

Gardevoir 102

Chapter 102: King of Water 8!

"The goal is to become the world's best Pokémon trainer. For Xiaozhi now, that dream is gradually becoming a goal."

Yu Feng started narrating again for some reason. When Yuto Seidai heard Yu Feng reading the narration, he knew that something was bound to happen.

After all, every time he starts reading the narration, something will happen. It is not clear whether it is good or bad, but there is definitely nothing wrong with following him. Thinking of this, Yuto Seidai silently hid beside Yu Feng.

Yu Feng took a look and said nothing, knowing that they could still be saved if they hid behind him, unlike those people over there who had not yet reacted.

"Don't praise me like that. I'll be embarrassed."

Xiaozhi turned his head foolishly and thanked Yu Feng for the compliment.

Silly child, was I praising you?

"But can things go on like this? Isn't there a trap somewhere?"

Yu Feng couldn't help but sigh as he looked at Xiaozhi who was smiling foolishly at him and not paying attention to the road ahead, as well as Xiaoxia and Xiaogang who continued to follow Xiaozhi.

"Eh?"

Xiaozhi suddenly found his feet stuck in the ground, and he looked at his feet with a puzzled look on his face.

Misty, Brock, and Pikachu, who caught up from behind, also came over to watch Ash sinking into the ground. After all, it was really rare for someone to sink into the ground.

Yu Feng saw that he had explained it clearly enough, but Xiaogang and Xiaoxia who still gathered around to watch prayed silently for them.

Sure enough, as Xiaozhi tried to pull his feet out of the ground, the already unstable trap collapsed directly, and Xiaozhi and his companions fell into the trap in an instant.

"As expected, the trap appears."

There was a hint of smile in Yu Feng's tone as he brought Yuto Seidai to look at Xiaozhi and others in the pit from above the trap.

Inside the trap.

"Damn it hurts!"

Xiaozhi closed his eyes and rubbed his head which was hit. He really didn't expect to fall into the trap again.

"It looks like a trap, but it's in the middle of the road."

Xiaoxia stood up and looked around. As expected, they stepped into the trap again. Why do I say again? It can't be that they stepped into too many traps recently, hahahahahahaha...

"Xiao Feng, stop laughing and pull us up quickly."

Xiaogang was speechless when he saw Yu Feng trying to hold back his laughter and Yuto Seidai sticking his head out and laughing foolishly. He could have helped them in advance but ended up watching them fall. It was such a bad taste.

"Jenny! Jenny!"

Suddenly, five blue lights wearing sunglasses appeared from the side... Squirtle. Satoshi and the other two who were laughing on the ground with Yu Feng. The leader, Squirtle, who was wearing triangular sunglasses, patted Yu Feng on the shoulder.

He proudly introduced the traps he had dug to this strange fellow, to see how powerful he was and how many humans he had trapped. As for the humans around this fellow, if he didn't trap any of them, then so be it.

With a smile on his face, Yu Feng not only nodded in acknowledgment, but also pointed to the bottom of the trap and signaled the Squirtle Boss to look down.

The Squirtle boss stroked his bald head and glanced at the trap, only to see Xiaozhi crawling upwards angrily.

Then he called on his brothers to retreat to the back, giving Xiaozhi and the others some standing space.

"If you go too far, I will never forgive you."

Xiaozhi finally climbed up and glared at the five water turtles in front of him. There was no one else nearby, and looking at the smiles of the water turtles in front of him, and seeing that they rushed over to laugh at him as soon as the accident happened, it was obvious that they were the ones who dug the trap.

Facing the ridicule of the Squirtles, Xiaozhi came to the ground, opened the Pokédex, and recorded some information about Squirtle. He felt a little excited, because this was the Pokémon he wanted most, Squirtle.

(Charmander, Bulbasaur: I feel like I've heard this before.)

Excitedly commanding Pikachu to move forward, ready to capture Squirtle.

For some reason, Pikachu actually listened to Ash today and walked up to the Squirtle boss and fired a 100,000 volt attack.

"Jenny! (I can't do it anymore.)"

Seeing this, a younger brother pushed the boss away and blocked Pikachu's 100,000 volts by himself, then fell to the ground powerlessly.

"Pika! (What do you want?)"

"Jenny, Johnny! (Want to fight?)"

"Pi! (Who's afraid of who?)"

"That's what they said."

Yu Feng looked at the confrontation between Pikachu and Squirtle on the field, and explained to Satoshi and the others who were looking at him curiously what the two of them were talking about.

Seeing that the atmosphere between the two Pokémon, the Rat and the Turtle, was becoming more and more tense, with even intense sparks filling the air, even Xiaozhi and the others began to get nervous.

When the sirens sounded, the Squirtle boss looked up and realized that something was wrong. He fled from this dangerous place with his little Squirtle brother who had just helped him block the skill.

"What? These guys."

Xiaozhi looked at the Squirtles running away, confused. What was going on? He ran over to laugh at them and then ran away.

"squeak--!"

The sound of a motorcycle braking suddenly sounded behind them, and when they turned around, it was a Miss Junsha.

"Are you guys injured? Are you okay?"

Although these people in front of me had no scars on their bodies, I still had to question them according to convention.

At this time, Miss Junsha seemed to have noticed something. She looked at Yu Feng excitedly and said, "You must be the boy my cousins were talking about. It's a pity that you look like a girl."

"Miss Junsha!"

Xiaozhi saw Miss Junsha's excited face. He didn't expect to meet an acquaintance in such a far place, so he couldn't wait to say hello to Miss Junsha.

"How do you know my name?"

Miss Junsha was very confused about Xiaozhi knowing her name. She seemed to have forgotten that everyone in all regions was called Junsha.

"Didn't you forget that we met in Viridian City?"

Xiaozhi was still very happy and worry-free, and he seemed to have forgotten what Junsha from Cerulean City had said.

"Oh!"

Junsha also remembered why Xiaozhi knew her name, so she put down the side support, stepped out of the car and continued, "The person you saw is my cousin."

"cousin?"

Xiaozhi's brain began to calculate frantically, and he vaguely remembered that someone seemed to have said something similar to him.

"Yes, all my cousins are policewomen, and we all look very similar."

As she said this, Junsha took out a photo of her cousins from her pocket. If she hadn't explained in advance that they were cousins, people would have almost thought they were identical clones.

(Yu Feng: As we all know, only Pokémon can have many members who look very similar, so Junsha and Joey...)

"So they're a police family!"

Xiaozhi's frantic brain finally stopped, but everyone could vaguely smell something burning.