He wanted to use it when his mind was calm and could make a rational decision. It did not mean he could not make a rational decision here, but there might be another way to use the tickets after he calmed his mind.

Especially after seeing Jeanne's move. Alex was astonished by this. He never thought Jeanne had a big move like this. However, he could not afford to be surprised here.

"Letizia, you use that tornado again and wreck the rest before we escape from this place."

With that single call, Letizia nodded and swung her sword first. "Ice of Infinity."

She sent an overbearing Cold Energy and made a special 50x50 meters cold field. The ground and grasses were frozen, and the air filled with bone-chilling cold. It was a perfect time to use it. She waved her hands, and a tornado appeared out of nowhere.

"Heaven Freezing Tornado."

The tornado immediately froze many soldiers that were swallowed by it. On the contrary, Alex just spammed his firebirds together with Sherry and Kyle. They made quite a ruckus there, and when the soldiers started coming again, he decided to go back.

"Where is the enemy?"

"How many did they kill?"

"I need a damage report!"

"Not good. They have killed almost twenty thousand soldiers in that instant!"

Meanwhile, Jeanne made a smile on her face. "It is really satisfying to kill many of them just like that. My frustration even disappears after that."

"Your punishment still has not disappeared though." Alex reminded her.

"Uhh..." Her smile vanished, and she became depressed again. Leoz and Letizia only made a chuckle.

Alex then said to Letizia, "We need to change the people here. Have the second team come up and start changing from the right side. And make the people, who can move, to help the injured ones. We shall not let them die."

"Understood." Letizia nodded.

"We have killed around ninety thousand of them, so tell them we might not change the team again. So, have them help the injured people from the second team if they can still move."

"Yes, I will convey it to them." After getting his orders, Letizia immediately left. But before she left, Alex called her again.

"Letizia..." Alex called her name and said, "Thank you for helping me in this battle."

Letizia was surprised by those words. She did not know why, but it made her heart skip a beat. The energy inside her body also started coming back to her. She became a bit impatient to change the team and came back again to the battlefield. Later, she was killing the soldiers with a rate faster than ever, and no one knew why she could do that.
