Chapter 111: The so-called running to the mountain and dying

"In an unknown place, at an unknown place and at an unknown time, Xiaozhi's five friends and Pikachu got lost again!"

Yu Feng looked at the surroundings and couldn't help complaining that he had never been so lost before. He was obviously a Psychic-type Pokémon but he was always lost. If his mother and the others knew about this, they would probably laugh to death.

"I must capture a Pokémon with my own hands!"

For some unknown reason, Xiaozhi suddenly shouted that he wanted to capture a Pokémon with his own hands, but any normal person would know that capturing a Pokémon by oneself is a fantasy.

Afterwards, Xiaozhi broke away from the team and couldn't be stopped. He rushed into the distance like a bull.

"Really? He's still so reckless even now?"

Yuto Seidai didn't know how to complain about Satoshi who rushed out rashly. After traveling for so long, didn't he realize that it was very dangerous to run out alone?

Although she complained, Yuto Seidai's body was still honest and she chased after Xiaozhi who was running away with Yu Feng and the others.

I don't know if Xiaozhi was sprinting or something, but they finally caught up with Xiaozhi, who was looking doubtful about his life, at the beach.

"what are you doing?"

Looking at the somewhat frantic Xiaozhi, although Xiaoxia was already used to Xiaozhi's easily startled personality, she was still very curious about why he had this reaction.

After all, even if he is startled, Xiaozhi is still a rather simple-minded person. No, rather straightforward? No, he is rather reckless anyway!

"My Poké Ball is gone!!"

Xiaozhi looked at the people following him with tears in his eyes. The giant crab he had just captured disappeared before his eyes, and he didn't even know where the giant crab had gone. How could he not be sad?

"Hey, you really don't know? Pokémon training and holding up to six Pokémon at the same time, didn't Xiao Feng disappear when he captured Squirtle?"

When Misty heard this question, she became speechless instantly. Although it was not the first time she asked the question, she really seemed to know what exactly Xiaozhi relied on to challenge the gym. He didn't know a lot of basic knowledge at all.

And didn't Xiao Feng's Poké Ball disappear right in front of him when he captured Squirtle last time? Did he forget everything so quickly?

"Really? I don't remember."

Xiaozhi scratched his head and laughed. He knew very well that he would not pay attention to these problems.

But he recalled the previous encounter and asked in a strange way: "But didn't Xiao Ming and Dayou, who we met last time, take a bunch of Poké Balls?"

Yes, he was scared by the dozens of Poké Balls that Daisuke was about to throw out for the battle. Fortunately, Charmander burned them all with fire.

"That's because they don't have an illustrated guide. Only a few people who are valued by the local doctor will be given an illustrated guide."

Yu Feng solved Xiaozhi's doubts. The illustrated book was definitely not something that ordinary people could obtain. Without some connections or the doctor's attention, who could get such an illustrated book? As for why Miss Junsha and Miss Joey knew how to use the illustrated book.

If something like this is to be allowed to pass, the police station and the Pokémon Center must be informed immediately. Otherwise, if Miss Junsha and Miss Joy don't recognize it, it will be difficult to move forward.

"I see! But I still don't know where my giant crab has gone!"

Seeing Xiaozhi pounding his fist to show that he already knew what was going on, Yu Feng was worried whether Xiaozhi really understood it. After all, Xiaozhi had to start over every time he arrived in a new area.

But then Xiaozhi raised a new question, which was where his giant crab had gone. After all, this was his original question.

"So what did you understand? Of course you were teleported to the professor who sent you the Pokémon, that is, Professor Oak."

Seeing Xiaozhi pretending to know everything, Yu Feng was worried sick. He couldn't let him pack all the knowledge into Xiaozhi's head, because that would make him even more stupid.

"But Professor Oak... I'm worried. I'm extremely uneasy!"

Xiaozhi thought of Professor Oak's cool operation of cooking instant noodles in a beaker, and suddenly a feeling of powerlessness came over him. This really made him worried about his Crab.

Yu Feng sensed Xiaozhi's uneasiness and his face twitched. You are the only one who is worried about what Professor Oak will do? Professor Oak's reputation is valid in all alliances. Are you still worried that your stunted giant crab will be eaten by others?

"Pica, Pica!"

Just then, Pikachu called out to everyone to look into the distance as if he had discovered something.

Everyone looked in the direction Pikachu was going and saw a lighthouse standing on a cliff in the distance.

The presence of a lighthouse means that there are people living nearby, and if there are people living nearby, it means there is a phone to contact Professor Oak.

Being inhabited also means that you can sleep in a comfortable bed instead of on the cold, hard ground.

The fact that there are people living here means that they know what this place is.

Having people living here means you can have a good meal!!

Although everyone had different ideas, their goals were surprisingly consistent, which was to get closer to the shining lighthouse in the distance.

But, what's the saying? If you run too fast, you'll die!

Although they looked very close to the lighthouse from the beach, they actually had to wait until night to reach it.

"It's so far!!!"

When they arrived in front of the lighthouse, Xiaozhi was already exhausted. He didn't expect that they would run until night even though the distance was not far.

"Instead of complaining, why not say hello to them first?"

Yu Feng marveled at the Pokémon relief on the lighthouse gate. He had to say that Professor Zhenghui was really wealthy, although he was still a little inferior to Professor Oak.

Then the doorbell rang. The heavy bell suddenly rang, startling Xiaozhi and the other three so much that they huddled together. Yu Feng glanced at them speechlessly. Could a mere doorbell scare them so much?

"Who is it?"

A breathy voice came from the doorbell, and he was curious about who would come to his place so late.

Yu Feng informed the owner of the lighthouse of their purpose, after all, they were disturbing others.

"Can you cook?"

The voice on the doorbell was silent for a moment, then made a request.

"Yes, I will make the most delicious egg fried rice for you. Of course, we have prepared a Chinese iron pan."

When talking about food, Xiaogang immediately became excited. As long as they could go in and rest, he promised the owner of the lighthouse that he could make the most delicious fried rice.

"I don't want fried rice, can you make fried noodles?"

The owner of the lighthouse does not play by the rules. He will only let them in if they specifically ask for fried noodles.

"Yes! Pancakes, fried noodles, barbecue, etc. are all fine."

When it comes to eating, Xiao Gang currently has nothing he can't do, except admitting that he can't compare to Ai Guanshi who has always taken care of Yu Feng.

"I do like pie. Well, please come in."

The lighthouse owner thought for a while and agreed to let Xiaozhi and the others in. After all, it would be nice to have someone to cook.
