Chapter 118 Are you worthy of it with your strength?

"After saying goodbye to Dr. Masaaki, and after getting lost again and again! We finally arrived at Vermilion City."

Yu Feng didn't care at all about Xiaozhi and the others' moist eyes, and talked about what had happened recently.

After saying goodbye to Dr. Zhenghui, who was unwilling to be a human, and the giant Dragonite that relied on Dr. Zhenghui to help find its own kind, they walked for a long time and finally got out of the lost way and arrived at the city of Dead Leaf.

Except for Yu Feng, the faces and clothes of the remaining people were covered with dust, and they looked very disheveled.

"Great! Great! Great!"

Satoshi, Brock, Misty, and Yuto Seidai raised their hands and cheered as they finally arrived in a decent city, not caring at all about the stupid looks from the people around them.

What do they know? They were lost for weeks before they finally found Vermilion Leaf City. If they weren't more excited, how could they feel this hard-earned happiness?

"We really want to take a shower!"

Xiaoxia didn't know when her relationship with Yuto Seidai became better. The two of them were face to face, hands tightly clasped, looking at the entrance of Vermilion City with stars in their eyes.

I don't know what sin they have committed. Even if they have a good sense of direction, they can still get lost when traveling with Xiaozhi. Look, even Yu Feng, a person with super powers, got lost, although he might be enjoying it?

But they hadn't had access to water for at least a dozen days, and couldn't take a shower or wash clothes. Even Yuto Seidai, who always loved beauty, had become dirty.

"I want to do some laundry, too."

For someone like Xiaogang who takes care of others with the highest standards, not having washed clothes for so long is really killing him. The smell is bad, but it is so uncomfortable to see those light-colored clothes covered with dust.

Xiaozhi wiped his nose and prepared to challenge the Vermilion Leaf Gym. After all, for him, challenging a gym was much more meaningful than doing laundry. Clothes can be washed at any time but a gym cannot be challenged at any time.

Just when Xiaozhi was confidently preparing to challenge the Vermilion Leaf Gym, four hands reached out from behind at the same time and grabbed Xiaozhi's collar to stop him from challenging the gym in a fit of rage.

"What are you doing?"

Xiaozhi was very confused as to why his travel companions stopped him from challenging the gym. It would be fine if it was others, but why did Xiaofeng, who also wanted to challenge a gym, stop him? Could it be that Xiaofeng wanted to challenge the gym before him and then show off in front of him?

Glancing at Xiaozhi who was about to perform face-changing, Yu Feng knew without even using mind-reading that he was definitely not thinking of anything good. He didn't say much but just pointed his finger downwards to signal Xiaozhi to look before saying anything else.

Looking in the direction of Yu Feng's finger, Xiaozhi saw Pikachu lying on the ground with his tongue sticking out and looking listless.

"He's very hungry. He hasn't had anything good to eat for two or three days."

Xiaogang was a little helpless. They had been lost for too long and there was nothing delicious to eat. Even with Xiaofeng's loving butler who kept bringing back food, it was still not enough.

After all, it was impossible for her alone to bring back enough food for five people and at least a dozen Pokémon. That was not a realistic thing to do.

"Really, Pikachu you are too lackluster. You won't lose a duel to being hungry."

Ash condemned Pikachu's cowardly behavior, but it would have been better if his stomach hadn't growled.

It seemed like Xiaozhi felt the ambiguous gazes of the crowd, but being thick-skinned, he just scratched his head and changed his mind about challenging the gym directly, and turned to go to the Pokémon Center to eat something first.

After the citizens covered their noses and told them how to get to the Pokémon Center in Vermilion City, they soon arrived at the Pokémon Center that looked like a crab with a mouth.

Holding back his complaints about the builders' aesthetic taste, Yu Feng followed them into the crab's mouth...the Pokémon Center.

After placing all the Poké Balls on the trays prepared in advance, several people took the trays to the front desk to register their information.

"please."

After handing his tray to Miss Joy in order, Xiaozhi sincerely asked Miss Joy to heal his Pokémon.

Of course, apart from the fact that they were staring at Miss Joy, it was another Miss Joy who looked the same.

"Ah? You're not trying to say that my sisters and I look alike."

Looking at their expressions, Joey knew what they were thinking. They must be very surprised by her appearance.

"I am the cousin of the one from Nibi City and the cousin of the one from Viridian City, but don't you think I am the prettiest one among them?"

Miss Joy had a great liking for Xiaozhi and others who had met her other sisters, and began to chatter endlessly about her own good points. Of course, it would be even better if she didn't look at Yu Feng.

"Cheer up, you will be saved, little Rattata!!"

An anxious voice interrupted their conversation, and Jigglypuff pushed a black little Rattata past them.

Next to Rattata, his trainer looked much smaller than Ash, and was trying hard to call out to his Pokémon.

"Hey, this is the fifteenth one this month."

Looking at the expressions of Xiaozhi and the others, Miss Joy knew what they were going to ask. It looked like they were going to challenge the gym, and she also had to go there for treatment, so she simply took them to the ward to take a look.

When he walked into the ward, Xiaozhi was shocked to see that the beds were full of Pokémon wrapped in bandages.

Caterpillar, Grasshopper, Sandshrew, and the newly arrived Rattata were all lying on the hospital beds with miserable faces.

"Everyone was defeated by Ma Zhishi from the Dead Leaf Gym. He didn't hold back when he attacked."

Looking at the Pokémon lying in the ward in front of her, Miss Joy felt very uncomfortable. Although she had seen this kind of thing many times, Ma Zhishi's ruthless attack still made them feel very uncomfortable.

"Is he... is he that powerful?"

Xiaozhi saw the miserable states of the Pokémon in front of him and some of them even stuttered when speaking. He was so excited to challenge the Withered Leaf Gym in the beginning. If he really went there, Pikachu would probably be in a miserable state too, right?

"Tsk, I think Ma Zhishi didn't hit me too lightly."

Yu Feng looked at the trainer and Pokémon in front of him with contempt in his tone.

"What are you talking about! Apologize to us now!"

Yu Feng did not deliberately speak in a low voice, so his voice could be heard by all the trainers present. Yu Feng had really angered everyone, and everyone glared at him, wanting him to apologize to them.

"Apologize? Do you deserve it? With your strength, do you have the nerve to challenge the gym?"
