Chapter 100 You asked us to put it down?

"Pika, Pikachu!"

Pikachu standing on Yu Feng's shoulder kept saying something as if he had found a backer.

From time to time, he pointed at the three members of Team Rocket on the opposite side with an angry expression, as if he was scolding something.

Under the pothole.

"Pikachu!"

When Xiaozhi heard Pikachu's cry, he didn't realize that something happened above, and tried to climb up using his hands and feet.

But unfortunately, Xiaozhi is still a human being after all, and can't climb walls and fly like Pokémon.

"Damn it, Xiaogang, Xiaoxia, Sundae, can't you think of a solution?"

Xiaozhi looked at the trap wall that seemed like a natural barrier and asked Xiaoxia and the others if they had any solution.

"You stepped on me, and I couldn't think of anything to do."

Xiaoxia's voice of complaint came from below Xiaozhi. How could he help her find a solution if he stepped on her like this? Fortunately, there was a Xiaogang underneath, otherwise she would have fallen and felt much more pain.

"That's what I mean, why don't you leave quickly!"

Yuto Seida also asked Xiaozhi to quickly remove his foot from her body, as stepping on a girl like this is really a bad thing.

Xiaogang didn't say anything, but his silence was deafening.

"Ah, okay, okay."

Xiaozhi then quickly moved his noble feet away from the three people.

Yu Feng at the side couldn't help but want to complain, what can you do, did you eat Pidgeot and Butterfree? At worst, don't you still have Bulbasaur? Xiaogang still has Onix on him, and you didn't even think of any of them.

"Stop talking nonsense, just stay there, we will take good care of your Pikachu when the time comes."

Although Pikachu has not been caught yet, it does not prevent Musashi from promising Xiaozhi that he will take good care of Pikachu after catching him.

After all, this is the good Pikachu that will get them promotion and salary increase.

"Stop talking nonsense, open fire and capture this big devil, meow!"

Meowth told them to stop talking nonsense and catching Pikachu was more important than anything else.

Upon hearing this, Kojiro did not hesitate any longer and gently pulled the trigger on the rocket launcher, shooting out a barrage of rubber balls in an attempt to catch Yu Feng and Pikachu in one fell swoop.

A flame shot out from behind Team Rocket, melting all the rubber balls moving slowly in the sky.

"what are you?"

This made Musashi and the others confused. Why would anyone come here at this time besides the little brat?

Turning around, they saw Charmander appearing behind them at some point, looking at them menacingly.

Yu Feng saw Charmander and nodded. The little tail that had followed them all the way was finally willing to come out. If it was any later, he would have been unable to resist the urge to attack Team Rocket.

"Hey!!"

Charmander was pointing at the three members of Team Rocket and seemed to be saying something. Fortunately, Meowth among them could understand what Charmander said.

"Is this guy ordering us to stop right now, meow?"

Meowth repeated Charmander's words to Musashi and the others with a surprised look on his face. This was the first time they were threatened by a Pokémon.

"What a cocky guy."

"Listen to me, I'm not afraid at all of being threatened by a little thing like you."

Musashi thought that Charmander was a little arrogant for daring to threaten their Team Rocket, while Kojiro was more direct. In their eyes, Charmander, who was about the same size as Meowth, was not a threat. They only wanted to catch Pikachu.

It's not because the rubber ball will be melted by the flame that we ignore it.

"Meow, if you have the ability, just give it a try!"

Meow Meow was even more direct. He beckoned with his finger and asked Charmander to try. Would they be afraid of a Charmander?

(Charmander: I've never heard such a strange request.)

After hearing what Meowth said, Charmander closed his eyes and his body trembled continuously, as if he was enduring something.

Team Rocket's curiosity somehow got them so strong that they ignored Yu Feng and ran over to observe what Charmander was doing.

"rua!"

It seemed as if Charmander couldn't help itself, and it sprayed out a thick jet of flame that directly enveloped Musashi and Kojiro.

After a long time, Charmander stopped spraying flames and looked angrily at the three members of Team Rocket who were burned black and turned into flashes in front of him.

The three men put down their rocket launchers in silence, jumped over the trap and fled away from Yu Feng.

"How despicable! How can someone suddenly spit out flames?"

"I hate that stinky little Charmander so much!"

"He's so strong it's a mess, meow!"

"What a disgusting feeling!!!"

The three of them ran away screaming.

"Charmander is very strong?"

Daisuke, who was not paying attention while speaking, was not sure what he was doing in the bushes, and looked at the trio running away with a questioning look on his face.

"Come on, come up."

Yu Feng used his superpowers to pull the four of them up together.

The few people who were pulled up breathed in deep breaths as if they had finally seen fresh air.

"Charmander, are you here specially to save us?"

Xiaogang looked at Charmander who came to save them with emotion. It seemed that their good intentions were not in vain after all.

"Charmander, why don't you just come with us? He won't come no matter how long we wait."

Xiaozhi invited Charmander again. They knew very well that Daisuke had abandoned Charmander, and Charmander would not come if he waited any longer. Instead of that, it would be better for him to go with them.

"Hey, it's you. I heard you've become stronger."

Dayou's annoying voice suddenly came from the side.

"What are you doing coming back at this time?"

Yuto Seidai, who was just saved by Charmander, now doesn't have a very good feeling about Daisuke. He actually abandoned such a cute Pokémon.

"Of course I came to pick him up as I agreed."

Dayou was so shameless that he said in the face of five people's murderous gazes that he was here to pick up Charmander. Anyone with a discerning eye knew why he came out at this time.

Charmander looked at Daisuke, then looked at Satoshi and Brock who had helped him. In fact, he probably realized that he was abandoned by Daisuke.

After all, if he really wanted to take me back, he should have come to pick me up last night.

"Anyway, I am the first person to tame it."

Daisuke said proudly with his hands on his hips, after all, Charmander is his Pokémon.

"But you said you threw him into the mountains."

Xiaozhi was very angry when he heard Daisuke's shameless remarks. He was clearly the one who abandoned him, but now he had the audacity to come to him and ask for Charmander to go back.

"That's because I thought he was weak. It's only natural to throw away a Pokémon with poor strength."

"Although I didn't want to pick him up at all, but it seems that he has made great progress. This will save me the trouble of training him."
